STORMY ENTRANCE—

1943 made a very stormy entrance, let us hope it does not portend a stormy year.

We were sorry that the inclemency of the weather prevented many of us from seeing the Military Rag in Lismore on Jan 1st. Some of the costumes were most original and it would have been an amusing sight had the weather been kind. The members of the band here were very "sporting" to go in and play without previous practice and on very short notice at that. We admire their pluck and courage, they deserve a clap on the back. Con O'Brien, brandished his drum sticks in great style; his "ensemble" in the rag was to quote a well-known poet "a thing of beauty and a joy forever." Con is quite an adept in the use of make-up, he has had a good teacher, and he has no doubt proved to be an apt pupil. We here at home in Ballyduff, were in no way surprised at his brilliant achievement on New Year's Day.

PARISH COUNCIL 45 DRIVE—

The first rounds of the 45 Drive in aid of above are being played presently. We hope that not only one, but many cards will be played in the parish and outside it. The Parish Council here has done, and is doing wonderful work, but as it is done quietly—one might say stealthily very few seem to realize it. The members deserve to be supported in their endeavours as they work and help where it is most needed. God will reward their efforts. We too, should show that we fully appreciate their efforts. We can do this by supporting their Card Drive. They do not ask for much, and we have never yet "let down" a worthy cause in the past. We will not let it down now so on the last Sunday in January, which will be the last day of the month—31st, we hope to see an overflow of "first rounders." Here's wishing the Drive every success.

CHRISTMAS GRIE—

We are very proud of the beautiful Crib in our Church. It is very artistic and devotional. There may be far more imposing ones in bigger Churches, but to our eyes they could not be any nicer than our own beautiful simple one.

FROM THE EDITOR—

In answer to the appeal for more space for the Ballyduff Notes in last week's issue, we will do everything in our power to see that this corner of West Waterford is catered for. Space is strictly limited, and it looks as if it will be more so during the coming year. However, we have in the past kept Ballyduff on the map and although the Editor has a tough job finding space for all the "copy" we promise to see that Ballyduff will always get their rightful share in the columns of the "Leader"—Ed

AGLISH HARRIERS

Sunday December 27th—Goosh

The meet was only arranged at the last minute, on account of the blank day on the 26th with the foxhounds at Clashmore. It was a good scented day and hounds are now fairly on their mettle, so the good-sized field turned up hoped for the best. It was, however, a most unlucky day. A short jog ensued to the bogs which did not hold. The stout-hearted fox which we found there earlier in the season and which gave us such a good run was not at home. Monagalley, Maher's Bogs, Sleibheen, and Ballinamultina, all failed, and hounds returned home.

Those mounted were—Mr M. Doocey, Mr R. O'Keefe, Whippers-in, Miss Caroline Bowen, Miss Kathleen Cotter, Mr Vincent Bowen, Mr M. Terry, Mr N. Flynn, Mr T. Doocey, Mr J. O'Brien, Mr O'Brien, Cork, Master Simon Klerman, Master J. Curdwin, Mr M. Dower, Master P. Fenton, etc etc

MANGEL SEED PRODUCTION ORDER

Under the Emergency Powers Order which came into force on 1st January the growing of mangels for seed production in 1943 is prohibited in specified areas of Counties Cork, Kerry, Limerick, Tipperary and Waterford which are reserved for sugar beet seed production. Particulars of these areas may be obtained from the Department of Agriculture Dublin. The object of this Order is to prevent cross-fertilisation between mangel seed crops and sugar beet seed crops, which would render impossible the production of satisfactory seed of either class.

CARNATIONS IN JANUARY

Carnations are in bloom in the garden of Miss Denton, at 16 Sycamore Road, Mount Merrion. Normally the blooms are a rich scarlet but these unique winter blooms are pink-and-white.

OBITUARIES

MR WM. RONAYNE, TALLOW

Widespread regret was caused by the death of Mr William Ronayne, Tallow, ex-Sergt. R.I.C. which occurred at his residence on December 27th last. The deceased, who was a native of Malloy, saw service in Limerick, Galway, Waterford and West Cork. He retired in 1919. To his daughter Mrs. Kelliher, wife of Sergt P J Kelliher, Weights and Measures Inspector, Church St., Dungarvan, and to the other members of the bereaved family, sincere sympathy is extended.

The interment, after Requiem Masses, took place in Tallow on the 28th ult. A very large and representative cortege were present to pay their last earthly tribute to a most popular and lovable man.

MR JAMES WADE, BALLYGAGIN, DUNGARVAN

The death of Mr James Wade, Ballygagin which took place at his residence on Jan 3rd has removed another one of the real old stock. The deceased, who had reached a grand old age, was a very popular farmer, and during his young days was an outstanding athlete. During the days of great Dan Traher & Co, he played with the Brickey Rangers team with whom he had a great football career. A very large and representative cortege attended the removal of the remains to St. Mary's Parish Church on Monday Jan 4th, where the coffin was received by Very Rev. T. Conroy O'Brien, P.P., V.F., Rev. D. Power, C.C. The burial at Kilgobnet was again largely attended, and Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C., officiated, and read the last prayers.

The deceased was uncle of Mr Paddy Ormond who is well and popularly known all over for his active part in the fight for Irish freedom.

The chief mourners were—Mrs John Ormond Mitchel St. (sister), Miss Mary Ormond (niece), Mr P. Ormond (nephew); Mrs. Con Sullivan, Mary St., Mrs Noonan, Lismore, Mr Tom Duggan Ballylemon, Mr Pat Egan, O'Connell St., (cousins and relatives)

MRS. CATHERINE DONOGHUE, KING STREET, ABBEYSIDE

Very deep regret was occasioned by the death of Mrs Catherine Donoghue, which took place at her home, King Street, Abbeyside on New Year's Day. The deceased was a most unassuming, kind and gentle woman, and a great favourite with her neighbours, and all who knew her. Her death at an early age has been deeply felt by her family. To her husband, Mr Dan Donoghue, who is widely known all over the county as an expert tailor, and to the other members of the family, the greatest sympathy is extended in their sorrow.

A very large and representative cortege attended the funeral to Abbeyside Parish Church on Friday evening, and again on the following day to Ballinroad, where the interment took place. Rev N Dunphy, P.P., Abbeyside and Rev M Power, C.C. do officiated.

The chief mourners were—Mr Dan Donoghue (husband), Sergt-Major Daniel Donoghue and Paddy Donoghue (sons); Miss Tessie Donoghue (daughter); Mrs D Donoghue (daughter-in-law), Mr John Riordan, (brother), Mrs Crotty, (sister)

MRS ANNE MCCARTHY, BALLYMACARBERRY

The death of Mrs Anne McCarthy, of Knockavana, Ballymacarberry, daughter of the late Nicholas Dalton, of Ballyconery which took place at her residence on Saturday, January 2nd, 1943, has caused widespread regret. She was extremely well and popularly known in West Waterford, and was a member of one of the oldest families in the district. Her funeral to Kilgobnet on Monday 1st January, 1943.

Chief Executive Officer.

January 4th was largely attended during the funeral of the late Rev. Fr. Egan, P.P., and Rev. Fr. McGrath, C.C., who also attended at the obsequies.

The funeral cortege was met at Kilgobnet by Rev. Fr. Roche, P.P., and Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C., who blessed the coffin. The numbers attending the funeral were the largest seen in the district for years and showed the great respect in which the deceased and her bereaved family were held.

The chief mourners were—Mrs. E. Ryan (sister-in-law); Patrick and Nicholas McCarthy (sons), the Misses Eileen, Stasia, Margaret McCarthy, and Mrs Mary Kiely (daughters); Mrs Alice Flynn, Mrs B. A. Murray, Mrs. B. Travers and Mrs. Kate Drohan (sisters); Messrs John Flynn, Thomas Drohan, B. A. Murray, Thomas McCarthy, John McCarthy Patrick McCarthy, Martin McCarthy (brothers-in-law), Mr M. Kiely, Knockateamore (son-in-law), Mrs M. Burke, Mrs Nan Morrissey, Mrs. E. Ryan (sisters-in-law), Miss Stasia Drohan (niece), John and Nicholas Drohan (nephews), Mrs. T. Ryan, Wm Ryan, Eamonn Ryan, Jim Ryan, Laurence and Mrs. McCarthy, Skehans Patrick and Mrs. Dalton Currahaha, Mrs. Annie Wade Kileanavee, Nicholas Dalton, Mr and Mrs O'Keefe, Kileeshal Mr and Mrs. T. Dalton, Deelish John Cliffe, James and Mrs Cliffe Crough, Sonny Cliffe, Mrs. and Jack Queally, Cumm, Michael Queally, Mrs Fitzgerald Kilbrien, Mary Dalton John Quinlan, Colligan, Rody McCarthy, Ballyhane Mary Bridget and Birdie McCarthy, Balinock, Mrs Lynch and Bridget Flynn, Inchindrisla, Mrs Ducey, Mary Street, etc, etc. (cousins and relatives)

ANY OLD IRON?

Horse-Shoes Are Scarce

Old iron railings and motor car parts are being used to provide horse-shoes for Eire's increasing horse population.

The difficulty of securing supplies of iron for making horse-shoes is causing concern at the moment, although it is hoped that the position will improve before next March with the opening of the Haulbowline plant and the possibility of obtaining supplies from abroad.

Many farmers throughout the county are finding it impossible to procure horse-shoes suitable for farm horses.

The extent of the shortage is shown by the fact that this country now receives only 250 tons of horse-shoe iron per year from England as compared with the 2,000 tons normally received.

Minister's Call To The Farmers.

A meeting of representatives of the County Committees of Agriculture was held on Wednesday in the Boardroom of the Department of Agriculture in Dublin. In most cases the chairman and one other member represented each committee. The Minister of Agriculture presided and the Secretary and other officers of that Department were also present.

The purpose for which the meeting was held was to enable the Minister to explain to the representatives of the committees the position with which the country is faced as regards food production, to discuss with them the requirements of the Compulsory Tillage Order for 1943, and the various problems connected with supplies of seeds, fertilisers, lime, machinery and implements, labour and other requisites for agricultural production, and to enlist the most active support of the County Committees of Agriculture in securing the success of the campaign for increased food production in 1943.

The Minister intimated that in order to make adequate provision for the people's food and for the maintenance of flocks and herds at the desired level, it would be necessary to secure an increase of about 500,000 acres under tillage in 1943, bringing the total cultivated area up to 3,000,000 acres.

The Waterford representatives who attended the meeting were Mr P. R. Power, Clondonnell, chairman, and Mr. Michael F. Walsh, P.C. Auctioneer, Cappoquin, vice-chairman of the Co. Committee of Agriculture.

VOTES OF SYMPATHY—At a specially convened meeting of the Dungarvan Literary Club votes of sympathy were passed with Mr B A Murray and family, Lower Main St., on the death of Mrs McCarthy, Ballymacarbery, and with Mr P Ormond, on the death of his uncle.

RED CROSS DANCE—A HUGE SUCCESS—Close on 600 people attended the New Year's dance held by the Dungarvan branch of the IRCS, at the Town Hall on New Year's Night. The proceeds must have created a new record for Cinderella dances in the town. Dancers from all districts thronged the hall, and as the space was accordingly restricted dancing was difficult, but none the less all had a very jolly night as there was a great festive spirit prevalent. The organisers of the dance must feel very pleased with the results that met their effort and will realise how anxious the general public are to help the local Red Cross Branch. The music which was played by the Twilight Seienaders, met with around approval.

WATERFORD NO 3 DIVISION RED CROSS SOCIETY—I wish to inform all members of the above-division that classes resume on Friday 8th Jan. 1943, at 8.15 p.m. All ladies possessing coats and veils are requested to wear them to this meeting.—N Foley Hon. Secretary.

Hall will be played off on Sunday 17th January 1943 at 8.15 p.m. This is the event of the year when £21 0s 0d will be given in prizes. Entrance fee 1/- Patrons are asked to facilitate the Committee by playing the first rounds outside. Winning pairs and cash to be handed into Rev T B Walsh B.A., C.C., E J Dalton Hon. Treas., Thomas Terrace or E O'Gorman Hon. Sec. Mary Street, on or before Sunday 17th January, 1943.

VOTE OF SYMPATHY—At a meeting of the Dungarvan Branch of the Gaelic League a sincere vote of sympathy was passed with Mr John Flordan, on the recent death of his sister Mrs Donoghue, Abbeyside.

(ST. MARY'S BRANCH)—Say lads! Here's wishing you good cheer and every happiness for the New Year. Here again is some good news that will put joy in your hearts! On next Friday January 15th, we are running another "Social Evening" in the Club Rooms. Once again the Selective Committee have got their heads together and arranged a most entertaining and interesting programme. By special request we are once again including our popular "Quiz." Experience has taught us the great demand for questions with a "kick" in them, so we have spared no effort to bring more variety into this part of the programme. A number of our popular local artists have again very kindly consented to do their bit to make this our most musical and entertaining night. So I would advise all to make sure of their seats by coming early. I will give all particulars about prices, time and so forth next week. So for the present—All the Best. Bladhain Nuadh Fé Séan agus Fe maise agaih.

(An Droch Ughdar) (—) DUNGARVAN H & F CLUBS—An important general meeting of the Dungarvan hurling and football clubs will be held on Sunday next, Jan 10th, 1943 immediately after last Mass. All members of the Senior, Junior and Minor hurling and football teams are earnestly requested to be present. As the business will include completion of Registers for 1943 and, if possible, election of captains, etc., for various teams, all intending members are cordially invited to attend.

VOTE OF SYMPATHY—At a special meeting of the Dungarvan hurling and football Clubs, held on Tuesday 5th Jan., on the proposition of the Chairman seconded by Mr T O'Mahony a sincere vote of sympathy was passed with Rev Bro Flatley, Superior CBS, Dungarvan and Vice-President of the Club—on the recent death of his brother in Birmingham "THE DOWN EXPRESS".

All arrangements for the production of J Bernard McCarthy's farcical comedy at the Town Hall on Jan 20th and 21st, are now complete. The St. Mary's Players under the careful management of the producers Rev Fr P Farrell, C.C. St. Mary's, and Mr L Comerford B.A., have put in much time practicing and a very excellent performance is promised. The members of this new dramatic society are all from the Dungarvan Branch of the Red Cross Society for whose benefit as well as the Brass and Reed Band the play is being produced.

The producers have also informed us that a limited number of reserved seats can now be booked at Walsh's Radio Shop, Mary Street. Other particulars can be found in an advertisement appearing in this issue.

FIANNA FAIL (REPUBLICAN PARTY)—A public meeting of all supporters will be held in the Town Hall, Dungarvan, on Tuesday next, Jan. 12th, 1943, at 8.15 p.m.

Mr M Morrissey, T.D., Senator Sean Goulding, and other prominent speakers will attend.

IN TOWN AND OUT—His many friends were delighted to see Labour's newly-selected candidate for the forthcoming General Election Jerome Guiry, spend Xmas in his native Dungarvan. Jerome, who has had a long career in the Civil Service, and is conversant with all questions dealing with National and political affairs, and should prove a very strong candidate for Labour in this constituency.

On Saturday next, Mr Sean Norris, who has been with the engineering dept of Walsh's Radio Shop, Dungarvan, for a number of years past, will leave for Cork where he will prepare himself to qualify in all branches of Radio Engineering. Sean is extremely well and popularly known in Dungarvan as the very proficient pianist of the Rhythm Band and dancers all, as well as his many friends, will be sorry to hear of his departure.

Mr Harry Glanville, who has served on the Clerical Staff of the Co Council for the past year and who was formerly on the Reporting Staff of the "Leader," and the popular Secretary of the Dungarvan Branch Gaelic League, is leaving for England on Monday morning to take up a responsible position there. This news has been received with regret by all his friends, who have extended their best wishes to him for his future welfare across the Channel.

GAEILIC LEAGUE CEILIDHÉ—The Dungarvan Branch Gaelic League's Epiphany attraction in the form of a Ceilidhe Mór at the Town Hall drew a host of Gaelic enthusiasts from all quarters of West Waterford. The fine crowd present thoroughly enjoyed themselves to the music of the Cathal Brugha Ceilidhe Band. Solo items brightened the entertainment and helped to make the Ceilidhe the great success it was. All the arrangements for the function were in the capable hands of Messrs. H. Glanville, Secretary, C. Doherty, B.Sc., Treasurer, D. O'Driscoll and M. Nagle.

L.S.F. PARADE—A General Parade will be held at the Garda Barracks on Tuesday, 12th inst., at 8.30 p.m., and ALL Members are requested to attend.

1943 MAY SEE TWO ELECTIONS

"If an election is held before June there will certainly be another within three months, and the last state of the country will be worse than the first" is the view expressed by one of the most experienced political campaigners in Dublin.

This of course will be due to the opinion held that no party will receive a clear majority at the first attempt, and some form of coalition will inevitably have to be made, and the second election will only be put off as long as this coalition will work together, which many people consider would not last more than a few months at most.

LET'S TALK OF PORT
Some people talk about Port Wine as something unchanging, as if this were a virtue in Wine! Whereat the truth is, that Wine is a creature, brought into life under the expert hands of the vinticulturist. It has subsequently its fiery youth, its suave middle age, its mature old age and again, after plenitude of years, its decay, unless consumed before that final stage. When handled by the Master Wine Makers and the understanding Wine Merchants, it is presented to the consumer in its most agreeable and most health-giving forms, such as the WINES of the

CARRICK NEWS

THE LATE MRS COUGHLAN, CLASHMORE—Much sympathy is felt in Carrick for Mr Con Coughlan, Munster and Leinster Bank, and Sister M Declan, Presentation Convent Carrick-on-Suir, on the death of their mother, Mrs Catherine Coughlan, Knock Clashmore, and for Sister Mary Francis, Presentation Convent, Dungarvan, and other daughters of the deceased.

CARRICK RED CROSS ACTIVITIES—The first prize (a set of medals) at the Irish Red Cross Competition in drill and surgical and medical tests, organised by Carrick Red Cross, was won by the Section of which Mrs M Meeney, Main St., is officer in charge. The first prize in the men's section (First Ambulance) was won by the section in charge of Mr A Drohan, Main Street.

TALENTED YOUNG CIVIL SERVANT'S DEATH—The late Mr James Walsh, who died this week at a Dublin hospital, was a native of Tinaly near Carrick-on-Suir. His efficiency secured for him rapid promotion in Eire Civil Service which he entered a few years ago. The interment took place at Faughan near Carrick-on-Suir, after Requiem Mass.

BRAY GAS TRAGEDY—WOMAN FROM NEAR CARRICK ONE OF THE TWO VICTIMS—Mrs. O'Rourke, who was one of the two victims of the gas escape tragedy in a house in Bray last week was a sister of Mr Richard Barry, Sengh, near Carrick-on-Suir. Mrs O'Rourke's husband was the second victim. They cooked a turkey for Xmas Day on Xmas Eve in a gas oven the taps of which was not fully turned off at night. Mr and Mrs O'Rourke were found dead in their home on Xmas morning. All the rooms in the house were filled with gas.

WELL-KNOWN FIRMS ENJOYABLE STAFF DANCE—Members of the staffs of Messrs T & K Walsh Ltd, from the branches at Templeoran, Piltown, Carrick, Clonmel, Dungarvan and Thurles, attended the annual staff dance at Carrick-on-Suir Legion of Mary Hall, on New Year's Eve. An excellent supper was served during the dance which was followed by a concert and an interesting question time contest. Miss K Alyward and Mr Tim Drohan, were winners at the question time. Songs were contributed by Miss Annie Kelly Messrs T and W O'Keefe, P Cuddihy, T Bourke, J Power, W Foley. The members of the firm present were—Mr John Walsh, Miss M K Walsh, Miss Nano Walsh, Miss B Walsh, Rev Fr Paschal, and Rev Father Patrick, O.F.M., and Brothers Aidin and Angelus, Carrickbeg were present.

At midnight, all present joined hands and welcomed the New Year with the singing of Auld Lang Syne. Mr Sean Healy, was in charge of the musical items.

MY GARDEN

How much of our time is spent locking the stable door when the horse is gone? Every cold snap in winter, the telephone bell rings, and then an urgent request to send a plumber, as a pipe has burst and the place is being flooded. The weather has been so mild up to the present that the foolish "virgins" have neglected to wrap a hay-rope or a bit of canvas or similar covering over the pipe exposed to the weather. This should be done at once, and it will save a great deal of worry and expense.

I have heard recently of several persons who have succeeded in burning a great variety of poor fuel by installing an electric blower at the mouth of the furnace. My greenhouse boiler has a great draught, so I do not need this addition, but somebody may find the tip useful. If you intend to force sea kale or rhubarb, dig up a few stools now and leave for ten days exposed to the weather, which will retard the crowns, and forcing will be facilitated. Force mine in a dark corner of the boiler house, but the same result can be obtained by using a hotbed. When leaves are largely employed in the construction of hotbeds there is less danger of overheating than when fresh stable manure is used too freely.

Give your raspberries a generous mulching. I like to do this in good time, as it not only protects the roots which come so close to the surface from frost, but also the nourishment will be washed down by the winter rains. If you have no manure, give at least a dressing of fresh soil and lime rubble. Anything fresh and fertilising is acceptable to the raspberry, but only add it to the surface do not attempt to dig in, as every prick of a spade or fork on the roots will cause another shoot to spring up next year, and your canes will become overcrowded.

ACHIEVEMENT

THE extraordinary increase in the acreage under tillage in this county within the last couple of years has placed the entire system of agriculture under a severe strain. This has been realised by all farmers, but especially by those whose methods were entirely divorced from tillage—the farmer who grazed the majority of his holding and set very little if any crops. When the war came and we learned that we should have to support ourselves or perish the Government appealed to the farmers to go to it and till their broad acres, and sow wheat, oats, barley potatoes and other root crops in superabundance, so that there might be enough for all.

For the first year the reserve stock in the National granaries was capable of meeting any deficit, but this has now been exhausted so that the farmers must go one better during the coming season and again increase their tillage area. Great difficulties have to be met and surmounted if the required quota is to be reached. Farmers will grumble about the lack of fertilisers, the lack of machinery of shoe-iron for horses and the hundred and one other odds and ends that keep cropping up. But we feel sure that the programme set out by the Department of Agriculture will be more than met in 1943. The nation has undoubtedly a great obligation to these men who so capably shouldered their

CAPPOQUIN NEWS

A ROUGH START FOR THE NEW YEAR

After the mild and almost springlike weather which we had all enjoyed during the Xmas holidays, there was a most unwelcome contrast on New Year's Day, when a cold and biting wind blew from the South-East and made conditions most unpleasant for those whose duty kept them out in the open.

There being no dance in the Boathouse Hall on that night, those who had come into town from the surrounding country districts in the evening, found little to amuse or entertain them, and with most of the "Pubs" still "dry" after a very busy Xmas Week, there was very little inducement offered to enter those usually popular places of refreshment and joviality, so that our country cousins left for home unusually early, fervently hoping that more hospitable and congenial conditions will prevail at a later period in the New Year.

Some of the more fortunate people living in the town had arranged enjoyable "House Parties" on that night, when they and their jovial guests were able to forget the miseries of outdoor life for the moment, and where songs, toasts and merry laughter helped them to ring the New Year in under the most happy and congenial conditions.

CYCLING CHAMPIONS OF 1942

In a carefully-compiled list of Cycling Champions for the year 1942, which appeared in the "Irish Independent" last week, we were proud to see that amongst the names of such well-known champions as Baird, Donnelly and Anderson appeared the name of J. J. ("Jimmy") Foley of the Cappoquin Cycling Club who was named as the holder of the Five Miles' Championship of Ireland for the past year.

This was a distinction for which Cappoquin had reason to feel proud, and in congratulating "Jimmy" on having found such an honoured place amongst the leading cycling champions of the country we express the fervent hope that when the list of champions for 1943 will be written he will be found to have won still higher honours for his club, and also for the town of his home.

SUCCESSFUL CINDERELLA DANCE

In order to compensate for the lack of dancing on New Year's Night, a grand Cinderella dance was held in the Boathouse Hall under the auspices of the Rowing Club on last Sunday night, when the great popularity of this famed dancing Hall was again demonstrated by the large bev of youth and beauty which attended from practically all the surrounding districts in West Waterford.

With perfect arrangements on the part of the officials of the Rowing Club, a well-prepared dancing floor, and lively music by the Blackwater Serenaders' Dance Band, Cappoquin, the hours sped rapidly by, and general regret was felt when the playing of the National Anthem at 2 a.m. concluded a night of rare enjoyment for all.

WESTERN DIVISIONAL CONVENTION

Sunday, 24th inst, should witness a great gathering of Gaels here, when the Annual Convention of the Western Divisional Board, G.A.A. will be held in the C.Y.M.B. Hall in Mill Street, Cappoquin.

Those Annual Conventions provide for the Gaels of the Division a grand opportunity for reviewing the activities of the various hurling and football Clubs during the preceding year, and also act as a stimulus to those clubs to do even better in the year before them.

We have no idea yet what the Agenda for the Convention may be, beyond the fact that the usual election of Officers will take place, but we hope that so far as this aspect of the proceedings is concerned, the delegates will show their wisdom by electing only the fittest and best Officers for the respective positions. Shakespeare says "The friends thou hast, and whose adoption tried, grapple them to thy soul with links of steel" so we hope that those who have proved worthy of their trust in the past, will be rewarded by a renewal of the delegates' confidence for the coming year.

We feel bound to call attention to a certain form of abuse which has been permitted at previous Conventions in Cappoquin, this being the admission of non-delegates to the proceedings. As each Club is entitled to send a certain number of duly-accredited delegates to each Convention, steps should be taken to ensure that beyond these and the Officials of the Divisional Board, no unauthorised persons should be permitted to attend.

Having attended various Conventions in Lismore over a number of years, we must say that we have never seen any unauthorised members of the Lismore Clubs, attempting to "gate-crash" a Convention as they always had the fullest confidence in their delegates to be able to carefully look after their interests, but we regret to say that this has not been the case in Cappoquin.

At several Conventions, and also at meetings of the Divisional Board held here, we have frequently seen more non-delegates than official delegates present, and this is an abuse which should be stopped in the interests of the G.A.A.

It is well known that rather than resort to the tedious process of taking a poll by recording the voting of the delegates, many unimportant points are frequently decided by a show of hands, so that there is nothing to prevent unauthorised persons, should they choose to do so, from holding up their hands in a matter of this kind, and thus winning a point in favour of some particular club. This irregular and objectionable practice was never tolerated by the old County Board of over 40 years ago, when the writer was Secretary of the Board, so we hope to see an official announcement in next week's "G.A.A. Notes" that nobody but fully-accredited delegates will be admitted to the Convention here on Sunday, 24th inst!

POPULAR LOCAL LADY BEREAVED

The death took place last week-end of Mrs. Catherine Coughlan, relict of the late Mr. Patrick Coughlan, at her residence, Knockbrack, Clashmore, at a ripe age, and to the deep regret of a wide circle of sorrowing relatives and friends.

Her funeral to Clashmore cemetery on Sunday proved one of the largest demonstrations of sympathy and respect seen in the district for many years.

The deceased lady was aunt of Mrs. M. J. Sargent, Cappoquin, and to her, and all the other relatives of the deceased we offer our deepest sympathy in their sad bereavement.

AFTER A STORM COMES A CALM

After the "glut" of concerts, whist drives and other forms of social entertainment held here, both before and during the Xmas holidays, matters have now got back to normal again, and the people will be able to breathe a little more freely until the "next rush" of "stunts" will be organised before the Holy Season of Lent sets in. We are promised another "big night" by the Badminton Club before the playing season ends, while it is far to assume that our local "Vesuvius," the Rowing Club will shortly be again in eruption, because the dynamic forces at the head of this popular old club can never content themselves with a period of prolonged quietude or inactivity!

REGRETTED ILLNESS OF POPULAR PRIEST

Much regret has been caused in Cappoquin by the news of the serious illness of Rev. John O'Shea, the popular, saintly and zealous Pastor of Selby, Yorks England.

The Rev. gentleman is brother of Mrs. M. F. Walsh, Main Street and is a member of an old and highly-esteemed Co. Tipperary family, all the members of which have long been actively identified with the cause of Church, Country and Sport. A regular visitor to Cappoquin every year in pre-war days, Father O'Shea is well and popularly known in Cappoquin, and the wish of all his friends here is that he may soon be restored to his normal good health, so as to enable him to continue the great spiritual work in which he has so nobly distinguished himself in England for so many years.

HEAVY RAINFALL

The early part of last Monday was the wettest experienced here for a long time. Heavy rain accompanied by a strong wind, fell incessantly for several hours and those whose duty compelled them to be out-of-doors such as the rural postman, had a most unpleasant experience.

The New Year has certainly started badly with rain, fog and storms, and we are all anxiously looking forward to the brighter and better summer conditions, and joining fervently with the feelings of the Poet who wrote "Ah my heart is weary waiting, Waiting for the May!"

Catholic Scout Notes

4TH WATERFORD TROOP G.B.S.I. (St. Joseph's Abbeyside)

TROOP MEETING

Our meeting on Wednesday night began after Devotions and was short. Most of the time was taken up with an inter-Patrol general knowledge contest called "Purchase Town Races". Each Patrol had an imaginary horse on the course that could be moved on a length for each question answered, and at the end of the race the Tiger Patrol were clear winners. During the meeting J. Regan, who has been acting as Troop Leader was presented with his badge of office and we hope he will keep on with the good work for a long time. Patrol Leaders were reminded that they were expected to do more than the dustbin if P.L.'s stripes were stuck on the side of it. Each P.L. is responsible for the training of at least six Scouts and if they become First Class much of the credit is his but if they reach old age and remain Rawly Scouts, much of the blame is his. When his Patrol are "on the Den" for a week he is trusted with the keys and has to see that the Den is kept in good order and as some Scouts are worse than floating mipses this job is not an easy one. As the 4th Scout Law says he has to be "a brother" to each Scout and when he feels like bashing a chap over the head with a chair he must be patient and friendly. The job is a difficult one but if a P.L. tries hard his Scouts won't let him down. They will even be nice to him.

NIKE

An after dinner hike has been arranged for 2.30 p.m. next Sunday to give Scouts a chance of getting through outdoor tests. As Jack Blunt wrote in "The Scout" there is a big difference between SCINTING and SCOUTING so let's be OUT and do next Sunday even if they hang Boris Karloff at the Cinema between 3.30 p.m. and 6 o'clock. Let him hang!

PARADE

Our first Parade of 1943 will be held on Sunday morning and we look forward to a full attendance. We know most Scouts will turn up but how many will be late? sin e an ceist as Hamlet said "It is reported in official oblongs that the fate of some of the K.E. Clan depends on this parade and also on the Clan meeting on Tuesday next at 8 p.m. Of course, we Scouts have no use for those Knights, except maybe a few of them. They're always letting the Troop down on Parades."

Q AND A

How did Jella get on at the Cellidhe on Wednesday night? No, Thomas you can't wear your long trousers on Parade. What did Martin say when his partner lost the rubber? No you can't play cards if your Troop Subs are not paid up. Will you be in time for the Parade on Sunday?

Moorehill Notes.

SUCCESSFUL DANCE

On Sunday night last a very enjoyable all-night dance was held at Knockanore hall, under the auspices of the Knockanore Parish Council and was attended by a large gathering from all the surrounding districts, and one and all voted it a very enjoyable night. Splendid music was supplied by the Brideside Serenaders dance band, Tallow.

PRETTY WEDDINGS

A very pretty wedding took place recently at Knockanore Church, when Mr. James Ahern, son of Mrs. and the late Mr. Ahern, Ladysbridge, Co. Cork, and Miss Hannah Nicholson, daughter of Mr. J. Nicholson, and the late Mrs. Nicholson, Scart, Knockanore were married. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Flynn P.P., Knockanore. The bride was attended by her sister Mrs. K. Mills and Mr. J. Nicholson (cousin-of-the-groom) was best man.

An interesting wedding was solemnised at Knockanore Church, by the Rev. Fr. Flynn, P.P. Knockanore recently. The contracting parties were Mr. Michael Guiry son of Mr. and Mrs. Guiry Dromore, Aghish, and Miss Eileen Geary, only daughter of Mr. M. Geary, and the late Mrs. Geary Killeenagh, Knockanore. Miss K. Smyth, was bridesmaid, and Mr. M. Guiry (brother of the bridegroom) was best man.

DEATH OF MR. M. DUCEY

It is with feelings of deep regret we announce the death of Advertisement for Paddy whisky. Text: "Your good judgment is obvious when you ask for PADDY". Includes a small logo with "PADDY DIS IRISH W" and "Irish whisky at its best".

Mr Maurice Ducey, The Commons Ballynatray, which occurred on Dec 27th last after a short illness and fortified by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church of which he was a most exemplary member. Deceased was a member of the farming community, and farmed extensively and in his young days was a keen horseman and his passing has occasioned deep and widespread regret not alone in his native parish, but all over West Waterford and East Cork, where he was well and popularly known. He was a good friend ever ready to give a helping hand to those in trouble, an ideal neighbour, and a most kindly man, and to his bereaved brother, sisters and other relatives, the deep sympathy of the community is extended in their sorrow and loss.

The funeral took place on Tuesday from his late residence to Mogeely cemetery, accompanied by one of the largest funeral corteges seen in the district for years, many travelling very long distances to pay a last tribute to a friend. Rev. Fr. Flynn, P.P. Knockanore, assisted by Rev. T. Tobin C.C., read the last prayers at the graveside.

The chief mourners included—Mr. J. Ducey (brother), Mrs. J. Walsh, Miss E. Ducey (sisters), Mr. J. Walsh, Mr. T. Walsh, Mr. F. McCarthy, Mr. P. McCarthy (nephews), Miss N. Walsh, Miss E. Walsh, Miss M. McCarthy (nieces), Mr. J. Walsh, Mr. M. McCarthy (brothers-in-law), Mr. J. Walsh, Mr. P. Walsh, Mr. T. Richardson, Mr. J. Leahy, Miss E. Walsh (cousins and relatives).

AN EXILE'S THOUGHTS ON DUNGARVAN

When sitting by the fireside I often times at night—
—Muses over days departed, and fancy takes a flight,
And then it seems to me that I again am rambling o'er
Those paths I trod and loved so much by sweet Dungarvan shore.

This night in fancy I can see the moonlight on the bay—
In fancy I am back again where I was won't to stray,
I stand to view the ever dear and loved old Abbeyside
—And spend once more a pleasant hours beside the flowing tide

Now with a friend, round Hermitage I seem to wend my way,
—Anon it is in Shandon our footsteps seem to stray
And strolling there, my friend and I enjoy the balmy air
—Then in the Friary Chapel we kneel to offer prayer

I view the Park with dreamy gaze, and seem once more to be —Aboard the "Frisco" with the lads and sailing o'er the sea,
With comic songs and many jokes we cross the Western bay
—And pass the time right merrily till we land at Cody's Quay,

Along the "New Line" we would walk on Sunday afternoon
—And keep in step and march in time to some old favourite tune
We'd whistle all the Marches and Operas ever known —In faultless style and proper time and in melodious tone

I dream again of Helvick, its rocks and mountain clear,
—And stroll along the cliffs and view its scenes to my heart dear
The College—where our Irish tongue is taught to young and old,
—And where to all our ancient land its history will unfold

The Ballinacourty Lighthouse I've often been around,

And watched awhile vessels as they lay in sound,
In thoughts and dreams I wander to those scenes of boyhood days,
—And see the dear loved frie of old in the sparkling side blaze

The quarry and the lime where in schooldays o' strayed
The mossy hills and fields green where as a lad played
At football and at cricket those days of summer tim
Of those glad years I and dream while in foreign clime

The Cunnigar I often see pass through Larry's land
His little house, the well by the fields covered o' with sand
The rabbit burrows all about the sheep on little hill
When thinking of those happy days my heart with pleasure thrills.

"Quann's fields" and mound scene in memory ever dwe
—And that lovely walk do Youghal road to Friar. Tw meys well
With emblems hung upon trees by those from far and near
Who have drank the pies water and knelt in pious prayer.

Cooney's Lough, the Bat place the "Look-out" "The Stage"

Come once again the scenes old—my own Dungarvan home

The vision fades Alas! al where is my friend so true
Where are those walks loved so well? Ah, faded from my view!
Where are the haunts in which we scayed in days so brig and gay!
The firelight dies, and faded the dream... and I am away!
