A MATTER OF PROCEDURE

Main topic of the week has been the dog-fight which has developed between the Minister for Agriculture, Mr. C. J. Haughey, and the N.F.A. because of the Minister's refusal to meet the deputation after the farmers' massed protest march in Dublin. The farmers have been slowly unfolding their campaign plan and readers will have details of this from the daily papers over the past few days.

Here in Waterford the main protest voiced by the elected representatives of the farmers against the Minister's action came at the monthly meeting of the County Committee of Agriculture last Friday. Two very significant things emerged from that meeting. The fact that the protests were voiced from all sides of the house and the fact that a resolution calling for the resignation of the Minister was not put to the meeting by the Chairman in the ordinary democratic way.

We have heard time and again here in Waterford from our public representatives on the County Council (a number of whom wholly comprise the Committee of Agriculture) that party politics do not enter their deliberations. I accept that the action of the NFA is not a political one. They were forced into taking their stand because of genuine grievances. The fact that a number of members of the Minister's own party on the Committee saw fit to deplore his lack of courtesy in not meeting the deputation shows that these men, all of whom come from rural areas, believe that the farmers have a genuine case to make. This being so, the attitude of he Chairman of the Committee in refusing at first to accept the motion must be condemned as undemocratic and his subsequent handling of the matter must be accepted as nothing less than adroit political sidestepping.

The Chairman's reaction to the motion at once made a political issue of the matter and it was evident that he was intent on shielding the Minister even by undemocratic means from being embarrassed by a committee of publicly elected representatives in Waterford. Even if the Chairman has his sights aimed at the highest political targets I think as Chairman of the body principally concerned with agricultural affairs in the county he was in duty bound to accept the motion and so allow the members to decide the issue by majority vote. That he did not do so is a reflection on democratic procedure and it is a pity that in his apparent anxiety to keep his political copy book unblotted he allowed his usual good judgement where his fellow councillors are concerned to become clouded.

If is not as a political issue that I raise this matter but rather in the interests of true democracy and freedom of speech. I am not concerned if certain members of the Committee who voiced their disapproval of the Minister's action during the discussion find themselves on the mat with the local branches of their party as a result as that is an internal affair. But when a matter of important public interest comes up for open discussion, I think that any efforts to stifle such discussion for political or other motives is to be deplored.

I trust at the same time that as the time this column goes to print commonsense will have prevailed in the issue between the Minister and the farmers. Courtesy, as I pointed out in this column a couple of weeks ago, can never be reckoned as a losing bet. At the same time every responsible person will accept that gunboat diplomacy cannot be tolerated so that it is to be hoped reason will also prevail on the farmers' side in any moves made to settle the dispute.

PAROCHIAL HISTORY

I was interested to note from the Parochial History of Waterford and Lismore, published in 1912, that the succession of Pastors in the Parish of Abbeyside lists the Very Rev. John Roche, as P.P. there in 1801. He is the only Fr. Roche appearing in the list until the present revered and beloved Pastor of the same name who was appointed to the Parish in 1943.

The history giving details of the Parish of Abbeyside, Ballinroad and Garranbane, states: "The ecclesiastical division so named is really composed of three ancient parishes, or rather of one ancient parish and portions of two others. The whole parish included in Clonea (in two parts) and the two part parishes are Dungarvan and Kilgobinet. Clonea is not named at all in the list of parishes having pastors in 1704 the year of registration of Irish Clergy, and it is, we believe the only parish of the diocese so omitted. From the omission, we are, presumably, to conclude that it was attended from Dungarvan. At what period the portion of Dungarvan (the Abbey or east side of the town) was united to Clonea there is no evidence to show, but the Garranbane portion of Kilgobinet was added in 1802."

The history continues: "Garranbane church was built in 1804. It is cruciform in plan. Ballinroad church, also cruciform, was erected in 1804. Abbeyside church, a plain rectangle in plan, was built in 1832-4. Improvements were carried out in 1892 by Mr Denis Creedon, Fermoy, after designs by Mr Ashlin, architect. These consisted of Gothic ceilings in the church and vestry, etc.

"The population of the parish in 1894 was 2,007 of whom 1,963 were Catholics ..... The Patron of Abbeyside is St. Augustine, whose feast is celebrated here with solemnity on 28th August. The Patron of Garranbane is St. Vincent de Paul, in whose honour there are special devotions on his festival day, 19th July.

"Graveyards: In Ecclesiastical Antiquities in the parish the history states "In Abbeyside are the ruins of an Augustinian Priory whence the place derives its name. Adjacent to the monastic ruins is the ruined castle which belonged to the Magraths, and along with some adjacent land was given by them to the Friars. This Priory was founded in the 13th century by Donald Magrath it was patronised by the Earls of Desmond, and endowed partly by the Magraths and partly by the O'Briens of Comeragh.

"Within the present parish are three more than ordinarily interesting old cemeteries, Abbeyside, Clonea and Kilmin. (Mr. Fingleton's Church) there are also interesting church remains at Abbeyside and Clonea, besides sites of early Celtic churches at Kilmeaden (with ogham inscriptions) Kilmeen (Colmin's Church) and Knockyonlahan. On the townland of Gurteen is a remarkable holy well, marked "St. Gehan's Well," on the ordnance map. This is very interesting. The real name is Tobar Dhia Iomme ar Friday Well. This is situated at the bottom of a lawn adjoining Glendhu House. The well was formerly in high repute and even still "rounds" are sometimes made especially on Fridays and Sundays."

The succession of pastors listed for the Parish also includes: The names of Rev. Michael Keating (1820); Rev. Michael O'Brien (1828); Rev. Patrick O'Donnell (1830); Rev. John Sinnathan (1853); Rev. Thomas O'Meara (1860); Rev. Mcc. O'Gorman (1861); Rev. Michael O'Donnell (1868); Rev. Michael Maxey (1878); Rev. Thos. Hannigan (1881); Rev. Richard Dunphy (1892); Rev. Pierce Coffey (1895); Rev. John Power (1898); Rev. William Queally (1898); Rev. Patrick Walsh (1900); and Rev. Patrick Byrne. The list ends there, but since Fr. Byrne's time in the present there have been Canon Crotty and Canon Dunphy who was the immediate predecessor to the present Parish Priest.

KEVIN BARRY

In the last months of 1920 the struggle which had been knit for Ireland's freedom was entering its most intense phase. Irish soldiers fought without the rights of belligerents and when caught were treated not as prisoners of war but as criminals.

On November 1, 1920, one of those soldiers was to go to the scaffold. He was a young 18 year-old student of University College, Dublin, who had joined the Volunteers and had been captured after taking part in an ambush. He was sentenced to death but his death inspired the people to greater endurance and his name lives lovingly in that great song which is our ballad choice for this week -

In Mountjoy Jail, one Monday morning,
High upon the gallows tree,
Kevin Barry gave his young life,
For the cause of liberty,
But a lad of eighteen summers,
Yet no one can deny,
As he walked to death that morning
He proudly held his head on high.

Why not shoot me like a soldier,
Do not hang me like a dog,
For I fought for the old Ireland
On that bright September morn.

All round that little bakery
Where we fought them hand to hand,
Why not shoot me like a soldier,
For I fought to free Ireland.

Just before he faced the hangman,
In his dreary prison cell,
British soldiers tortured Barry,
Just because he would not tell
The names of his brave companions,
And other things they wished to know.
"Turn informer or we'll kill you!"
Kevin Barry answered "No!"

Calmly standing to attention,
While he bade his last farewell,
To his broken hearted mother
Whose sad grief no one can tell,
For the cause he proudly cherished,
This sad parting had to be -
Then to death walked, softly smiling,
That old Ireland might be free.

Another martyr for old Ireland,
Another murder for the crown,
Whose brutal laws may kill the Irish,
But can't keep their spirit down.
Lads like Barry are no cowards,
From the toe they will not fly,
Lads like Barry will free Ireland,
For her sake they'll live and die.

Tributes To Dr. Healy, Lismore

The outstanding service rendered to the people of Lismore and district for over forty years by Dr. Daniel Healy who has recently retired, was referred to at the monthly meeting of the Waterford Health Authority in Dungarvan last Monday.

Mr. Norman Walsh, Vice Chairman, who presided at the meeting, said that it was only right that they should express publicly their appreciation of the services which Dr. Healy had given over the period both as dispensary doctor for the district and as M.O. of the Lismore District Hospital.

Mr Walsh said that although Dr Healy's name had come before them on a number of occasions for increases which were refused he never at any time took umbrage. He wished him a long and happy retirement after his long years of service to the public.

Mr. C. Curran, who associated himself with Mr. Walsh's remarks, said that Dr. Healy was always a perfect gentleman in every respect.

Mr. T. Lannen, Mr. M. Morrissey and other members present joined in the tributes.

COUNTY MANAGER TO EXAMINE AMBULANCE SERVICES

Mr. C. A. O'Connor, County Manager, told members of the Waterford Health Authority at their monthly meeting in Dungarvan last Monday that he was going to examine the present ambulance service in the county to see what improvement could be made.

The matter arose on a proposal by Mr. Norman Walsh, who presided at the meeting, to have an ambulance stationed either in Cappoquin or Lismore to service West Waterford. Mr Walsh said that there had been a fatal accident about a mile from Cappoquin recently and they had to wait the best part of an hour for an ambulance to take the remains to Dungarvan. He felt there was a crying need for an ambulance either in Lismore or Cappoquin and the doctors in the area had raised the point with him.

Mr. T. Lannen said that while he was not opposing Mr Walsh's proposal he felt it would not be feasible to have ambulances stationed everywhere.

Mr J. Quirke supported Mr Walsh and said that he knew patients in the West had to wait long periods for an ambulance and because of the delay they had to go to the expense at times of hiring cars. It would be cheaper to have an ambulance either in Lismore or Cappoquin.

FIVE AMBULANCES

Mr J. Hynes, Secretary, said at present the Health Authority had five ambulances, two of which were in Dungarvan in service the area from Kilmacthomas to the Western boundary of the county and three in Ardfinnan to service East Waterford. The records showed that in a one year period there had been eight emergency calls to Dungarvan, four for accidents and four other cases. In addition to their own five vehicles an arrangement existed whereby an ambulance from Youghal could be called to accidents in the Ardmore and Clashmore districts and one from Fermoy to emergencies in the Tallow and Ballyduff areas if an ambulance was not available in Dungarvan.

Mr. Walsh said that if an ambulance was stationed either in Lismore or Cappoquin a driver could be provided locally.

The County Manager said that one of the difficulties which existed was that apart from the strict ambulance work, ambulances were also used at present for transporting patients to clinics. If this could be dealt with it might be possible to have a more effective service for actual ambulance duty from their existing equipment. He proposed to have the problem examined from this angle and he told the members he would have a report on his findings for next meeting. It was decided to adjourn the entire matter until then.

New Parish Priests Appointed In Latest Diocesan Changes

The Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, Most Rev. Michael Russell, D.D., has made the following diocesan appointments:

Very Rev. Michael Gurry, Ballyporeen, to be P.P. Lismore and Ballysaggart and Vicar Forane of the Lismore Deanery.

Very Rev. John Murphy, Carrickbeg, to be P.P. Ballyporeen.

Rev. Michael Farrell (Jnr.) Kilgobinet, to be C.C. Carrickbeg and Windgap.

Rev. Patrick Cooney, to be C.C., Kilgobinet, Colligan and Kilbrien.

COUNCILLOR'S CALL FOR TELEPHONE INVESTIGATION

Mr J. Quirke called for an investigation of a telephone call made from Ballyduff on October 19 on the occasion of a sudden death in the Ballysaggart area at last Monday's meeting of the Health Authority in Dungarvan. He said that there was no public telephone available in Ballysaggart and at about 12 o'clock the people concerned decided to go to Ballyduff to phone for a priest from the kiosk but found they could not get through. They tried the Garda Barracks without success also and they went to the doctor's residence but when the call was made from there it got through at once.

The Secretary, Mr. J. A. Hynes took details of the complaint and stated that he would have it investigated.

CENTRAL HEATING INSTALLATION AT COUNTY HOME

Long Overdue Says Member

The raising of a loan of £20,000 to cover the cost of installing a central heating system at the County Home was approved at the monthly meeting of the Health Authority in Dungarvan last Monday.

Mr. J. Fahey, T.D., said that last Spring storage heaters had been installed there at a cost of £300 or £400 although he thought it was a most peculiar time to do that.

Mr. J. Hynes, Secretary, said he did not think any storage heaters had been installed there since Christmas 1964. Some of those used had been taken from other hospitals and could be seen again the others could go to dispensaries, so there would be no waste.

Mr. M. Galgey said that oil heaters had also been put into the County Home.

Secretary. They have been in the dinginroom there for the past 10 years.

Mr Galgey said that all this was due to the delay in getting a boiler for the central heating. He thought the Manager should go out there and see all the stuff that had been got and then rind out. It was very bad business.

Mr. Lannen said that from what he knew there was something rotten underneath where the purchase of the boiler was concerned. It was proposed to buy a boiler in Kerry somewhere but when Mr. Galgey and himself wanted to go out to inspect it to see if they were getting value they were told that the boiler was gone.

Mr. Galgey. The idea of spending £1,000 on an old boiler seemed ridiculous to me and that's why I decided to go and see it.

The Secretary said that the cost of the new boiler would be £5,000, the cost of housing it £1,000 and the rest of the £10,000 would be spent on pipes and radiators. It was proposed to do a temporary job only as the County Home was to be reconstructed and a different type of radiator would then be used.

Mr Galgey said that £5,000 seemed to be a lot of money for a boiler.

Mr. Lannen. If an ordinary individual had to do that job he would get it done a lot cheaper. The ratepayers are getting damn bad value for their money but we can get the money easy. I'm completely dissatisfied with the prices given here.

The Manager told Mr. Cahill that the loan would be fully paid by the Department and it would not cost the ratepayers one penny.

Mr. Lannen. That money has to be found too. It doesn't grow on gooseberry bushes, you know!

Mr. W. Power who proposed that the loan be raised said that the installation of the heating system at the Co. Home was long overdue. Eighty per cent. of the nursing care of old people depended on heat and they had been shivering with the cold there for years.

Mr. J. Power seconded the proposal which was passed unanimously.

CANNOT READ

Mr. W. Kennedy, T.D., raised the matter of the installation of bedside lamps at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, and was told by the Secretary that a contract for the job had been placed but the contractor had not turned up to complete the documents.

Mr. Lannen said that at present there was only one light in the centre of each ward and it only blinded patients.

Mr. J. Fahey, T.D., said that a scheme of redecoration at the hospital was being held up because of the delay in installing the new lights. It was now over 22 months since anything was done and he thought this was unsatisfactory. It was unfair to the patients also. He said that they had complained about the elaborate job put up by the Engineer and he thought then and still did that it could be done more simply.

Mr. T. Gallagher said that if the contractor failed to complete the contract they should cancel it altogether and get someone else.

Mr N. Walsh, who presided, said that the Manager had this in mind.

Manager. That is so.

Many of the old customs in Ireland are dying out but in the Ring Gaeltacht, the practice of visiting the houses on "Oiche Shamhna" (the last day of October) is very much alive. The young boys and girls, disguised in colourful costumes go from house to house and recite verses like the one given above and the "woman of the house" rewards them with apples, barm brack and money. The youthful bards give advance warning of their arrival by long shrill notes on a cow's horn and the custom is sometimes referred to as "Amach leis an Adhaire" (Out with the Horn).

This year, on next Monday night, the newly-formed branch of Conradh na Gaeilge in Ring, will entertain the boys and girls at a Siamsa in the local C.Y.M.S. which will be attended by many traditional singers and musicians. Nicolas Tobin, the well-known traditional singer from Ring, who is a member of the branch, will be helping to make this Oiche Shamhna a memorable one, but, it is said, that the "pooka" will always come on that night and destroy the remaining blackberries.

Labaras O Murchu Conradh na Gaeilge organiser will visit Cappach Chuinn on Friday, November 4th, to speak at the Annual General Meeting of the local branch at McLoughlin's Hotel, 8 p.m. sharp.

This meeting is open to the public and anyone interested in forwarding the language and culture are cordially invited to attend. There is room for more young people in An Conradh especially for those who have some knowledge of the language and who can take part in the various cultural activities which the branch will be sponsoring during the winter and spring months. We expect to see all the old members present and many more to recommence the good work that has been going on for many years in Cappach Chuinn. Do not forget the meeting date, Friday, 4th November, at McLoughlin's Hotel.

Club Roundup It is good to see the activity at present prevailing at the Boat House. Improvement work is being pressed ahead. Ladies' cloak rooms and powder rooms are at present under construction and will shortly be completed. A new emergency exit from the ballroom has been finished and there are plans for new gents' cloak rooms. To speed the task of all these works the club will hold a jumble sale at the club on Sunday, December 11th. Tickets will shortly be on sale for a grand draw which will take place at the Boathouse at the club dance on the same night.

The situation does not unfortunately seem to be as happy at the C.Y.M.S. The club re-opened some weeks ago for the winter season but has now closed again. This is a pity as it fills a vital part in the life of the youth of the district as an indoor recreation centre. Let us hope for better things.

Coursing There will be two days coursing at Cappoquin this season. On Wednesday, December 7th Youghal Coursing Club will stage its Annual Coursing Meeting at Cappoquin grounds by kind permission of the local club and with the approval of the I.C.C. The programme will include an Oaks Trial Stake. Youghal will also hold trials on the ground and the Cappoquin Club will commence trials on Sunday December 4th.

There was a notable treble by Cappoquin owners at Youghal on Tuesday night of last week. Successful were John owners Sonny Cahill and Michael Cahill, Paddy Morrissey and John O'Donnell.

Association For Mentally Retarded All sub-committees were well represented at a general meeting of St. John's Association of Parents and Friends of Mentally Handicapped Children held at St. Anne's School, Mr. King, solicitor, Dungarvan was present to advise the meeting. There was a prolonged and constructive discussion on the problems to be faced and a unanimous decision on a course of action was reached. A statement will be issued to the press as soon as possible.

Obituaries

Very Rev. P. J. Veale P.P.

Sincere regret was occasioned in Dungarvan by the news of the unexpected death in Longford on October 6 of Very Rev. Patrick J. Veale, P.P., St. Mary's, Horwich, Bolton, Lancs.

The late Fr. Veale was born at Clonea, Dungarvan, seventy-two years ago and was educated at the C.B.S. Dungarvan and Mount Melleray Seminary before entering St. John's College, Waterford where he examined his theological studies in 1933. Six years later he was ordained at All Hallows College, Dublin for the diocese of Salford.

Fr. Veale's first appointment was as Curate at St. Joseph's, Blackburn and he also ministered in Burnley where he was appointed P.P. in 1938 before being transferred to St. Mary's in 1946 where he continued his pastoral duties up to the time of his death.

He was a kind, gentle man who won the respect and love of everyone. He was deeply interested in education and served on the Lancashire Education Board at Bolton for many years. He was also a keen historian.

The remains were removed to Garranbane Church, Abbeyside, where they were received by Very Rev. P. Farrell, P.P., Stradbally with whom were Very Rev. P. Flavin, P.P., Old Parish, Rev. D. Byrne, C.C., Dungarvan, Very Rev. T. Butler, O.S.A., Rector, St. Augustine's, College, Dungarvan, Rev. Fr. Grainer, O.S.A. and Rev. P. Queally, C.C., Lismore.

Venerable Archdeacon Power, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan, presided at the Requiem Mass celebrated in Garranbane Church by Rev. M. Walsh, C.C., Abbeyside and other clergy present included Rev. T. Cleary, Cassidy, Professed, St. John's College, Waterford; Rev. James Canon Harte, P.P., Cahir; Very Rev. J. Power, representing the Bishop of Salford; Very Rev. P. Farrell, P.P., Stradbally; Very Rev. P. Fitzgerald, Vice-President, St. John's College; Fr. D. O'Byrne, C.C., Dungarvan; Fr. W. Power, C.C., do.; Fr. M. Farrell, C.C., Kilgobbin; Rev. James Lawn, C.C., St. Mary's, Clonmel and Professors and students of St. John's College, Rev. Walter Walsh, Rev. Eamonn O'Callaghan, Rev. Brian Murphy and Rev. Patrick Masterson.

The funeral took place immediately afterwards in the presence of another large and representative gathering.

The immediate chief mourners are Michael Veale, Carrigmorna, brother; Mrs. M. Connors, Duraleigh, Kilmacthomas and Mrs. J. Hughes, Kilkenny, sisters.

Dr. John H. Flynn

The death has occurred at his residence, Dillerest, Drumshanbo, Co. Leitrim, of Dr. John H. Flynn, a well-known local medical practitioner. He was 71. He was educated at St. Patrick's College, Cavan, and U.C.G., where he qualified in 1918. He practised in Shrewsbury, England, and Flint, Wales, and later established an extensive practice in Leitrim and the adjoining counties. He was local medical officer to C.I.E., the Dept. of Posts and Telegraphs, the New Ireland Assurance Co., the Irish Life Assurance Co., and many industries in the county.

He was father of Mr. Niall Flynn of Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan and is also survived by his wife, Mrs. M. B. Flynn, and two other sons, Dr. K. Flynn, Nuneaton, England, and Mr. Desmond Flynn, London, to all of whom deep and sincere sympathy is extended.

Priory House Case To Come Up Again

Mr. C. Curran raised the old controversial question of Priory House, Dungarvan, at last Monday's meeting of the Waterford Health Authority. It had been decided two years ago, he said, to seek the Minister's permission to dispose of the building but nothing had since been done. "I," said Mr. Curran, "want this request repeated to the Minister again now."

Mr. C. A. O'Connor, County Manager said that he would have an up-to-date report on the position for the next meeting of the Authority.

DUNGARVAN GOLF CLUB

The attention of readers is drawn to the change in date for the Annual Dinner and Dance. The dinner will now be held on Wednesday, 16th November, at Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan, commencing at 8.30, and will be followed on the same night by the Annual Dress Dance at the Clubhouse, Ballinacourty. Full details appear in the advertising columns in this issue. Early booking is advisable.

The Turkey Competition last Sunday was won by Dr. C. P. O Connell (5) with a score of 68 net.

Another Turkey Competition will be held next Sunday, 18 h.s.

G.A.A. NOTES

ARDMORE FAVOURITES FOR M.F. COUNTY FINAL

Quiet Day In West On Sunday

By Commentator

NEXT SUNDAY

At the time of writing there is some uncertainty about what games will be played in the West on Sunday and the only matches that we can write about are the minor football and county final between Western and Ballyduff. Western's last remaining championship game is not due to be played until the following Sunday, so it looks as if it is going to be a quiet day at home on Sunday for most Western folk who will not be travelling East anyway.

The only game which is fixed that we know of for the West is the Ballinacourty versus Kilrossanny junior football Winter League game and many of the local supporters will try to find entertainment in that clash.

The postponed game versus Kilkenny will probably be played on November 27th but no date is mentioned for the game against Carlow which was also postponed at the request of Carlow. Our football league match against Wexford stands for November 13th.

MINOR FOOTBAL FINAL

Ardmore, champions of the West for the second year in succession represent the Division in the minor final at Tramore and even though they have been kept two months waiting since they were crowned Western final they are regarded as favourites to take the title from the Eastern champions, Kevin Barrys, who were awarded the title after they had objected to Gaoiliter who had defeated them.

In such circumstances, Ardmore will need to treat this game with caution and remember what happened last year when they were beaten by Mount Sion who came here as outsiders. I saw Ardmore in their Western matches and like many others I regarded them as an unbeatable combination in this grade but this was months ago and because of the many engagements of their other teams they have not been able to prepare as much as they normally would so I will not be too surprised if they fail to pull it off on Sunday against a side which includes Leahan and one of the players who are on the Kill senior side. If they play to their best form, of course, and reproduce the kind of football that they played in the West, there should be every reason to expect that they will take the fourth underage title to the West this year.

In O'Donnell, Rooney, Connolly, Norris, Murphy, Troy, Murray, Hennessy, O'Reilly, Pender, Linnane, O'Brien, etc., etc., they have footballers, who are equal no to the best in this grade and if Kevin Barry's have a better selection than this, they will deserve their title. Personally I do not believe that the Eastern champions are that well supplied.

Hundreds of Western hurling fans will travel to Dunhill on Sunday to see the eagerly awaited clash between Ballygunner and Ballyduff Portlaw in the senior hurling semi-final and while Ballygunner also failed to win against Abbeyside two games will be played in the West. There are many who expect Tom Cheasty's team to get back into the championship and earned themselves a third meeting with Ballygunner. How some it would be now if the Gaiters were beaten. I do not expect that they will be beaten even though the opposition includes such county players as Cheasty, now in brilliant form, Kirwan, O'Brien and Jack Walsh, and if the favourites play as confidently and as well as they did against Abbeyside, I will be amazed if they are denied a second successive title in the county final.

CO. S.H. FINAL

With the County Senior Hurling championship now coming to an end there is some speculation about the venue for the final and as yet nothing is definite except the date November 13th.

All hurling finals are due to be played in Western venues this year, but when two Eastern teams are engaged in the final and if there is mutual agreement the final according to bye-laws can be played in the East. If there is not agreement between the competing sides, then the final must be played in the West. According to fairly reliable reports there won't be agreement to Tramore or Dunhill which are the only available venues in the East at the moment so this means that after all we are likely to have the senior hurling final between Mount Sion and the winners of next Sunday's match at Dungarvan on November 13th.

The next meeting of the County Board is not due to be held until November 14th, so I am sure that a get-together of the officers and the clubs concerned will be arranged to fix the venue.

LAST SUNDAY

Abbeyside, who were rank outsiders in the junior hurling championship, created their second major shock of the season on Sunday last when they took their second Western title of the season by inflicting a fairly decisive defeat on the Stradbally team in last Sunday's junior hurling final at Dungarvan.

With the result of this game out and dried many people thought it would not be a very worth looking at, so only a comparatively small crowd turned up and when it was discovered that it had been fought out in the same spirited way as the under 21 final, many people regretted that they had missed another thriller.

Stradbally seemed to justify their role as favourites when they scored three times without reply, but in the second quarter Abbeyside produced a great effort and were only two points down at the interval after facing wind and sun in the first half.

Two quick goals after the interval set the winners on the road to victory and the first title in this grade in sixteen years.

EASTERN FINAL

In the East on Sunday last Passage and Kill played a draw and refused to play extra time in their junior hurling final and since the replay has not been fixed for next Sunday as we had expected, the county final between the winners and Abbeyside will not go on as arranged on November 13th at Dungarvan. This replay is now going to create quite a problem as Kill will have to play the S.F. county final on 6th November, and four of their players will be assisting the county against Wexford in football on November 13.

ARDMORE WIN I.H. TITLE

Ardmore whom many people regarded as slight favourites won their first intermediate hurling title on Sunday last when by 3 points to 0 points they defeated Shanrakea in a game that did not at any stage satisfy the expectations of the big crowd which attended the Cappoquin venue. I saw the last twenty minutes of the game and if this was a sample of what had gone before, then the junior final at Dungarvan gave much better value to the onlookers. The fact that no goal was scored over the hour may be a tribute to the fine goalkeeping of both keepers, but nevertheless it left the game without an ingredient necessary to rouse the contest to life. The closeness of the exchanges and the keenness of the teams as well as the softness of the underfoot conditions, all helped in keeping the game from breaking into the thriller that was expected. Up to the very last moment it was anyone's game and when John Power, playing a great game for Shanrocks, broke through in the dying seconds, I thought the Abbeyside goal was certain, but only a point resulted and this can be won November 20th. Ardmore, who just about deserved their win over the hour, winners by two points.

Ardmore will now represent us in two county finals in the coming weeks and while some people are inclined to believe that to them a football title would feel more glorious or more glamorous, I am sure that they will leave no stone unturned in training and preparing hard for their hurling battle with Dunhill at Dungarvan on November 20th. Ardmore can win this title and all the West are hoping that they will.

* * * *

GERALDINES AGAIN

Following up their five points victory over Ardmore on the previous Sunday, Geraldines continued on their winning way at Cappoquin on last Sunday when they scored a two points victory over Ballyduff in the Divisional decider. This was a very entertaining game and provided a first-class curtain-raiser to the hurling final. The closeness of the scoring indicates the closeness of the game.

Geraldines have now qualified for the final in which they will meet the Nire, and knowing the football ability and spirit of the respective sides, we can confidently predict a thriller when they meet in the decider.

TALLOW ARE CHAMPIONS

Sunday, October 23rd, will certainly go down in history as a day to remember for Tallow, as on Sunday last their juvenile football team, who had graced the Western Championship with several great displays, took the county title in magnificent style from the Eastern champions Mount Sion. This was Tallow's first football title and one which they richly deserved. Playing stylish football, they were sound in defence, and showed splendid fielding and catching was a treat to watch. Twice during the game they were led and the sides finished even at half-time. Then in the second half their midfield and forwards combined in a great effort and fought back like worthy champions to uphold both the honour of their club and the Western Division. For Tallow it was also a real honour to be the first winners of the magnificent trophy presented to the County Board by the Waterfordmen's Association in America, to honour the men of 1916.

Tallow's first step in making such a great come back to prominence in the Gaelic world was the acquisition of their splendid playing field which they worked so hard to obtain, and I am quite sure that their next step will be to consolidate their reputation by taking at least one of the underage hurling titles next year. Well done Tallow and the best of good luck to you.

* * * * *

THREE TITLES

With four of our clever county championships now decided, the West have won three minor hurling (Dungarvan), under 21 hurling Abbeyside, and juvenile football (Tallow), and the odd one out juvenile hurling, is with Mount Sion.

I believe that we are good for at least three more, but I will not say which three, because there may be four or five now that the Western resurgence is beginning to make itself felt.

BALLYDUFF NOTES

Late Mother M. Columbanus

The death has taken place at the Brigidine Convent, Goresbridge, Co. Kilkenny, of Mother M. Columbanus, formerly Helena O'Mahony. She was a native of Ballyduff, and was professed in Tullow 44 years ago. She went to Goresbridge in 1932 and was in charge of the secondary school up to 1956 when she retired from teaching.

Graigue I.C.A. The above Guild held their monthly meeting on Tuesday October 11th and was very well attended. Miss O'Leary from a Cork cosmetics firm attended and gave a vote of thanks to Miss care and make-up. This was followed by a delightful tea served by the three hostesses, appointed at the previous meeting and also a social half-hour. Before the meeting concluded Miss Mary Shanahan proposed a vote of thanks to Miss O'Leary and was seconded by Mrs. Flynn. The night's competition was won by Miss Mary Shanahan.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday November 8th.

News of the Town & Round About

KINGSHIP OF CHRIST

The Feast of the Kingship of Christ will be observed with special Expositions in all the Churches on Sunday next.

ECUMENICAL SPIRIT

The new atmosphere of ecumenism was fully observed at the rededication ceremonies at St. Mary's Church of Ireland Parish Church, on last Friday night when the crowded congregation, of over 300 included a big number of Catholic Clergy and laity from the town. His Grace Most Rev D. Simms, Protestant Archbishop of Dublin, preached in Irish and English, and Rt. Rev Dr C de Pauley, Bishop of Cashel, Emly, Waterford and Lismore, with Rev. Dr. Clarke, Rector, and a large number of Protestant Clergy conducted the special service.

The attendance included Rev. W. Power, C.C., representing Venerable Archdeacon Power, P.P., V.F., Very Rev. Dr. Madden, O.S.A., Prior St. Augustine's, Rev. Bro. Hegarty, Superior C.B.S., and Nuns from the Presentation and Mercy Convents; Mr. T. A. Kyne, T.D., Chairman and members of Dungarvan U.D.C., Mr. P. Doyle, Town Clerk, M. C. A. O'Connor, County Manager, Mr. J. G. Dowling, County Secretary, Micéal Ó Domhnaill, Boinis Leor Cohaiste na Rinne, etc., etc.

DUNGARVAN BRASS BAND COLLECTION

Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band will hold the Annual Collection in Dungarvan and district on Friday and Saturday November 4th and 5th. The expenses incurred by the band are high and the public are asked to subscribe as generously as possible.

STRIKE

A lightning strike by eleven hitters at the Dungarvan Co-Op. Creamery last Monday was called off after a couple of hours. The hitters took strike action at 10.30 a.m. when they claimed an unqualified man was put doing hitter's work and they put pickets at both entrances to the creamery. After the coffee break the remainder of the employees refused to pass the picket lines and following negotiations with the Creamery Management the strike was called off and work was resumed.

SYMPATHY

We extend our sincere sympathy to Mrs. J. Feeney, St. Patrick's Terrace, Abbeyside, on the death of her brother Mr. Thomas Fagan, building contractor, Carrick-on-Suir, which sad event occurred after a very brief illness. Deceased was a prominent member of the Waterford National Graves Association and the National Memorial Committee. He was predeceased him some months ago.

FACTORY OPENING POSTPONED

To avoid any possible embarrassing situation that might arise from the present dispute between the Minister for Agriculture and the NFA it was decided at a committee meeting of the Waterford Co. Operative Society held in the Granville Hotel, Dungarvan, on Tuesday night to postpone indefinitely the official opening of the Society's new £400,000 Cheese Factory at Kilmeaden which was to be performed next Monday by Mr Haughey. Amongst those attended County NFA Executive Committee meeting was held similar policy in another room at the hotel and there was liaison between the meetings. After word Mr John Barry, Chairman NFA Executive told the Dungarvan Leader that the NFA would have taken certain action had the opening gone ahead as originally planned.

He also said that full support had been pledged at the meeting by the members of Dublin Dáil plans for a similar hunting ban as operated in Meath had been approved and that when volunteers were called for special duties in Dublin on November 9 the quota expected from the county 40 was volunteered from one club alone not to mention the other clubs which volunteered. A further County Executive meeting was planned for next Thursday night when further plans of action would be discussed.

A special vote of thanks and congratulations was passed to the following team of marchers from the county: Mr. Ken Purcell (Leader), Messrs. Richard Phelan, Martie Whittle, Jimmy Power, Davy McGrath, Jackie Butler, Alex Heskin, Michael Kiely, John Carroll, Michael O'Connor, Dan Leahy, Jack Dunford and Donal Kenneally.

DEATH OF ALD. T. LYNCH, T.D.

It is with regret that we record the death of Ald. Thaddeus Lynch, T.D., Lower Grange, Waterford, which has occurred after a protracted illness at Ardkeen Hospital. He was aged 65 and had been Fine Gael T.D. for the Constituency since 1954.

He is survived by his wife Mrs. Catherine (née Ryan), his Mate and Cornelius, and a daughter Mrs. Gertie (Lane).

Tributes to the memory of the late Ald. Lynch were paid in the Dáil on Tuesday by the Taoiseach and members of the Dáil.

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Kitty Kiely, S.H.M., Mr. A. Keevick, Mrs. P. Stephen New York, Mrs N. O'Shea, Jack (Abbeyside) and Dick Mr. Grath (Dungarvan) and Tom McGrath, New York on the regretted death of their sister Miss Lily McGrath, which occurred recently in New York. Ardmore And District Notes

A.G.M. Kinsalebeg branch of Macra na Feirme held their annual general meeting on Monday last and there was a capacity attendance.

The outgoing chairman, Dan Leahy, addressed the meeting and welcomed the members especially the new members who turned up in large numbers.

The outgoing treasurer's report Austin Flavin indicated that since the last A.G.M. the branch is in a sound financial position.

The secretary, Liam Byrne gave an account of the various activities of the club and stated they came second in the County Public Speaking Competition.

The following officers were elected: Very Rev. Canon Power P.P. President; Rev Fr. Tobin C.C. Vice-President; James Troy Chairman Austin Flavin Vice-Chairman, Miss Mary Murphy Hon Secretary, Tom Leahy Hon. Treasurer. Delegates to the County Executive Austin Flavin, James Troy and Brendan Fitzgerald.

The meeting dealt with some important business such as public speaking and debates but deferred the selection of teams until a later date.

Wedding The wedding took place recently with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing at Ardmore Parish Church between Mr. James Dee, Kilgobinet and Miss Madge Foley, Monea Ardmore.

The bride who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Foley, Monea was attended by her sister Mrs. Teresa Troy.

The best man was Mr. Maurice Dee, brother of the groom.

In the unavoidable absence of her father through illness, the bride was given away by her brother Mr. Patrick Foley.

The reception, attended by a large number of guests, was held in the Park View Hotel, Youghal.

I.C.A. Ardmore guild are hard at work again following the Summer recess. During October aprons were made for the Wireless for the Blind Sale of Work which took place in the Mansion House, Dublin on October 25th. Members also took part in the Guild of the Year Competition which was held in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan. Ardmore was placed second. Nine teams took part.

The first whist drive of the season will be held on Thursday 27th October. On this night also the draw for the handmade rug will take place. The annual general meeting of the guild will take place on November 10th. Miss Horgan, area organiser will attend.

DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT CASES

Dungarvan District Court was held before Mr. L. B. Skinner, D.J., on Wednesday.

MOTORING OFFENCES The P.O.A. was applied in case against Patrick Connors, Bells Green, Kilrossanty, who was charged by Sergt. D. Dillon with having no insured motor cycle at Davis Street, on June 18.

Mr. E. P. King, solr., for defendant, admitted the charge and said that Connors had bought the machine from another man three weeks previously and had come to the picture that night to try the bike. He took it to a garage afterwards where it was found it be unfit and he decided not to use it again. He had lost £30 in the deal.

Luke Moroney, Shandon, was fined 10/- when charged by using a pick-up truck with no rear light or identification on September 30.

James Guiry, Garrangrich, Kilmacthomas, was fined £2 when summoned by Garda Driscoll for going through the stop sign at Mitchel Street on August 31.

The P.O.A. was applied in summonses by Garda Driscoll against James Hickey, Kilburley and Christopher Keane, Knockgor, Colligan, for having no rear white light on their cars.

Daniel Buller, no fixed abode, was fined £1 for allowing two horses to wander at Tarry's Bridge on October 7. Sergt. Dillon said that at 11.45 p.m. that night a van driven by James Mulcahy, Abbeyside, collided with one of the horses at Tarry's Bridge. The van was damaged and the horse which was injured subsequently died.

STOLE BICYCLE He would adjourn the case for three months to give defendant a chance to pay £5 compensation to the injured party said the Justice when Daniel Murray, Kilmurray, appeared on a charge of stealing a bicycle. Defendant pleaded guilty.

Superintendent M. English said that between September 1, 1965, and September 1, 1966, defendant had taken the bike from Mrs. Alice Murray, Ballinlaylor. It was valued at £7. The Guards had got information that the defendant had a bicycle and searched his house and found it. The bicycle had been changed and had depreciated in value by £5.

The Justice warned defendant: "If you do not pay the compensation, I will deal with you."

SOCCER

League Division III Games

Abbeyside 1; Evergreen 0.
Dungarvan 10; Portlaw 2.

Both local sides, Abbeyside and Dungarvan are still unbeaten in the Junior League Div III after last Sunday's series of games.

The Village lads travelled to Butlerstown where they had a well merited 1-0 win over Evergreen, outside left Flynn scoring the all-important goal in the second half.

TOO MUCH POWER

At home Dungarvan carried far too much power for a Portlaw side that tried hard but in reality not match the speed of the Old Boys' boys. Spurred by a powerful half-back line they had the points to safe keeping after 20 minutes when they led 4-0.

Feature of the game was the display of centre-forward M. Shelston who must have created something of a record in this grade by scoring seven of his sides goals. Other scorers were Duggan, Sandford and O'Brien.

Teams

Dungarvan Clancy, Curran, Healy, O'Brien, Mooney, Beresford Walsh, Duggan, Singleton, Sandford, Lyons.

Abbeyside McGrath, Organ, Neadham, Cummins, Kane, Keogh, Prior, Byrne, Kirwan, Power, Langan, Flynn.

On Sunday next Dungarvan travel to Woodstown where they should chalk up another win.

Lismore And District News

Our New P.P.—We welcome Very Rev. Michael Guiry, P.P., V.F., as our new Parish Priest, and wish him a long, happy and fruitful service amongst the kindly people of Lismore, Ballyagagart and surrounding areas.

Death Of Miss K. Doherty, Church Street—It is with deep regret that we record the death after a short illness in Ardkeen Hospital, of Miss Kitty Doherty, Church Street. Deceased had been in her usual good health up to a short time before, and her sudden passing came as a shock to her family, relatives and friends.

The Waterford Association, Birmingham

The Waterford Association held their Fourth Annual Dinner and Dance on 1st October at the Billesley Hotel. After a most delightful meal enjoyed by over 150 people mostly from the city and county of Waterford, all were warmly welcomed by the Chairman, Mr. E. Cullinan. Also after the meal there were toasts to 'Ireland', 'Our Guests,' and 'Our Association'. Suitable replies were given by Mr. Donal Hurley representing the Irish Ambassador, Rev. Fr. M. Cullinan, Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. Power, Rev. Fr. F. Dudley, and Mr. P. Walsh, who were all guests, as were Mr. and Mrs. W. Barron from the Waterford Association, London.

It was regretted that the Bishop of Waterford, the Mayor of Waterford, and Mr. T. Kyne, T.D., could not be present.

Mr. N. Hickell of Dungarvan flew over especially for the occasion.

Other visitors from Co. Waterford were relatives of Mr. and Mrs. J. Power, formerly from Fenor.

The dance which followed was enjoyed by one and all. The above photograph includes all Committee members and guests.

WATERFORD DEFEATED BUT IMPRESS IN LEAGUE GAME

Tipperary 2-14: Waterford 2-10

Waterford surprised even their most ardent supporters with a convincing display against Tipperary in their National Hurling League game at Carrick-on-Suir last Sunday, where even though they were defeated by 2-14 to 2-10, they showed that they could be a force in next year's championship, with a few changes, especially in attack.

DOMINATED

Waterford dominated the game for long periods but as in their recent game against Kilkenny, they fell away in the closing stages of each half to concede the scores which clinched victory for Tipperary.

Seven minutes from the end Waterford were three points to the good but John McKenna was left slip through for a goal to equalise.

This was the finish as far as Waterford were concerned as Tipperary put on the pressure to notch four points and a deserving and hard earned victory.

Tipperary were first to score with a point but Waterford, who were short Larry Guinan and John Kirwan from the original lineout settled down quickly and Mahon shot them into the lead with a great goal from a Cheasty centre in the third minute.

TOOK INITIATIVE

Waterford took the initiative and with Cheasty rampant in attack were 1-7 to 0-4 ahead after twenty-seven minutes.

Tipperary forced a free and Donie Nealon lobbed the ball into the Waterford goalmouth where Sean McLoughlin connected and goaled. From the puck out Nealon collected to point and Waterford's lead was cut to two points 1-7 to 1-5 at the interval.

Six minutes after the restart Tipperary drew level with points from Jim Ryan and Donie Nealon Tipperary added two more points but a great goal from John Warren inched Waterford ahead again.

Donie Nealon levelled for Tipperary but Cheasty, Frankie Walsh and Vin Connors put Waterford three points up.

COLLAPSED

Then came McKenna's goal in the twenty-third minute and when Waterford collapsed, Tipperary notched points per Nealon, McKenna, Jim Ryan and Sean McLoughlin to clinch the issue.

The hurling during the hour was good even though a heavy sod proved a hindrance, and the large crowd present got good value for their money.

John O'Donoghue had a good hour in goal for Tipp. Kieran Carey was the most impressive of the full backs and was well helped by John Doyle.

Liam Devaney had a good hour at centre-back, while Mick Roche and Theo English held control at midfield.

Sean McKenna, Donie Nealon and Sean McLoughlin were most effective in attack.

Mick Foley further enhanced his reputation in goal for Waterford. Austin Flynn played his customary good game at full back, while the half line of Mick Gaffney, Joe Condon and Tommy Hearne were strong throughout the hour. Pat Enright was the more impressive of the midfielders, but in attack was again left to Tommy Cheasty and Mahon to make the scores with Frankie Walsh showing his paces in patches.

Scorers—Tipperary: D. Nealon (0-6), S. McLoughlin (1-1), J. McKenna (1-2), J. Ryan (0-2), L. Devaney and M. Roche (0-1). Waterford—D. Mahon (1-0), T. Cheasty (0-5), J. Warren (1-0), F. Walsh (0-2), P. Enright, L. Cummins and V. Connors (0-1 each).

Tipperary: J. Donoghue; J. Doyle, K. Carey, A. Wall, S. O'Meara, L. Devaney, I. Gaynor, T. English, M. Roche, J. Ryan (Carrick), J. Ryan (Lorrha), D. Nealon, J. Flanagan, J. McKenna, S. McLoughlin. Sub.—J. Fogarty for Ryan (Lorrha).

Waterford: M. Foley, S. Walsh, A. Flynn, P. Coady, M. Gaffney, J. Condon, T. Hearne, J. Whelan, P. Enright, T. Cheasty, L. Cummins, F. Walsh, V. Connors, J. Warren, D. Mahon.

Referee—P. Buggy (Kilkenny).

Geraldines Qualify For J.F. Final

Geraldines 1—6; Ballyduff 1—4

Geraldines qualified to meet the Nire in the Western Junior Football Final with a 1-6 to 1-4 victory over Ballyduff in a closely contested semi-final clash at Cappoquin last Sunday.

Geraldines led 1-4 to 0-3 at the interval and were leading 1-6 to 0-4 coming near the finish when Ballyduff in a desperate bid to come to terms crashed through for their goal. This score came too late and Geraldines hung on to their lead against heavy pressure.

Geraldines were well served by Jim and Ned Mernin, Jim Davis, John Tobin, Jim Hallahan and Tom Cotter.

Best for Ballyduff were Jim Quirke, Eugene Hickey, Johnny Gorman and Donal Kennedy.

ARDMORE TAKE WESTERN I.H. TITLE
Shamrocks Defeated In Poor Final

Ardmore 0—8; Shamrocks 0—6

Ardmore became Western Intermediate Hurling Champions with a narrow 0-8 to 0-6 victory over Shamrocks in the decider played at Cappoquin Gaelic field on Sunday last.

This victory was by no means surprising as the St. Declan's boys have shown consistently good form since they won the junior title two years ago and their displays in preliminary rounds in the championship this year were, to say the least, impressive. Shamrocks have a record of near misses in this competition and have been thwarted at the final hurdle on numerous occasions.

They were in with a great chance on Sunday, but were slow to settle down and found themselves trailing by 0-4 to 0-3 at the interval after a close first half.

They were unfortunate, however, in the second half when their star centre-back Billy Tobin was sent to the line.

This blow almost crippled them but even with fourteen men they piled on the pressure in the closing stages, but a very strong Ardmore defence overcame their every challenge and stood between them and their first ever title in this grade.

THE SCORING

Ardmore had two points before Shamrocks opened their account with a point per Billy Tobin from a seventy.

Jim Rooney pointed for Ardmore, John Joe Carlton went over a free and then Billy Tobin had two points for Shamrocks from 21 yard frees to leave the winners ahead 0-4 to 0—3 at the break.

Ardmore put in a strong challenge on resuming and Jim Rooney pointed three times from frees.

Shamrocks lit back with a point, but John Joe Carlton restored Ardmore's lead with another point from a free. Shamrocks threw everything they had into the game in the closing stages but could only notch a brace of points and were still two points in arrears at the final whistle.

A large crowd were present for the game which was played in ideal conditions but which failed to live up to all pre-match expectations.

Joe O'Brien, Bertie Hallahan, Paddy Carlton and John Cabbert (goal), were Ardmore's outstanding men in defence. Tony Carlton had a good game at midfield, while Jim Rooney, John Joe Carlton and Finbarr Hallahan, were all prominent in attack.

Billy Tobin, Joe Daly and Jim Nicholson, had good games in defence for Shamrocks. Frank Corcoran had a good game at midfield, although not at his best, while John Baldwin, Johnny Daly and John Nicholson all showed up well in attack.

Ardmore: J. Collard; D. O'Brien, M. Carlton, J. O'Brien, J. Morrissey, P. Carlton, B. Hallahan; D. Lenane, A. Carlton, J. J. Carlton, N. Rooney, F. Hallahan; J. Rooney, M. Mooney, T. Hallahan. Sub. T. Power for Morrissey.

Shamrocks: M. Hogan; J. Daly, B. O'Keeffe, J. Nicholson, P. Allen, B. Tobin, E. Murphy, F. Corcoran, J. Baldwin, G. McGrath, J. Foley, M. Keane, P. Murphy, J. Nicholson, M. Tobin. Sub. J. Murphy for J. Baldwin.

Referee: R. McGrath (Dungarvan).

Bantracht Na Tuaithe (I.C.A.) Co. Waterford Federation News

PUBLIC SPEAKING

The Public Speaking Section of the Erin's Foods Competition was held recently in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan. Teams from the following guilds participated: Dungarvan, Waterford I.A., Ballinameela, Ardmore, Gaultier, Ring, Tallow, Windrap, Tramore.

Each team spoke on the guild neighbourhood Problems, Assets, and Proposals for action to bring about better conditions. Many interesting facts, problems and proposed future planning emerged as each speaker made her contribution.

No winner was declared as this was only part of the competition and markings will be coupled with judging of Record Books.

The judges were Mrs. N. Minihan, New Ross, Miss M. F. O'Donnell, Waterford, Mr. D. Whelan, Abbeyside.

At the conclusion of the competition, Mrs. O'Carroll, Federation President, speaking to a packed audience, thanked all who attended. She asked all competing guilds to send Record Books to Mrs. McGrath, Federation Secretary immediately. She also announced a Craft School which will be held at Gaultier, Thursday, 3rd November. This is open to all guilds in the Federation.

Tallow A guild sponsored scholarship to An Grianain will be awarded to some lucky member in the near future.

Proud of their Maero on Friday, a vote of congratulation was passed to them on their great achievement in winning the Public Speaking National Final.

Abbeyside Defeat Stradbally In Rough Western J.H. Final

Abbeyside 3 -8; Stradbally 1 6

Abbeyside won yet another title at the Fraher field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last, when they defeated hot favourites Stradbally by 3-8 to 1-6 in the Western junior hurling final, a final which will be remembered more for its rugged exchanges, bad sportsmanship and free-for-alls, between players and team mentors.

ROUGH

Indeed it was rough from the word go. Stradbally played a russed brand of hurling, and it was evident from the start that they would let nothing stand in their way in their bid for honours.

BLIND EYE

A certain slackness on the part of the referee who seemed to turn a blind eye to some rather questionable tackles and illegitimate use of hurleys added to the danger, and it was only a matter of time before something untoward happened.

CLASHED

And happen it did eleven minutes after the start of the second half when one player from both sides clashed in the centre of the field. Tempers were a little frayed at this stage and some blows were exchanged and a Stradbally player was brought to the line injured. Play was held up for some time as other Stradbally players set out to get the Abbeyside man involved in the fracas and for a while it seemed the situation would get out of hand.

Players and team mentors were gathered in the centre of the pitch for a time before order was restored but again after this had an attack by a Stradbally player on an Abbeyside man caused the pot to boil over and play was again held up.

CONTROVERSY

Nor did the game lack controversy. A minute before the interval Abbeyside man Michael Power, sent a shot to the Stradbally net. The umpires signalled a goal but some of the Stradbally defenders claimed the ball had crossed the line and claimed the ball had gone through the side netting.

Play was held up for at least four minutes after which the umpires disallowed the goal after being "pressured" by the players. The ball had in fact gone in through the side netting.

THE SCORES

Stradbally had most of the play during the opening ten minutes and had points per Willie O'Brien and Tom Hearne (2). Sylvester Murray pointed for Abbeyside in the 15th minute and Kevin Fleming had another a minute later. Tom Hearne and Willie O'Brien sent over for Stradbally. Hearne had another point in the 23rd minute and Brian O'Connor pointed for Abbeyside in the 24th minute.

The winners were really on tap at this stage and after severe pressure Power had his disallowed goal. He made amends with a fine point just on the halfway stage when Stradbally led 0-6 to 0-4.

CLINCHED THE ISSUE

Abbeyside clinched the issue within two minutes of the restart when Kevin Fleming broke through for a great goal followed immediately by another point by Michael Power put Abbeyside in a commanding position and when Amble McGovern broke through for their third goal five minutes from the end it was all over.

Terry Guiry, who moved from defence to attack, goaled for Stradbally in the 27th minute and Jim Cullinan notched a point for Abbeyside in the 28th minute to leave them deserving winners on the score 3-8 to 1-6.

UNDERDOGS

Old boys were the underdogs and were not expected to be able to overcome the Bigger Stradbally men, but the Village side rose to the occasion and matched roughness with toughness. But had that Abbeyside had of extra class and experience, especially in attack where Stradbally were weak.

Brendan O'Brien goal, Jerome Walsh, Pender Walsh, Greg Ryan and Larry Cliffe, all played well in defence for the winners. Jim Cullinan and Sylvester Murray held control in midfield, while Michael Power, Brian O'Connor, Amble McGovern and Kevin Fleming, all impressed in attack.

Terry Guiry, Pat Clancy, Mick Coffey and Ned Dunphy, had good games in defence for Stradbally. Gerry Rourke tried hard at midfield, but only Tom Hearne, Matty Reilly and Willie O'Brien, impressed in attack.

The game on the whole was exciting and it was a pity that so much "dirt" was allowed into the play.

Tallow and Round About Notes

Died in U.S. The death took place recently in Connecticut, U.S.A. of Miss Elena M. Roche. Deceased was a native of Moor hill, Tallow. She emigrated to the U.S many years ago and paid periodical visits home. She is survived by her sister who is a nun, and by a nephew Mr. T. J. Roche, Moorhill, Tallow, to whom much sympathy is extended. The interment took place in the United States.

The Late Mrs. E. Richardson, Dublin In the report of the death of Mrs. Ellen Richardson, 27, Botany Avenue, South Circular Road, Dublin, and formerly of Lyreanarriga, Tallow, which appeared in last week's issue, it was inadvertently stated that the interment took place at Deans Grange cemetery. This should have been Mount Jerome cemetery.

The Taoiseach, Mr. Lemass, was represented at the funeral by his A.D.C. Commandant J. O'Brien. Others present were Mr. John McNoon M.A., Vice-Chairman, Dublin South East, Fianna Fail Cumhanle Ceantair, Councillor M. Cleary T.C., and Mr. Sean Moore T.D.

Mr. D. Davern T.D. On T.E. Programme Amongst the speakers on the T.E. programme "The Politicians" on Friday night last was Mr. Don Davern, T.D., South Tipperary West Waterford. The subject was education.

The Late Mrs. M. O'Keeffe (nee McCarthy) It is with deep regret we record the death of Mrs. Mary (Mayo) O'Keeffe, Ballynae, and formerly of Tallow, which sad event occurred at St. Stephen's Hospital, Glanmire on October 21st. Deceased was member of an old and highly esteemed Tallow family, and was a lady of many fine traits of character. Of a quiet and unassuming disposition she made many friends who deeply regret her demise in an early age.

The remains accompanied by a large and representative cortege were removed to St. Catherine's Church, Ballynae and the funeral took place on Monday last to the Catholic burial ground, Tallow. Interment took place in the cemetery attached to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, and was both large and representative.

To her husband, family, brothers, sisters, grandchildren and other relatives we extend our deepest sympathy in their sorrow and loss.

Macra Dance Tallow Branch of Macra Na Feirme held their annual dance in the Arch Ballroom on Friday night. Over one hundred attended. Music was by Eddie Moore and the Columbia Showband supplied a delightful musical programme.

Waltzing Competition At Our Lady Of The Wayside Hall Tonight A waltzing competition for valuable cups will be held in Our Lady of the Wayside Hall, Kilwatermoy on this Friday night. During the dance the raffle which was due to be held on September 17th but which was postponed owing to inclement circumstances, will be held. There are £30 in prizes. The White Heather Band will supply the music and a great night's entertainment is assured, so we expect to see a large attendance at the Hall tonight.

Juvenile Mid County Football Championship. There was jubilation in Tallow on Sunday night when our juvenile football team arrived back in the town after beating Mount Sion in the juvenile football Mid County Championship final at Carrick. They received an enthusiastic welcome on their arrival on the outskirts of the town and were escorted to the Square where songs were sung and a bonfire was accorded them.

It was a great victory for Tallow and reminiscent of other days in the Brideside town when Tallow hurlers were a force to be reckoned with in Waterford. Great credit is due to trainer Ned Power, N.T. who brought the boys to the peak of perfection which they attained on Sunday.

Ballyduff Lose To Geraldines In Junior Football Semi-final. By a two point win over Ballyduff Geraldines went into the Western junior football final at Cappoquin on Sunday. Leading at half-time by 4 points to the Aglish men looked a more well balanced side and though Ballyduff pulled down the arrears in the second half Geraldines were never in real danger. Half time score was Geraldines 1-4, Ballyduff 0-3. Full time score Geraldines 1-6, Ballyduff 1-4. Referee, M. White, Fourmilewater. Geraldines meet the Nire in the final.

Shamrocks Fail In I.H.C. Final Against Ardmore—Ardmore had a two point win over Shamrocks in the Western Final of the Intermediate Hurling Championship at Cappoquin on Sunday. Shamrocks did not on this occasion show the form they have displayed in previous games this season. Their attack disappointed and left a lot to be desired. Ardmore's hurling has greatly improved and by their display on Sunday they should go a long way in beating their Eastern opponents.

A feature of the game was that there was no goal scored during the hour. A full report of the game appears elsewhere in this issue.

Cork County Council To Reduce Votes Of Sympathy Cork County Council is to confine its votes of sympathy to "a stipulated list." The list will be confined to persons associated with the work of the Council and those prominent in National, public and religious life. Mr. M. McAuliffe, T.D., said unless this was adhered to he would come to the Council meeting, take up the newspapers and move a vote of sympathy to every family mentioned on the obituary columns. Waterford County Council take note.

Juvenile Co. Final (Football) The final whistle at Carrick on Suir made sweet music for the big Tallow following on Sunday last. Excitement reached a high level when the Chairman of Waterford G.A.A. presented the cup to the winning Capt. Billy Sheehan. It may be added that some of the names cheered for on Sunday were familiar with that same pitch in hurling years, viz. Henley, O'Brien, Curley, McNamara, Doyle and Hartigan.

This youthful team made history for Tallow in three ways: (No. 1) It was the first time that a football team from Tallow reached a county final. (No. 2) being the first Waterford team to win a championship in Tipperary, and last but by no means least, the first team to win the cup presented to Waterford G.A.A. by the Waterfordmen's Association in America to commemorate the Jubilee Year of the men of 1916. No wonder then that it would be hailed in Tallow with an honour of pride and glory as their LITTLE ALL-IRELAND.

This game will be honoured in song and in story. When the coaches and cars left the Square to the air of the "Merry Ploughboy," the words were changed to sing as follows:

"Now we're off to Carrick in the blue and gold."

The homecoming was a night to remember, bonfires blazed; a torchlight procession gave the team and cup a tremendous welcome.

Mr. E. Power, N.T., addressing the crowd from the window of Mrs. Daly's home, paid a tribute to the team and supporter.

Capt. Billy Sheehan, holding the cup, introduced the members of the team, and in conclusion called for cheers for worthy opponents Mount Sion.

To our Gaelic friends in U.S.A. who donated the cup, the club who won it would like to thank them and extend best wishes to men like Tom Donnelly, Jack Wills, P. McCarthy, the Calvins, Symons, Du Lunt, Lynch, Cullinan, Ed. Roberts, etc.

The Game From J. McNamara, who kept a good goal, to M. O'Keeffe, every boy played his best. Their fielding was superb, the solo runs paid off and scores came from Liam Fraser, Muddy Curley, J. Hartigan, Liam O'Brien and Billy Henley. All the backs were as one may describe, Noel Tierney-like, with midfield supplying the ammunition to the scorers, which came to a total scores—Tallow 2-11, Mount Sion 2-0.

We regret very much that none of our neighbours Shamrocks or Ballyduff were not able to make it a double celebration. Better luck next time.

Team J. McNamara; E. Curley, T. Norris, M. Murphy, E. Morris, W. Sheehan, T. Doyle; J. McDonnell, L. Fraser, L. O'Brien, J. Hartigan, M. Curley; P. Feeney, M. O'Keefe, W. Henley.

There will be a parade around the town on Saturday evening next, 29th October, beginning at 7.30 p.m. A reception will be held afterwards. Well done boys of Tulach an Iarabain.

The Sheep And The Goats In a recent statement the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries divided the sheep from the goats again. The sheep are the well dressed gentlemen who enjoy all the comforts of modern living. They have their daily papers, with their breakfast table before leaving for the office or factory by bus or car where their working time is well guarded and any extension of it is well paid for. How different are their country cousins. The only comparison is that they eat and sleep. Yet it was to the first mentioned that the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries gave the costly information that only that group of introverted figures, that made him believe that the farmers of Ireland are overfed, oversubsidised, lazy and not thankful for what the boys with the magic wand in Dublin are doing for them. It may have been used for the purpose of widening the chasm between the city man and countryman, between the sheep and the goats. But it may not occur to them that goats are a hardier animal than sheep. They have of necessity to be. The Department told their fairy tale to the city newspapers. They ignored the Provincial Press, to which the majority of countrymen look for information. In bald facts the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries made the same distinction between City and Provincial newspapers as they did between the City and County dwellers. But in this case we don't mind being regarded as goats but it could be that the "goats" sitting on the cold pavement of Merrion Square would bring home to them that the goat is a hard species of animal.

Whist Drive Results Mrs. N. Condon, West Street, won the mixdature with a score of 42. First prize was won by Mrs. J. Collins, Chapel Street, with a score of 142 and Mrs. Prendergast, West Street, came second with a score of 140.

CALL FOR MINISTER'S RESIGNATION
Mr. Haughey Strongly Criticised At Dungarvan Meeting

Mr. John Fahey, T.D., Chairman, Waterford County Committee of Agriculture, at first refused but later on being pressed agreed to accept a resolution calling for the resignation of Mr. Haughey, Minister for Agriculture, for refusing to meet the N.F.A. deputation after the Farmers' Protest March in Dublin at the monthly meeting of the Committee in Dungarvan last Friday evening. At that stage two members of the Committee, including the seconder of the resolution, had left the meeting and the proposer, Mr. William Foran, said there was no point in their letting the motion go to the meeting.

During the discussion, members of both the Fianna Fail and Fine Gael parties who comprise the Committee, criticised the Minister for his handling of the situation, and Mr. Haughey was branded as an arrogant dictator.

Mr. Foran who opened the discussion said that the Minister had not had the courtesy to meet the eight or nine men who had come to Dublin to meet him and he believed that they as members of the County Committee of Agriculture should call on Mr. Haughey to resign forthwith. Agriculture was the main industry of the country, but the Minister had handled the deputation in an arrogant and insulting manner.

He was not saying that the Government were blameless either in the matter because if they had sense and foresight they would have seen to it that Mr. Haughey met the deputation. The farmers of the country had a genuine grievance said Mr. Foran and the decision of the Minister not to meet them was the greatest insult he could have hurled at them.

Down through the years the farmers had often been insulted but this was the greatest insult ever. The Government had insulted every farmer in the country and made dirt of them, he said.

Appealing to the Committee for full support for his proposal, Mr. Foran said he had thought the Minister was supposed to give a lead to the farmers. "But," he said, "he is trying to lead them on the one hand and is betting them with the other. I believe the members of the Committee before us only a bunch of idiots by discussing any business at all today in view of the manner which Mr. Haughey has treated our own people, but I tell you the farmers will not stand for any more of this kind of treatment."

Mr. Foran then congratulated the farmers for the manner in which they had behaved throughout the entire protest. There had been no violence, he said despite the provocation that such would have been justified. The men had been a credit to the N.F.A.

BEAT THE LANDLORDS

Mr. Mick Galgey who seconded the proposal said that what Mr. Foran had said was said in earnest. It was the farmers of the country who had beat the landlords and it was they who had borne the burden of 1916 when the fight was made to make Ireland a better country for all to live in. As for whom was it made a better country he asked. It was for the Civil Servants and for the salaried men with £40 a week which has been given by the Government.

Mr. Galgey went on to say that unless the Minister and the Government took a timely warning and stopped farmers being the farmers would be serious consequences. They should remember, he said that the lifeblood of the country runs through the farmers, and they can close every factory in the country and he wanted to say that the farmers would not stand much more of this kind of treatment.

Mr. Galgey then criticised the coverage given by RTE to the protest and remarked: "If things happened in Hong-Kong, Timbuktoo, South Africa, or those other places we'd see them on TV sooner than the farmers' protest."

LIKE TINKERS

Mr. Declan Ahearne, said he would like to support the motion. He had been in Dublin for the protest march, "and" he said "when you'd look up Merrion Square the deputation looked like nothing but a crowd of tinkers waiting on the doorstep to be admitted. Mr. Ahearne went on to say that only for the control exercised by the NFA leaders matters would well have got out of hand as the farmers were in a desperate position. He deplored the attitude of the Minister in refusing to meet the deputation and said that if they were not admitted they would stay there for three months. "I think" he added "that Mr. Foran is right in asking the Minister to resign as he is not able to look after the affairs of the Department of Agriculture."

Mr. M. Harty said that this was the second time in recent months that the Minister had refused to meet a group of Irish farmers. On the first occasion they had been arrested, put in jail and fined in the Courts. Mr. Haughey, he said, had paraded around Europe on the pretence of finding markets but it took a long time before he decided to do that. The Minister had also made statements which could not be accepted by any honest farmers. He had gone out of his way to offend the farmers just because they demanded their rights.

"We," said Mr. Harty, "are not looking for anything but our own rights and all we got was offence and insult. The deputation was thrown on the stones outside Merrion Square in conditions not worse than you'd find in the jails of Ireland or elsewhere."

Mr. W. Dower said that the N.F.A. had a genuine grievance as the farmers had been led astray by the Government who should have foreseen the slump in cattle prices while they did nothing about a meat market. The report which would have helped the situation. He appealed to the Minister, as a matter of courtesy if not for anything else to meet the deputation even at this late stage.

Mr. N. Walsh The Minister in his attitude has been both arrogant and dictatorial and has violated the basic code of courtesy. He should remember that the meaning of the word Minister is servant and not master. I believe that no man with an urban bias should be Minister for Agriculture and the present man has that bias and is not even a practical farmer.

LAMENTABLE

Mr. Walsh referred to the appearance of the Minister on the RTE programme "The Person In Question." The Person Questioned and said that it was lamentable to see the way Benny Carr, the Chairman, tried to safeguard the Minister in every way.

Mr. C. Curran said that he also deplored the Minister's action. He should have met the deputation.

Mr. G. Heskin said it was a very irresponsible thing for the Minister to refuse to meet any deputation.

Mr. R. Walsh It is a sad day for the country when the Minister would not meet men who walked hundreds of miles to see him. By his decision he has lost the confidence and earned the contempt of every farmer in the country.

Mr. J. Burke said the least the Minister could have done was meet the deputation.

Mr. J. Fahey, T.D., Chairman, then said that Mr. Haughey had met the farmers more often than any previous Minister until Mr. Deasy and himself had a difference. He pointed out that before the Protest March started the Minister had told the farmers that there was no need for it and that he would meet them in Bantry or anywhere else.

While the farming community is as right to make itself felt as any other section," said Mr. Fahey, "this question of marching is something that should not be encouraged. This is the first year that a minimum was introduced to give justifiable increases to farmers in the price of milk. I think that Mr. Haughey has done all that he could do as Minister and he has even gone all over Europe looking for markets.

Mr. N. Walsh did not believe that the Chairman, even as a member of the Minister's own party, could condone his action.

Mr. K. O'Ryan said he also deplored the Minister's action, and Mr. Curran said they should call on him to meet the NFA deputation to discuss agricultural problems in general.

RULED OUT

At this stage the Chairman said that he was ruling out the proposal made by Mr. Foran and refused to put it to the meeting.

Mr. N. Walsh described the Chairman's action in refusing to accept a motion as most undemocratic. "I have always," said Mr. Walsh, "admired the latitude and fairness you have always shown here up to this but I think this refusal to accept Mr. Foran's motion is most undemocratic."

Mr. Fahey said that he thought Mr. Foran's motion was outstepping the position and it would be unwise to put it to the meeting.

Mr. Foran Well send a message of congratulations to Mr. Deasy in the manner in which the Protest was organised and carried out.

The Chairman shook his head at this and Mr. Walsh then remarked: "this is not the first time that a Minister has called on to resign here. Mr. Dillon was asked to do it once."

Chairman I can't recall.

Mr. Walsh Jog your memory, Mr. Chairman! Are you ruling the motion out?

Chairman Well if the members wish me to put it to the meeting, but I would ask you not to press it.

Mr. Foran then pointed out that Mr. Galgey who had seconded the motion and another member had left the meeting thinking that it was finished. For that reason he said there was no point in putting the motion at that stage and the discussion ended.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Using Irish

Dear Sir, At a recent meeting of the Health Authority an attack was made on the Irish language when a Government circular on the use of Irish in the business of the Authority was read. This happened in the town of Dungarvan where Irish was the spoken language of the people less than 100 year ago. The anti-national authority that were ever on the side of England against Ireland are in full cry these days.

The answer to this challenge lies in the nationally-minded people of the Deise returning to the local Authority men competent to transact business through the medium of Irish, fluent speakers not la bred Irishmen. A great number of people now know some Irish, they should use it on all possible occasions and cease talking in English on how to revive Irish.

"DEISEACH"

Bull Protest To Department

On the proposal of Mr. George Heskin, it was decided at the monthly meeting of the Committee of Agriculture in Dungarvan last Friday to send a protest to the Department about the manner in which West Waterford was being victimised in the matter of the allocation of a Hereford bull.

Mr. Heskin said that West Waterford had been given no Hereford bull by the Department while several had been given to East Cork. He pointed out that one of the best breeders of Hereford cattle were in West Waterford as the results from the Cork and Dublin Shows every year showed, yet the Department would not give the area a bull.

APPOINTED

On the proposal of Mr. W. Foran, seconded by Mr. M. Harty, the Committee unanimously appointed Mr William P. Cusack, Ballyclough, Carrick-on-Suir, as temporary Instructor in Agriculture for the Dungarvan area.

There were eight applicants for the position.

Conra Na Gaeilge Branch Formed In Ring

"It might seem like somewhat of a contradiction to form a branch of Conradh na Gaeilge in the Gaeltacht but it is a vivid demonstration of the scope available to An Conradh." This was stated by the Regional Organiser, Labhras O Murchu, when he addressed a public meeting in the C.Y.M.S. Hall, An tAth Ormah O Connaile, S.O. presided.

"There is a variety of activities which a branch of Conradh na Gaeilge can undertake," Mr. Murchu continued, "and in Gaeltacht na Rinne this work could include economic and social projects such as the attracting of outsiders to the district to hear the language used as a every day medium of communication. A Gealtacht is the fount of pure Irish and it is also a living inspiration for those who give selflessly of their time and service for the revival of the national language. The Irish nation will forever be indebted to the people of the Gaeltacht for having remained steadfast in their resolve to cherish Irish as their vernacular and thus provide a shining example to the rest of the country.

Nicolas MacCrath said that the Branch could visit outside Branches and help them in their activities. He welcomed the formation of a branch in Ring.

A SUCCESS

Eamonn MacMurchu said he was glad to see that Conradh na Gaeilge had undertaken a new re-organisation drive and the results were becoming evident. "I am very pleased," he said, "that the Organiser has come to Ring to form a Branch and I feel sure that it will prove a great success.

The meeting decided to launch its activities with a social in the near future.
