DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT

Fuel Merchants Fined

Sequel To General Election

Personation Charges

The Dungarvan District Court was held before Mr Sean Troy DJ at the Courthouse, on Tuesday last.

Lights On Vehicles.
Guard Gbólin v James Burke, Kilrossanty, fined 5/-
Same v Patrick Tobin Killin-keen, Dungarvan, fined 5/-
Same v Patrick Fennell, Gar-ranbane, fined 5/-
Same v Michael Dee, Deelish, fined 5/-
Guard McCurtain v Richard Walsh 8 Keating Street, Dun-garvan, fined 3/6

Drunk and Disorderly
Guard Begley summoned James Costigan, Cathal Brugha Place Dungarvan for being drunk at Dungarvan on July 10th last. Fined 5/-
Guard Burke had a similar charge against Thomas Flynn, 5 Fitzgerald Place. A fine of 2/6 was imposed.

Personation Charges
The Attorney General at the suit of Supt P O'Mahony charged Norah Power, Strand Side South Abbeyside "That at the Polling Booth at the Co Home on June 22nd last defend-ant having voted once at the General Election applied for another ballot paper in her own name.

A charge for aiding and abet-ting was made against Edmond Power (her brother) Ringcrehy, Dungarvan.

Messrs Farrell & Morrissey, Solrs, appeared for defendants.

Mr Morrissey, Solr, said that Norah Power was alleged to have voted twice once at Abbeyside National School and again at the Co Home. She was employ-ed at Abbeyside and there re-ceived a card notifying her to vote. On the evening in ques-tion she was passing by the Co Home when her brother called her and said "Hurry on and vote as it is getting late." She went in and voted.

The Supt said that it was re-garded as a serious charge. The defendant was registered in both areas. She voted at Abbeyside in the morning and in the evening went for a walk by the Co Home where she met her brother who had some argu-ment with her as a result of which she went in to vote. From what he heard, Sergt Kelliher, who was on duty in the booth challenged defendant and point-ed the seriousness of person-ating. Despite this she still voted.

Norah Power said she lived at Ringcrehy but worked at Abbeyside. She got a card to vote at Abbeyside, but she found an-other one was sent to her own home. She voted at Abbeyside and that evening while out for a walk she passed by the Co Home where she met her brother. He called her and told her to go in and vote but defendant said "I voted in Abbeyside already" to which the brother answered "That's impossible as you are on the register here." After further talk witness said she was per-suaded to go in and cast her vote as she thought the first one was wrong.

Mr Morrissey Solr, to the Jus-tice said that when Sergt Kel-liher spoke to her she got nerv-ous.

Justice—When she got nervous don't you think she would have gone away?

Mr Morrissey—(to witness)—Did you ever vote before?

Witness—No.

Justice—You were making up for it this time (laughter).

Edmond Power was then called and corroborated what his sister said. He thought that the vote at Abbeyside was illegal and he wanted her to vote properly.

Justice—You knew she had al-ready voted?—Yes.

Supt—What were you doing there?

Witness—I was there to see that all the people voted.

Supt—You were an election agent.

Justice—You were to see that they all voted early and often (laughter).

The Justice said that he would not take a serious view of the case and marked it POA.

15/9 expenses were allowed.

Forestry Act Offence

The Minister for Lands sum-moned Luke O'Brien, Ballin-taylor, for cutting down 6 beech trees after a prohibition order had been served on him in re-spect of the trees, and no licence to cut having been granted.

Mr J Kenny, Solr, appeared for defendant and pleaded a technical offence.

Mr O'Brien said he served notice of cutting on Jan 14th. The prohibition order was served on Feb 12th.

It was stated that the order was bad and the case was DOM.

No Excise Licence

The Attorney General sum-moned Daniel Walsh, Commer-cial Hotel The Quay, Dun-garvan, for selling whiskey retail without having an excise licence and as a result is liable to an excise penalty of £58 12s 6d.

Dr Counihan prosecuted and Mr Williams defended.

Dr Counihan said that Mr Shinnick the Custom and Excise Officer got and paid for whiskey.

Mr Williams said that the facts of the matter were that defendant had not the money to pay. The hotel is now sold and all will be paid.

A penalty of £58 12s 6d mitigated to £21 was imposed.

Affiliation Order

Nelle Lynch, Sheare's St Abbeyside, made application for an affiliation order against Thomas Cummins Carrigphillip, Kilmeadan whom she alleged was the father of her child born on Jan 9th last.

This was adjourned until the second court in Sept as no ap-pearance was made for either party.

Fuel Merchants Summoned

The Minister for Supplies under the Control of Fuel Order summoned Messrs A Moloney and Sons, Ltd Dungarvan for selling coal to the following in contravention of Emergency Powers (Fuel Rationing for Aug and Sept 1942) —

1—On August 13th, 1942, 1 ton to Patrick Joseph Moloney, Duckspool.

2—On Sept 4th, 1942, 9 cwts to Elizabeth Moloney, Grianan, Youghal Road.

3—On Sept 22nd, 1942, 15 cwts to Mother Patrick Cunningham, Kilmachomas.

4—On Oct 7th 1942 unknown quantity to John Coffey, Carrig-castle.

5—On 30th Sept, 1942, un-known quantity to Thomas Power, Lissard, Bonmahon.

6—On Sept. 10th, 1942, un-known quantity to George Cum-mins, Abbeyside.

7—On Sept. 11th 1942 un-known quantity to Mary O'Brien, Tourin Cappoquin.

8—On Sept. 11th, 1942, un-known quantity to Mary Power, Ballykerogue, Stradbally.

9—On Sept. 15th & 16th, 1942, unknown quantity to Roland John Moloney, Green Gables, Dungarvan.

10—On Sept 17th 1942, un-known quantity to Willie Flynn, Grawnfodda.

11—On Sept 21st, 1942, un-known quantity to Joseph Rior-dan, Gliddane.

12—On Sept 22nd, 1942, un-known quantity to Alice Rockett, Ballogarty Kilmachomas.

13—On Sept. 22nd, 1942, un-known quantity to Michael Power, Duckspool.

14—On Sept 22nd, 1942, un-known quantity to James Mc-Grath, Ballinameela, Cappagh.

15—On Sept. 22nd 1942, un-known quantity to Patrick But-ler, Dungarvan.

16—On Sept 29th, 1942 un-known quantity to John Walsh, Ballinasissa Bonmahon.

17—On Sept. 29th, 1942, un-known quantity to John Walsh, Ballybanogue.

18—On Sept. 29th, 1942, un-known quantity to John Murphy, Fenor.

19—On Sept 29th, 1942, un-known quantity to Pierce Meaney, Clonea.

20—On Sept. 8th 1942, un-known quantity to Rev. Mother Pauline Brochard Carriglea.

Mr P. J. Moloney, Managing Director of the firm was sum-moned under Section 5 of the Act for consenting and facilitat-ing by his neglect the commis-sion of the offences as set out.

It was stated that there was reasonable grounds for believing that the coal was intended for domestic use having been pur-chased for industrial purposes.

Charges for aiding and abet-ting in the sales were brought against Roland J Moloney, and Capt A. Whelan, The Anchor-age, Abbeyside.

Summonses against the pur-chasers were also preferred and also against Patrick Kiersey, Kilmachomas who procured the coal for the Rev Mother at Kil-machomas.

Dr Counihan, State Solicitor, prosecuted.

Mr Williams, Solr, appeared for all defendants except Mr John Murphy and Rev Mother Brochard for whom Mr Hut-chinson, solr, appeared.

The offences were admitted.

Dr Counihan said that Messrs A Moloney and Sons, Ltd, were pretty well-known as a firm of high standing but during the period in question they had no right to sell the coal. He said that the total penalties which could be imposed would amount to £10 000 or £500 on each of the 20 counts. He did not suggest that the Justice should go as far as that. In their stock return sheets the firm did not show this coal which came in their own vessel in the form of excess bun-kers which were brought from Wales. He said he also wished to state that during the Depart-ment's investigations they found no truth in the statement that the firm sold the coal on the un-

MUNSTER HURLING FINAL

Eleventh Hour Changes In The Waterford Team.

At a meeting of the Waterford Senior Hurling Selection Com-mittee, held in Waterford on Wednesday night last 28th inst, the following team was select-ed to do duty for Waterford on Sunday next in the Munster Senior Hurling Final against Cork.

Jim Ware
P. Fleming, C. Curley, P. Dowling, M. Greed, J. Keane, M. Hayes, M. Hickey, J. Doherty, P. Power, C. Moylan, B. Hehan, W. Moran, J. Daly, M. Feeney, P. Pinkert, C. Daly, W. Galvin, K. O'Connor, B. Moloney, P. Wade.

The sympathy of all Waterford goes out to Vin Baston in the unfortunate accident he has sus-tained in an Army Step-Together Tournament, and which has ob-liged him to cry off the Daise team for the Munster Final. Coming as it does at the eleventh hour and as a climax to a run of ill-luck which began with the losing of the toss for choice of venue, it has unques-tionably increased the difficul-ties which face the Waterford team in their bold effort to de-throne the mighty Cork hurlers.

While Baston's loss will be severely felt, nevertheless the re-constituted Daise line-out shows a tightening up in defence and a speeding up in attack which marks a distinct improvement on the team which subdued Limerick.

The introduction of new blood has infused dash, speed, determination and hurl-ing efficiency into the forward lines. The effect has been to raise our offensive potential. As a hurling unit our team is fight-ing fit and on the whole is a bet-ter-balanced combination than that which conquered Tipp and Limerick. While our misfor-tunes may have damped the en-thusiasm and darkened the optimism of many, it has only strengthened the faith of the selectors and hardened the de-termination of the Waterford players, who are ALL OUT TO WIN.

Now what are our chances? Let it be conceded immediately that Cork has practically all of the advantages and most of the luck. Home venue, tradition, moral support, compact and con-centrated training and the re-putation and élan associated with Champions. All these fac-tors favour Cork.

Waterford has one advantage — They know their players, their capabilities and limitations. The Daise team, criticise it how you will has successfully surmount-ed formidable championship ob-stacles in Tipperary and Lime-rick. They have been subjected to the acid test of combat in Munster hurling and they have done all that they were asked to do. On the other hand, Cork does not know the exact merits of its fifteen. This year they have had no seriously-testing qualifying games. Their defeat of the Kerry hurlers will hardly have enlightened them any.

They are young, fast and fit—their dash and finesse are pro-verbal. But and it is a big but, they have done nothing big in public this year. An aura of in-vincibility surrounds their team, but how often (alas!) has such proved a delusion and provided a shattering denouement on the field of action! Whilst there is no denying that the series of dis-appointments and set-backs en-counterred by Waterford has in-creased their difficulties and magnified the odds arrayed against them, yet the quiet confi-dence and firm faith of the selectors remain unshaken.

The determination of the fifteen players, each and all, has hardened and their will to win is inflexibility itself. I know they can win. But, after all is said and done—the play is the thing—and Sunday's struggle will provide the answer.

Gaeldom this year has had quite a succession of shocks. They are not yet over. I make bold to say that the Daise hurlers will provide the biggest shock of the year in the Gaelic World when they meet Cork All-Ireland Champions in the Ath-letic Grounds by the Lee on Sun-day next August 1st.

Western Divisional G.A.A. Notes

(By AN RUNAIDHE)

Vin Bastin Off—The big news of the week was the unexpected information received on Tuesday evening from Galway that Vin Bastin Waterford's centre-field man would be unable to field out on Sunday next due to an injury to his leg received on Thursday week in an Army competition. Vin is at present in a military hospital and likely to be there for some weeks at any rate. Coupled with talk that some others of the team were also crying off for one reason or another the selectors had to call a hurried meeting in Waterford on Wednesday evening. But I am very glad to be able to inform my readers that with the exception of Vin Bastin's injury all the original team will field out fit and well.

Hoban Comes On—The selectors wisely only made the one change in the team caused by Bastin's absence. Doherty goes centre field with Hickey and Hoban comes on as left wing forward. Daly is full forward and Feeney and Barron are the corner men. The full placings are on page 5 of the paper.

John Keane Says—I asked John Keane his opinion of Hoban and he believes he is a player who will be able to replace Bastin without any doubt of keeping the team up to the original standard. That sounds well coming from John Keane. John also told me and gave me permission to quote him "I will beat Cork on Sunday. I don't know by what score or how but beat them we will."

Go Board Chairman's View—Bastin is a big loss but we are lucky to have Hoban to replace him. The selectors have tried to be prepared for all kinds of eventualities. I believe this team can beat Cork if they act on the instructions given them. These instructions are secret for the present but you can expect a surprise move on Sunday afternoon which may be the deciding factor. While not underrating Cork it would be very foolish to over rate them either.

My Own View—A fifty-fifty chance that can be changed by a very small piece of luck. Mark my words if we have any little bit of luck on Sunday we will be travelling to Croke Park. Our forwards will get scores if our backs can keep Cork from getting them. One word of advice. Let our players especially our forwards, alone. They know what they are doing cheer for them all right, but don't keep shouting useless advice. They have their instructions and they have to carry them out.

Dungarvan Club Collection—The Dungarvan Club Committee have asked me to return their sincere thanks to the supporters who subscribed so generously to the funds on last Sunday.

Divisional Board Meeting—A Meeting of the West Divisional Board will be held at Egan's Hotel, Dungarvan, on tonight (Friday) at 8.30 p.m. (S.T.). The objections Ballycoe v Kilgobinet and Finnisk Rovers v Cappoquin will be heard. Delegates only showing cards will be permitted to take part in proceedings. Please see to it that you have your card with you if you are attending.

Good Reserves—I was glad to note the selectors have decided to add to the reserves by including Bernard Moloney (Dungarvan) and Paddy Wade (Erin's Hopes). These will certainly be reserves worth having. Youth will always tell.

IRISH COURSES AT ARDMORE

TOMAS O DERRIG, T.D.,
MINISTER FOR EDUCATION,
OPENS ARDMORE AERIDHEACHT

At Ardmore, on Sunday last, an Aeridheacht organised by the Irish teachers, 83 of whom are attending a special course of training in the principles and practice of language teaching, community singing, Irish dancing, drama and the philosophy of Irish Ireland, was opened by Aire an Oidheachais Tomas O Derrig, T.D.

In the course of his address the Minister said he hoped to see such functions as this organised in every parish in Ireland, especially on the feast of the local patron saint. He stressed the importance of outside public assistance and encouragement for the young people who had acquired a fluent knowledge of the language during their school years. This battle for the revival of Irish, he said, must go on until the last fortress of opposition is stormed and taken.

This year he concluded, was a particularly auspicious one, as it was the Golden Jubilee of the Gaelic League, and he hoped that all Irish-Irelanders and especially the Irish teachers, would make a worthy effort to celebrate in their respective districts this historic occasion.

Aindrias O Muimhneachain, director of the course, proposed a vote of thanks to the Minister for kindly consenting to attend.

An Fear Mor supported the resolution which was passed with acclamation.

A varied programme of song, dance, music, sports and athletic events was provided, and was highly appreciated by the numerous visitors to the district for the occasion of the patron Felle Deaglan.

Dr P. E. O'Suilleabhain, Divisional Inspector of Schools, presided.

OUR WATERFORD LETTER

Acting City Manager—I have heard that Mr J. P. Geraghty will act as temporary City Manager pending a permanent appointment by the Local Appointments Commission.

Mr D. A. Hegarty will leave Waterford in September to take up duty as County Manager of the Sligo-Leitrim area.

Important Farm Auction—Mr T. O. Hutchinson, M.I.A.A., 5 Lady Lane will put up for auction shortly one of the finest farms in East Waterford viz 150 acres the property of Mrs Alice Power at Coolum, Ballymacaw. The farm is splendidly equipped with a commodious residence and elaborate out-offices.

Touring in A Canoe—Two young Waterford men, Mr Frank Heylin N.T. and Mr J. C. Cusack left here to do a tour of Eire in their canoe last week. I received a card recording their arrival in New Ross. From thence they will paddle the rivers Barrow and Grand Canal to Dublin. They have not declared their movements after visiting the Metropolis. I may add that Messrs Heylin and Cusack designed and built the frail craft in which they are touring.

Suas Leis An Deise—I had a short talk with John Keane our brilliant hurler. He is thoroughly fit for next Sunday's great game with Cork. And despite the misgivings of many supporters of the Waterford team he is quite confident of the ability, skill and strength of the Deise fifteen to win the Munster Final.

Erinox Abu—Mr J. C. Landy and some prominent city businessmen left Waterford on Tuesday to attend the Galway Races. The party travelled via Dublin. Mr Landy's useful "chaser" "Erinox" was one of the runners in the Galway Hurdle and was much fancied. Early in the present year "Erinox" won a £100 Hurdle Race at the Proenick Park Races.

The Barrack Street Band—The Barrack Street Brass Band played a beautiful selection of music in the People's Park on Sunday, July 25th, which included excerpts from the popular opera "H.M.S. Pinafore". A large gathering of citizens enjoyed the musical treat. The band was conducted by Mr M. P. Flannery, B.Mus. R.M.S.M.

Celidhthe in the Atlantic Dance Hall—The Celidhthe promoted by Glun Na Buadh in the Atlantic Dance Hall Tramore on Tuesday nights are being well patronised. About five hundred attended the inaugural dance. I hear that visitors have been much impressed with the fine exhibitions of Irish figure dancing and step-dancing. I have heard many people ask: Why there are no open-air Gaelic entertainments in Tramore?

CAPPOQUIN NEWS

THE SPORTSFIELD SAFE FOR THE PRESENT

"Nil Desperandum," which in plain English means "Never Despair," which was the heading we gave to our article about the Cappoquin Sportsfield in these "Notes" last week has since proved to be a most appropriate one because on Monday evening news was officially received by Mr M F Walsh Hon Sec. of the Sportsfield Committee that the auction of the property which was to have been held by Mr D Noonan Auctioneer Lismore, on Wednesday 28th, inst., had been cancelled.

We do not, however claim any credit for using this hopeful and prophetic heading because we were well aware of the powerful influences at work behind the scenes and while we were very optimistic as to the result, we dared not hope that the negotiations would have had such a prompt and happy ending. Before going further into the matter, we must say at once that the fullest credit for the satisfactory development now announced must be given to Mr M F Walsh P.C., Hon Sec of the Town Park Committee, for the able and diplomatic manner in which he handled the subject with the Irish Land Commission with the co-operation of his Co-Directors but we regret we are not at liberty to mention the name of another gentleman who warmly supported the Directors in the matter and to whom the Directors should feel deeply grateful for all time.

The people of Cappoquin should now be able to breathe freely again in the knowledge that the Sportsfield has been retained for them for the present, but this knowledge should not blind them to the fact that the cancellation of the auction is only a brief respite, and it is up to them, and also all the sporting people interested, to take immediate steps to raise the necessary funds to pay the Land Commission the full amount of the arrears at present due, because until this is done the "Sword of Democles" will still be hanging over the Directors, and the Land Commission can again put the Sportsfield up for auction at any moment.

The licensed traders of the town the townspeople in general and all those sporting clubs and other bodies who have found the sportsfield such a profitable and convenient institution in the past should now be able to devise ways and means to ensure that the field will become the permanent property of Cappoquin in the future. We are glad to be able to state that the members of the Cappoquin hurling and football club fully realise the position and intend to do their part to get the owners of the sportsfield out of the present crux while the plucky young sporting ladies of the Lawn Tennis Club have also kindly promised their active co-operation in the matter so that these two practical gestures should prove an inducement to others to do their part also. We feel sure that the Rev T Fitzgerald P.P. staunch and enthusiastic sportsman that he is, would not refuse his permission to have a public collection held outside the Church gates on one Sunday in aid of such a deserving object while it should not be impossible to organise a dance in the Boat-house Hall, and to hold other forms of Entertainment all for the same purpose so that if the proper spirit of co-operation be displayed, and all work together with a will the sportsfield instead of being lost can be retained as a valuable asset to Cappoquin for all time.

In the meantime, it can be stated that all the G.A.A. fixtures already made for the sportsfield now stand and can be played on the appointed dates, while the big L.S.F. Sports Meeting, provisionally fixed for Sunday Sept 12th, can also be held without fail.

A special article dealing with all the above events will appear next week.

AN INTERESTING SPIRITUAL HOLIDAY

Mr M J Sargent P.C., was the guest from Monday to Friday last week of the Lord Abbot of Mount Mellifont at the splendid Cistercian Monastery at New Mellifont Colon Co Louth.

He speaks highly of the great kindness and hospitality of the Priests and Monks there which are fully in keeping with their world-wide reputation in this respect in the Parent House of the Cistercian Order at Mount Mellifont Cappoquin.

The country around New Mellifont Abbey is level fair and fertile and noted for its rich sylvan beauty in contrast to the rugged grandeur of the lofty Knockmealdown mountains surrounding Mount Mellifont. After a peaceful Retreat amongst the saintly Cistercians at New Mellifont, Mr Sargent travelled to Dublin on last Saturday to attend the big Reception and Garden Party given by the President, Dr Hyde, at Arus an Uachtarian, in his capacity of DSO Lismore District Local Security Force, for which he and Mrs Sargent had received official invitations but owing to pressure of business at home Mrs Sargent was unable to attend.

On his return to Cappoquin on Tuesday, he gave a glowing account of the brilliant scene and the wonderful hospitality experienced in what were once known as the beautiful Viceregal Grounds at Dublin Castle, and the people of Cappoquin should feel proud of the great honour bestowed on their leading townsman by being invited to this brilliant function, which was attended by 1,500 of the most distinguished people in the country.

LATE MR D O'KEEFE

The funeral of the late Mr David O'Keefe Allen Street, whose death we announced last week took place after Requiem Masses on Thursday, 22nd inst., to St Declan's cemetery, Dromore, and was very largely attended by all classes of the townspeople.

As a special mark of sympathy towards his nephew, Quartermaster-Sergeant James Revins, Drill Instructor of the L.D.F. in Lismore District, Mr Thomas Cunningham, Adjutant, Lismore Group, attended on behalf of that Group while a special party of the Cappoquin Group in full uniform acted as a Guard of Honour.

Owing to the inability of Rev T Fitzgerald P.P., to travel to the cemetery, he recited the last prayers over the coffin in St. Mary's Catholic Church and afterwards headed the cortege around the town.

The chief mourners included Quartermaster James Revins, Lismore, Jack Revins, Lombardstown, and Corporal David Revins Templemore, (nephews), Mrs T Regan, Cappoquin (niece) Patrick Revins, do, (brother-in-law), Mrs James Revins and children, Lismore, Thomas Regan, Cappoquin, John Regan, Junr., do, Thos Tobin do etc.

Wreaths were sent by Patrick Revins Jimmie and Mrs Revins Lismore Christie and Fenny Revins do, Jack and David Revins, Mick and John McCarthy, Thomas and Ellen O'Keefe while Mass cards were sent by Officers and Men of L.D.F. Group Cappoquin, Michael and Miss Bateman do, Jimmie and Kathleen McGrath do, Tommy Ahearne do, etc, etc.

The funeral arrangements very satisfactorily carried out by Mr E J Fraher, Undertaker Cappoquin.

LAWN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The members of the Cappoquin Lawn Tennis Club were "At Home" to the members of the Lismore Club on last Sunday afternoon when an enjoyable Tournament was played on the carefully-prepared Courts in the Sportsfield.

Although the Lismore Club has been much longer established, and its members therefore have had greater experience at the game still the members of the newly-established Cappoquin Club made a highly-creditable display, and led by a narrow margin at one period during the evening.

The better training of the Lismore players then began to manifest itself and an exciting finish resulted in the visitors winning the rubber by the small margin of one game.

The visitors were hospitably entertained to tea on the grounds, but owing to the coldness of the evening they were further entertained at Walsh's Hotel that night.

L.D.F. TO CAMP IN YOUGHAL

The Lismore and Cappoquin Groups of the L.D.F., numbering between 50 and 60 members, are to spend a week's vigorous training in Camp in Youghal during next week. It had been originally intended that all the Groups in the Lismore District, comprising in addition to the above two, Tallow Ballyduff, Villierstown Camphire and Ballinamult, should travel together and spend the same week in Youghal, but for various reasons this arrangement had to be altered and only the Lismore and Cappoquin Groups are now going for next week. The men in full uniform, will travel by the morning train to Cork on Saturday morning and will travel from Cork to Youghal on that evening, the entire party being in charge of Mr P Daly Assistant Company Leader, Cappoquin and Mr P Cunningham, Acting Company Leader, Lismore.

CHAMPIONSHIP SPORTS AT CLONMEL

It is a pity that the National Cycling and Athletic Championships are being held in Clonmel on next Sunday, the same day as the great Waterford v. Cork Senior Hurling Match in Cork as many sportsmen in West Waterford would like to attend both events, if they were held on different days.

Clonmel, however, will make the strongest appeal to the members of the Cappoquin Cycling and Athletic Club, several of whose most prominent members will be competing in the championships, both in Cycling and Athletics, and we wish them the best of luck on the occasion.

At the Kilmallock Sports on last Sunday, Jimmy Foley won the Three Miles' Cycling race from a big "field," and was only narrowly beaten in the One Mile event, so if he can only reproduce this form, he should prove "hot stuff" in Clonmel on Sunday.

CLOSE OF THE SALMON SEASON

The salmon-season for net fishermen on the Blackwater will close on next Saturday, 31st inst.

Although the earlier portion of the season has been on the slack side, a welcome improvement has been noticeable within the past fortnight when two splendid hauls of 40 and 30 salmon, respectively, were made by the Lismore Estate fishermen at the spot known as "The Kitchen-Hole," a mile from Cappoquin. We have seen 67 fine salmon brought in to a local dealer one day this week, and it is certainly hard luck on both dealers and fishermen that the season should now be closing just when it proving the most profitable period of the year.

ON HOLIDAYS

Rev T Dunphy C.C., is at present away on his annual holidays, but all the spiritual work of this extensive Parish is being most satisfactorily carried out, by the Rev T Fitzgerald, P.P., in the meantime.

Miss E Bell, the courteous and efficient Secretary of the Cappoquin State Company, is also absent on her well-earned holidays for the past fortnight.

One of the most active and energetic Social Workers in our midst, Miss Bell in addition to her heavy official duties, is also Hon Sec. of the local Branch of the Red Cross and Treasurer of the Cappoquin District Nursing Association, so she is, undoubtedly deserving of a good rest now and we hope to see her thoroughly refreshed and recuperated when she returns a fortnight hence.

SUCCESSFUL CINDERELLA DANCE

The Cinderella dance held by the Rowing Club in the Boat-house Hall on last Sunday night proved a thoroughly enjoyable affair and was an outstanding success. There was a splendid attendance from the town and all the surrounding districts, all of whom were delighted with the perfect condition of the dancing floor.

A charming selection of the best dance-music was provided by the Blackwater Serenaders Band, Cappoquin under the able conductorship of Mr James Glasse, while all the arrangements were admirably carried out by Mr John Regan Senr, and Mr W H Doyle, so that the event proved a glorious success, both from a social and financial point of view.

NO COURT LAST WEEK

Owing to the fact that he was engaged in taking depositions in a murder case in Mitchelstown on Thursday 22nd inst., Mr G P Farrell D.J., was unable to attend in Cappoquin, so that the Court to be held here on that day fell through. Up to some years ago there was always a Deputy Justice available to take the place of the regular Justice when he was otherwise engaged, or absent through illness, or being on holidays, so that the Courts were held regularly every month without a break.

As no Court has been held in Cappoquin since May, nor in Lismore since June is it not time that the Minister for Justice revived the former arrangement and thus save the public from the grave inconvenience caused by the present unsatisfactory arrangement?

L.D.F. SWEEP

A very successful Sweep was run by the Cappoquin Group L.D.F. for the Galway Plate, run on Wednesday.

The draw took place in the C.Y.M.S. Hall on Tuesday night in the presence of a large attendance of members of the L.D.F. and ticket-holders from the town and district.

When the result of the race was declared on Wednesday, it was learned that Swindon's

We wish to congratulate the three prize-winners on their good luck and also the Cappoquin Group of the L.D.F. on the great success which attended the draw.

Ballyhane Murder Appeal Refused, Execution Fixed For Thursday, August 12th.

An application was opened before the Court of Criminal Appeal, the Chief Justice, President of the High Court, and Mr Justice Martin Maguire, on Monday last, July 26th, on behalf of William O'Shea (24), labourer Ballyhane Cappoquin, for leave to appeal from his conviction for the murder of his wife, Maureen (21), on March 15th last.

The grounds of the application were that the trial judge had been wrong in admitting in evidence statements of O'Shea recorded in a Civic Guard Sergeant's notebook as voluntary statements, uninfluenced by threats or promises, and statements of the murdered woman, and that the opening statement of counsel for the Attorney-General to the jury contained statements, particularly with reference to the burning of Hill House where the O'Sheas had resided before the murder, which prejudiced O'Shea and poisoned the minds of the jury.

Mr Nolan Whelan, S.C., Mr James D'Arcy (instructed by Mr J F Kenny, solr., Dungarvan), appeared for O'Shea, and Mr Moriarty, S.C., and Mr Hooper, (instructed by the Chief State Solicitor for the Attorney-General).

The grounds of appeal roughly, might be divided into categories, said Mr Nolan Whelan, one being the alleged confessions of O'Shea namely, the statement with reference to obtaining a cartridge to give to Tommy White to shoot Mrs O'Shea, and the statement that White was to tip him before he shot the woman and the other the statement by counsel for the Attorney-General to the jury about the burning of Hill House. The objection to the reference to the burning of Hill House was said Mr Nolan Whelan that it was a statement that the house had been set afire to by arrangement with O'Shea, with the object of destroying his wife and that O'Shea had been absent from the house on the day of the burning by arrangement.

Mr Nolan Whelan submitted that there had been no evidence whatever that Hill House had been maliciously burned so far as O'Shea was concerned, or with his knowledge or for the purpose of destroying his wife and that the statement was prejudicial to a fair trial. It was open to the jury on that statement that O'Shea had desired his wife to be burned alive, yet the evidence had been overwhelming that there had been no intention on the part of O'Shea to destroy his wife in it.

Legal arguments were continued on Wednesday and Mr Nolan Whelan in his address said that he objected to the admission of a statement of O'Driscoll, one of the witnesses in the trial, that Maureen O'Shea had said, referring to her husband, "he is praying that I will have a child soon and he thinks I will die having it." Another statement to which Mr Nolan Whelan objected, was stated to have been made by Maureen O'Shea on the night on which the house in which the O'Sheas lived, was burned. That statement was "It is me they wanted to get, and I suppose they will get me some time." In the Kirwan case Mr Justice O'Byrne laid it down that the trial judge, although certain evidence might be admissible in law, had the discretion to exclude evidence in certain circumstances.

Mr Nolan Whelan submitted that the trial judge in this case would have excluded these statements if anybody had been aware of the decision in Kirwan's case. The trial judge had held that he was coerced to admit this evidence because it was a rule of law. This evidence must have had a very great effect on the minds of jurors, and the trial judge, if he thought he had the power, would have ruled it out.

Counsel was proceeding to refer to matters raised during the trial in connection with the burning of the cottage, when

The Chief Justice said the court was quite satisfied that there was nothing in the direct evidence to prove that it was actually the accused set fire to the cottage.

Mr Nolan Whelan said it was suggested in the evidence as a previous attempt of O'Shea to destroy his wife.

Mr J D'Arcy, who followed, said that that morning in the barracks the accused had made a voluntary statement occupying a period of two hours, and in that statement he had said nothing incriminating himself. It was only about two hours afterwards that he had said anything to this effect. He suggested that something must have happened in the meantime to change the accused's mind. What that sudden change of mind was, was a matter of suspicion, and it was the duty of the prosecution to dispel that suspicion, but they had done nothing towards dispelling it.

Without calling on counsel for the Attorney-General, the Chief Justice announced that the court would have to refuse the application.

The Chief Justice, announcing the decision of the court, said that none of the grounds of the appeal had been established, and the application for leave to appeal must be refused. The court did not require to hear counsel for the Attorney-General. The court said the Chief Justice fixed Thursday, August 12th, as the date on which the execution of O'Shea is to be carried out.

Mr Nolan Whelan—Would you give me a certificate for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court on the admissibility of the evidence?

The Chief Justice—No.

Death of Mr. R. Carey, Ring

His family and many friends suffered a severe shock when the unexpected news of the death of Mr. Richard Carey a well-known farmer of Gortnadhra, Ring, became known on Sunday night last July 25th.

Deceased had gone to an out-house to repair a separator when he collapsed. He had been in Dungarvan during the previous week and was in his usual health. He was aged sixty-nine years.

At the removal of the remains to Ring on Monday, there was a very big funeral and again at the burial on Tuesday. We offer our sincere sympathy to his widow Mrs Kate Carey.

Rev. P F McGrath, P.P. Ring and Old Parish, and Rev. Fr. Power, C.C., officiated at the obsequies.

Dangers For Young Boys At Swimming Pool

Warning Signs For Causeway Crossing

The fortnightly meeting of the Dungarvan Urban District Council was held on Friday night last at the Town Hall...

Mr S J Moynihan, Manager, and Mr Wm. O'Meara, Town Clerk, attended a "Leader" representative was the only pressman present...

Dealing with the proposed building scheme, Mr Kyne said that in these future schemes a site at Abbeyside should be got as there were many people in the condemned areas there who did refuse going to town...

Dealing with the Swimming Pool, the Manager said that the Borough Surveyor was anxious to get as much of the work done now as possible in order to make the pool presentable...

Mr. Dahill suggested raising a loan to finish the immediate works.

Mr. Clancy—That would cost a lot.

Mr. Clancy—I think the idea of a loan had one as the loan charges are increasing yearly.

The Manager said they would have £200 from the Department in a few days, and that would be them going for the present, but if the need arose the matter of raising a loan could be dealt with at another meeting.

Mr McCarthy asked if anything had been done about the erection of the screen walls.

The Manager said he would take the matter up with the B S. Mr Kyne said that the Park was very sorely neglected and should be looked after and cleaned up.

Mr Clancy said that the rising generation appeared to be absolutely devoid of all civic spirit. They should be taught obedience.

The Manager took note of this and said he would speak to Mr Bowen.

Dangers For Young Boys At Swimming Pool

The Chairman said that an accident of a very serious nature was only avoided by the timely action of Mr. Michael Foley, N.T., Abbeyside, when at the Swimming Pool during the week a young boy got into difficulties at the deep end...

Mr Dahill said that the hours at the pool for ladies at present were very inconvenient as from 10 to 12 most of them would be engaged preparing the dinner. He suggested letting it to them from 10 till 4 and giving the men the rest of the day.

Manager—You forget Mr Dahill that it was originally intended as a men's swimming pool.

As to the question of the liability of the Council in case of accident the Manager said that when all reasonable safeguards are taken there is no liability.

Mr Clancy said that a set of bye laws for the pool and surrounding area should be adopted.

The Manager said that the obvious thing to do was to define the hours for boys.

Mr. Kyne said it would be a pity to restrict them as the pool was a god-send to them.

A suggestion was made that the boys should be kept at the shallow end where all accidents could be obviated.

The Manager said he would look into the matter further.

Warning Signs at Causeway Crossing

Mr Kyne asked if anything had since been done about the posting of warning signs at the Causeway Crossing as he saw another accident there during the week. He stated that warning notices were absolutely essential.

The Manager said that a notice could be placed in the middle of the road which is wide enough to take them.

Looking Well

Mr Clancy said that since the footpaths have been laid down the Causeway is looking very well and the whole town is taking on a nice appearance.

Manager's Orders

The following reply from the Manager on recent resolutions was received.

Seats in Causeway—Some of these have now been put out. The Borough Surveyor states that the reason for the delay this year was due to the fact that in previous years these seats were often found pulled about and thrown across the pavement. The B S is considering some means of making them fast.

Cleaning of Strands—Abbeyside and Quann's cleaned up. The B S has delegated to one of the Council's staff the duty of visiting these places periodically and seeing that they are kept clean.

Urinal at Quay—This is being repaired.

Housing Scheme—The B S is not yet in a position to submit his estimate for 5-roomed houses.

Swimming Pool—It is expected that a further small sum will be released to do further work.

Vote of Sympathy

The Council, on the proposition of the Chairman, seconded by Mr Kyne, passed a vote of sympathy to the family of the late Mrs Lynch, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan.

SPECIAL MEETING

REQUEST FOR TRAIN FOR MUNSTER HURLING FINAL

At a special meeting of the Dungarvan Urban District Council held on Tuesday, July 20th at which Mr Thomas McCarthy, Chairman, presided, other members present were—Messrs T A Kyne, L A Veale, and Ml Morrissey, T.D.

The following resolution, was proposed by Mr Veale, and was seconded by Mr Kyne, and passed unanimously.

"With a view to meeting the requirements of a very large number of people who desire to travel to Cork for the Munster Hurling Final on Sunday, August 1st, we, the Dungarvan Urban District Council, hereby request the Great Southern Railways Co to provide an excursion train to run from Waterford to Cork via Dungarvan, on the date mentioned."

A reply to the above has been received by the Town Clerk Mr Wm. O'Meara which stated that under an Emergency Powers Order, the Railway Company could not arrange for such an excursion train as requested.

CARRICK NEWS

Work of St. Vincent de Paul Society—Glowing Tributes by Bishop Cahalan—On Sunday evening last at the Mercy Convent Carrick-on-Suir 120 representatives of Conferences of St Vincent de Paul Society in Waterford and Lismore diocese attended the annual group meeting of members of the Diocesan Conferences.

Reports were submitted from the Diocesan President and Secretary, and from all the Conferences on the work done during the past year.

Mr J. L. Murphy National President of St Vincent de Paul Society attended and delivered an inspiring address.

His Lordship, Most Rev Dr Cahalan, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, who presided spoke at length in praise of the excellent work of St Vincent de Paul Society—with which he had been associated in Cork for over 20 years. Men had come that day to Carrick from places as far away as Tallow, Dungarvan and Clogheen, filled with the spirit of charity and zeal that are characteristics of our Catholic faith. His Lordship said he found much consolation and satisfaction in the sight of that splendid body of Catholic men who could look with confidence to co-operate with him in every work he might feel called upon to ask for their co-operation and help. He felt that such a fine body of Catholic men would be a help and encouragement to him in his efforts to carry out the spirit and motto—he chose when he was made their Bishop—To Feed the Flock of God.

His Lordship made a strong appeal to young men in the towns to join the local St Vincent de Paul Society and mentioned that when Frederick Ozanam founded the Society, he was only 20 years old, and was a young University student in Paris. Presidents of Conferences should endeavour to attract young men by making Conferences bright and interesting as they may feel sure they were in Frederick Ozanam's time full of the gay spirit of young students fortified by the grace of the true Catholic spirit of charity.

The 1944 Group meeting will be held in Clonmel.

Carrick Fair—At Carrick fair on Monday last supply was small, but demand and prices were very satisfactory. Young cattle sold well 9 to 12 months old cattle £11 to £12 10s, 1 1/2-year-olds £13 to £14, 2-year-olds £15 to £17, 2 1/2-year-olds £17 to £20, good 3-year-olds £23 to £26, good milch cows £23 to £25, Bonhams 25/- to 30/-, 3 months old pigs 70/- to 80/-.

Carrick-on-Suir Golf Links

The contest for the Captain's Cup at Carrick-on-Suir Golf Links on Sunday last 25th inst, attracted a large number of interested players and spectators. The contest resulted in a tie between Mr J Hynes, Provincial Bank and Mr Coughlan, Chemist.

A team of ladies from Tramore played a team from Carrick. The Carrick team won seven out of the eight matches played.

VIEWS OF OUR READERS

CHURCH REPAIRS

(To The Editor)

Dear Editor—If you can spare a little space in your columns I will thank you to squeeze in the following.

As one who attended the recent meeting of Parishioners called by Canon O'Brien it was edifying to see the numbers who answered the call and the enthusiasm shown by the generous support given to the worthy project of repairing the roof of the Church.

Canon O'Brien headed the list with the princely sum of £100 which is so typical of his outstanding generosity now as in the past.

In his opening remarks he said: "that about 120 years ago a similar body of men gathered together but the project they discussed was of much greater magnitude than the one today—they assembled to start the building of the Church," which to use the Canon's words "is the most beautiful interior in the country." Now what about the exterior? There still remains unbuilt the Spire, which is shown in the plans, and until it is erected our beautiful Church is unfinished and is discreditable to a rich Parish like Dungarvan.

If a fund for the purpose was opened and a good working Committee appointed it should be possible to start the work in five or even ten years and so not leave another century pass before the Church is completed.

If every parishioner will rally round and support the Canon's present appeal it will be an incentive to him to start this great work which would be the crowning glory to our beautiful Church and a tribute to the memory of those who started the work 120 years ago.

A Famous Waterford Braw—Kelly's Ale

SOME INTERESTING DETAILS

(To The Editor)

Dear Sir—I read the interesting notes in the "Waterford Letter" of "The Leader" with regard to Kelly's famous XXX Pale Ale. There is no doubt about Kelly's having the secret (as they call it in trade circles) of brewing first-class ale.

Old citizens have often mentioned to me about the extraordinary potency of Samson's Ale which was brewed over a half century ago by Messrs Patrick Kelly & Sons. A pint of Samson they told me would make a person merry and two pints would make them—well dizzy! Samson was a XXXXX brand of ale—too strong for ordinary consumption.

Kelly's must have a world-wide reputation for brewing excellent ale. An old sea-faring man named Sarsfield told me that he drank Kelly's Ale in Rangoon India, sixty years ago when the sun was splitting the stones to quoth his own words—The County-Waterford Irish poet—Donnecadh—Ruadh—Me-Namara made a voyage to Newfoundland during the course of his career. His friends equipped him with plenty of victuals and drink for the long voyage. He enumerated in a poem all the good things, potatoes, bacon, butter, eggs etc, which he received. There was no rationing in his time, he got "lan a walla". Referring to the drink Donncadh Ruadh wrote— "A keg of good ale all hall who brew so 'Twould liven the dead if aught could do so."

I concluded, Mr Editor—that the ale with which Donnecadh refreshed himself was of the same strength and quality as the Samson brand brewed by Messrs Patrick Kelly & Sons—a pint of which made man, "Sugach."

City Of Waterford Vocational Education Committee

INTERESTING REPORT BY VISITING MEMBER

At a recent meeting of the above committee the following report was made by Mr T D Connolly who was visiting member for June, 1943—

"A Chairde I visited the Technical Institute during the month of June and I herewith submit my observations.

I ascertained from a perusal of the registers in the Engineering Department that the vocational system is being successfully linked up with the Motor Engineering business apprenticeship the ESB and the Allied Iron Foundry. During the session 60 per cent of the students received engagements in those industries, while one young man was appointed as Junior Draughtsman on the G.S Railway.

The contract for the installation of electrical equipment was satisfactorily carried out by Messrs Keating & Gaule.

I direct the attention of the Committee to the fact that the day students in the Engineering classes are still working against the light. The matter was referred to by other visiting members earlier in the session. If the ceiling and wall got a coating of white paint the disadvantage would be obviated.

I was informed that the Manager of the Allied Iron Foundry was making arrangements to start a class in the Institute for the teaching of moulding to juvenile workers. The training thus afforded will mean a great improvement in the general working conditions, and will ensure satisfactory results, and larger earnings for those employees on piece work in the foundry.

In the Woodwork Section, Junior Technical Class, the Register also revealed the pleasing fact that many industrial concerns had taken their apprentices and young workers from the qualified pupils of the Institute. During the present session 50% of the students on the roll entered the workshop.

It was suggested to me that if the system inaugurated by the ESB of apprenticeship examinations was introduced into other industries an opportunity would be given to all clever young workers (who may not be sons of tradesmen) who graduated through the local vocational school to become qualified craftsmen.

The choral singing classes continue to make marked progress. The pupils of these classes formed the nucleus of the choir (130 voices) which gave such a very successful broadcast of community singing of Irish melodies during the session. Mr Fionan McColum, Inspector, Department of Education pronounced the broadcast as the best of its kind in Eire. Our native music well interpreted is not only an excellent medium for popularising the Irish language but it tends to modify the national proneness to dissension. In other words, if we sang more we would fight less.

Very successful classes for the teaching of Irish were conducted in the Institute by Padraic O'Colneallaigh and in the Gaelic League Hall by Seumas O'Cleirigh. Many students juvenile and adult, benefitted by the first-class tuition afforded. Occasional lectures on the Mural paintings (History of the Deise Tírbal Territory throughout the Ages) were given by Padraic O'Colneallaigh.

The history of Irish Place Names is a fascinating study for students of Irish. I suggest that the curriculum be so arranged for the coming session that the class-work be supplemented by lectures on the history of place names. An excellent Reference Book is available in the Institute by Very Rev Canon Power viz "History of the Place Names of the Deise".

Two public lectures delivered recently in the Art Room attracted very large audiences, which reminded me that there is a great lack of accommodation for developing the cultural and social side of the students' life. A post-war problem which the Committee will be called upon to deal with is the erection of a Hall for the staging of dramas and musical entertainments, holding of Ceilidhe and a Fels Tighe at the end of the academic year. A spacious and central site is at the disposal of the Committee.

Mr Connolly was complimented on his report by Very Rev Chairman, Archdeacon Keillher, P.P., Alderman James Aiyward and Alderman Michael Coffey the latter remarking that it was "a magnificent report".

Tallow & Moorehill Notes

The Annual Sports—On Sunday last the annual sports under N.A. & C.A. Rules were held at Moorehill, and were a great success. The attendance was not as large as on former occasions due to counter attractions at Tallow and Fermoy, but still there was a good attendance and all had a very enjoyable evening's sport. All the events were closely and keenly contested, some very exciting finishes were witnessed. The evening was beautifully fine and was ideal for both spectators and competitors—not being too warm. The track was in very good condition, thanks to a very energetic Committee and the events were run off well up to time, so there were few dull moments. The splendid array of prizes were much admired and the Committee are to be heartily congratulated on the fine selection of useful articles. Our local athlete, Mr. Sonny Murray had another good day winning the 440, 880, and long hurling puck and being second in the long jump not a bad record for a day. Our other local champion, Mr. Larry Hickey, won the Old Age Pensioners race in convincing fashion.

The End of a Perfect Day—Was the very successful ceilidhe held at the Moorehill hall on Sunday night. A very large attendance being present. A splendid selection of music was supplied by the "Evergreen" Ceilidhe Band and one and all had a very enjoyable evening, and as the dancers thronged from the hall we heard them say to one another "give us another one soon."

Local Tit Bits. There's an old saying—"that the man who made time made plenty of it," but it isn't apt just now, for some of the "boys" can't find time for "supper" with the rush. A certain young man thought to be very "cute" the other night but don't forget, two is company—three is a crowd.

The Nursing Profession

AT the last meeting of the County Board of Public Assistance a discussion took place on the treatment meted out to the Nursing Profession in this country. We agree entirely with the sentiments expressed and say that it is high time that more and better consideration of their work should be given to them.

Needless to say the Profession is one of the most self-sacrificing which can be entered. It is the side of the medical profession without the glamour. These women and girls work day and night in our hospitals caring the sick the dying and the aged. Long hours of tedious duties have to be undertaken for a miserable pittance.

It is a great shame that the members of such a noble profession should be so poorly paid. They give of their best at all times, and on many occasions when patients are contrary, it is difficult but they never fail. The nurses and probationers never spare themselves and have to work 12 hours a day on seven days each week. They have to be ready at all times to meet any emergency. Day and night these followers of "the Lady of the Lamp" keep up their ceaseless vigil and attendance beside the sick-beds of the nation.

Is it not the least they could expect to have a decent living wage?

We hope that every effort will be made to see that our nurses are better looked after and that we will not be faced with the terrible problem of having no girls willing to enter the profession in this country. This undoubtedly will be the case if present conditions are not bettered.

COME ON WATERFORD

Next Sunday at the Athletic Grounds, Cork, the Waterford XV will cross camans with the Lee men to decide who are to be Munster Champions for 1943. Waterford have had a run of ill-luck since winning the semi-final against Limerick. They lost the toss for the choice of venue and have not had a joo smooth sailing since, and now at the last moment Vin Bastin has had to cry off due to an injury.

The selectors met on Wednesday night and selected the team to do duty for the County on Sunday. It is a team that is quite capable of winning out on Sunday and the supporters have every reason to hope for a win. We are sure that there will be a very large gathering at the Cork venue on Sunday next who will shout PORT-LAIRGE ABU when the final whistle goes.

Speaking to a Cork supporter during the week we were informed that Cork are all keyed up, and that they recognise in Waterford a team who are worthy contenders for the Munster Crown. He says that it is anybody's game, and should prove one of the best finals played for many a year.

WEDDING—On Tuesday July 20th a very pretty wedding was solemnised at Aglish by Rev. D. Power, C.C., when Miss Maureen Fitzgerald, twin daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. B. Fitzgerald, Graigue, Villierstown was married to Mr. Thomas Crowe, eldest son of Thomas and the late Mrs. Crowe Villierstown.

The bride was attended by her sister Miss Rita Fitzgerald, and by Miss Pat Lee Cork (cousin). The best man was Mr. James Morrissey Villierstown, a cousin of the bridegroom. The bride who was given away by Mr. Patrick Fitzgerald, looked radiant and charming. A large gathering attended the ceremony. Both parties are most popular in the Villierstown district and were the recipients of many presents and lots of good wishes.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at which a large number of relatives and friends thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

DAMAGE TO GARDENS AND ALLOTMENTS

We have received numerous complaints recently as to the wanton damage by trespass and otherwise of gardens and allotments. It seems that some people are devoid of all civic spirit in this matter, and seem to ignore all warnings and appeals that have been made from time to time. We all know what hard work and constant attention is required if the gardens and allotments are to prove fruitful and it is a sad story to relate that after all the work and care of the owners of those gardens that by wanton acts of trespass, all their work can be destroyed. Something drastic is required to remedy this and we would suggest that those people whose allotments and gardens are suffering such leave no stone unturned to bring those responsible before the court where we are sure the District Justice will make the punishment fit the crime.

SWIMMING GALA

The new date fixed for the holding of the Swimming Gala is August 15th, when the original programme of events will be held. The Gala is sponsored by the Dungarvan Swimming Club who are appealing to all to join and therefore give the club their support. The season's fees are—Adults 2/6, under 17 years 1/6 family tickets 5/.

GONE TO CAMP

Between twenty and thirty members of the Abbeyside Troop of Catholic Boy Scouts left by train on Monday morning last en route for their summer camp which this year is being held at Fossa, beside the lakes of Killarney. The boys are under the able guidance of their very popular and esteemed Scoutmaster Mr. L. F. Lanigan, solo, who is assisted in the care of the Troop by Mr. John Daly, A.S.M.

Merry and bright, the youthful travellers were at the station early and as the train pulled in there was great excitement. A Troop from Tramore, who are at the same camp were on the train and many old acquaintances were renewed.

Great credit is due to Mr. Lanigan and the Troop Committee who have kept the Scout movement in the Village so vigorous from the start and who have thus made it possible for these young boys to spend such a happy holiday.

NOT RESPONSIBLE

We received a letter during the week from our very good friend Liam O'Miodhachain An Rinn, in which he states that he has been named as the writer of the Irish letter signed "Deiseach" in a recent issue. This, he wishes us to make clear is incorrect.

CHANGES AT NATIONAL BANK

Mr. Farrell Humphreys, of the National Bank, Dungarvan who has been a most popular official since his advent to the town some 5 years ago, has left on promotion for Ferris, Co. Wexford. Mr. Humphreys and his charming wife and family lived at Abbeyside and made a wide circle of firm friends here and all are sorry at his departure.

He has been replaced by Mr. O'Donnell who has come from the Killybegs, Co. Donegal Branch.

GREAT SUCCESS OF FARMERS DANCE

The farmers dance held at Ocean View on last Sunday night proved an outstanding success. A large crowd enjoyed themselves immensely and all were very pleased with the arrangements made by the energetic dance committee.

L.D.F. SUMMER CAMP

A big number of the Dungarvan L.D.F. travelled to Youghal on Sunday last where a week's training under military command is taking place.

Manoeuvres and tactical exercises of all kinds are being held.

GORED BY A BULL

On last Sunday evening a young man named William Cantwell employed by Mr. Lynch, Inchindrisla, suffered severe injuries to his back and spine when he was gored by a bull. The unfortunate man was placing the bull with a number of helpers when the animal turned on him and savagely attacked him. Two neighbours passing along the road saw the accident and went at once to Cantwell's rescue and succeeded in putting the bull away with hay sprongs. The injured man was removed to the hospital where he was also spiritually attended by Rev. P. Farrell, C.C. On inquiring at the Hospital on Thursday we were informed that there was no change in his condition.

SUNBEAM WOLSEY CALENDAR

Messrs. Kelly, Advertising Agents Dublin, have forwarded us the Sunbeam Wolsey Calendar for July 1943—June 1944. The plate is a reproduction of the painting by Mr. Leo Whelan R.H.A. and is entitled "The Cello Player".

The blocks for the reproduction were engraved by the Irish Photo Engraving Co., Ltd. and the Calendar was printed by Cahill & Co. Ltd.—two Irish firms.

It is a highly artistic production and shows that Sunbeam Wolsey aim at putting the best on the market always.

GOOD RESPONSE

At the Church gate collections held by the Dungarvan G.A.A. Club on Sunday last a good sum was realised which will go a long way towards paying off the club debts. The committee desire to thank all who so generously subscribed and made the collection such a success.

Prevention And Eradication Of Sheep Scab

The Minister for Agriculture desires to remind sheep-owners and all others concerned that the yearly sheep dipping period as prescribed under the Sheep Dipping Order, 1937, commences in Eire on August 1, and that under the Order sheep may not be moved into or exposed for sale in any fair, market or sale-yard during the months of September or October unless they have been double-dipped as prescribed subsequent to the preceding July 31, and are accompanied at the time of such movement or exposure either by a declaration of such double-dipping or such other documentary evidence thereof as may be prescribed in regulations made by the local authority concerned. The object of the Order is the prevention and eradication of sheep scab—a matter of paramount importance to the sheep industry. Every sheep-owner is bound to dip his sheep twice during the prescribed dipping period (August 1 to October 31) if regulations of the local authority require him to have such dippings carried out at particular times and places, he must make arrangements to have the whole of his flock dipped in accordance with those regulations, otherwise he should fix times and places himself, and give the local authority due notice either direct or through the Garda Síochána, so that they may be represented at the dippings, should they so desire.

Each dipping should be by thorough immersion of the sheep in an approved dip, and the greatest care should be taken in carrying out the directions given as to the mixing of the dip and its dilution in water in the approved proportion. The period of immersion in all cases should be one minute at least. Sheep must have been shorn before dipping unless they are lambs under nine months old. The interval between the two dippings should not be less than seven nor more than fourteen days. Where an arsenical dip is used for a first dipping of sheep, it is recommended that a non-arsenical dip should be used for the second dipping. In cases, however where an arsenical dip is used for both dippings, the second dipping should take place not earlier than the tenth day and not later than the fourteenth day after the date of the first dipping, and the dipping solution should be at half the strength required for the first dipping. It is important that intervals as indicated between dippings be carefully observed.

It is a matter of great importance that all sheep-owners should, from time to time, carefully examine their sheep for indications of scab. If there is any suspicion of disease the case should be reported without delay to the local Garda Síochána so that the suspected animal may be examined as early as possible by a veterinary inspector of the local authority. Prompt measures taken in this way would prevent the spread of the disease.

VOTES OF SYMPATHY

Old Comrades I.R.A. at their meeting held on Sunday, July 18th, passed votes of sympathy with the family of the following recently deceased. The late Mrs. Lynch, O'Connell St., Dungarvan. Mrs. Dagg, Ballylemon, Matt Power, Ballyknock and Eamonn Walsh, Waterford. Ar Dheis De go raibh a n-anam.

On Wednesday night at a special meeting of the Ardmore L.S.F. Mr. Lincoln proposed a vote of sympathy to Mrs. Statia Keane and family on their recent bereavement. Mr. J. Crowl seconded the proposal which was unanimously approved. Mr. Michael Moloney suggested to have Holy Mass offered. This appropriate suggestion was seconded by Mr. Moss Colbert. It was finally agreed to communicate with Rev. Fr. Enda, O.Cist, nephew of the late Michael Keane and also to forward a Mass card to the Keane family. The meeting then adjourned as a mark of respect.

TEN KILLED IN AIR ACCIDENT IN KERRY

A British Overseas Airways Corporation flying-boat, north-bound from Lisbon, crashed into the lonely slopes of Mount Brandon, Clohane, Castlegregory, Co. Kerry, in the early hours of Wednesday last.

The machine burst into flames and of the 26 occupants, including 17 passengers, nine were killed outright, one died on the way to hospital and 16 are injured, three of them seriously. The pilot of the aircraft is among the dead. Six of the crew escaped with slight injuries. The sixteen injured men are being treated in Tralee Hospital.

When Patrick Corkery, Silabh Glas, awakened by banging, got up and opened the door of his mountain cottage in the early hours of the morning, a strange looking, over-alled figure stumbled into his kitchen and collapsed on a chair. The man had just enough strength left to tell the cottier of the terrible thing that had happened further up on the mountain, the sudden crash, the explosion, and in the light of the burning wreckage, the bodies inert on the stone-covered ground, the frantic rescue efforts, the dragging of the stunned passengers away from the blaze and the wandering through swamp and heather till he found the house.

RED CROSS AID

Making swiftly for the village of Clohane, Corkery notified the Guards, and they with a military and a Red Cross unit from Dingle, climbed the mountain to the help of the injured. Later in the morning their efforts were supplemented by members of the Tralee branch of the Red Cross, and those who were seriously hurt were taken down the mountain on stretchers and transferred to Tralee Hospital.

"When we got to the remains of the plane we saw bodies strewn over a wide area, as if they had been blown out of the machine," one of the helpers told a reporter. "It was horrible to go up there. Our people were succouring several of the injured who were conscious, but were too weak to walk. Many of the dead passengers were charred and unrecognisable."

Tributes were paid by members of the crew to the work of the Red Cross, with Nurse P. J. Devane and Dr. G. Scully, Dingle, and Dr. Lawlor, Castlegregory, who set up a First Aid post on the mountain with the help of the local L.D.F.

"The machine left Lisbon at 10 p.m. on Tuesday, and carried a large quantity of mail from prisoners of war in Japan."

The dead and injured had to be carried three miles down the mountainside to Clohane.

Dungarvan District Court

Understanding that the purchasers would in turn sell their corn to them.

The Justice said he was satisfied that it was not a question of ordinary stocks of coal though there was a breach of the order.

Mr P J Moloney, Managing Director, said in evidence that at the time they were owners of the "Lady Belle" which traded between South Wales and Dungarvan. From time to time they accumulated a stock of bunkers as they intended shipping wheat around the coast and could not get them here. This idea had to be dropped as the Marine Insurance made it too costly and it was cheaper to use the railway. As a result they found themselves with a supply of coal and gave it out for threshing purposes, at that time the turf was very bad and wood was not available and it was much safer to use coal.

Mr Counihan—You knew you were breaking the order?

Witness—Yes. Mr Hutchinson explained his clients' position.

Dr Counihan said that it was a practice that should be stopped. Other farmers about the country got on very well at their threshing by using turf and wood.

Mr Williams said that under the circumstances only a small penalty should be imposed. The coal came in in a peculiar manner and he contended it should not have been put in the stock returns.

Justice—Oh, it should have been returned alright.

In reply to the Justice's question "if they returned it as stock would they be able to get it again as bunkers," Mr Moloney said that they would not.

Mr Williams said it was an exceptional case and there was no suggestion that Moloney's were "using" the coal.

The Justice, stating it was only a nominal fine imposed penalties of £2 with 10/- expenses and 6/- costs in the first count against the firm, and £2 on each of the other 19 counts.

The cases against Messrs P J Moloney, R. J. Moloney, and Capt. Whelan, were marked dealt in this set of summonses. Fines of £2 with 2/- costs were placed on each of the purchasers and on Mr Kiersey.

Examination Order

Messrs Farrell & Morrissey, solrs., on behalf of David Rioridan, Shandon, applied for an examination as to means against James Butler, Congress Terrace, Dungarvan.

There was no appearance for James Butler.

Mr Farrell said that defendant was home from England and had been served with notice by registered post.

As there was no appearance no evidence could be given.

The case was adjourned and liberty given to re-enter at any time.

No Process Server

In the preceding case, Mr Morrissey said that as there was no process server for this area the application had been served by registered post.

Civil Bills

Settlements were made and adjournments granted in a number of civil bills and ejectment suits.

Decree For Balance

Richard Moylan, Cathal Brugha St, Dungarvan, who was represented by Messrs Farrell & Morrissey solrs., had a civil bill for £2 10s., being the balance of price of a donkey, wheels and tackling, which a man named Thomas Ducey, bought from him.

Mr Kenny solr appeared for Ducey.

In evidence plaintiff said when Ducey approached him to buy the wheels they made a bargain for each article separately—£5 10s. for the wheels, £1 for the tackling, and £2 10s for the donkey. Next day Ducey came back and gave him £6 10s, and he gave the donkey and wheels and tackling. Defendant promised to come back and pay the balance within the week.

Mr Kenny cross examined and asked witness—Did you want £7 10s. for the whole outfit?—No, I sold separately.

Didn't you agree on £7 and didn't ye get it?—No.

Thomas Ducey, in evidence, said he bought the donkey, wheels and tackling as one lot for £7 and he came the next morning and paid it with a "five and two singles."

The Justice gave a decree for the amount.

Unlicensed Bull
The Minister for Lands, summoned a farmer from Coolnagour, for having an unlicensed bull, which was over age.

Dr Counihan State Solicitor prosecuted, and Mr Peter Haslam Department Inspector gave evidence of visiting defendant's farm on June 10th where he found this small bull running with a herd of about 20 cows. He interviewed the defendant who when challenged admitted the offence. The bull was not up to licence standard though capable of service.

Mr Williams, solr, appeared for defendant.

The Justice said he had no sympathy for these kind of people and imposed a fine of £5 with £2 13s 9d. expenses and 2/- costs.

Unstamped Cards

The Minister for Industry and Commerce was plaintiff in two cases brought under the National Health Insurance Act. One was adjourned and a fine of £2 was imposed in the other.

Extension of Hours

The application of Mr L F Lanigan, solr, (who was absent) moved by Messrs Farrell & Morrissey, solrs., for an extension of hours for the Clubhouse at Ballinacourty, on August 1st was granted.

A similar application made by Mr Williams, solr, for Ocean View, Clonea, for August 2nd, was also granted.

£2 Fines Imposed

Supt. O'Mahony, Dungarvan summoned Hannah Cooney, Publican, The Square, Dungarvan, for a breach of the Licensing Laws, on May 9th, last.

Two men named Delaney and Duggan, were summoned for being on the premises.

Mr Kenny, solr, appeared for Mrs Cooney.

Guard McGowan in evidence said that on Sunday, May 9th Guard Burke and himself had Mrs Cooney's under observation at 7.55 p.m. They saw 2 men coming out who were drunk and who began kicking up a row. They had to remove the men to the barracks and then came back and challenged Mrs Cooney and interviewed Thomas Power the doorman.

Guard Farrell said that on that night he was Barrack Orderly and when the men had sobered he took statements from them. Both stated that they were admitted without being challenged.

Thomas Power Railway Lodge, Shandon said that he was employed as doorman by Mrs Cooney on busy Sundays. "When these two men came they said they had cycled from Killworth one was in uniform. I spoke to them for some time but they said they were bona-fide travellers and I let them in. At closing time they did not want to leave and we had to eject them."

To the Supt witness said that he works as signal man at the Railway and has been in Dungarvan for 26 years.

Supt—And do you mean to say that you did not know Delaney?

Witness—No sir.

The Supt put it to witness again and again that he should know Delaney, but witness swore that he never saw him before. He said that the statements were not true as he kept the men at the door for a quarter of an hour before admitting them.

Mrs H Cooney also gave evidence.

A fine of £2 not to be recorded was imposed on the publican and 5/- on each of the men.

Suspensory Sentence

In the old case of housebreaking against Nicholas Power (16) Fair Lane it was stated that although defendant's father had promised to pay the compensation of £5 8s 2d he had not done so.

The Supt said that although Power and his father were able to pay back it was impossible to get anything from them and he suggested placing a sentence on Power not to be effective if he had paid say before Jan 1st next.

The Justice accordingly imposed a sentence of 2 calendar months not to take effect if the sum of £5 8s 2d has been paid back before Jan 1st 1942.

DUNGARVAN MINOR HURLERS RUNAWAY VICTORY

CATHAL BRUGHAS COMPLETELY OUTCLASSED

At the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last, Dungarvan minor hurlers had a runaway victory over Cathal Brughas in their minor hurling championship-match.

The game proved most disappointing and was one of the most lopsided matches ever witnessed in the Gaelic Field. Dungarvan were superior in every department and ran out winners by an enormous score.

Mr D O'Sullivan, refereed.

Ballyduff News

Congratulations—We are about to crow again this week and we feel we have good reason to crow this time. We are proud because an already famous son of Ballyduff has become famous in another sphere. In short, Mr Michael Feeney has secured his B.A. degree recently at Dublin University. We extend to him our heartiest congratulations and we are glad that his brain is as active as his hands are.

To his sister Josephine, we extend congratulations too in having secured her Higher Dip in Education. Ballyduff should be delighted at such a double success. Higher Diplomas and B.A. degrees do not come our way every year and we are grateful to those members of our community who have brought fame to our village.

At the big match next Sunday we hope that Michael will emerge again victorious.

Wedding—Congratulations too to Miss Maureen Tobin on her recent marriage to Mr T Scanton. The bride is a member of a well-known local family. The ceremony was performed at Mt Melleray Church by Rev. M. Dowley, P.P. Ballyduff. The bride's sister Miss Chrissie Tobin was the bridesmaid. In the future the bride's home will be in Clogheen, and while wishing her all success and happiness we cannot but regret the absence of another cheery individual from among the pleasant familiar faces we are accustomed to see every day.

L.D.F.—For the past week some of the members of the L.D.F. have been in Youghal where they will combine some active training with a little pleasure. They looked very well and smart at the station and were in the best of humour. The L.D.F. deserve a word of praise for the manner in which they have stuck together, most of them have to work hard all day then in the evening they have to come and train. This shows an admirable spirit. Long may it remain among them.

Pleasant Sounds—We were glad to hear the strains of the band during the past week. The members will be in great form for the Parish Council Sports on August 15th. Sports Day would lack much of its glamour if the strains of the band were not heard during the intervals. We are looking forward to a great day on August 15th, and we know we will not be disappointed. Since Con O'Brien started the daily dip we hear that he can "bate the band" and beat the band.

Cork Again—Cork won again last Sunday! Is there any stopping them at all. They also won at the Red Cross finals in Dublin last week and were presented with the Cup by the President.

Perhaps they will meet their Waterloo in Cork next Sunday at the hands of Waterford.

Item of Interest—A certain grass widower intends to give a garden party during the weekend. In order to avoid gate-crashing admission will be by ticket only. No tickets will be issued to grass widowers.

Winpower!

We will have a limited number of Windchargers of the now famous Winpower brand for sale within a fortnight. As orders will be dealt with in strict rotation it is advisable to hook your order early.

We are still in a position to carry out contracts for wiring and house-lighting installation.

4th WATERFORD TROOP
G.B.S.I. (St Joseph's Abbeyside)

Scouts Camp, Fossa, Killarney, Tuesday 27th

Our Journey—When we had travelled twenty miles from home on Monday last we got away from the ugly weather which attempted vainly to damp our spirits as we left for our 1943 Annual Camp, and travelled for the remainder of the journey in brilliant sunshine and sweltering heat. Twenty-two Scouts of the Tramore Troop were on the train when it arrived in Dungarvan and our 28 added a lively bunch to fill vacant seats and here we are now with our canvas homes set up on a first-class site on the shores of the Lower Lake with the Toomies Mountains across the water, Mangeron Mountain on our left and the Gap of Dunloe and Carran-twohill on the right.

The journey on the train was comfortable enough and we had a long stop at Mallow to get a feed and inspect both sides of the street. A few Scouts went to inspect the creamery and got gifts of slabs of chocolates. When we reached Rathmore we met Jack Regan, who helps to keep the G.S.R. in business there. He tried to shake hands and chat with every one at the same time and as the train pulled out before he finished he almost collected a few hands as keepsakes. We expect a visit from him soon at the Campsite.

A disappointed Scout coming to Killarney for the first time exclaimed when the train reached the station "I don't see any lakes!" Conversation overheard at Mallow Small Scout to Railway Official "Why do you have two engines on the train?" Official "Because we knew you were coming" Small Scout "Did the Scoutmaster tell you?" Anytime you want an extra engine let the S.M. know!

First Day in Camp—We spent our first day in camp finishing off odd jobs and in the evening most Scouts departed to town to take their bearings and sent letters and postcards home. We know one chap who telephoned to safe the trouble of writing.

The "Lights Out" call is ending now and so must this short dispatch. The Bugler plays—"All is well—safely rest—God is nigh"

"GREAT SCOTT!"

IRISH SPORT

August Dapping

Dapping is mainly associated with the Mayfly or Greendrake which hatches from mid-May until the end of June. At that time of year and by that method it is an easy matter to hook trout. As fishing is from a boat it is an easy matter too to play them, for they can be given as much line as they like to take. Dry-fly purists call this the duffer's method but granting that it is easy, in my experience there is a knack in it too. One angler may perform well while another has what he calls rotten luck. The fact may be that he may be going wrong in his method at one point or another.

The natural fly being used and this being fished floating on top of the water, it would appear that here is the great opportunity for a real dry-fly tied to imitate the natural. This would surely be the highest perfection of the angler's art. "Whiptail" mentioned the difficulty of tying this fly recently. It is not easy to be helpful in this case. One sees Mayflies for sale in the shops. When compared with the real natural fly they show up badly. If a natural Greendrake—it ought really to be called Greenduck as it is the female that is used—is carefully examined, it will be seen to be a veritably superb work of creation. To imitate the March Brown, the Blue Bottle the Orange Black or the Stone Fly for fishing wet is easy enough. But the olive-coloured Mayfly with its long, slender body, its superb markings, and its gauze-like wings a delicate creature whose total life is only a matter of hours—well, it just presents difficulties which seem insuperable.

No wonder "Whiptail" can manage the Spent a lot better. It is the same fly after it has performed its allotted task of reproducing its species, when it dies on the surface of the water.

It has changed colour and is now black and white and the wings, which are black and lie flat on the water are easily imitated. The body mostly white, can be tied in raffia and whiped with black silk.

I imagine that a good deal of the reason for successful fishing with the natural Mayfly is that when a couple of these are impaled on a hook they continue to wriggle their long bodies about. This is probably their greatest attraction, for the trout must have movement of some kind or other as a rule, one exception being the Spent Gnat, which is supposed to be completely dead.

Many years ago I spent a few days on Lough Arrow. To the house of a small farmer came every year a gentleman from London. I happened to call at this house and the farmer told me he tied all his own flies. He showed me his workshop which was the dining-room table, completely covered all over with feathers, fur, hairs, spools, tinsel, and every other possible paraphernalia of the fly-tier. As far as I remember he did not attempt to tie the Mayfly proper, but only the Spent in which the markings change from hour to hour as its end approaches. I was keen to try one of these Spent Gnats fishing it dry from the boat in calm water over a rising fish, and persuaded the farmer to beg one from the visitor. In due course he handed it to me, and the same evening turning out calm I had an opportunity to try it. A feeding fish was found and the boat manoeuvred so that I could place that fly in front of him as he cruised along sucking down "spents" which were plentiful on the water. In due course he took it—aye took it, right from me. I tied it on a cast tapered to 3x and left the fly in him when I struck. That was the only dry Mayfly fishing I ever did so I have no qualification to say anything at all about it. From heresay in many quarters it does appear that the fishing of a dry "spent" produces excellent results. It seems also however that one has to be expert not only as an angler but in this one particular branch of angling, which really requires more careful and accurate observation than any other form.—"Gunman" in "Farmers Gazette"

GAELIC LEAGUE

Exhibition Opened In Dublin

The Gaelic League Exhibition which is being held in connection with the Golden Jubilee of the movement, was opened by An Taoiseach in the National Museum Dublin on Wednesday. Souvenirs of the early days of the movement, together with interesting documents dealing with the progress of the League here and abroad are on view.

Objects which were in the possession of men associated with the independence movement also form part of the Exhibition.

The dance at Ocean View, Clonea on next Sunday night, under the auspices of the Ballinacourty L.D.F. promises to eclipse all previous functions run by them. All arrangements are now made and a great night's dancing is assured.

WHY YOU SHOULD SELL YOUR WASTE PAPER TO US

We get credit for every scrap of waste paper we send to the paper mills and this gives us a claim to a full share of the printing paper that is made from this waste material. In that way we are enabled to maintain sufficient supplies of printing paper to keep our staffs fully employed. We are therefore making a special appeal to the Secretaries and Organisers of local Associations who are collecting waste paper to sell the entire proceeds of their waste paper collections to us. We will pay highest cash prices and supply free sacks.

We also appeal to every trader and manufacturer as well as to professional men, librarians and private householders to collect all the waste paper and sell it to us for forwarding to the mills. By so doing you will be helping us to maintain local employment and at the same time, getting the highest possible prices for all the waste paper you have to sell. For further particulars apply to the Manager LEADER OFFICE, DUNGARVAN.
