Waterford Qualify To Meet Limerick

TIPPERARY OUTCLASSED

Waterford, 4-5; Tipperary, 1-2.

BEFORE an attendance of over 9,000, who paid £480 to see the game, Waterford Senior Hurling team defeated Tipperary at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, by 4-5 to 1-2 in their first-round tie in the Munster Senior Hurling Championships on Sunday last.

Heavy showers throughout the day made it extremely uncomfortable for the spectators and rendered the pitch very shippy for the teams.

All the tension, excitement and gaiety usually associated with Munster Senior Hurling Games was evident, and Waterford's very merited win was well received by the large crowd, who cheered the victors and vanquished as they left the field.

When John Keane came on the field he received a great ovation and during the game despite an injured ankle, he proved himself again as one of the best centre-backs in the game.

The teams were played around the pitch by the Dungarvan Brass and Reed, Band led by Mr M J McHugh, Bandmaster, and with the backs in position the band played the National Anthem before the ball was thrown in by Mr Jim Hurley, Cork.

Brilliant goal-keeping by Jim Ware together with sound backs and superiority at midfield where Baston starred gave Waterford the upperhand. The forwards all did their best, but as the field was so greasy after the heavy showers, most of the 30 men were at a disadvantage during the game.

THE GAME

In the first half Waterford played into the Railway goal from the throw-in Tipperary in a lightning get-away had the ball at the Waterford end and were unlucky not to score in the first minute of the game as the ball just went wide. From the puck-out Tipperary sent back but Keane cleared and the ball went along the wing. Barron sent to Galvin who had Waterford's first goal within 5 minutes. A few minutes later the homesters increased their lead when Keane sent all the way for a point off a 70. From the puck-out Tipperary went away in one of their sporadic raids and Ware stopped a hot shot at the expense of a 70 which was sent wide. Waterford came back and Feeney just narrowly missed a point but later Galvin added a second minor when placed by Barron. From ensuing play Ware again saved the home goal, but when one of the Waterford backs fouled, Tipperary were through for a point per O'Brien off a free.

Jim Ware was cheered loudly a few minutes later when he took a rasper on his hurley and followed up to clear along the wing. The game at this point despite the heavy ground was very fast. A dangerous Tipp movement was later stopped by Moylan, Baston, and Curley, and the ball going downfield was sent wide. From the puck-out Waterford were again on the offensive and from a combined movement Feeney was through for a goal. Tipp fought back and were almost through for a score, but the ball was cleared at the expense of a seventy. The free dropped short and Keane sent back. Another Tipp rally was cleared and Barron sent a beauty to Wyse who crashed into the net for another Waterford major, to leave the half-time score.

WATERFORD TIPPERARY

On resuming Hayes shone in the Waterford defence, when Tipp pressed but Waterford were in for the kill again when Moylan landed a beautiful point. A little later Vin Baston, who was here, there and everywhere, proving his extreme fitness, drove through for a further point. Waterford had the game well in hand at this stage, and had their opponents measure in all departments. A feature of the play was the great length that Jim Ware was getting into his puck-outs, as they landed well in the Tipperary back-line and every time put the Waterford forwards on the move. After further play M. Mahony (Tipp) gave his team another point, and shortly after Waterford had had luck when

Daly hit the upright with a stinging shot. Later Barron hit a grand point and from that on the result was clinched as Moylan and Baston dominated the field. From a pass by Baston, Daly was through for another Waterford goal and a late rally by Tipp who played a gallant game throughout gave them a goal which closed the scoring leaving the final result—

Dungarvan U.D.C.

The fortnightly meeting of the Dungarvan U.D.C. was held on Friday night last. Mr J. McCarthy, Chairman, presiding. Also present were Messrs L. A. Veale, J. McGrath, and J. Dahill. Mr W. O'Meara, Town Clerk, attended.

The Engineers on Deelish Dam. The only matter dealt with was the Engineers report submitted by the Manager, regarding Deelish Dam.

Mr S. J. Moynihan, Manager wrote as follows:—The last report (below) of Messrs Delap and Waller on the above has been circulated. I referred that report to the Borough Surveyor for his observations and he states as follows:—

"This report sets out the position quite clearly as far as can be done at present. They (Delap and Waller) will be in a position to advise the Council more fully at the end of the 6 months' test period, and it seems to me that having regard to paragraph 5 of their letter they will be able to fix a substantial part of the liability for the troubles which have arisen. Until this 6 months' test is completed I don't see that any action is called for." I concur in the view of the Borough Surveyor that the Council do not appear to have any option but to await the conclusion of the 6 months' test period.

I visited the reservoir recently and it was full with very little leakage. The latest reports received show that the reservoir is still full with considerable overflow.

The following is the report—Dear Mr Moynihan, In accordance with your request for a report as to the state of the work and position relative to the Contractor for the above, we write as follows:—

The mishap occurred at the dam in February 1939, during the period of "maintenance" under the Contract and after the "Substantial Completion" certificate had been issued. At that time the retention money in hand amounted to £221 against the dam and £22 15s 3d against other works total £250 6s 11d. After the mishap in agreement with the Department's Engineers it was decided to give the dam 6 months or so to "settle" as this might have cured leakage through the dam.

After this period it was found that the tunnel was cracked, and passed so much water that it was inadvisable to raise the water in the reservoir to retest the dam. When we instructed the Contractor to rectify the tunnel and proceed to raise the dam water level they refused to do so claiming that the mishap might have been caused by failure of foundation to core wall or passage of water through the rock below. In our opinion, the failure of the tunnel could have caused the whole mishap but the Contractor maintained it was not cracked at the time and we had no direct evidence. We recommend to Council to proceed with repairs and sue the Contractor for cost of same, but the Department's Engineer pointed out that money might be spent in litigation, either on a court case or under arbitration for which the Contractor was entitled to call as the exact cause of the mishap could not be assessed from the evidence available. It was therefore preferable to get the Contractor to agree to carry out repair work and this they would only do under the "non-prejudicial" agreement drawn up in 1941 under which the Contractor had to be paid on a time and material basis for any work carried out.

Under this agreement Stage 1, estimated at £265 19s 0d, covered sufficient repairs to the tunnel to enable the water to be raised and the dam tested. If the foundations were found to contain voids necessitating a considerable amount of grouting before repairs to the tunnel could be effected and the work was successful in making the dam hold water the Contractor to be "liable" for all the cost of repairs and completionary work, apart from the cost of any surplus cement over 6 tons used in grouting.

Actually, when the work was put in hand no voids were found under the tunnel, but the latter was found to have been very badly constructed, water was found to be passing the cut off (puddle) wall in small quantity in the upper west side of the tunnel, and also to find its way to the eastern drain at the toe of the dam downstream. A considerable amount of grouting had to be done not only to staunch these leaks as far as possible, but was necessary to staunch the tunnel itself before any test could be made on the dam with water at high level in Volunteer Joseph Quigley, for disorderly behaviour at Lismore on May 26th.

Fianna Fail (Republican Party) MONSTER ELECTION RALLY

Public Meeting will be held on THE SQUARE, DUNGARVAN On TONIGHT (FRIDAY) June 18th At 9 p.m. (S.T.).

Senator William Quirke, Sean Moylan, T.D., Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Finance, Senator Sean Goulding, Michael Morrissey, T.D., P. J. the reservoir. The work was completed in April at a cost of approximately £550 and 8 1/2 tons cement, i.e. 2 1/2 extra tons at 27 17s 6d was used. The reservoir was refilled from April 20th to May 5th, 1943, when it reached top level, the drains E and W of toe of dam, and spring upstream of road bridge at which measuring wells are fitted, are being watched and so far are running lower than on the previous raising. We are therefore very hopeful that the dam has been made good. Springs existed before the dam was erected and the nature of the rock under the dam is such that a certain increase in flow could be expected. Siltation action in the reservoir should prevent undue increase in these.

The "Agreement" included for a test of the dam with water at high levels for at least 6 months. No final report, on which a settlement with the Contractor must depend, can therefore yet be presented. We can, however, state that the tunnel was faulty in construction, as the ramming of the concrete, which had been screened by plaster, was found to have been very bad over considerable areas and the reinforcement was found not to be in accordance with the specification.

We therefore consider that, although the work which was found by exploration to be necessary was not strictly in accordance with what had been entered in the Contractor's Non-Prejudicial Agreement, the Council should eventually be entitled to hold him liable for the expenditure, except for the cost of surplus cement. The Contractor will then have to decide as to whether he will pay, resist an action or call for an arbitration. Apart from the mishap and faulty construction work in the tunnel the Contractor did not in spite of our instructions and reminders comply with the specification in the matter of (Continued on Page Two)

VERDICT IN BALLYHANE MURDER TRIAL

O'Shea Sentenced To Death

THURSDAY'S HEARING. The hearing in the absence of the jury of evidence which the defence contends is not admissible was continued all day on Thursday.

Among the witnesses who gave evidence in the jury's absence were the accused, Chief Supt O'Reilly, Waterford and Supt. Doyle, Lismore.

FRIDAY'S HEARING. When the Court sat, Mr Justice Keenan, without calling on Mr O'Moriarty S.C. for the prosecution, to reply to the arguments of Mr Nolan Whelan S.C. for the defence, regarding the admissibility of statements made by the accused, announced that he was satisfied that the statements made by O'Shea to Sergeant Browne and Guard Moloney were purely voluntary.

The jury were then recalled, and the trial continued. Mr O'Moriarty S.C. and Mr Sean Hooper (instructed by the Chief State Solicitor) presented and Mr J. Nolan Whelan S.C. and Mr J. A. d'Arcy (instructed by Messrs E. A. Ryan and Co. Solicitors Dungarvan) appeared for the accused who has pleaded not guilty.

Sergt J. Browne, Cappoquin, continuing his evidence, said that on the morning of March 18th last he had an interview with the accused in the presence of Guard Moloney. During the interview O'Shea said "If I tell you anything, I could never live out there again." Witness then remarked to the accused, "Surely it is up to you to tell us all you know about the shooting of your wife. If you have nothing to do with it, surely there is no reason why you won't tell us." Guard Moloney at this stage said to the accused, "You know me, Willie, for years, and you know someone shot your wife. Don't save anyone. Tell the truth, and nothing more." O'Shea, said witness then walked towards the window and remarked, "My heart is broken."

After a short pause the accused said "I will tell you." He then commenced to tell Guard Moloney and witness, as witness recorded in a notebook what was said.

The accused in the statement said "I gave a cartridge to Thomas White to use in the L.D.F. gun for the purpose of shooting my wife. It was from the north side of the road that the shot ran out. I did not look to see who fired as I know who did it. White and my wife were on bad terms, they used not to agree at all. My wife was always nagging me, everyone knew and when White and I discussed the shooting I told him that I did not care which of us would do it." Witness then put up his hand and stopped the accused from proceeding. The accused said nothing more. No threat was made to O'Shea to make the statement nor was any inducement offered. Superintendent Doyle arrived an hour later and witness had a conversation with him. He handed the Superintendent his (witness) notebook which contained the statement of the prisoner.

Cross-examined by Mr Nolan Whelan (witness) said that he might have looked for bloodstains as well as pellet marks on the accused at the scene of the shooting. He would not have been surprised to find bloodstains on the accused in view of his statement that he had laid his wife down on the road after she had been shot. He saw no bloodstains. The accused was not a physical and mental wreck after the shooting. He was interrogated by the accused, not exhausted and he was quite calm and collected throughout. He had not been questioned in the manner he would have been had he been a suspect.

In further reply to Mr Nolan Whelan Sergt. Browne said that the accused spoke rather rapidly when making the statement. Witness was not able to keep up with him, and admitted that the latter portion of the statement was written down from recollection.

In reply to the Judge, witness said that he did not read what he had written down in the notebook to the accused, as it was not a complete statement.

Dr W. White, Cappoquin, gave medical evidence. Edmond Ducey, farmer, Ballyhane said that about the end of February or early in March of this year O'Shea asked him for a loan of his gun to shoot rabbits. Witness gave him the weapon and one cartridge. Witness examined the gun on the day after Maureen O'Shea was shot, and he did not think that it showed any signs of having been fired recently.

O'SHEA SHOT IN BLOOD. Dr McGraith, State Pathologist, said that when he visited the scene of the tragedy he found the body of a woman, fully clothed lying on the road. There were bloodstains on the face and behind the shoulders. There was a rugged hole through the clothes on the back of the left shoulder. It was about an inch and an eighth in diameter. The clothes were soaked in blood. The shot had apparently struck the deceased diagonally from the back. It had gone through the breast-bone, but had not broken the skin. The shot went nearly right through the body. It had penetrated about 8 or 9 inches. Death was due to shock and bleeding caused by a shotgun wound. In witness a opinion the gun was fired at very close range.

Answering the Judge, Dr McGraith said that death was virtually instantaneous.

SATURDAY'S HEARING. Supt. D. Stapleton, firearms expert, attached to the Technical Bureau, said that in view of the fact as stated by the State Pathologist that three or four wads of the cartridge used in the shooting of Maureen O'Shea were 8 1/2 inches and 9 1/2 inches inside the wound, he would say that the gun could not have been more than three inches from her body when fired.

Edward Flynn, farmer, Ballyhane, said he met the accused and his wife walking along the Cappoquin road on the night of the tragedy. They were linked arm in arm. He also saw Tommy White cycling on the same night about 7.30 p.m.

Michael Mulcahy, Ballyhane, said on the night of the shooting he overtook O'Shea and his wife on the road and walked with them for a short bit. While he was talking to them witness saw Tommy White cycling towards his (witness's) house, and he was travelling fairly fast. He saluted as he passed but did not stop.

The further hearing was then adjourned until Monday morning which was Whit Monday and it was the first Bank Holiday on which the Central Criminal Court sat within the recollection of the Bar.

MONDAY'S HEARING. Margaret Burke (21), first cousin of the accused, said that in November 1942 she went to live with O'Shea and his wife at the hill house. Witness went to stay at the hill house when Mrs. O'Shea was having a baby. Mrs. O'Shea went into hospital and Tommy White stayed in the house while she was away. Mrs. O'Shea had told witness that she would not rear anything that would be O'Shea's and that if the baby did not die she would put it in an orphanage. She never saw accused use violence towards his wife.

Cross-examined by Mr Nolan Whelan, witness said that she was the mother of an illegitimate child about 2 years ago. O'Shea was not the father. He had never miscondacted himself, and there was no love affair between the accused and herself.

Guard W. Moloney, Cappoquin, said that he saw the body of Mrs. O'Shea lying on the road. He later went to O'Shea's house and saw the accused sitting at the fire. At that time, witness had no suspicion whatever that Wm O'Shea was connected with the murder of his wife. Some time (Continued on Page Three)

The Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Finance will consider during the 1943/44 season applications for grants towards the cost of improvement works which are for the joint benefit of groups of farms. The following classes of works are eligible (a) accommodation roads lands and bogs (b) small drainage schemes other than field drains, (c) small bridges and (d) roads to connect public roads.

Subject to the conditions of the Scheme grants will be made in approved cases equal to three quarters of the estimated cost of the improvement works and in the case of connecting roads and other roads which are mainly used by members of the public other than the farmers whose lands adjoin them a larger proportion of State contribution may be allowed.

Farmers are reminded of the necessity of making early application in respect of works proposed under the above scheme. As already notified the 12th July, 1943, is the latest date for the receipt of completed applications from residents in Non-Congested Districts. Such applications should be addressed to the Department of Agriculture (Section 23 (4)) Dublin. In Congested Districts application forms and full particulars may be obtained from about the middle of August from the Department's local officers.

The attention of farmers is directed to the fact that grants are available under the Scheme for the repair of sod or stone fences and also for the erection of division fences of similar types in fields parts of which may require to be tilled so as to enable the owners to comply with the Compulsory Tillage Regulations.

NEW PEACE COMMISSIONER FOR CAPPOQUIN
During the past week Mr. John Flanagan, an efficient member of the G.S. Railway Staff at Cappoquin Station was appointed a Peace Commissioner for Cappoquin and the surrounding districts by Mr. Gerald Boland, Minister for Justice in Eire.
This will not be Mr. Flanagan's first connection with the legal side of administration in his native land as he was a prominent member of the Dail Courts Association from 1919 to 1922, during which period he acted as Court Clerk to the Cappoquin and Lismore Sinn Fein or Republican Courts which functioned for a considerable time before the regular District Courts were established following the Anglo-Irish Treaty of 1921.

He has been prominently and actively associated with the National movement for many years and has been a warm and loyal supporter of the Sinn Fein Party since the establishment of the Dail over 20 years ago.

It is grand to see this welcome return to a spirit of restraint and self-respect amongst our people and for their own honour and good name, as well as for the trust this affords to the peace and good order which will be continued to the end of the campaign.

HARD LUCK FOR OUR TENNIS PLAYERS
After all the trouble and expense which our local young sporting ladies have gone to in laying out a splendid Lawn Tennis Court in a corner of the Sportsfield it is a cruel hard luck that the beastly weather of the past few weeks has rendered it impossible for them to enjoy their favourite pastime as regularly as they would wish each evening.

Co. Waterford Committee Of Agriculture
Mr. P. R. Power, Chairman presided at a meeting of the committee on Wednesday last. Also present were Messrs M. Harry M. O'Ryan, W. Dower, W. Terry, P. Power, M. F. Walsh, M. J. Grath and D. Coghlan. J. O'Dwyer, Secretary attended.

Orders To Be Carried Out
A deputation from Dungarvan Agricultural Committee came before the meeting and stated that although the committee had asked for all printing the Secretary had failed to carry out the order on at least two occasions.

The Secretary said that the printing done was for a standard order and he therefore did not think he should ask for any quotation.

Mr. Walsh said there was need for asking as the order to do so had been made by the Committee.

A member of the deputation said that there was more in the matter than met the eye and as he did not wish to waste the Committee's valuable time he did not propose going into the reasons in detail. He stated that the Secretary was quibbling and that the tweedledum-tweedledee business should be ended.

Mr. O'Ryan asked for the order that was made and the Chairman examined the minute book but could not find it. The Secretary attempted to excuse his action but Mr. O'Ryan said that the minute should be produced and then they could see where they stood.

The Secretary could not produce the minute and members stated that this was rather peculiar as it should have been recorded if the Committee were to conduct its affairs in a business-like way.

The Secretary said that it was the Agricultural Instructor (Mr. D. Hurley) who was responsible for the Committee's affairs at that time and he had failed to record the order.

Mr. O'Ryan said that he wanted to see fair play given to all and said that the proper thing would be to invite tenders for all work as other public bodies did.

Mr. O'Ryan proposed that tenders for half-yearly periods for all forms, posters, etc. be asked from Dungarvan printing houses and that those for the period June to January, 1944 be decided at next meeting.

Mr. M. F. Walsh, seconded and it was passed unanimously.

After thanking the meeting, the deputation withdrew.

Agricultural Scholarships
The following were announced as successful in the above—
Boys—John O'Donnell, Fedaun a student at Mount Mellery, Richard Prendergast, Fews, John Flynn, Ballymacart.
Girls—Miss O'Rourke, Clashmore Miss M. B. Foley, Clonagh, Dungarvan Miss K. Dowling, Clashmore and Miss Gabriel Harty, Bishopstown Lismore.

Cottages And Small Farms Prize Scheme
Under the above, Mr. P. O'Shea, Horticultural Instructor, was appointed to judge in Co. Kilkenny and Mr. Hurley, Agricultural Instructor, Kilkenny, was appointed for Waterford.

More Petrol Wanted
Miss Mullins, wrote stating that she had not enough petrol for her car to travel the county and asked that an extra allowance be made available.

A resolution asking the Department of Supplies to allow a minimum of 12 gallons per month to each instructor was passed.

Temporary Appointments
The temporary appointments of Mr. P. J. O'Sullivan, and Mr. P. Donnelly, Instructors in Horticulture and Agriculture, were approved.

modate the huge crowd which would attend such an interesting programme.
CORRECTION
Under the heading "Local Seaman Lost" which appeared in these Notes last week it was erroneously stated that Mr. John Foley who was recently lost at sea, was son of Mr. John and Mrs. Foley Barrack St. Cappoquin.

He should have been described as the son of Mr. John and Mrs. Foley, Coolaneen, Cappoquin, who are respected and well-known farmers living about 3 miles from this town and for whom the deepest sympathy is now felt.

John Foley is a native of Barrack St., Cappoquin.

A PEACEFUL ELECTION
The present General Election is the quietest and best-conducted known in this part of the Co. Waterford for many years.

Although we have had several public meetings held here by the rival Parties there has not been the slightest sign of bitterness or disorder and the scenes which marked many previous elections seem now to be only a memory with the public.

It is grand to see this welcome return to a spirit of restraint and self-respect amongst our people and for their own honour and good name, as well as for the trust this affords to the peace and good order which will be continued to the end of the campaign.

HARD LUCK FOR OUR TENNIS PLAYERS
After all the trouble and expense which our local young sporting ladies have gone to in laying out a splendid Lawn Tennis Court in a corner of the Sportsfield it is a cruel hard luck that the beastly weather of the past few weeks has rendered it impossible for them to enjoy their favourite pastime as regularly as they would wish each evening.

Co. Waterford Committee Of Agriculture
Mr. P. R. Power, Chairman presided at a meeting of the committee on Wednesday last. Also present were Messrs M. Harry M. O'Ryan, W. Dower, W. Terry, P. Power, M. F. Walsh, M. J. Grath and D. Coghlan. J. O'Dwyer, Secretary attended.

Orders To Be Carried Out
A deputation from Dungarvan Agricultural Committee came before the meeting and stated that although the committee had asked for all printing the Secretary had failed to carry out the order on at least two occasions.

The Secretary said that the printing done was for a standard order and he therefore did not think he should ask for any quotation.

Mr. Walsh said there was need for asking as the order to do so had been made by the Committee.

A member of the deputation said that there was more in the matter than met the eye and as he did not wish to waste the Committee's valuable time he did not propose going into the reasons in detail. He stated that the Secretary was quibbling and that the tweedledum-tweedledee business should be ended.

Mr. O'Ryan asked for the order that was made and the Chairman examined the minute book but could not find it. The Secretary attempted to excuse his action but Mr. O'Ryan said that the minute should be produced and then they could see where they stood.

Western Divisional G.A.A. Notes
(By AN RUNAIDHE)
Green Cross Fund—Clubs are notified that the 29th of June has been reserved for playing of games for the Green Cross Fund. Already two games have been arranged at Ballyduff—Kilcormac v Ballyduff and Conna v Kilworth both hurling contests. Clubs are requested to arrange with their neighbours where possible to have a gate made for such a great cause. Returns should be sent in to the Div. Secretary as soon as possible after the games. Permits for any other games on this date are not allowed.

I Told You So!—It gives me great satisfaction to know that what I wrote about the Munster Championship game on Sunday came true. Waterford won and they had plenty of scores. Now we are hearing a lot from the defeatists about Tipp not being up to standard. We hear the selectors advised to drop the whole forward line plus one or two backs. No one suggests where the new men are to come from. Well, you can take it from me that the team to play Limerick will not have very many changes from last Sunday's and I again say, Waterford will win and with plenty of scores secured by those much-abused forwards. This Waterford team can make G.A.A. history for the county given a chance.

Sunday's Games—We have a choice of 3 venues on Sunday and we will not for the Co. Board taking the Dungarvan venue and later not carrying out their fixture we would have a fourth. At Tallow Camphire meet Ballyduff in junior hurling. A record crowd will be there to witness the clash. Both sides claim a novel contest prior to the game in a hurling challenge between the 1933 seniors and the 1943 seniors.

Here's one who would back the youth each time.
—Old Parish v Clashmore will be staged. On both the last games the standard was good and excitement ran high. This time when a result will have to be got I can foresee the game of the year. Old Parish are slightly favourite today but I heard that Clashmore will place themselves odds on before Sunday. Don't miss it if you can manage. Tallow cycle or drive there. Paddy Moloney will again be in charge of the game. Field arrangements will be in charge of Ardmore Officials.

At Modeligo Cappoquin will take on the Nire. With their choice of hurlers out Cappoquin will be well placed to retain an interest in the football championships. The Nire as everyone knows are a hard team to beat and football is their national pastime up there. D. Kieley is referee.

Ballynatt Unable to field Out
—The Rovers got a walk-over from Ballinacourty who are unable to field out due to shortage of players and hurleys.

Tourin to meet Brickie Rangers—A challenge has been arranged between those teams to be played at Aghlin on 24th of June at 3.30 pm in hurling.

Ballyduff News
Mission—The Mission for the men opened on Sunday and is now in full swing. This is the first time Passionist Fathers have conducted a Mission here. Their graceful habit is very much admired here and judged by the crowds each night and during the Mission will prove to be a very great success.

Waterford's Victory—No need to say we are trading the clouds presently because of Waterford's victory on Sunday last at Dungarvan. We feel the victory thrill more keenly here because one of our boys, Mr. M. Feeney was one of the victorious team. We wish them luck all along the line and we might say that we have cause to feel very flattered here to have such a good hurler in our midst.

Congratulations—To Mr. R. Phelan for his courageous act in stopping a runaway horse recently. Some people are so busy with their own affairs that they forget the consequences might have been very serious.

It must have been a change for him for he is usually stopped by bipeds who unfortunately for him are not inclined to run away. A runaway quadruped was bit of a variety from the "non-run" biped variety.

Wheat Milled—Mr. D. Feeney is now all set and ready to grind wheat so if you want your wheat milled you know where to send it. We know too of old that the mills of Nire were famous. There is no reason why the mill in our midst should not bring us fame as the "Mill on the Floss" did to the author, so what we want here now is somebody who will write about the mill on the Blackwater and whose name will live in history.

Tallow & Moorehill Notes
Voting Day—Tuesday next will be voting day all over the Twenty-Six Counties and all those whose names appear on the register are asked to record their votes. Some people seem to think that by staying away and not voting they are smarter than their neighbours, but on the other hand they are very foolish. On Tuesday we hope to see a 100 per cent vote, so go and record your vote—vote for whoever you think best, and don't be sorry at 9.30 pm on Tuesday night, "wishes were sorry we didn't go." 'Twill be too late then.

The June Bride
The great day has come and the young couple are entering into a new and fuller life, happy in their mutual relations and facing the future with confidence.

But they cannot be sure of what the years have in store for them, and the wise bridegroom takes care to see that his bride is protected from the very start from the prospect of financial distress, by making adequate provision for the happy years of leisure they hope to enjoy together when it will be possible to retire from business.

It is easy to make the future secure at a cost well within the means of the average man by effecting a policy with the leading Irish Life Office. We offer absolute security at the lowest cost, and particulars of all classes of Life Assurance will be gladly furnished by our Representatives or on application to.

Mr Heskin's Meeting—A meeting in support of the Farmers Party was addressed by Mr. D. Heskin, one of the candidates after Mass at Kilwatermoy on Sunday last. In a short and enthusiastic speech Mr. Heskin asked the farming community to give his party their support and he pledged if returned he would do his best for all classes of the community. Mr. Heskin was well received and he was loudly applauded.

Obituary—It is with feelings of deep regret we announce the death of Mrs. Johanna Morrison, which sad event occurred at her residence, Kilwatermoy after a comparatively short illness, and in the fullness of years. Relict of the late Mr. James Morrison, she enjoyed widespread esteem in the district, where she was very popular with old and young. Worthy member of an old and highly-respected family she made many friends by her kindly and homely disposition. Her winsome personality was in her quiet and unobtrusive manner. The late Mrs. Morrison was a worthy member of the Catholic Church, a true-hearted Irishwoman, a kindly neighbour a staunch friend and her passing has left a void time cannot fill. The deep sympathy of the entire community is extended to her bereaved relatives in their sorrow and loss. The remains were removed on Friday evening from her late residence to Kilwatermoy Church, accompanied by a large and representative cortege. Requiem Masses were offered on Saturday morning by Rev. Fr. Flynn, P.P. Knockanore, and Rev. Fr. Tobin, C.C. The interment took place in the afternoon in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of another large concourse of relatives, friends and sympathisers, and amid many manifestations of profound sorrow. Rev. Fr. Tobin, C.C. read the last prayers at the graveside.

The chief mourners included—Mr. E. Morrison (son), Mrs. M. Morrison (daughter), Messrs. James, John and Dick Morrison, Misses Joan, Peggy, Ellie and Mary Morrison (grandchildren), Mr. W. Butler, Mr. A. Kelly, Mr. W. Kelly, Mr. J. Kelly (nephews), Miss N. Kelly, Mrs. M. Maher, Mrs. M. Cronin, Mrs. N. Ryan (nieces), Mrs. E. Morrison (daughters-in-law), Mr. J. Kelly, Mr. E. Morrison, Mr. J. Ryan, Mr. F. Ryan, Mr. M. Ryan, Mrs. F. Ryan, Mrs. K. Geary, Mrs. W. Butler, Mrs. O'Sullivan, Mr. W. O'Sullivan, Mr. D. Sullivan, Mrs. J. O'Brien, Mrs. M. Malone, Mrs. M. Kelly, Mr. J. Riordan.

Vote of Sympathy—At a special meeting of the Moorehill hurling club the following vote of sympathy was proposed and seconded: "That we the members of the Moorehill Hurling Club, tender our deep sympathy to Mr. James Morrison on his recent sad bereavement occasioned by the death of his grandmother."

Well Done Waterford—We offer our hearty congratulations to the Waterford Senior Hurlers on their splendid success at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan on Sunday last. Let us hope that the elusive All-Ireland will come to the Decies for 1943.

Local Tidbits—Harry Lauder the great Scotch Comedian's favourite song was "And those we love we've been waiting for will be there at the end of the road." We wonder what did some of the locals find at the end of the road the other Sunday.

Monster Meeting In Support of Aislerighe Great Enthusiasm Prevails

The Aislerighe Movement went further ahead when at Dungarvan on Sunday evening last after the hurling match, they addressed one of the biggest public meetings ever held in the town.

A number of hecklers were ably handled by Tomás O Dochartaigh (candidate) and Roibeard Breathnach (candidate). The latter delivered a speech which drew rounds of applause from those present.

Loud speakers slung from poles at either end of the Square ensured that the speeches were heard by all. Múllam O'S, of Dungarvan, was Chairman and on the platform were Tomás O Dochartaigh (candidate), Roibeard Breathnach (candidate), Liam Breathnach, Portlargo, (Director of Elections) and Séirag O Fiannghusa.

During the course of his address Tomás O Dochartaigh refuted the allegations that Aislerighe had anything to do with the Fascist or any other organisation. He said that Aislerighe wanted freedom for all from starvation from misery and want and from the clutches of the Jews and Freemasons.

Referring to the Fine Gael candidate for Cork Mr William O Dwyer the speaker said "I am from Cork and I know Dwyer and his kind and he is no good (cheers). He is who said that the only treason in Ireland is treason against England."

Later Roibeard Breathnach said that it was time for us in this country to think for ourselves and to give up once and for all the habit of copying everything that England does.

He advised breaking party with sterling and said that the people's answer to the promises of Sean T O'Kelly and Sean MacEntee which are only made at election time is Aislerighe (loud and prolonged cheers).

Concluding Roibeard Breathnach said that Ireland cannot rest happy until every link is broken with England, and that will not come until we do away with the job-hunters and party politicians like Dwyer and those others who are perpetuating our sorrows.

The playing of Amhrán na bhFlann brought the meeting to a close.

Election Meetings In Cappoquin

AITIRI NA h-AISEIRIGHE

On Thursday night, 10th inst a meeting on behalf of the new Organisation, Aitiri Na h-Aiseirighe, was held on The Square, Cappoquin, in support of the candidature of Tomás O Dochartaigh, who is a candidate for the Waterford constituency in the present election.

Owing to the fact that the meeting had not been properly advertised the attendance of the general public was on the small side but a further meeting, which has since been extensively advertised will be held in the same place tonight (Friday) at 8.30 p.m., which will be addressed by the candidate and other speakers, so that there should be a much larger attendance of the general public to hear the policy and programme of the new movement fully explained by Mr O'Doherty.

Rústard O Murchada, Dungarvan, presided at Thursday night's meeting, and delivered a fine opening address, and he was followed by Donnchadh O Foghludha, who proved a most eloquent and convincing speaker. He explained the aims and policy of the new organisation and said it aimed at securing the independence of our country as an essential preliminary towards the establishment of a State which in the Christian perfection of its social and economic systems will be a model for the whole world.

Having dealt with the other points in their programme in great detail, the speaker concluded by appealing to the voters to vote for their candidate, Tomás O Dochartaigh, (a nephew of Cathal Brugha) on polling day Tuesday 22nd inst.

The speakers were accompanied by Liam de Barun and a number of young men from Dungarvan all of whom arrived in Cappoquin on bicycles and at the conclusion of the Cappoquin meeting the entire party cycled to Lismore where a further meeting was addressed from the steps of the Courthouse there being a large and most attentive audience present.

LABOUR PARTY MEETING
A meeting of the Labour Party was held in The Square, Cappoquin, on last Sunday night and was addressed by Mr L. J. Duffy General Secretary Labour Party and Mr Jerome Guiry, one of the Labour candidates for Waterford.

The meeting had been advertised for 10 o'clock and at that hour a large number of the public had assembled in the vicinity of the Square, but as no speakers had arrived up to 10.15 and the night being bitterly cold, several of the less enthusiastic members of the public went home and the later arrival of the speakers was explained by the fact that they were delayed in Lismore longer than anticipated where a very large and successful meeting had been held.

There was still a very fine crowd present when the meeting started, and the proceedings were marked with greater enthusiasm than was displayed at any of the previous meetings held in Cappoquin.

Mr J. Cullinane Lyre, Lismore Sec. of the Cappoquin Branch of the Labour Party presided and introduced the speakers, who were very cordially received.

Mr Jerome Guiry (candidate), followed with another vigorous address on the same lines, but as it was close on midnight when he had finished, the Chairman announced that owing to the lateness of the hour, Senator E. Lynch (who was present), would not address the meeting and keep the people any longer out in the cold, so he then declared the meeting concluded, and thanked all present for the patient and orderly manner in which they had listened to the speakers.

At a big meeting addressed by him in East Waterford earlier in the day on Sunday, Mr L. J. Duffy referring to the Managerial Act as it affects County Councils, said the Labour Party considers that the present system of concentrating in the hands of permanent officials complete control over local administration is indefensible, and the Labour Government will so amend the Acts under which County Managers and City Managers are appointed as to restore to the local elected Councils the power and duty of formulating policy in regard to local administration.

Under a Labour Government the Manager, instead of being virtually a Dictator will become the Chief Executive Officer of the elected Councils and will be fully subject to their authority instead of being allowed to flout their authority as he is able to do now under Fianna Fail undemocratic Government.

Labour Meetings In Waterford and Dungarvan

A sign of the interest with Labour Election campaign in this Constituency is being followed was evidenced in the large crowds who gathered in Broad Street Waterford last Saturday evening and in the Square at Dungarvan last Sunday to hear the Secretary of the Labour Party Luke J. Duffy, Senator Eamonn Lynch and the two candidates Jerome Guiry and Alderman James O'Connor.

Mr Duffy referred to the neutrality policy of the Fianna Fail Government, and to the fact that in some instances Irish nationalists in Great Britain were denied the facility of returning to this country unless they could produce evidence that they owned property or resources in Ireland. He stated that the Labour Government would ensure that full employment was provided in this country making it unnecessary for Irishmen to have to offer their services to a belligerent in order to maintain their families and so make a neutrality policy a real achievement.

He also mentioned the claim of the Fianna Fail Government that in their period of office the value of industrial production increased from 18 million pounds to 28 million pounds a year. Fianna Fail spokesmen, said Mr Duffy omitted to state the fact that the prices of the goods produced had increased by 46% in the same period, so that the value in 1931 prices had only increased to 19 millions, representing an insignificant increase in the volume of goods.

This price increase, which had to be paid by the wage earner and small farmer, put large profits into the pockets of the new Irish industrialists and certain of these gentlemen were now seeking to consolidate their position by backing reactionary forces whose avowed intention it was to destroy the liberties of the masses and which alone could save them from increasingly onerous exploitation.

A matter of special interest to Waterford was touched upon by Senator Eamonn Lynch who said that several years before the war, when merchant ships were laid up in our harbours in Ireland—no cargoes could not be found to fill them—he suggested to the late Mr Hugo Flynn that some of them should be purchased by this country, which was deplorably behind as a ship owning nation. In spite of the fact that war in future date seemed inevitable and that Ireland was dependent on foreign shipping for the transport of essential supplies, from overseas this suggestion, which could have been planted when at last it was found imperative to obtain ships of our own, it was necessary to scour the harbours of South America and buy old ships at exorbitant prices. He also referred to the failure of the Government to introduce legislation to deal with ground rents, many hundreds of thousands of pounds being paid by tenants to urban landowners each year.

Senator Lynch concluded by stressing the importance of each elector registering their vote on June 22nd, as in all probability the government formed after that election would have the responsibility of guiding the country through the remaining years of war and the reconstruction of peace. It may be we shall have a quarter of a million unemployed when Britain's war industries are slowed down and unless plans, as proposed by the Labour Party, are made in advance this country will be faced with a very serious situation than has confronted the Irish people for a generation.

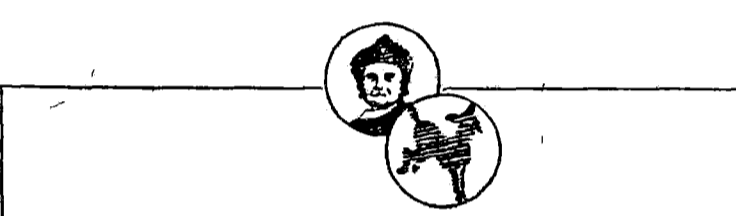

The meetings were also addressed by Thos Ryan, John Gloster, and Michael Barry.

A SQUARE DEAL

for the Workers

WE BELIEVE THAT THE MERE PAYMENT OF WAGES FOR WORK DONE DOES NOT FULFIL THE EMPLOYERS OBLIGATIONS TOWARDS HIS WORKERS

Since the war started, our workers have performed a National Service in the production of huge quantities of the woollen goods so essential for the health of the community. Working together for a common objective we have surmounted the most difficult obstacles. To mark the 15th anniversary of the founding of the business the Sunbeam Social Service Society was recently inaugurated. The benefits to our workers under this Society are not a charity, but a right. We believe in giving the workers a Square Deal.

Mr Guiry said he had no apologies to make to the distinguished visitors who were on the Labour platform when he proposed to confine himself to domestic matters which concerned the men and women of Waterford City and County and here are the facts. Some 6 or 7 years before the war a hospitalisation scheme was mooted for Waterford, Dungarvan and Lismore. Sites were acquired, an architect was appointed, and a quantity surveyed, the architect prepared the plans, the surveyor took out fees, the sites were paid for and fees were paid to the architect and the surveyor. At the time action was initiated in Waterford in the hospitals scheme, action was also begun in other counties and Mr Guiry pointed out that in those counties hospitals were erected, equipped and opened some years before the outbreak of hostilities. Mr Guiry proceeded to say that the boycott of Waterford was due to the fact that Waterford had no Labour representatives in the Dail, and that so far as he knew, no representative of the Fianna Fail Party and no member of the Fine Gael Party had made enquiries as to why the affairs of Waterford were relegated to the scrap heap. Mr Guiry quoted official figures to show that at the time the scheme was initiated employment in the county was at a very low level, and he said further that the workers of Waterford, and the shopkeepers of Waterford, lost over 2285,000 by reason of the fact that the Fianna Fail government boycotted Waterford and the men and women of Waterford.

Mr Guiry said that the cost of the proposed scheme would be roughly 50% wages and 50% materials. The bricks, gravel and hardcore filling could be obtained in Waterford, facing stone and joinery could be prepared in Waterford, joinery and carpentry could be done in Waterford, and the purchase of the land could be done in Waterford. He indicated the ways, the starvation the unemployment that existed in the capital of his county. He said he did not propose to refer to those matters again, by reason of the fact he would be followed by very prominent members of the Labour Party.
