Sporting Flashes

(B. E. GAN)

I was at Egan's Hotel, Dungarvan, on Sunday last when the County Convention went into session. There was only a small attendance, but it had been any greater there would have been no room to house all the delegates. As it was, things were pretty stuffy!

As I predicted last week the discussions on the balance sheet proved the most interesting and the leading questions asked put the Secretary, Chairman and Auditor into many a huddle. Their answers to a lot of the questions were rather vague. The auditor explained what was termed as a balance sheet with a "mass of errors," by stating that they were printers' errors (I need hardly state that this document was not printed by the "Leader" Printing Works).

When asked by a delegate whether the balance sheet which showed at least one omission on the expense side, was a true statement of the Board's affairs, the Chairman had to answer: "I suppose it's not!"

The Sec was called to book by Mr Michael O'Connor for personal remarks directed against a delegate who asked a few thorny questions, but he was forced to withdraw what he said and rightly so!

The salary of the Sec brought a big list of suggestions, but that made by Mr Connors, and later withdrawn that the Sec be paid 12½% of the total gate receipts was to my mind the most honourable one. He pointed out that it was unfair for the Sec to be getting commission from Munster Council and other grants, and money coming in from the Divisional Boards! His point was most straightforward. It was proposed to grant the Sec a permanent salary of £100 p.a. and that the Board stamp his cards the latter suggested by the Chairman, but it was finally decided to grant him 10% on the total gross receipts.

Now here's a point—the Sec gets 10% on the total income of the Board. Is he also entitled to look for 10% on the expenses? I know that he expected it where the printing account was concerned and if he looks for it in one item, I take it he looks for it in all the other items as well. If such is the case the Sec is having it both ways and instead of £100 salary as it was this year it was actually far in excess of that amount!

For the amount of work entailed—I think 10% on gross gate receipts should have sufficed, and it was then up to the Sec to bring up the gates to the highest possible level.

Reverting to the question of commission, I wonder if the Sec could tell me what came off the amount paid for printing in the city. When he got none from the "Leader" he refused to give them any printing and thereby started a controversy!

A Waterford delegate said there was no need for this as there was only one trade union printing house in Dungarvan and the printing was not being done there as it should. By placing the Board's printing in a non-union shop, the Sec must be bringing the Board under the shadow of suspension as they are breaking a rule. If such is the case are the Board in order in making any ruling at all? So much for the famous balance sheet of 1943!

The best job of the day was the bringing back to the head of Board affairs of my good friend "Vin" Donoghue. He was not present at the conven-

DUNGARVAN CIRCUIT COURT

The Hilary Sittings of the Dungarvan Circuit Court opened at the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Wednesday last before his Lordship Judge Sealy, and concluded on Thursday after disposing of one case from the Lismore district.

Mr T. A. Colbert, Co. Registrar, attended.

Old Case Settled
Mr J. I. Maguire, B.L., (instructed by Mr Williams, solr.) on behalf of Mr Martin Kiely, Knockatemore made application for payment out of court of a sum of £34 lodged to the separate credit of one James H. Kennedy.

Mr Maguire explained that there had been difficulty as his Lordship was not satisfied as to the title of the applicant to the money.

Counsel explained that during the time of applicant's father who was the then tenant of lands situate at Ballyneety and Keelroe the Board of Health had made a compulsory purchase under the Labourers Acts of a plot in his holding. The question was who was entitled to the money. The interest of Kennedy was being looked after by Miss Crinnion, Waterloo Place Dublin, for whom Messrs Farrell and Morrissey, solrs., appeared and they had reached a consent whereby it was decided to divide out the money in equal shares.

The Judge said this was the best course as Mr Kiely and Miss Crinnion were the only persons entitled to the money and he ordered that it be paid out.

Historic Right of Way Contested
Mr Whelan, Ballymullala West Ballintaylor, was plaintiff in an action against a neighbour Thomas Keane, over a disputed right-of-way.

Mr Kenny solr., was for plaintiff and Mr Maguire B.L., (instructed by Mr Williams solr.) was for defendant.

Dealing with the case Mr Kenny said that the plaintiff was the owner of a wood situate at Ballymullala West and also of a farm north of the wood. This wood is entirely surrounded by neighbours farms and the only exit is on the western side. About 100 years ago the area was part of the Carbery Estate and there was then a house in the centre of the wood which has since disappeared. Two years ago the plaintiff married into the farm when he married the daughter of Patrick Bluett who was the then owner of the land.

Near at hand, the defendant Keane lives and some 2 years ago there was a dispute between him and plaintiff, who denied the defendant the right to take timber from the wood but the delegates voted strong for him despite the adverse campaign of a certain section who to suit themselves forced John F. O'Donnell to contest the chair. I hope to see more life come to the Board now and also to see that the Board, when it makes an order takes steps to have it carried out despite the Sec's likes or dislikes.

I was also glad to see sterling Gael and staunch-Irishman Mick Connors, returned at the head of the poll as delegate to the Munster Council. Declining to go forward after three appeals he finally agreed on the request of stalwart Jamie Moiney Western Board Chairman.

These were the only important matters of the day, and I look forward with hope to the 1943 season when I will be able to give my readers a bit of inside "dope" now and again!

From this first passage-of-arms over the timber the defendant made trouble over the use of the right-of-way.

Mr Hasset, B.E., reading from an ordnance survey map of 1841 the property of the Waterford County Council, said that when he inspected the passages in the wood he found them almost identical with those on the map. The exit passage which is the cause of the proceedings showed signs of being used for many years and from his observations he said it was of great age. It was the only exit from the wood.

Mr Kenny then read letters which he wrote on behalf of plaintiff to defendant in which he challenged Keane's unwarranted attack on Whelan, and stated that his action was an infringement on all his rights. A reply through Mr Williams solicitor, said that Keane would only allow the Bluett family to use the right-of-way and no others.

The first witness was Mrs Mary Bluett, wife of Mr P. Bluett owner of the wood, now in occupation of his son-in-law. They had been there for 40 years. Mr Keane never suggested that other parties had no right to use the passage. She remembered two men who bought timber from her husband who drew it out over the passage. There was never any interference with her family or any one taking timber by Keane until this dispute. Cattle used also be driven through the passage.

To Mr Maguire—I am quite sure that timber was sold by James Noonan, son-in-law of Bluett, gave evidence of drawing out timber without interference on 2 occasions.

The defence stated they treated him as one of the family.

Garrett Fitzgerald living in Ballylemon said he knew the place during Carbery's time. Close on 50 years ago he drew heavy timber from the wood over the passage in question. A man named Pat McGrath then lived in Keane's house.

Mrs Mary Beresford, daughter of Mrs Bluett said that she lived on the farm for 25 years and during that time she never heard a dispute about the right-of-way. She understood when her father got the wood he also got possession of the right-of-way.

Mr Whelan, plaintiff said that 2 years ago he married Mr Bluett's daughter, and the reason he took the action was to protect his rights. In Dec 1941 he had an argument with the Keanes about taking timber from the wood as they had no right to it. When his solicitors wrote to Keane they got a reply to the effect that Keane was entitled to the timber in lieu of the use of the passage way through his land. On 22nd Sept, 1942 plaintiff sold timber to a man and went with him on a Sunday to inspect it. When they came to the gate at the passage Keane's son—rushed out and would not allow them to pass. He had to tell the man to go home. If such conditions were allowed to continue he could not sell timber and the wood would be useless. The drawing of timber would cause no damage as the passage was only on a bit of a headland.

Mr Maguire—You want the use of the right-of-way for any persons who may purchase timber so that they can bring in cars and even lorries!

Witness—I want the right-of-way that was ever there.

Mr Maguire—If Keane offered you a license to use the passage so for a few years would you be satisfied?—Witness—No.

Mr Maguire—Why?—Witness—I'd want to forever.

Thomas Keane—Defendant

New Bishop Of Waterford

CANON COHALAN TO GOVERN SEE OF WATERFORD AND LISMORE

It was announced on Wednesday evening, Feb 3rd, that Very Rev. D. Canon Cohalan, P.P., St. Finbar's West, Cork, had been appointed by the Holy Father to the vacant See of Waterford and Lismore, in succession to His Grace Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, who was some time ago elevated to the Coadjutorship of the Archdiocese of Cashel and Emly.

The announcement, which was made from the Nunciature, Dublin, will give great joy to the people of Cork, amongst whom the new Bishop is one of the best known personalities of the Catholic clergy. Waterford, too, is fortunate indeed in having its spiritual destinies entrusted to the abiding care of a truly great priest—one who throughout the whole course of his sacred ministry has deeply endeared himself to those amongst whom he laboured.

The new Bishop is a nephew of the present Bishop of Cork, His Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. Cohalan.

Like his revered uncle, he is a native of the parish of Kilmichael, near Bandon, Co. Cork, where he was born in 1884.

The new Bishop is a Doctor of Philosophy and a Doctor of Canon and Civil Law.

We whole-heartedly welcome our new Bishop and pray that God will grant him length of years to rule over the historic Diocese of Waterford and Lismore.

agreement, and that Keane had no right to take the timber from the wood.

A decree for £1 damages, and the making of a declaration of right-of-way for Whelan was given.

Receiver Appointed
Mr James Halpin, Manager.

The above-mentioned Order made by the Government on 26th January 1943 revokes the Emergency Powers (No 150) Order 1942 and contains the following main provisions -

Article 3 Any provision in a letting of land prohibiting or restricting the use of the land for the growing of wheat, or providing for an increased rent if wheat is grown, shall be void

Article 4 A person shall not make it a term of a conacre letting of land that the land is not to be used for the growing of wheat or that an increased rent is to be paid if wheat is grown on the land

Articles 3 and 4 shall not, however invalidate

(a) a provision in an agreement for the letting of land for two or more years requiring that a manured root crop or a potato crop shall be sown in any one of such years as part of a rotation in accordance with proper methods of husbandry, or

(b) a provision in an agreement for the letting of land for one year requiring that a manured root crop or potato crop and no other crop shall be sown, provided that no such agreement for the letting of such land for the next following year shall contain a similar provision.

The rights, under the previous Order, of a tenant who contrary to the terms of a letting agreement, has sown winter wheat prior to the making of the present Order are preserved

Copies of the Order will be placed on sale without delay

Western Divisional G.A.A. Notes (By AN RUNAIDHE)

An Early Start Indicated - Thank God that the last of the Conventions are over and done with We can look forward to Sunday week's meeting for the Draws and Fixtures Somehow once the draws are made and dates and venues fixed I feel as if the year has started The hurling and football competitions will give an early start to the Senior teams and all those clubs thinking of having a try at the cups and medals, should be ready to play out the competition by the 1st Sunday of April at the very latest The junior and minor teams should also avail of the first of the season to get their engagements over Sometimes there is a reluctance to field out in the first of the season but I cannot see any good reason why our championships should not start off on the first Sunday of March

The Co Convention - The Co Convention passed off rather quietly and there was very little surprise elections. Micheal O'Donnada, comes back as Chairman as was expected in view of his excellent work for the Board during the past six years. Dec O'Connell and Sean Ormonde also retain their old position and Micky Connors and Charlie Ware still represent us at the Munster Council. Congratulations to all and may I appeal to all the members of the County Board for a year that will be marked by a spirit of co-operation tolerance and good comradeship throughout our games and Councils Everyone who has our Association interests at heart will join me in my request. Each member must do his part to help.

Old Parish To Enter - The latest and best news from the Sean a Pobul is that they are entering a football team in the championships A number of keen young Gaels from this area are reviving interest in Gaelic games and they are quite confident they can put their neighbours and rivals in the second place Old Parish if entered would fit in nicely to the Clashmore group and have been competition with Ardmore, Clashmore Villierstown Aghlish and Geosh What about Old Parish?

Cappoquin Club Meeting - Cappoquin G.A.A. Club held their Annual meeting last week The following are the officers for the year Hon Pres - Mr P McCarthy Chairman - Mr Ed Lonergan Vice-Chairman - Mr N Herr Hon Sec - Mr Wm O'Donnell Hon. Treas - Mr P Cunningham Committee - Messrs J Ahearne E Brady, P English and John Regan (Senr)

The question of the teams to be affiliated was left over to a further meeting but the following were elected as captains - J.F. - Mr J J O'Sullivan, J.H. - Mr Patk English Draws And Fixtures - The meeting for the Draws and Fixtures will be held in Cappoquin on Sunday week at 3 p.m (S.T) Teams desiring to enter should send in affiliation fees at once Full particulars from Divisional Sec T A O'Cadain G.A.A. The County Convention
(By The SPOILER)

The Annual Co Convention of the Gaels of Waterford was held in Egan's Hotel on Sunday last and was attended by only a fair number. Many clubs from the East and West had no representative present, but this was partly due to transport difficulties. Mr John F O'Donnell, Lismore, presided.

The Chairman welcomed the delegates and said that the County had done badly in their inter-county contests, but that their county championships had proved a huge success.

The Minutes of the previous Convention were taken as read and signed and Standing Orders were adopted. We might here state that the Standing Orders were thrown overboard completely and matters became most irregular.

The next item was the Statement of Accounts and Balance Sheet, the Editor informed me that ELGAN had dealt with that item so I must cut it short. Arising from questions put to the Chair, the Board's printing became a hot iron, and the Secretary had to give the amounts paid to the various printing offices in the city and county.

Out of £40 odd expended the city printing offices got £7 and one office in Dungarvan got £30 odd. Of course there are two printing offices in Dungarvan and the Board's orders were to give them 50-50, but the Secretary refused to carry out this order and the "Dungarvan Leader" because they would not give the Secretary Commission on his account were ignored.

If this is playing the game off the field, what must playing the game on the field be like.

When the discussion about the printing was going on, Mr Joe Mason Cappoquin, had an axe to grind over some remarks made by ELGAN in last week's "Leader". I strongly endorse the remarks that Mr Mason took exception to and reiterate that M V O'Donoghue, is and has proved himself to be the one and only man capable of running the GAA affairs in this County in a straight manner.

Mr W O'Donnell Cappoquin, is another Gael who took exception to reports appearing in the "Leader" concerning the Cappoquin Club of which he is the Sec, but if Mr O'Donnell was such an ardent Gael then he should have endeavoured to keep within the rules and not be giving us the painful duty of exposing such ugly tactics as some members of the Cappoquin Club indulged in for the Co JH Final.

Now Joe tell Willie the Chairman's ruling which was given at the Convention after a lot of arguing.

Supporters or followers suspend themselves by even having a side-bet for a cigarette—Be careful ye faithful fellows during 1943 as the "Leader" with its truly democratic principles will always speak aloud!

Concerning the Secretary's report Mr O'Dea said that whatever success the Board had in the year's working was due to the initiative of Mr M V O'Donoghue, in introducing the league system in Co Finals. He said such a record should be inserted in the report and the Convention agreed in toto with Mr O'Dea remarks and it was ordered that they be inserted in the report.

An application by the Dungarvan Branch of the Irish Red Cross Society, for a grant from the Board was adjourned until further inquiries be made as to who would benefit by the grant.

The Divisional Reports were then adopted and the election of officers was proceeded with. Mr M V O'Donoghue, BE, was elected by 36 votes to 22 for Mr J F O'Donnell.

Mr Sean Ormonde was re-elected Treasurer, and Mr M O'Connor headed the poll in the election for 2 representatives to the Munster Council. Mr C Ware getting the second place.

The motions were then gone through and some of them adopted and some rejected. Tallow withdrew their motion claiming the right to contest the Co Senior Hurling Final for 1942 against Elin's Own.

The motion in the name of the Dungarvan Hurling and Football Club concerning the Selection Committees, resulted in some dirty linen being washed and we have to wait for the first County Board meeting to get at the root of this matter.

This is a very serious thing Charlie and there are many who are very anxious to see what Sean Murphy, the Secretary of the Cork Co. Board has to say when he will be asked to substantiate your statement.

TWO FAMOUS AND POPULAR FAMILIES UNITED—

Glendine Catholic Church, in the parish of Knockanore, was the scene of a very pretty and interesting wedding on Wednesday morning, Feb 3rd, when Mr Joseph Barron, second youngest son of Mrs Hanora Barron, Ballinacree, and the late Mr John Barron, Master Baker, Castle Street, Cappoquin was married to Miss Joan Hickie only daughter of the late Mr Andrew Hickie, PC Hardware and General Merchant Lismore, and the late Mrs Hickie, do.

The bridegroom is a member of one of the oldest, and most honoured families in Cappoquin, as several generations of the Barron family have been prominently identified with the bakery trade in the town, and for many years his father, the late Mr John Barron, was foreman in several of the most important bakeries here before he established an extensive and most successful baking establishment of his own in Castle Street, which has since been considerably developed, and is now being conducted on the most modern and up-to-date lines by Joe. Each generation of the family, dating back for nearly 200 years, has been noted for its high musical attainments and rare vocal accomplishments, and those of us who can still remember the vocal and musical talent of Cappoquin within the past half-century can recall with pride the wonderful singing qualities of the late-Miss Mary Anne Barron, who was known as the human "nightingale," who delighted crowded concert audiences in the past, and who was the leading soprano in the choir of St Mary's Catholic Church in the good old days when we had a choir here of which any town should be proud, and which included such other accomplished vocalists as Miss Minne Kenny, Mr Con-Sergeant Mr Willie Sargent—Mr Tom Daly, and several others, who have long since gone to their reward but whose beautiful voices, we hope, are now included in the Cherubic Choirs of Heaven.

The bridegroom's father the late Mr John Barron, was a baritone of a very fine and rich quality, whose singing at local concerts in the past was always a rare treat to listen to, while he was also a leading instrumentalist in the old Brass and Reed Band (known as "Micky Murray's Band"), which proved his wonderful musical versatility. His son, Joe, has fully inherited all the high musical and vocal attainments of his late father, as he was a leading player in the late Cappoquin Brass and Reed Band while it existed here and has been for many years a sweet baritone singer at all our local concerts, and is at present the most accomplished vocalist in the choir of St Mary's Catholic Church.

A young gentleman of great business ability and enterprise but of an exceedingly modest and retiring disposition, he is one of the most respected and popular citizens in Cappoquin, and the large number of useful and valuable wedding presents which he received bore high testimony to the great regard in which he is held by his fellow-townsmen.

His charming bride also stands on a high pedestal of distinction and respect in her native town of Lismore. Her grandfather—the late Mr John Hickie, through his strict honesty, integrity and progressive business qualities, built up one of the most extensive and successful Hardware Establishments in Lismore and on his death several years ago, his son the late Mr Andrew Hickie continued the business on the same lines of probity and uprightness, which made him one of the most honoured and respected business men in Lismore.

His two children Peadar and Joan, have worthily sustained his proud and unblemished reputation since his death, several years ago, so that the marriage on Wednesday morning has now resulted in the union of two of the leading and most respected families in West Waterford.

The marriage ceremony (with Nuptial Mass) was performed by Rev T Tobin CC—Glen-dine in the presence of a large number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride who looked charming in a smart ensemble of navy blue, with accessories to match, was given away by her brother, Mr Peadar Hickie, and was attended by her cousin, Miss Kitty Morrison, Cork who acted as bridesmaid while Mr Hugh Barron, Dublin, (brother of the bridegroom) was best man.

After the ceremony the entire party motored to Youghal, where the wedding breakfast was served in one of the leading Hotels and later in the day the happy couple left for Cork and Duoin for the honeymoon amidst the best wishes of all for a long and unclouded life of conjugal bliss and prosperity.

SUCCESSFUL AUCTION OF LARCH SPARS—
Following the recent successful sale of Larch Spars in Balingown Wood, as reported last week, Mr M F Walsh PC, Auctioneer, was entrusted by the Ministry for Lands (Forestry Section) to hold a further auction of a similar nature in Colligan Wood on last Monday, 1st, inst, when he offered 99 lots of Larch Spars for sale.

As in the case of Balingown a fortnight ago, there was another very large attendance of farmers from all the surrounding districts, with the result that competition was again very keen and spirited, so that the entire lots were quickly disposed of at very remunerative prices and the auction proved another outstanding success for Mr Walsh.

DEATH OF AN OLD CAPPOQUIN INHABITANT—
The death occurred on last Saturday night at his residence, Barrack St., of Mr William Quinn the last member of one of the oldest families in the town.

The deceased, who was aged 76 belonged to the labouring class in the younger days, and was always a most industrious and upright man, who was held in great respect by all.

The remains were removed to St Mary's Catholic Church on Sunday evening, and after Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul on Monday the interment took place in Affane cemetery the final prayers being read by Rev T Dunphy, CC.

The funeral arrangements were satisfactorily carried out by Mr E J Fraher, Undertaker Cappoquin.

SUCCESSFUL VISIT OF LOUIS D'ALTON'S COMPANY—
The large Boathouse Hall was packed to overflowing on Sunday night, and many late arrivals had to be refused admission, when Mr Louis D'Alton and his celebrated Dramatic Company opened a four nights engagement here. It was the largest and most enthusiastic audience seen at an opening night in Cappoquin for years, and gave Mr D'Alton some idea of how the people of Cappoquin can appreciate the visit of a good Company.

Large audiences also attended on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, and all were delighted with the splendid plays staged, the perfect acting of all the artists and the engagement on the whole, can be safely described as the most successful here for many long years.

POOR PROSPECTS FOR CAPPOQUIN HURLING CLUB—
In addition to the recent departure from the town of Mr Liam Ryan, one of the best "forwards" in the Cappoquin Junior Hurling team, we understand that several other members of the team are now only awaiting their passports to go to England, so that the prospects of the team in this year's championship are not two roseate.

Even at full strength, we doubt if they would ever again go so far into the Junior Championship as they went last year, when they were runners-up for the final of the County and when they might have been winners had they played their full legal team.

Instead of that, they preferred to resort to the despicable and unsportsmanlike trick of bringing in illegal players from Tipperary who only succeeded in "killin'all" their

Mr P. R. Power, Chairman, presided at a meeting of the above at the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Saturday last. Also present were—Messrs G Torpey M F Walsh, W Terry, M McGrath D Coghlan, M O Ryan and W Dower. Mr M. A. Foley, Clerk attended.

Quarterly Payments
The paysheet for the quarter amounted to £251 3s. 5d. All the payments were recommended.

Annual Leave for VI
A letter was read from the Department concerning the annual leave of absence of Veterinary Inspectors. It was suggested that each be allowed 14 days with pay and that their substitutes be also paid by the Committee.

The Clerk asked that Inspectors should notify him as soon as possible and nominate their substitutes so that he could get the necessary sanction for their appointment.

This was approved.
"An Impertinent Letter" from the "Waterford News"

The Clerk read the following correspondence for the meeting and as a result all the members greatly resented the action taken by the "Waterford News". One member remarking that it "was nothing but a d— impertinent letter".

An Rolina Talmhaidheachta, Baile Atha Cliath
10th Dec. 1942.

Sir—I am directed by the Minister for Agriculture to transmit for the observations of your local Authority the enclosed copy of a letter addressed to the Minister for Local Government and Public Health, which has been addressed to this Department. It is assumed that the general advertising of the Local Authority is not confined to Dungarvan papers.

(Enclosure)
O'Connell Street
Waterford, Oct 27th, 1942
Rt Hon Sean McEntee,
Minister for Local Government,
Dublin

A Dhuine Usall.—We have had a letter today from the Clerk to the Local Authority under the Diseases of Animals Acts in the County of Waterford who comparing price which we have tendered for the advertising of his Committee with that of two small newspapers, declares that his committee were of the opinion that our price should not exceed that tendered by those papers.

We should like to point out to you the absurdity of advertising in TWO Dungarvan papers, Dungarvan being little more than a village in the circumstances we would respectfully suggest that you refuse to sanction the insertion of the advertising in two papers in Dungarvan—Yours Respectfully,
(Signed)

The Waterford News Ltd
Department of Agriculture
Dublin 7th Jan 1943

Sir.—I am directed by the Minister for Agriculture to refer to this Department's letter—L3157-42 of the 10th Ultimo, and its enclosure bearing on the question of your Local Authority's arrangements with respect to advertising and to state that the Minister will be glad to be furnished with a reply on the matter.

Mr M. F. Walsh dealing with the "News"—circulation claim and the reference made to the two small newspapers in Dungarvan said that as far as he knew they had more circulation than Mr Downey's "News".

Mr Terry said that under the circumstances, the "News" should not be given the ad-

hopes of success for 1942
"VIN" O'DONOGHUE'S ELECTION—

We were very glad to learn that Mr "Vin" O'Donoghue was successful in getting re-elected as Chairman of the Co Board GAA, on Sunday last, at the Co Convention in Dungarvan, as it requires a man of brains as well as brawn, to efficiently fill this responsible position and "Vin" possesses these in abundance.

It is high time that partisan and vindictive types of Gaels should be relegated to a back seat in the government of our County affairs, and made realise that they cannot with impunity, misuse the cloak of "sportsman" in order to have a cowardly shot at those who do not agree with them!

tising of the Committee. It was pointed out that the areas affected by the Sheep Dipping Advertisements were well covered by the Dungarvan papers, and the Committee were quite satisfied with the present arrangements.

Mr O Ryan—Although this is nothing but a d— impertinent letter, in fairness to all I think if I am in order in suggesting it, that they should be offered the advertising at the same rate as the other papers.

Concerning the Minister's request for the Committee's observation on the references made by the Honourable Mr Downey in his 'indictment'.

The Committee were of opinion that the present arrangements were satisfactory as the two Dungarvan newspapers have a wide circulation all over the county where the sheep population is densest.

Questioned about the famous editor's attack on the town of Dungarvan, the members said they would leave it to 'Dungarvan's newspapers to deal with'.

Sheep Population of County
Returns of the number of sheep in the County showed that in the West there were 11 808 sheep in the lowlands as against 4 452 in the East (The "News" circulation area) and that there were 31 069 in the mountain areas of the West as against 7,070 in the East.

"How Are The Mighty Fallen"
Dealing with the revised quotations from the "Waterford Star" "The Munster Express" (both at 4d per line which were accepted) and again "The Waterford News" the Committee were amused by the line taken by Mr Downey. It was almost meek and diplomatic. How could two such letters of the same date from the same pen and on the same subject be so much unlike was a question beyond the Committee to answer.

The letter was as follows—
Waterford News,
27/10/42

Dear Sir.—We are in receipt of your letter of the 26th inst re our quotation for advertising.

We think, considering the circulation importance of our newspaper, especially in the eastern portion of the county and the price quoted compares favourably with the price favoured by the two Dungarvan papers. In the circumstances we would be glad if your Committee will meet us by accepting our quotation of 5d per line. We would be glad to have their views on the matter—Yours Faithfully,

Waterford News Ltd
Despite Mr Downey's diplomacy, the Committee made the following order—

"We are not prepared to accept any tender in excess of that tendered by the other Waterford newspapers"

Routine Business
After other routine business dealing with statistics and reports had been dealt with, the meeting concluded.

COUNTY OF WATERFORD
THE ELECTORAL ACT, 1923

Notice is hereby given that the County Council of Waterford has adopted a scheme of Polling Districts and Polling Places in pursuance of the provisions of the Electoral Act, 1923, so as to provide, by the appointment of new and additional Polling Places, adequate facilities in voting.

Copies of the scheme may be inspected at the County Council Offices between the hours of 10 a m and 1 p m on any week day during the period of two weeks from the date of this notice, or a copy of the scheme will be supplied to any elector on payment of threepence.

Sub-Section (5) of Section 42 of the Electoral Act, 1923, provides that the Council of any Urban District or not less than thirty Electors in the County may make representation to the Minister for Local Government and Public Health—that the Polling Districts or Polling Places do not meet the reasonable requirements of the Electors or any body of Electors in the County and the Minister shall consider the representation and may, if he thinks fit, direct the Council to make such alterations as the Minister shall think necessary in the circumstances, and if the Council fail to make these alterations within a month after the direction is given may himself make the alterations, and any alterations so made shall have effect as if they had been made by the Council.

THE LATE
MRS. MARY WALSH,
"WALSH'S HOTEL," CAPPOQUIN

(From Our Cappoquin Correspondent)

A terrible and painful, shock was caused in Cappoquin when the sad news was received at a rather late hour through the Garda telephone on Tuesday night, Jan 26th that Mrs Mary Walsh proprietress of "Walsh's Hotel," Cappoquin had been drowned in Youghal on that night.

The news had a stunning effect on those who were up late enough to hear it, including the writer, while those who had then gone to bed received the news with almost incredulity when they heard it early on Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Walsh, who was a picture of perfect health and good spirits, had left Cappoquin by the ten o'clock train on Monday morning to go to Cork on important business, but was then informed by the Station-master, Mr J Kelleher, that she could not hope to return the same evening, as the only train for Cappoquin was leaving Cork as early as two o'clock, which seemed to cause her some worry, as, with true motherly devotion, she was anxious to get back to her family that night.

She had, accordingly, to remain in Cork on Monday night, and finding further business to transact there on Tuesday she unfortunately, missed the 2 o'clock train for Cappoquin, and sent a telegram to that effect to her family on Tuesday afternoon.

Apparently, in the hope of being in a better position to get a motor car to drive her home from Youghal, she took the train from Cork that night to Youghal, and which was due to arrive in Youghal about 9 o'clock, and this proved the fatal step, because when she got off the train in Youghal she, unfortunately, missed her way in the darkness, and stepped into the sea at a dangerous opening in the roadway, where the full tide at the time was practically level with the road. She was seen in the water by two local girls, Bessie Morrison and Lily Glavin, who raised the alarm, and although several willing helpers quickly arrived on the scene and pulled her out of the water, she was unconscious when brought on shore. She was removed to the Strand Hotel, nearby, where Doctors Kennedy and O'Riordan, applied artificial respiration for two hours, but all to no avail, and life was then pronounced extinct.

The last rites of the Catholic Church were administered by the Rev Father Dennehy and the Rev Father Dwyer, who were quickly on the scene, and thus ended the career of one of Cappoquin's most popular and most esteemed business ladies.

The late Mrs Walsh was a native of Dromore, Aglish being a member of the respected Trihy family, and was relict of the late Mr William Walsh, Proprietor of "Walsh's Hotel," Cappoquin brother of Mr M F Walsh, P.C., Auctioneer, Mr Aidan Walsh, Springfield, Bewley, Cappoquin, Mr Paddy Walsh, Cappoquin, Mrs. Nell Ebrill, do, and Mrs Stella Davey, Provincial Bank, Clonmel.

A lady of tall and graceful stature, with lovely golden hair she was a wonderful favourite in Cappoquin, as her kind, genial and cheerful manner had won the hearts of all.

A thorough sporting lady she had owned several brilliant greyhounds in the past, and was a popular and notable competitor at Clonmel Greyhound Racing Track, and many other sporting centres in Munster, where she had enjoyed wonderful popularity with all.

Since the regretted death of her late popular husband, she had conducted the business of "Walsh's Hotel" with great ability while her charming personality and amiable and generous disposition had greatly enhanced the popularity of this favourite "Hotel," and made it one of the most favourite haunts of the young men of Cappoquin for years.

She has now left behind her to mourn her loss two pretty and esteemed daughters, Mrs Maud O'Loughlin and Miss Justina Walsh, and a fine sporting son, Master John Walsh, a notable huntsman, and to these, as well as all her other relatives in Dromore Deerpark, Villierstown, and other places, the deepest sympathy of the people of Cappoquin is now offered in their great bereavement.

The Inquest
A verdict in accordance with the medical evidence that death was due to asphyxia as a result of drowning, was returned at the inquest on the body of Mrs Mary Walsh, (50), "Walsh's Hotel," Cappoquin. Deputy Coroner W St Clair Rice s/o Mr Midleton, said it was quite possible to make an error in the darkness at that particular spot, and a person would turn into the gap believing there was a turn there. The night in question was dark and the tide was almost full. A big wave caught deceased. He had no doubt that the poor woman was the victim of an accident and he was quite satisfied she died as the result of the accident. Last year he suggested that proper life-saving appliances should be provided and he now made the same recommendation to the proper authority, and he thought that a gate should be put across the Gap. He complimented Mr Walsh who rushed into the water in an attempt to rescue the woman without thought of his own danger.

Striking Funeral Tributes.
Few deaths of prominent townspeople of Cappoquin have caused such a sincere and profound feeling of sorrow as the sad and unexpected death of Mrs Walsh, the well-known and esteemed proprietress of "Walsh's Hotel," Cappoquin, which occurred under such painfully tragic circumstances in Youghal on Tuesday night, week January, 26th as described in the foregoing article, which was written for last week's issue, but was delayed too long in transit to enable it to be published last week.

In addition to the many high traits of character with which she was so lavishly endowed, perhaps her most outstanding trait was her wonderful spirit of generosity in supporting every sporting or charitable movement started in the town for many years.

When public collections were made for the Point-to-Point Races, Regattas, Sports Meetings, or any other worthy object, she had always headed the list with a very substantial subscription and in this and many other respects, she fully upheld the reputation of her late husband, Mr Willie Walsh, who like all the other members of the Walsh family had long been regarded as the most decent sportsman in Cappoquin.

Had the death of such a popular and respected lady occurred under natural circumstances at home, it would still be regarded as a serious loss to Cappoquin, but, happening as it did under such tragic circumstances in Youghal, her premature end caused an intensified feeling of gloom amongst all classes in Cappoquin who rightly regarded her death as being both a severe social and financial loss to the town.

On Wednesday evening week her remains which were encased in a beautiful panelled coffin of polished American oak, with rich silver mountings, were conveyed from Youghal, via Clashmore by motor hearse, and a striking tribute of respect was paid to her memory by Comdt Murphy, Defence Forces and a number of the Officers and men under his command who joined the funeral in Youghal and marched with it almost to the outskirts of the town.

Although it was raining heavily in Cappoquin when the funeral was due to arrive there about 5 o'clock, large numbers of the leading people of the town travelled out a long distance to meet it including Rev T Fitzgerald, P.P., and Rev T Dunphy, C.C., who headed the sad cortege through the town and received the coffin at the entrance to St Mary's Catholic Church, where it remained overnight.

Requiem Masses for the eternal repose of deceased's soul having been offered up before large and devout congregations on Thursday morning the funeral took place at 2 o'clock (S.T.) to the family burial plot in St Declan's cemetery, Dromore about a mile from the town when, despite another heavy downpour of rain there was a wonderful attendance of the general public from Cappoquin and all the surrounding districts, a particularly large contingent of mourners being present from her native Dromore so that the funeral proved to be of a highly representative character—and a touching and striking mark of love and respect for the memory of such a popular and deeply-regretted lady.

The cortege was headed, by Rev T Fitzgerald, P.P., and the Rev T Dunphy, C.C. who pronounced the final absolution at the graveside after which all that was mortal of a genial and generous lady, an upright Catholic, and a most loving and devoted mother was reverently laid to rest beside the grave of her late lamented husband in the pretty and well-kept family plot which is surmounted by an artistic marble statue of the Sacred Heart which was erected at great expense by the late Mrs Walsh, several years ago.

Many an eye was dimmed with tears as the grave was finally closed and the deepest sympathy of all was extended to her three afflicted children who were pathetic figures at the graveside.

The chief mourners included Mrs Maud McLoughlin, Miss Justina Walsh and Master John Walsh (children) Mrs E Ryan, Dromore (sister) Master Thomas Ryan and Miss Mary Ryan (nephew and niece), Michael F Walsh P.C., Cappoquin, Aidan Walsh Springfield Paddy Walsh, Cappoquin, and John Ryan, Dromore, (brothers-in-law) Mrs Nell Ebrill, Cappoquin, and Mrs Stella Davey, Clonmel (sisters-in-law), Rory McLoughlin, (son-in-law) Mrs M F Walsh Mrs A Walsh Mrs P Walsh, Thos Ebrill, B.A., Martin Davey Clonmel Mrs Monica Barron Mrs Gretta Burns, Mrs Grace O'Connor Miss Carmel Walsh, Norman Walsh Miss Rosamund Ebrill, Cappoquin, Miss Maggie Corbett, Deerpark Lismore MI and Jack Corbett do John and Mrs Gould Youghal, M J O'Connor, Cappoquin the Misses M and B Ahearne Piltown, Youghal Mrs Norah Ryan (nee Trihy) Park Terrace, Dungarvan The Trihy family Grange Youghal Mrs and Miss McGrath Ferrypoint, Youghal Miss Cotter Dromore J Cotter do, Mrs Healy do, the Terry family, Coolbagh, Clashmore, etc (cousins and relatives).

Co. Waterford Committee Of Agriculture

The same members with the addition of Messrs M Keating and M Harty held a meeting of the Co Committee of Agriculture, after the Diseases of Animals Committee meeting on Saturday last Jan 30th.

Minutes
When the question of reading the minutes arose the members suggested that in future the minutes be circulated so that members could have them read before the meeting. This was agreed.

No Increase
The following notice of motion was before the meeting—
"I hereby give notice that I will move at next meeting of the County Committee that the Order of the Committee fixing the fees of service of Premium Boars in the County at 7/6 in the cases of persons with P.L.V. over £10 be rescinded and that a new Order be made fixing the fee at 6/6 for each service, such Order to continue for the duration of the emergency"—Signed Michael O'Ryan.

Before it was considered, a letter from the Department was read which refused to approve of any increase and which stated that the fee must be the same as before, that is 5/- It also stated that when 20 sows had been served an owner could then charge what he liked. After a short discussion it was passed that owners should be entitled to an increased amount during the emergency owing to the small number of sows going to boars and the increased cost of feeding stuffs.

Lime Supply
Concerning the distribution of lime for 1943 Mr Harty proposed that those who had been disappointed last year should get preference this year.

This was unanimously agreed. Premium Bull
On the proposition of Mr Walsh it was decided to grant a premium bull to Mr P J

On the suggestion of Mr P O'Shea, Horticultural Instructor it was decided to spend £100 for February on Shelter Belts in lieu of the Orchard Planting Scheme. The £150 already voted to the Shelter Belt Scheme had been spent.

Death Of
Mrs. Bridget Moore,
Bawnfaun, Cappoquin

We deeply regret to announce the death of Mrs Bridget Moore Bawnfaun, only a couple of miles from Cappoquin which occurred after a rather brief illness on last Friday, Jan 29th.

Deceased was widow of the late Mr Patrick Moore, who died only eight months previously, and was a fine robust type of Irish womanhood, whose kindly and generous nature had made her a great favourite with all who knew her.

She had reared a grand family of two sons and three daughters, the latter having resided in England for several years past, but having learned of their beloved mother's illness some weeks ago, they hastily returned home, and had the great consolation of being at her bedside when she quietly breathed her last, after she had received the last ministrations of the Catholic Church on Friday evening.

Her death, within such a comparatively brief period of her husband's decease, has proved a sad blow to her devoted sons and daughters, all of whom are justly held in the highest respect in their native district, as well as in Cappoquin and all the surrounding districts and they now have the deepest sympathy of all classes in their sad double bereavement.

On last Saturday evening her remains were conveyed from her late residence to Modeligo Catholic Church when the large and respectable attendance of mourners from all parts proved the great respect felt for the members of her family, as well as being a well-merited tribute to the memory of the deceased lady.

Requiem Masses for the repose of her soul were celebrated in Modeligo Church on Sunday morning, after which the interment took place in the adjoining Cemetery, in presence of the entire congregation, and many mourners from distant places outside the parish.

The Rev T J Murphy Adm., Modeligo read the last prayers at the graveside.

The chief Mourners were—William and James Moore (sons), Mrs Wright Mrs Goody and Miss Mary Moore, (daughters) —Mrs. O'Brien, Dyrick Mrs Kiely Mrs O'Grady and Mrs Finneral, (sisters) James Moore, Cappoquin and Thos O'Brien (brothers-in-law) Eric Wright and Michael Goody (sons-in-law) Mrs Alice Moore do, Thomas and William Moore do, Miss Josie Moore Dublin, Thomas Kennedy Woodhouse, the O'Malley family, Melleray the O'Grady family Lyrrattan, the Harte family, do the Kiely family, do the Strauffane family Garigneva Mrs Sheedy, Cappagh Miss G Lynch, do the Griffin family Lyre East the O'Brien family, Lickoran the Clonin family, Bawnfaun the Denn family do P Downey, do the Casey family Belmount, the Kett family Moneygurn, the Butler family, do,

Dungarvan Leader
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6 1943

"THE RIGHT HONOURABLES"

The Committee acting as the Local Authority under the Diseases of Animals Acts when they held their meeting in Dungarvan (mind you!) on Saturday last were told a thing or two when to quote the letter "The Rt Honourable Sean McEntee" Dr Ryan (whether we are to prefix the Rt Honourable here or not we don't know) and the nabob of Editors the High and Mighty Alan Downey of the "Waterford News" combined in a trio to attack the Committee two Dungarvan newspapers and before they had finished even-attacked the status of the Old Boy himself. In his most stylish letter (which we presume was only for the benefit of the Rt Hon gentleman to whom it was adressed) he attacks the circulation of the "Leader". We make no idle boasts about having the highest net sales of all combined newspapers in Waterford city and county—Oh! no! We let the public judge for themselves and then we are satisfied with the opinion of those elected to represent them.

Let the great Alan sit back in his grand palatial office and digest the orders made by the Committee. They are satisfied that the Dungarvan papers have a wide circulation all over the county. We let other people blow our trumpets!

What we are most concerned with is that Mr Downey (who must never have visited our town) should have such a miserable opinion of Dungarvan. Indeed we are very much put out, and are sorely hurt that we should appear so insignificant in the eyes of the mighty! We hasten to point out our importance and presume that the omniscient Editor who got caught out so often when translating Latin tags (Foras sesto rubon etc.) will put in a good word for us with the Rt Hon Mac and the others!

Of course the thing was rotten diplomacy, writing in one vein to his friend Mac in the Dail and in a totally different one to the Clerk of the Committee—both letters on the same day. Mac let the cat out of the bag by sending poor Alan's letter to the boys who represent the plain people of Ireland (with no fancy handles to their names how are you) for their observations. Surely Mac you shouldn't have done this—Alan will never forgive you, and then what will you do without the influence of his important paper circulating in the Eastern portion of the county where all the sheep are not!

Of course Mac was giving the game away himself too, for now we see that the Dail is in O'Connell Street Waterford and not in Dublin—vide "and we suggest that you refuse to sanction etc" in his flourishing epistle. Where are we at all facing a general election!

'Tis suggested that advertising in two Dungarvan papers is too much in which area there are four times (almost) as many sheep as in the East where Mr Downey's paper circulates. Then there are three other equally good advertising mediums in the city who raised no cry—Why does Mr Downey aim to place himself in a pedestal over all. Is it because he thinks the rest of us have no "Rt Honourable" friends in Dublin?

We think now that it is high time that Mr Downey realises that the other papers in the county are in a big way, and at least just as important as his. As we have said we do not make a habit of blowing our own trumpet nor do we hit out but when we are attacked directly or indirectly Mr Downey had no axe to grind, and even if he had he had right to fight the issue straight instead of making ridiculous statements about Dungarvan being a village. We hope that he does not put the same meaning in honour when addressing his honourable friend in Dublin.

When the elections come Mr Downey will see how important both Dungarvan and the papers there are! Let him just wait with his Rt Hon friend and see!

WEDDING

On Wednesday morning last Feb 3rd at the St Mary Parish Church Dungarvan the marriage took place of Mr David Casey, eldest son of Mr Daniel Casey Grawn Kilmacthomas, and Miss Brigid Gleeson Knockboy. Rev M. O'Meara, C.C. Kilgobinet performed the ceremony.

The best man was Mr Nicholas Casey, and Miss Mary C. Power Lackendarra, was the bridesmaid. A reception was held at Egan's Hotel after which the happy couple left for their honeymoon amidst the best wishes of all for their future happiness and prosperity.

SYMPATHY

At a meeting of the Committee of the Dungarvan Literary Club, it was proposed by Mr Ed Phelan President and seconded by Mr J. Noble that we, on behalf of the members of the Literary Club tender to Mr Jos Ryan Kilmacthomas our very sincere sympathy in his sad bereavement occasioned by the death of his father Mr Timothy Ryan Emmet St Dungarvan, and also to his family and relatives. All standing in respect the vote of sympathy was passed in silence.

THE "LEADER" THANKED—At a general meeting of the Ballyduff branch of the Irish Red Cross Society, the following resolution was passed—

That we the Committee and members of the branch here take this opportunity of expressing our gratitude to the Editor of the "Dungarvan Leader" for the willingness to co-operate with us which he has already shown and for the publicity given to the branch through the medium of his paper. On this occasion we wish to thank him very sincerely.

AGLISH HUNT CLUB—Sunday 7th—Coolbagh Cross Sunday 14th—Aglish (Hunt-Dance Meet) 2 p.m. sharp £3.750 FOR DUNGARVAN WIDOW—

A settlement for £3750 with costs was announced before Mr Justice Overend in the High Court Dublin in an action in which Mrs Eileen O'Meara North Circular Rd Dublin and of Dungarvan claimed damages from Michael Morrissey, TD Main St Dungarvan, for loss sustained by herself and her child Michael Francis O'Meara born in Nov 1941, by the death of her husband, Lieut. Jerh O'Meara of the National Army who was killed when a motor car, the property of Mr Morrissey, in which Lieut O'Meara was travelling, crashed into the fence at Curraduff, Co Waterford, on the morning of 7th Feb 1942.

Entering judgment for the amount, Mr Justice Overend allocated £3000 to the widow and £750 to the child.

FARMERS DANCE—At Ocean View Clonea, on Sunday night the Dungarvan Branch of the Waterford Farmers Association are holding a grand prolonged Cinderella Dance. All arrangements for a perfect night have been made by Messrs Michael Fives and T Fitzgerald acting as hon secs.

OLD COMRADES IRA DANCE—A dance for the Benevolent Fund of the above will be run in Dungarvan in the near future. Full particulars will appear in later issues.

ST AUGUSTINE'S H & F CLUB—The annual meeting of the above will be held at the Social Club Abbeyside, on Sunday morning at 12.15 p.m. approx. A full attendance is requested. (—)

VIN DONOGHUE AND THE CO BOARD G.A.A.—

During the week rumour mongers have spread a report that Mr Vin Donoghue, who was elected with acclamation at the County Convention last Sunday as Chairman is now refusing to take the Chair. All we can say to these gentlemen is that we have been very, very authoritatively informed that these stories are false and unfounded and that when the County Board meets for the first time at the end of this month Vin will be in the chair—cheers!

BEWARE CEASAR—Concerning the line of action taken by Mr Downey's "Waterford News Ltd" in coming at the Diseases of Animals Committee (read the report of the meeting in another column) we think that in fairness to all they should demand an apology.

GROW FOOD CAMPAIGN—In connection with above a public meeting to be addressed by Mr J. M. Adams, of the Department of Agriculture, will be held in the Courthouse Dungarvan, on Tuesday, Feb 16th. A big attendance of farmers and all interested is expected.

L.D.F. DANCE—The Town Hall, Dungarvan was crowded to capacity for the L.D.F. Cinderella Dance on last Sunday night. The huge attendance enjoyed themselves thoroughly dancing to the strains of the Twilight Serenaders and were delighted with the vocals of Mick Kelly. Mr Nicholas Kelly who acted as MC proved himself most efficient. All look forward to the next dance run by this very able committee.

TO NIGHT—At the Town Hall Dungarvan, tonight (Friday) the Fianna Fail Party (Dungarvan Cumann) run their Annual Dance. Nicholas Kelly the Sec of the local Cumann has put in very hard work to make the night a roaring success and we are sure his efforts will be crowned by a big crowd-attending, and a very enjoyable night. See the front page announcement, and come and dance to the special dance tunes arranged by the "old Maestro"—Mick Delahunty.

Licenses
A license to receive mental defectives was granted to Carriglea Mental Hospital.
An entertainments license as granted for Lismore Courthouse.

Mr Mee Casey, Dungarvan applied to be registered as full owner of the lands of the late Nano Casey at Ballyduffmore. The Judge said that as the evidence was satisfactory, he would grant the application.

An application by his wife to have a sum of £120 belonging to David Connors, Fahafeela Kilmacthomas, paid out of court was not granted.

Statute of Limitations Bars Old Account

Mrs Briget Browne, Mitchel St, Dungarvan, had a civil bill against Margaret Norris, Englishtown, Stradbally, for £45 3s 3d on an account running from 1929 to 1939.

Mr Kenny, solr, was for Mrs Browne, and Messrs Farrell & Morrissey, solrs, appeared for Mrs Norris.

The defence pleaded the statute of limitations and claimed that the sums charged had already been paid.

Mr Kenny said that the late John Norris contracted the account and he and his sons conducted business erecting haystacks around the county. They used motor cycles and cycles and all the repairs and renovations for themselves and the other members of the family were done in Browne's.

Mrs Browne in evidence said that her husband died in 1941 and after his death she started collecting his outstanding accounts. She wrote to Norris' son Tommy to come in about the account and when he came in she told him it was about £40. He said he thought it would be about that but that he'd pay it later when he collected some money. He never came back and he and his mother then denied they owed anything.

To Mr Farrell witness said furnished during her husband's that the account was never time as he and Norris were personal friends.

Miss Mary Keohan, Youghal Road, gave evidence for plaintiff.

Mr Farrell said that the statute of limitations came into effect as there were no credits within the required time to keep the account alive and stated that all the bigger items had been paid for in cash.

Mr Tommy Norris and Mrs Norris gave evidence backing this claim and summing up the Judge said Mrs Browne is in a difficult position as her books were badly kept and she does not know whether the items were paid for or not. I can't say what is fairly and honestly due as the statute of limitations binds a lot of it. On my finding, all she is entitled to is 6 years back from the issue of the Civil Bill in Jan. 1941.

This was totalled and a decree for £3 10s 0d was given.

Gorse Fire Causes Damage
Wm. Foley, Ardchoeasly, Ardmore, had a Civil Bill claim for £50 against Desmond Dwyer, 29 Wellington St, Coik, and others for damage caused by a gorse fire on his farm on June 10th 1942.

Mr Kenny, solr, was for plaintiff and Mr Maguire B.L. acted for defendants.

Opening the case plaintiff's solicitor said that on the day in question Wm Foley and his son observed signs of smoke near the cliffs on his land. They made investigations and found the gorse in a field near the cliff on fire. He made inquiries and heard there were 3 gentlemen in the field that day. He went to the Guards and traced them and these men then admitted causing the fire.

Wm. Foley plaintiff, giving evidence said that there were 1 1/2 acres of gorse and a wire fence burned. When the Guards had traced them 3 or 4 young men came to him and said they had caused it accidentally. This could not be as his son and himself saw smoke rising from the field. They made light of the damage caused and made an offer of £4 to settle. Plaintiff asked £30 in settlement.

Mr Maguire—This fence that was damaged—it's only a wooden one and all the stakes were rotten before?—I wouldn't agree.

You thought you'd make the most of the bit of luck that came your way?—I considered it only bad luck.

Mr Maguire submitted samples of the wire from the fence.

Witness—If these are from the fence I had right to be told about it (laughter).

Mr. Maguire—I admit it was not playing cricket but 'tis hurley they play around here (laughter).

Mr. Michael Hassett, B.E., giving evidence for plaintiff that there was 146 yards of fencing damaged and to make an adequate replacement he estimated the cost at £16 10s 0.

Mr F. Murphy, Cork, Architect gave evidence for defence.

Judge—I think the plaintiff was opening his mouth too wide in looking for so big a sum. It is difficult to measure the amount of damage as Foley took no trouble to put up the fence and his whole attitude hasn't appealed to me. The burning of furze is important and I accept the fact that the wire was affected by fire. The combination of a bad wire fence and furze made a goodish fence and I think plaintiff is entitled to his fence. An acre of furze is also important and I will allow £12 for the fence and £2 for the acre of furze. Cost and expenses were also allowed.

Title Administration Suit

In the case of Patrick McCarthy, Barrack St, Cappoquin versus Ellen O'Driscoll do and Thomas McCarthy, do, who contested the title administration of the estate of the late Thomas Curran amounting to 70 acres mountain land and deposit receipts amounting to £953 and other assets. The Justice after hearing the preliminary evidence of plaintiff adjourned the case to the next sittings.

Mr Maguire, B.L., (Messrs Farrell & Morrissey) for plaintiff said that his client was the personal representative of Thos Curran who died last year. The deceased was a very difficult man to deal with and came to live with plaintiff 8 or 9 years before his death. They had a claim of £600 for maintenance during this time.

Mr O'Carroll solr, Fermoy who was for defendants agreed to the adjournments when the issues of the deposit receipts and maintenance will be tried. It was ordered that a letter be written to the bank in Lismore directing them not to cash the deposit receipt until after the final decision.

This concluded the business of the Court.

Ballyduff Notes

Red Cross—The Annual general meeting of this branch of the Irish Red Cross Society was held on Sunday Jan 31st. The usual routine work and adoption of Treasurer's and Secretary's reports election of officers for the coming year were all done in record time. Dr E. P. Lahiff M.O. Vice-Chairman, thanked everybody for their co-operation. The Committee for the work they had done and the public for the support they had given. He pointed out how good the people were to support all functions. If the public did not respond the greater part of the work of the Committee would have been in vain. There is no need to go into detail said Dr Lahiff as the Secretary in her report will give all details of the work during the past year.

Secretary's Annual Report
The Secretary's annual report was as follows—I am very glad to be able on this my third annual report, to say that numerically we are much stronger than ever we were and financially we are very sound.

At the inception of this branch of the Irish Red Cross Society in 1940, there was a membership of 49. In 1941 the membership was 41. In 1942 the number of members was 67. Reduced to 66 by the death of one of our members. The numbers in the past year speak for themselves. We have the largest membership in the county with the exception of Waterford city.

Apart from the branch there are the lady members of a division and 12 men, while many of the paid-up members are members of a division too in one capacity or another. On the whole the Red Cross Branch here has over 100 members.

During the year much work has been done and in two points we have led the county namely in invalid cookery courses and in the collection of waste paper. We have set an example which I am sure will be followed by other branches. The invalid cookery course was both useful and instructive and the branch feels proud of those who succeeded in getting certificates. On the waste paper campaign we have helped to keep our countrymen employed and apart from Red Cross we have "served our country and our kind" and we have shown ourselves to be of vital civic spirit.

Socially the branch has not been idle. Dramatic entertainments, socials, card drives, a jumble sale and flag day have been organised. The branch has helped in conjunction the various neighbouring branches in divisional functions, dances, parades, concerts etc.

It is only fair that on an occasion like this that a tribute should be paid to our Vice-Chairman, Dr Lahiff whose unflinching and unflagging zeal has done much to make the branch the strong and active one it is. The Committee too has worked well and in harmony there is a great team spirit and when all work in harmony there is bound to be success and good results.

I think that I have touched on all branch matters and have tried to the best of my ability to give a brief but I hope lucid account of the work of the branch during the past year.

The following officers were elected—Chairman—Rev J. McCarthy. Vice-Chairman—Dr E. P. Lahiff. Treas—Mrs B. Prior. Secretary—Miss H. O'Mahony.

The following were elected as members of the Committee—Mrs B. Bolger, Mrs M. P. O'Kelly, Mrs J. Kearney, Mrs K. Meagher, Messrs J. F. MacLoughlin, W. A. Coleman, and M. A'ern.

Moorehill Notes.

Successful Dance—A very enjoyable dance was held at Moorehill Hall on Sunday night last, but owing to many counter attractions the crowd was smaller than usual but those who were fortunate enough to be present thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Meet of the Hounds—A meet of the West Waterford Hunt was held at Moorehill on Monday last and was attended by a very large gathering of sportsmen from far and near.

Record Entries—We have been informed that despite the difficulties of transport a very large number of entries have been received for the point-to-point meeting at Tallow on Wednesday next, so all that is needed is good weather to make it a "perfect" day let up hope Mr Weather man will oblige.

Salmon! Salmon!! Salmon!!!

LET'S TALK OF PORT

Some people talk about Port Wine as something unchallenging, as if this were a virtue in Wine! Whereas the truth is, that Wine is a creature, brought into life under the expert hands of the viticulturist. It has subsequently its fiery youth, its suave middle age, its mature old age and again after plenitude of years, its decay, unless consumed before that final stage. When handled by the Master Wine Makers and the understanding Wine Merchants, it is presented to the consumer in its most agreeable and most health-giving forms, such as the WINES of the
