Shocking Tragedy In Waterford

9 Killed And 21 Injured

In the early hours of Thursday morning March 4th, one of the worst accidents recorded in the country occurred when the 35 foot wall of the Old Jail at Ballybricken crashed falling on a row of small one-storey houses in Baker St. and King's Terrace.

The dead persons are—Joseph Upton (60) Patrick Upton (15) James Barrett (13) Kitty Barrett (11), James Roche, Sear (54) Maureen Roche (20) James Roche (6) Betty Stewart (2½) and an unidentified woman.

Soon after 12.45 a.m. about 50 feet of the 35 ft high wall at the North side of the jail against which there were heavy clamps of turf stacked collapsed and completely demolished 4 and badly damaged 3 houses the occupants of which were all sleeping.

With the dead people already mentioned 17 were taken to St. Patrick's Hospital where they were treated for shock and minor cuts.

Military, Fire-men and members of the Emergency Services did sterling work in clearing the debris under which the unfortunate victims were trapped.

An appeal for clothing especially women's and children has been made by the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Catholic Scout Notes

4th WATERFORD TROOP C.B.S.F. (St. Joseph's Abbeyside)

1943 Registration—Our Troop Registration Form for HQ this year shows a membership of forty-eight including the Knight Clan. The numbers are good but we have only three First Class Scouts. Seventeen are 2nd Class twenty-one are still in the baby's class and seven are Knights. The 3rd Waterford De la Salle have seven First Class Scouts now so though we can take our "hats off to the past it must be coats off to the future."

Troop Meeting—The first round in a game of Knot Cricket leaves the Tiger Patrol leading the Wolfhounds but can they keep it up next week when the bowlers take on the knot making. The Panther Patrol were given a bye into the final as holders of the Patrol Cup and we hope they won't fall flat when their turn comes. When we came to a "kipping" championship there were only two in each Patrol ready to compete and here again the Tiger Patrol were best with the rope. We took our Drill orders in Irish tonight for a change and nobody was puzzled. A "serd" in Morse-reply in Semaphore Patrol test was postponed to next week and Scouts have a chance to prepare.

Knight Clan—A pep into the Den on Tuesday last showed the two Patrols in action under the direction of their Leaders. We noticed two vacant places and a few chaps in muffin and a fair amount of work in progress. It has been arranged that a member of the Clan who can't get to a Tuesday meeting will turn up in Uniform on Wednesday for the Troop Meeting instead where he will get some useful jobs to do. The next Clan meeting will be on Tuesday next at 7.45 p.m. and it clashes with Frank O'Donovan, but that's where he loses.

Personal—Mackey made a sudden departure for New Ross this week where we hope he will be happy for a temporary stay. No doubt there is nothing very new about Ross but perhaps he will let us know why it got his name. It is said that what is up must come down and conversely says Jolla what's down must come up as he planted a spud or two nine inches apart during a visit to a ploughed field. When the back stiffness that comes when you're not used to stooping passed away he suggested growing an acre of beet to get four stone of sugar for camp. He has full permission to go ahead with the job. Somebody said that when C. Power was spud planting he put them in groups of five and that spuds were trumps. J. McEvoy is prepared to give lessons in that good old school boys game of Fox and Geese—bring your own chalk but don't come on the night of a 45 Drive as the tables will be wanted. SS

Western Divisional G.A.A. Notes (By AN RUNAIDHE)

Cohar Ramblers Medal Tournament—The semi-final of the above was played on Sunday last. Durrow defeated the Cohers in a hard game and qualified to meet Newtown on Sunday next at Ballylansan in the final. I hear that the Cohers were short four of their best players on Sunday and that otherwise they would have given a much better account of themselves. Congratulations to Durrow on reaching the final and also to the Ramblers on running off their tournament in such good order. It is hoped to play a Junior Hurling challenge with the football final on Sunday. Faha v. Kilmacthomas.

Challenge Game—Glen Rovers visit Arglan at the home venue on Sunday. Both teams are putting out the probable championship side so the spectators can look forward to a keen game. Geona Emmetts met Aglish in Aglish on Sunday in a football challenge. This new club are putting in a share of hard games for the championships.

Personal Message To J.C.—Sorry I could not manage to secure jerseys. Several teams are after the only few available. Official Warning—All teams competing in games on 14th are warned that registers must be sent in 10 days before the game to comply with Bye-Laws and General Rules.

A Very Special Appeal—May I appeal, and this time make it a very special one for subscriptions for the Eddie Hayes fund. The ex-inter county hurler and footballer who played for his county and club for a period of 15 years still lies seriously ill and unable to do anything to provide for his family or himself. To his many friends and acquaintances in the West I ask for any little help they can give. I know that many will help a comrade in distress. I acknowledge the receipt of 5/- per W. Fitzgerald on behalf of the Finnisk Rovers FC for the fund.

Correction—I have been notified by Aglish that the fixture Blackwater Rovers v. Aglish fixed for Villiersdown is dated for 11th April not the 4th April as published.

Old Parish Club Active—Things are humming in the Sean A. Pobul Transfer are being sought jerseys and togs bought and the old and young are already discussing the team's chances in their first game. The officials in charge are quite happy on many points but the question of funds for the new club is still a problem. Well a lot could be done by the supporters lads.

Tallow Club Double Engagement—Tallow travel to Camphill on Sunday to meet the local Club in Junior Hurling Challenge and also play Knockanore in Football. The club members will have plenty to do to fulfill this double fixture.

RING COLLEGE REUNION—It is expected that An Toiseach and the Minister for Education will attend the first annual reunion of the past pupils of Ring College which will be held at the Royal Hibernian Hotel on this evening (Friday March 5th).

The programme which includes as well as a ceilidhe, a social evening, supper and concert will be broadcast from Radio Eireann from 10.30 p.m. to 11 p.m. An Fear Mor President of Ring College as well as a number of the College Staff have travelled to Dublin for the occasion.

Death Of Mr. John Cahill, Abbeyside

Last week, Abbeyside, the village of his adoption mourned the death of one of its most lovable inhabitants when John Cahill of Coolagh Road, passed to the Eternal Reward which he so richly merited. The news of his unexpected death was everywhere received with stupefaction as it was almost incredible that he, who was so well-known and beloved of all should have died in his sleep early on Friday morning, February 26th, 1943.

The people of Abbeyside as indeed of Dungarvan and district also, were grievously shocked and the sincerest sympathy was extended to Mrs. Cahill in her terrible tragic loss.

John Cahill was a native of Ballinacourty and in his early teens the lure of the sea called him and he joined the British Navy where his great capabilities soon were recognised and in which he held the rank of Chief Petty Officer. After a full and very active life he came back to his native Ireland and settled down in Abbeyside. He served through the 1914-18 war and had many trying and narrow escapes, all of which he came through. From his advent to Abbeyside to the day of his tragic death his every action was of doing good.

One of the founder members of the Abbeyside Conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, he knew intimately the condition in which the poor people of the parish lived and many were the families he helped privately outside of his activities as a brother of the charitable society.

A pillar of the Church, he was always to be found to lend a helping hand to everything organised for Parochial welfare and his death will be a big loss in this respect. Abbeyside Church—the Church he loved so well and for which he did so much was indeed a credit to his efforts and care and the beautiful panegyric preached by Rev. N. Dunphy P.P. at last Mass at Abbeyside on Sunday was a fitting tribute to so great a man.

In a word John Cahill was a man's man—a man of the people and it is sad to think that his stately stature will be seen no more as he passed to and fro amongst us all. We will miss the lit of his laughter, his broad smile and his ever-ready offer of help to anyone who called on him.

Before the last Gospel of the 10.30 a.m. Mass at Abbeyside on Sunday last, Father Dunphy, in a touching and feeling address said—This Parish mourns today the loss of John Cahill who was deeply loved by us all.

He said that since his coming to take over the charge of Abbeyside parish he found no truer or more sincere friend than the late Mr. Cahill and his loss was a severe blow to the parish. Father Dunphy referred to the splendid work done by the deceased for the Church and said during the renovation and decoration of the Church he took complete charge and knowing the terms of the contract of work he made sure that everything therein was carried out. From his early years he learned what thoroughness and efficiency meant and he was never satisfied with anything that was not done in a thorough way. Nothing was too much to ask him to do for the House of God and the beauty of the Church in Abbeyside today was due to him. He was a grand man and a very charitable man and the only thing he would ask in return was to pray for him. I am sure said Father Dunphy that he richly deserved and merited the charitable prayers of us all, and it will be due to him that we think of him when we come to pray in the Church he loved so well and for which he did such splendid work during his life.

At the removal of the remains to Abbeyside Church on Friday evening there was a very large and representative funeral. Rev. N. Dunphy P.P., Abbeyside, and Rev. P. F. McGrath, P.P., Ring and Old Parish headed the cortege and were joined by Rev. M. Power C.C., Abbeyside at the Church gates. On Sunday morning the Church was thronged to capacity by mourners and friends from all districts who had come to pay their last respects to the deceased.

After last Mass, which was celebrated for the repose of his soul, his mortal remains were taken from the Church and conveyed in the arms of sorrowing friends to their last resting place in the adjoining graveyard near the sacristy, and there within the shadow of the wall of the Church he visited, so often, he was buried, while his sorrowing widow and friends stood by.

Rev. N. Dunphy, P.P., read the last prayers at the graveside.

The following Mass cards were received—

Sympathetic Friends, Jim and Alice Nagle; May J. Christopher Mrs. Morrissey, Shandon, P. and E. Foley, Square John Kennedy and family, Ballinroad Grace and Marlon Greary John and Kitty Feeney, William Donaldson and family, Michael Margaret and Mona; James and Mrs. McGowan; J. B. and Mrs. Nagle, and family, Biennocks Hermitage, Paddy and Anna, Gusti and K. Whelan Paddy Deila and Eireada Paul and Nony Quealy; K. McCarthy Parochial House, Abbeyside, Mick Andy and Katty Gannon Mrs. Foley The Bungalow New Line, Annie Young B. and K. Mulcany, Nan Whelan John and Bridget McKHugh Mollie and Pat Renahan; The Kelly family, M. Ford and J. Murphy L. & N. Mossie and Maara, The Tierney family John and Mrs. Connory Jack and Nell Terry Jack and Anne Finnissy D. and Mrs. Hurley, Church St. E. Kieley and A.

O'Connor, L. O'Farrell; Jimmy and Maggie McEvoy, Miss M. Beattie, Abbeyside; Katherine Murphy, Abbeyside; Commander Dunphy, R.N.

A message of sincere sympathy was received from Very Rev. M. C. Canon Crotty, P.P., V.F., Cahill, who was for many years P.P. of Abbeyside.

Supt P J Doyle Lismore, charged William O'Donnell Hon Sec of the Cappoquin Hurling Club and Thomas Moore with having caused malicious damage to three ladies' coats by cutting them with a penknife in Walsh's Hotel, Cappoquin, on Monday morning, Oct 5th, between 1 and 2 a.m.

Mr A. R. Farrell solr, Dungarvan, appeared for both defendants

The Supt in outlining the case, said it would be proved that on Sunday night, Oct 4th, the two defendants with several others entered Walsh's Hotel, and while the two defendants were in the "Smokeroom" between 1 and 2 a.m. on Monday morning a man named Patrick Daly, who was employed on the premises, distinctly saw O'Donnell cutting three coats one belonging to the late Mrs Mary Walsh Proprietress of the Hotel one belonging to her daughter, Miss Justina Walsh and the third belonging to Miss Mary Torpey who had been engaged as maid in the Hotel at the time

It was only fair to say that Moore did not do any of the actually cutting, but he held the garments while O'Donnell was cutting them with a penknife so that he was an accomplice in the offence

Miss Mary Torpey, who was the first witness examined by the Supt stated that she was employed as a maid in the Hotel at the time, and on Sunday night, Oct 4th, she remembered Wm O'Donnell and Thos Moore being in the Smokeroom where Mrs Walsh's coat, Miss Justina Walsh's coat and her own had been hanging on a rack

She found the three coats cut on Monday morning, and also a number of window curtains and at about 11 o'clock on the same morning Paddy Daly told her that he had seen William O'Donnell cutting them during the night The three damaged coats were now produced by the Supt and witness said her own coat had cost £3 and Miss Justina Walsh's coat about the same price, while Mrs Walsh's Waterproof coat, which was almost new, had cost a higher price

In cross-examination by Mr Farrell, solr, she admitted that there was a big crowd on the premises on that night but she was quite sure that O'Donnell and Moore were in the Smokeroom It was about 11 o'clock on the following day when Paddy Daly told her that he had seen O'Donnell cutting the coats while Moore was holding them for him

Replying to further questions she said there was a greyhound kept on the premises, which had previously damaged some window curtains but she did not believe it was the greyhound had done the damage to the coats that night

Miss Justina Walsh daughter of the late Proprietress identified her coat as one of those cut on the occasion and she also identified the coat owned by her late mother and gave the value of each

In reply to Mr Farrell, solr, she said that there were four men originally in the Smokeroom, viz Wm O'Donnell, Thos Moore Patrick O'Shea and Patrick Wall, but the two latter were later in the kitchen

Patrick Daly, Bariack St Cappoquin examined by the Supt stated that he is employed in the gardens at Belmont, but occasionally helped in the Hotel in his spare time, while the late Mrs Walsh was alive

He remembered Sunday night Oct 4th when there was a crowd of about 20 people in the Hotel

He went out to the yard between 1 and 2 o'clock when only O'Donnell and Moore were in the Smokeroom, and through a back window he distinctly saw O'Donnell cutting the coats with a penknife, while Moore was holding them for him and he reported the matter to the maid about 11 o'clock on Monday morning

Cross-examined by Mr Farrell solr, witness admitted that there was no lamp actually in the Smokeroom, but there was a lamp lighting in the hall exactly opposite the glass panels of the door, and it was by the light of this that he was able to see everything that happened in the Smokeroom

Replying to further questions, he said he later saw O'Donnell coming from the Smokeroom towards the yard and he had a long piece of window curtain in his hand at the time

Both O'Donnell and Moore were drunk at the time and when O'Donnell came into the kitchen from the yard afterwards he was cut and bleeding about the mouth and witness washed his wound and treated it with iodine to stop the bleeding

This closed the case for the prosecution

Mr Farrell, solr then opened the defence and first examined Wm O'Donnell one of the defendants, who stated that the Cappoquin Hurling team had played a championship match in Modeligo on Sunday, Oct. 4th which they had won, and the players were having a little bit of a celebration on that night

He remembered being in the Smokeroom of the Hotel on that night, but he denied having cut any coats with a penknife as he never carried a penknife with him in his life He got into the Hotel about midnight, but when he went out to the yard later, he fell over a barrel and cut his lip, and broke two of his teeth

Cross-examined by Supt Doyle, defendant said he was a labourer, and had been an Insurance Agent for about eight months He had never earned any money as a labourer, as he had usually worked at home, but he had to register as a labourer for the purpose of enabling him to go to England

Thomas Moore, in reply to Mr Farrell said he was in the Smokeroom with Wm O'Donnell Patk O'Shea, and Patk Wall but he denied that either O'Donnell or himself had anything to do with the cutting of the coats

Patrick Wall and Patrick O'Shea gave similar evidence but in the course of a severe cross-examination by Supt Doyle, O'Shea admitted having made a statement to the Guards that he had left O'Donnell and Moore alone in the Smokeroom when he was going home at one o'clock

Having heard further evidence the Justice said he had decided to convict in all cases, and he wished to know the amount of compensation the two defendants were prepared to pay

Mr Farrell, solr, then held a private consultation with his two clients after which he informed the Justice that they were prepared to pay the sum of £2 10s each as compensation provided they got a month in which to pay

The Justice made an order to this effect, and after allocating £2 for the maid's coat he allocated the remainder in respect of Mrs Walsh's and Miss Walsh's coats, and imposed nominal fines, in addition in each case

Attack On A Pressman's House

Sensational Occurrence

Supt Doyle Lismore next charged William O'Donnell, Hon Sec, Cappoquin Hurling Club, and one of the defendants in the previous case, with having attacked and caused malicious damage to the residence of John F Ryan, Press Correspondent, Mill Street, Cappoquin at about 2 o'clock a.m. on Monday morning Feb 8th

Mr A R Farrell solr, defended

The Supt said he took a very serious view of this case, because he would be able to prove that while Mr Ryan was peacefully writing or reading in his own house on Monday morning, his house was violently attacked about 2 a.m. by having the door kicked, and the windows smashed in and this was a cowardly form of offence which should be put down by the Court

The Supt added that the defendant's brother Laurence O'Donnell had a Publichouse on the South side of the Main Street but there was a long yardway leading down to Mill Street with an achway at the end the gateway of which opened out on Mill Street just beside Mr Ryan's door

He then handed to the Justice a photograph showing the proximity of O'Donnell's gate to Mr Ryan's doorway, scarcely 2 feet away

John F Ryan, Press Correspondent Mill Street was then sworn and examined by the Supt

He stated that having gone home about 11 o'clock on Sunday night Feb 7th, he was engaged in writing for some time, but then turned to reading and was quietly reading in front of the kitchen fire about 2 o'clock, a.m. when he heard footsteps coming down through O'Donnell's yard and also heard the yard gate being opened from inside

Almost immediately afterwards the same footsteps approached his door which then got a resounding kick, while foul epithets were shouted in by a voice which he unmistakably recognised as the voice of Wm O'Donnell Witness immediately switched off the light, but remained in the kitchen without making any reply, while the kicking at the door continued and the foul language was being repeated all the time

The attack on the door then ceased for a few moments and he heard the footsteps advancing to the window on the ground floor, and this was followed by the crash of breaking glass as the window was being shattered

The attack on the window then ceased and the door next received attention with more violent kicking and a repetition of the same foul and threatening language with which the attack had been opened

The entire attack, both on the door and window alternately, continued with brief intervals for about three-quarters of an hour after which witness distinctly heard the footsteps going back to O'Donnell's yard, the gate being noisily closed from the inside and the footsteps further retreating up to the residence of the defendant

Believing that the night's terror was then over, witness crept upstairs in the darkness and went to bed, but could not sleep, and after being in bed for over an hour, he heard footsteps again coming down through O'Donnell's yard, the gate again being opened and the footsteps going out to the centre of the street in front of his house Not a word was spoken on this occasion but in a few seconds two large stones came crashing through the bedroom window upstairs, breaking two more panes of glass, after which the footsteps again retreated back through O'Donnell's yard the gate was again closed from the inside and the second attack had come to an end

Cross-examined by Mr Farrell solr - I believe, Mr Ryan, that you have been very hostile to the Cappoquin Hurling Club for some time?

Witness - No sir on the contrary I had been continually writing complimentary articles about them last year while they were playing a clean and legal game, and it was only when they tried to win the County Championship by fielding an illegal team that I wrote my first hostile article against them

Mr Farrell - Have you ever made any personal attack on Mr O'Donnell in any of your articles?

Witness - No, but I have specially mentioned him with other outstanding players after every match which they won last year

Mr Farrell - Then you admit that he is a good hurler?

Witness - Oh, yes but I imagine that he should be a far better footballer judging by the vigour with which he kicked my door on the morning in question, (laughter)

Mr Farrell - Did you ever make a personal attack through the Press on Mr O'Donnell in connection with a Question Time Contest held recently in Cappoquin?

Witness - Well when I found a man of his much-vaunted intelligence and Nationality was not able to name the air of "The Dear Little Shamrock," which every child knows, I thought this was certainly deserving of a special paragraph, (laughter)

Replying to further question Witness said he had not the slightest difficulty in recognising O'Donnell's voice the first moment he shouted outside the door

He was certain there was only the one attacker on the occasion, because had there been 2 the door and window would have been attacked simultaneously, but this did not happen at any period of the attack

Guaid O'Leary Cappoquin, was next examined by Supt Doyle and stated that on visiting Mr Ryan's house on Monday morning 8th Feb, he found the window on the ground floor almost completely smashed in, and a heap of broken glass lying on the footpath underneath He also found a number of stones lying beneath the window, and on entering the house Mr Ryan took him up to his bedroom in the front room where he found two further panes of glass broken the floor littered with broken glass and two large stones lying on the bedroom floor

Witness also took charge of

LET'S TALK OF PORT

Some people talk about Port Wine as something unchanging, as if this were a virtue in Wine! Whereas the truth is, that Wine is a creature, brought into life, under the expert hands of the vinticulturist It has subsequently its fiery youth, its suave middle age, its mature old age and again after plenitude of years, its decay, unless consumed before that final stage When handled by the Master Wine Makers and the understanding Wine Merchants, it is presented to the consumer in its most agreeable and most health-giving forms, such as the WINES of the

these two stones and on visiting O'Donnell's yard later in the day he found that one of these stones fitted exactly into a cavity which he found in a loosely built wall, as if it had been only recently pulled out of the wall

Justice - Was this inside the gate of O'Donnell's yard?

Witness - Oh, yes, sir; it was quite a considerable distance inside the gate, and leading up to O'Donnell's house

Witness was cross-examined by Mr Farrell, solr, but his direct evidence remained unshaken

Garrett Dalton, Carpenter employed by the Cappoquin Estate Co, the landlords of the house, stated that he had since put in new glass, where all the panes were broken and his labour and the cost of the glass amounted to £1 6s 6d

This closed the case for the State

The defence was a complete denial of the charge and an effort to prove an alibi by stating that defendant had gone to bed at 1 o'clock that morning and could not have been near Ryan's house at 2 o'clock, or later

After the defendant had sworn to the above effect a witness named Michael Fraher, Monalour swore that he visited O'Donnell's publichouse before 8 o'clock on Sunday night, Feb 7th and remained at the kitchen fire with Larry O'Donnell from 8 o'clock until 1 o'clock, when he went to bed with Willie O'Donnell who had returned from a dance in the Boathouse after 12 o'clock

While this witness was giving evidence, the Justice remarked I think I have seen you somewhere before Fraher?

Witness - You did, sir when you sent me to jail in Lismore for not tilling my land, (laughter)

Justice - How long ago is that?

Witness - Two years ago sir

Justice - Then you must have been one of the pioneers of those men who were out to ignore the Tillage Act, (renewed laughter)

Laurence O'Donnell brother of the defendant, was next examined by Mr Farrell, solr, and corroborated the previous evidence about his brother having gone to bed at 1 o'clock on the morning in question

In cross-examination by the Supt he contradicted Fraher's statement that they had been in the kitchen from 8 o'clock until 1 o'clock, as they were in the room between the kitchen and the Bar

Supt - How many bedrooms have you in your house?

Witness - About 7 or 8

Supt - Why then, did you not give Fraher a separate bedroom for himself instead of having him sleep with your brother?

Witness - Oh, Willie and himself are great friends, and they wanted to stay together

After further severe cross-examination, the Supt said this closed his case

The Justice said that he should reject all the evidence for the defence and had decided to convict the defendant

He then fined defendant £1 and ordered him to pay the sum of £1 6s 6d compensation for the damage to the windows but allowed no time for the payment of the amount

Refusing To Admit Guards

Supt Doyle Lismore, summoned Laurence O'Donnell, Publican Main St, Cappoquin, (brother of the previous defendant), for a breach of the Licensing Act by refusing to admit the Guards while in the execution of their duty

Mr A R Farrell, solr, Dungarvan appeared for the defendant

Sergt Browne, Cappoquin, stated that on Sunday morning Feb 14th, he heard singing and shouting and clapping of hands in the back portion of defendant's premises at 3 o'clock a.m.

He knocked at the front door and demanded admission for "Guards on Duty," but got no response He then knocked Guard Thorne out of bed, and the two of them remained in front of the house until 5 45 a.m. but although the light was switched on in the shop several times and they had frequently knocked and demanded admittance they were not admitted, although they could hear voices inside all the time

Laurence O'Donnell, defendant, was examined by Mr Farrell solr, and stated that he had gone to the house of his brother-in-law, Phil Hickey before 10 o'clock on Saturday night, leaving his brother, Willie in charge, whom he had warned not to admit any unauthorised persons

William O'Donnell, brother of defendant, stated that some fellows had forced themselves in "under the back gate" on Saturday night, and when he heard the knocking at the front door about 3 o'clock, he thought it was some soldiers wanted drinks, so he refused to open the door

The Justice imposed a fine of 10/- and said as he could not certify the offence a trivial one, the conviction should be endorsed on the licence

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE ROWING CLUB

The Annual General Meeting of the Rowing Club which in the past had been always held on the first Monday night in March, had, through unavoidable causes, to be postponed until the second Monday this year. It will therefore be held on next Monday night, 8th inst. when a very interesting report will be submitted by Mr M J Sargent, P.C., Vice-President and Treasurer and when the annual election of officers and committee will also take place. As the proceedings promise to be most important, a full attendance of members is requested on the occasion.

LAST SUNDAY NIGHT'S GREAT DANCE

The second Badminton Club Dance of the season which was held in the Boathouse Hall on last Sunday night proved a grand social event, and an outstanding financial success. Despite counter-attractions in Camphire and Clashmore, the attendance was the largest seen at any dance for a long time, and with the sexes about evenly balanced, nobody was neglected, as on a previous occasion so that the event proved thoroughly enjoyable for all. Mr M J Sargent, P.C., and Mr John Regan, Senr, were in charge of all the arrangements, and deserve much credit for the splendid condition of the dancing floor, which won general praise and added greatly to the gaiety and enjoyment of all.

Special praise must be given to Mrs E Kelly Chapel St Lismore, for the elaborate catering arrangements carried out by her, and her smart and courteous staff of young ladies, and she can rest assured that she has earned such a good name for herself in Cappoquin already that the mere mention of her name as caterer will ensure the success of any future dance for which she will be engaged in Cappoquin.

The "Brideside Serenaders Band" Tallow, provided a delightful programme of music and during the supper interval Mrs Gretta Burns, Cappoquin presided at the piano, and rendered a sparkling selection of lively dance music which proved her to be a musician of rare ability and high accomplishments.

On next Sunday night, the last Sunday night in Shrovetide, a grand Cinderella Dance will be held to wind-up the season, when splendid music and perfect arrangements will be special features of the event.

During the dance there will be a Raffle for 200 cigarettes for a very deserving charity, so we hope this will be generously supported by all present.

REGRETTED DEATH OF A POPULAR LADY

Much regret was felt here on Thursday, 25th ult, when the news was received of the death of Mrs Winifred Dempsey in Cork. Deceased was widow of the late Mr Jeremiah Dempsey Building Contractor and had resided in Cappoquin for many years during which her refined manner and charming personality had made her a great favourite with all classes of the townspeople.

A WONDERFUL "COMEBACK"

On last Sunday the Cappoquin Junior Hurling team played a friendly challenge match with the McDermotts, a promising young Military team.

While the Military men are a fine lot of footballers they are not quite so proficient as hurlers so that the local team had a very easy win, a feature of the game being the wonderful defensive play of John Regan, Senr, in goal who, although he had retired from "active service" in the G.A.A. several years ago staged a remarkable "comeback" on Sunday and was one of the best individual members of the Cappoquin team.

Great Military Boxing Tournament in Cappoquin

HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL EVENT

(From our Cappoquin Correspondent)

On Friday night, 26th ult a great Military Boxing Tournament was held in the Boathouse Hall Cappoquin, in aid of the Soldiers' Welfare Fund, and in view of the fact that it was the first tournament of its kind ever to be staged in the town, the spacious Hall was filled to capacity with military and civilians there being a very generous sprinkling of young ladies amongst the latter many of whom were sorry to see their "boys" getting badly battered, because the various bouts were far from being "Parlour Exhibitions" but provided, instead, very vigorous boxing and some hard punching during which no quarter was asked for, nor was given, as all the contestants were game and scientific fighters and took their punishment like the plucky and genuine sportsmen that they were.

The event had been specially organised by the Rowing Club, headed by Mr. M J Sargent, Vice-President and Treasurer, who received valuable assistance from Mr John Regan, Senr, and other members of the committee while the various Military Officers and NCOs also gave their fullest co-operation in carrying out all the arrangements for such an elaborate programme.

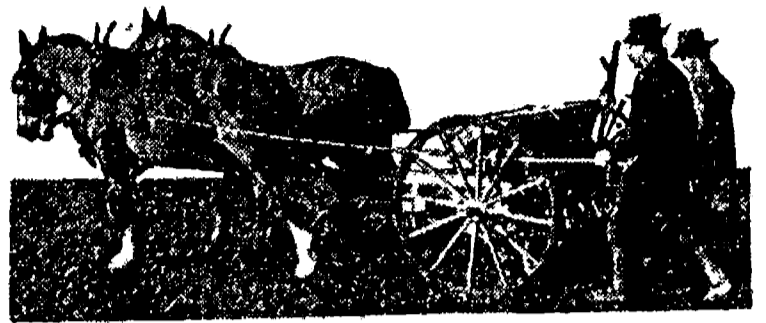

Capt J O'Riordan proved a most courteous and efficient M.C., and introduced the various boxers and announced the result of each bout while Quartermaster-Sergeant O'Farrell, acted as Judge and Referee, assisted by Sergt Fury and Sergt Kelly, the duties of Time-keeper being capably performed by Mr Nicholas Herr, Cappoquin.

So carefully and impartially did the Judges perform their duties that every decision given met with the full approval of the large audience, while the defeated men in every instance also fully accepted the verdicts without the slightest question.

In addition to Capt O'Riordan the other Officers present included—Commandant Hassett, Capt Blake, Capt Kennedy, Lieut D O Daly Lieut Finn, Lieut O'Shea, etc, and before the final bout, Capt O'Riordan in a brief and graceful speech warmly thanked the audience for the generous support which they had given the fixture, while he also specially thanked the Rowing Club and particularly Mr M J Sargent for having so kindly organised it and said from the great support they had received that night he felt confident that they would be able to hold another similar Tournament in Cappoquin in the near future (applause).

There were twelve bouts of three 2 minute rounds on the programme and considering that the entire twenty-four boxers were provided exclusively

A substantial 12 ft Ring had been erected in the centre of the Hall while the seating arrangements all around were perfect in every degree, and afforded the spectators an uninterrupted view of the boxing from start to finish the lighting arrangements being the last word in brilliancy and perfection.

Details—
1st Bout—Lightweight contest between Trooper Keegan and Trooper Meehan. After a sparkling exhibition of clean and clever boxing, Keegan won on points.

Second Bout—Welterweight Trooper Cronin v Trooper Norris. This proved a fierce slogging match from the start, Norris being down twice, while Cronin was also sent down twice in a thrilling 1st round. Norris retired at the end of this round and Cronin was declared the winner.

Third Bout—Cruiser-weight Trooper Delaney v Trooper Walsh. A fast and vigorous exhibition for the three rounds, Delaney being declared the winner on points.

Fourth Bout—Welterweight Trooper Williams v Trooper Dowling. Dowling was declared the winner after a hot and gruelling bout, which went the full distance.

Fifth Bout—Fly-weight Trooper Ling v Trooper Heaphy. Heaphy had a big advantage in weight and ringcraft, and although Ling put up a plucky fight and proved himself a very stylish boxer, Heaphy won on points.

Sixth Bout—Lightweight Trooper Waters v Trooper Smallhorn. Waters was down for a short count in the first round but the second and third rounds proved fairly even, Smallhorn winning on points.

Seventh Bout—Feather-weight Trooper Darcy v Trooper Meredith. After two lively rounds during which Meredith proved himself superior the latter was declared the winner on a technical "knock-out" as Darcy failed to come up for the third round.

Eight Bout—Welterweight Trooper Wade v Trooper Redmond. Redmond was down twice for counts of 9 in the first round and being sent down for the third time in the same round, he was counted out, Wade winning the shortest fight of the night on a "knock-out".

Ninth Bout—Welterweight Trooper Proctor v Trooper O'Toole. This proved a very lively and even "scrap" for the three rounds, at the end of which a "no decision" verdict was the result.

Tenth Bout—Trooper Kitson v Trooper Mulligan. The first two rounds proved very even, but in the third round Kitson went down for a count of 3 and Mulligan was declared the winner on points.

Eleventh Bout—Cruiser-weight Cpl Murray v Trooper Duffin. Duffin was down for two counts of 8 and 7 in the first round but came up fresh for the second round, which proved very even, Murray, however proved his superiority in the final round, and had Duffin down again for a count of 8, Murray being declared the winner on points.

Twelfth Bout—Feather-weight Trooper Goggin v Trooper Derivan. Goggin was down for 9 in the first round, and for 3 in the second, and although he fought back well and gave a game display in the third round, Derivan was declared the winner on points.

The programme was concluded with an amusing "Blind Man's Buff" contest between four boxers, all of whom were blindfolded and the general "mix-up" which followed when they got into action created roars of laughter, and proved a most diverting finale to one of the most thrilling and interesting night's entertainment enjoyed in Cappoquin for a long time.

A DRAIN ON THE NATION

A STATEMENT made in the Dail on Wednesday last throws new light on the emigration problem at present facing the country The statement contains the following facts—Left for Britain or Northern Ireland to work during September to December 1939—9887 males and 10547 females during January to September 1940—18764 males and 8304 females during October 1942 to January 1943—7014 males and 4642 females making a grand total of 57660

These can be nothing but disturbing facts That so many of our young men and women should be allowed to go from the land of their birth is nothing short of a catastrophe

Such mass emigration brings back to our minds the wholesale departures suffered, when, subsequent to the famine years whole families packed their belongings and went to America and other foreign lands

During the present emergency when there is such a need for increased tillage and the want of adequate efficient help is becoming a diaw-back to the farmers it is a terrible state of affairs that such a large number of young men and women should be allowed out of the country Some steps should be taken by the Government to either stop it entirely or to curtail it These young people are leaving our land and some of them may never return It is an immeasurable loss to the Nation

In dealing with the subject we would point out that when the war ends and the armies of Britain are demobilised, these young men will find themselves cut adrift and without work They will either then have to return home where they will almost likely be discontented or remain in England as casual workers with a great danger of becoming outcasts

We appeal to those who are at the present time thinking of joining what to them at the moment appear their better-off friends across the Channel to weigh the consequences of such a step There is no doubt but that they are wanted at home and if they persist in going in such large numbers they should realise that they are seriously jeopardising the nation's efforts to survive the emergency

There is undoubtedly a glamour about these "Wild Geese" who are once again on the wing across the seas but they should see that over there, there is no permanency, it is only a passing phase and many who go may afterwards be sorry

DANGEROUS PRACTICES—At the last Urban District Council meeting mention was made of the action of some mischievous parties who on two occasions last week tampered with the electric cables controlling the public lighting system at the Quay As a result the system was deranged and the live cables left hanging dangerously near the ground It is a shocking thing if youths, who have too much time on their hands can find nothing better to do than to pursue such dangerous practices Besides causing such inconveniences, they are also causing a grave danger to life and we hope the Garda Au will see that no repetition of this kind will occur again

14-Mile Hunt With Aglish Hunt Club

It would take the pen of Nimrod, nay, Beckford or Thollope to set down the doings of hounds (half of which has already been published) in January

Twenty-five mounted followers met hounds at Clasp Cross Woodhouse was the first draw and the admirable stronghold responded by producing a real good fox Swinging left-handed points he made were Kereen, Lough, Ballintaylor, Mount Stuart, Ballinapaika Woodhouse, Terrys, Shanakill and Dromore—14 miles (measured) as hounds ran

Sunday Jan 31st—Rockfield Somebody brought along a bag fox and it was decided to leave him off at Knocknasleagh He was badly injured so hounds "chopped him" Ballintaylor, the next draw but it was blank Hounds were put into Twomey's bogs and a nice hunt of about 3 miles or more ensued to Ballintaylor The going was heavy, but the scent was good

Sunday 7th Feb—Coolbagh Cross Despite the rather forbidding cold, a nice field turned up Maher's bogs Sheilghen Ballinamultina Curran's Hill and Flavin's Lawn were all blank The outlook was not very hopeful until Creggs bogs were visited where a brace was found The one followed made a sort of five-sided figure (I wonder where he learned his geometry?) Heading for Glenlekey, he swung left-handed after going 1 1/2 miles going past Mount Stuart Church he went a mile in the direction of Ballintaylor Turning sharply left-handed hounds went for Terrys and Lackinsilla, and as he entered the last, we drew rein to see them disappear into the gathering dusk Their fox went to ground near Geosh Scent was moderate 8 1/2 miles as hounds ran

Amongst those out were Mr M. Ducey M.H., Mr Walter Terry and Mr R. O'Keefe, Whippers-in Miss Ita Flynn, Miss Caroline Bowen, Miss Kathleen Cotter, Miss Ryan, Miss O'Halloran, Mr V. Bowen, Mr M. Terry, Master S. Kiernan, Mr T. Ducey, Mr J. O'Brien Keenan, Master Curtin do Mr W. Tobin, Quater Master G. Walsh do Mr J. P. Cashman, Rockfield House, Mr J. Curran, do Mr John Walsh do Master M. Ballyduff News

Late—Miss M. Lynch—The death took place during the week of Miss Margaret Lynch, of Gurtapeaka The deceased was in the prime of life and her death came as a shock to most of her friends Of a quiet retiring disposition she belonged to the type who form the backbone and mainstay of rural Ireland The remains were removed to St Michael's Church on Tuesday evening and the funeral took place to Mocollop on Wednesday To her bereaved father and brothers, we offer our deepest sympathy

t-ills next week and in the meantime look forward in pleasant anticipation and you will not be disappointed

A Treat Missed—We were sorry we were unable to hear our old but ever new friend Mr Cornelius O'Brien, sing on Sunday night We hear that he surpassed himself, and that his singing of 'Smilin' Through and Galway Bay' will long be remembered His voice has that peculiar quality of which one never tires and he seems to be able to adapt it to any mood A sure sign of a sympathetic artist Long may his notes continue to gladden our ears

March Has Come—According to the old adage March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb This year so far it has behaved well and we hope it will continue so The weather of the past five weeks was ideal for the farmers, and they took full advantage of it A large amount of virgin ground has been ploughed up Some of the fields in Mocollop are being ploughed for the first time at least that is within the memory of the oldest inhabitants here

Appreciation—We are very grateful to the gentleman who has said such nice things about us. Scott when bewailing the passing of the harp in his native Scotland wrote—

If one heart throbs higher at its sway, The wizard note hath not been touched in vain If in our efforts we have pleased some and we hope hurt none then we too, have not written in vain.

St Patrick's Day Procession—I am informed that arrangements are being made for reviving the Annual St Patrick's Day Procession which was in the past a great attraction for thousands of the citizens on the occasion of the National Festival The Gaelic League was responsible for organising the big demonstrations for 30 odd years and I think it would be appropriate in this Jubilee Year of the League's foundation that the organisation should be in the forefront

A Great Parade Anticipated—We have had no procession on St Patrick's Day for the past 4 or 5 years for some unexplained reason and the festival of our Patron Saint was like a day of mourning There should be a wonderful parade on the 17th March, 1943 with so many well drilled bodies participating such as the L.D.F. L.S.F. Red Cross Section The Knights of Malta Ambulance Unit The Maritime Inscription etc etc

The County Librarian raised the matter of the censoring of books and suggested that each member should take a number of books regularly and censor them

All the members present agreed to the proposal Mr Morrissey T.D. drew attention to the inefficiency of borrowing facilities for the juvenile population of Dungarvan There was a long discussion on the matter

The County Librarian emphasised the necessity for concentrating an adequate juvenile stock in one central depot for Dungarvan, as the only real solution of the question This could not be done without the requisite funds and premises

In the meantime the utmost would be done to ensure that existing centres would afford the maximum facilities
