DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT

Commercial Hotel Licence Transferred

Larceny Charges

Dungarvan District Court was held before Mr Sean Troy DJ at the Courthouse on Tuesday last

Commercial Hotel Licence Transferred

Mr M Halley Solr on behalf of Mr T B Boyle Acting Secretary Waterford Co Council applied for an ad interim transfer of the licence attached to the Commercial Hotel from the name of Daniel Walsh to T B Boyle

The Justice wanted to know who was going to carry on the sale of intoxicants and Mr Halley said he didn't know about that. All the papers had not yet been signed but it was hoped to conclude the sale by the end of the week

Having been sworn, Mr Halley said that the Co Council were in possession of the hotel. The transfer was granted pending the handing in of the deeds

Other Licences

Mr T C Williams Solr on behalf of Mr P Mansfield Ballintlea Old Parish applied for a dance licence for Mweelahorna National School for the night of January 16th-17th from 8 p.m. to 3 a.m. There being no objection the licence was granted

Mr Williams on behalf of Mr P I Power Dungarvan, applied for an occasional licence for the Town Hall on Jan 20th-21st from 9 p.m. to 3 a.m. the night of the Literary Club Dance

Mr L F Lanigan Solr for Mr Timothy Kieley 23 Main St. Tipperary applied for an occasional licence for the Tower Ballroom, Tipperary, from 10 p.m. to 5 a.m. on Jan 13th-14th

School Attendance

Guard Enright v Martin McCarthy Ballyknock P.O.A. Two cases from Ring brought by Guard Curtin were adjourned as the Guard was not present

Trespass

MI Ryan Mitchell St. summoned John Wright Loughmore, for trespass on his stubbles on Dec 11th and 12th and Wm Crotty Loughmore for trespass on Dec 15th

The case against Crotty was adjourned and Mr Kenny for Wright said that they admitted the offence. The horse owned by them he said was a bit of a rogue and could not be stopped wandering. They were trying to sell him

Justice—I think there are more rogues up there than the horse and if I can get hold of them they will pay for it. I am going to stop this trespass once and for all

Mr P Ryan—Indeed your Worship I'm losing many sleepless nights over it

Justice—I will fine him 1/- with 20/- costs

Larcenies

The cases of larceny against Mary Mulcahy Ballyrandle and Nora Cooney Tallacoolmore which were previously adjourned to allow defendants to pay back the value of the coats stolen from Lena O'Brien on August 30th and from Nora Casey on Sept 5th during dances at Clonea were marked P.O.A. when it was stated that 50/- had been handed in by both parties

Old Case Closed

Phillip Dunne Fair Lane Dungarvan whose case for the larceny of a bicycle value £5 and a dynamo valued 25/- from Detective Guard Barry and of 6 bags of cement valued 33/- from the Urban District Council was before the court on several occasions in the last few months again appeared

The charge had been adjourned in order to enable defendant to pay back the amounts of the articles stolen and Mr Farrell Solr, for Dunne said that he had now got £5 from his client for Detective Barry and 16/8 towards the cost of the cement. This was as much as he could pay as he is but struggling along and there are 4 children depending on him. The dynamo had been returned. It was further stated by Mr Farrell that Dunne had got a job in England and if the Justice saw his way to deal with him leniently he could go across as soon as possible

Justice—How old are the children?

Mr Farrell—The four are depending on him

Justice—He will hardly get any more employment here and it might be better to let him off so that he can get work in England, though I should send him to jail

Portions of the bicycle were exhibited in court

The Justice allowed the P.O.A. and said that the Guard was lucky to be able to get even £5 compensation and the dynamo

Examination Order

Mr P J Morrissey Solr, applying for a renewal of the examination order for Mary Atteridge against Mary Nagle said that the order had already been granted but could not be served in the meantime

The Justice allowed it to be served for the second court in February

Given A Chance

In the case against Richard Cailleton (1C1) 12 St Brigid's Terrace for the larceny of whiskey and wine from Mr Bransfield and 2 pumps from 2 other people it was stated that the pumps had been returned and Mr Bransfield compensated

Mr Farrell for defendant said that the young fellow's father was home recently and said that he would take him to England as soon as it can be arranged

Supt—It is just as well that he be taken away from his present associations as soon as possible

Carleton—I signed to join the Construction Corps, sir

Mr Farrell said that the real trouble with all these young fellows is the insufficiency of proper work. When they reach the age of 16 years employers will not keep them as they would not go to the expense of stamping cards for them

The Justice agreed and said that he would give defendant a chance and would not send him away and hoped that this leniency would be appreciated. He warned defendant not to come up again or he would be sorry for it

Wanted To Go To England—Got As Far As Carroll's Cross

William O'Hara Bridge St. and Nicholas Morrissey O'Connell St. two youths from Dungarvan were charged by Supt O'Mahony with the larceny of 2 bicycles on Jan 3rd last from John Hunt and Nicholas Raheer, Kilmeaden. The value of the bicycles was given at £3 10s and £3

Mr Kenny appeared for O'Hara and Messrs Farrell and Morrissey for Morrissey

Sergt Teahan said that when the matter was reported he made investigations locally as a result of which he interviewed both defendants. At first they denied taking the bicycles but later admitted it and both made statements. The statements were to the effect that both had walked as far as Kilmeaden when they decided to return home they saw 2 bicycles outside a public house and took them and cycled to Dungarvan. They left one at Garranbane and the other at Tarr's bridge

Mr Kenny said that last Oct arrangements were being made to send young O'Hara to England but a family bereavement knocked everything on the head. On Jan 3rd the two defendants decided to go to England and walked as far as Carroll's Cross when it started to rain heavily. They were very tired and in a miserable state and they took the two bikes as a means of conveyance but not to sell them. His client's brother was in the British Merchant Navy and was returning home shortly when he will take defendant back with him if not sent away. On this account he asked that young O'Hara be given a chance

Mr Farrell said that the facts stated by Mr Kenny were the same in his case when the boys got as far as Carroll's Cross they got homesick and returned. They had no money to come on the bus and decided to take the bicycles. His client wanted to join the British Army and had decided to walk over the Border but as he only had 2/- in his pockets he didn't get far. The boy's father and mother did not want him to go and he asked that as there was no intention of stealing that they be dealt with leniently

Supt—Morrissey is well controlled by his parents but the other has had a number of serious charges against him before but seeing that they did not take the bicycles to sell them I won't press the case. O'Hara is certainly looking for trouble

Justice—I am going to give both a chance for if I fine them it is the parents will suffer. I will grant them the P.O.A.

Justice (to Morrissey)—Be said by your father and don't do anything out of the way again

Justice (to O'Hara)—I don't want to see you here anymore as this is your last chance

CAPPOQUIN NEWS

PRETTY WEDDING AT MODELIGO—

On Tuesday morning 11th of January, a wedding of much local interest took place in Modeligo Parish Church, when Mr Patrick Nagle Knockmeal Ballinamult was married to Miss M Kiely Lyrattin Modeligo.

The bridegroom is a trusted and respected member of the Hardware Staff of the Knockmeal Co-Operative Creamery Society for many years and is very popular with Mr. T Callanan the efficient and enterprising Manager and all the members of the Staff while the bride belongs to one of the most respectable farming families in the Modeligo district.

The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev Fr Shine, Adm. Modeligo the bride being attended by her sister Miss K Kiely, Lyrattin, as bridesmaid, both looking charming in Air-Force Blue while Mr J. Deveraux, Knockmeal, was best man.

The newly-wedded couple later proceeded to Cork for the honeymoon accompanied by the best wishes of their numerous friends for the best of success, happiness and prosperity in the years before them.

SUCCESSFUL AUCTION BY MR M F WALSH, P.C.—

On Friday, 7th inst Mr M F Walsh P.C., Auctioneer, Cappoquin, held a very successful sale of a compact holding of 14 acres at Corroache the property of Mrs H Tobin, Villierstown, Cappoquin.

Owing to the valuable nature of the land and its convenient situation, there was a large attendance of local farmers at the sale, and bidding was very brisk from the start.

The bidding was as follows — Mr E Walsh, Corroache, £80 Mr John O'Brien, Bewley, £70, Mr E Walsh £80 Mr O'Brien £85 Mr Walsh £90, Mr O'Brien £95 Mr M Power, Seskin, £100 Mr Walsh, £105 Mr E Fleming, Dungarvan, £110 Mr Walsh, £115, Mr Power, £120 Mr O'Brien £125 Mr Walsh, £130 Mr Power £135, Mr Fleming, £140, Mr O'Brien, £145, Mr Walsh £150, Mr Power £155, Mr Fleming £160 Mr Power £165 Mr Walsh, £170 Mr Power £175 Mr Walsh £180 Mr Power, £185 Mr E Fleming Dungarvan, £200, at which figure the latter was declared the purchaser (in trust) for Mr E Walsh, Corroache.

Mr J Kenny, solr, (E A Ryan & Co, Solrs Dungarvan), had carriage of sale.

On the previous day, Thursday 6th inst, (Fair Day), Mr M F Walsh P.C. Auctioneer, held a very successful Furniture Sale in his salesrooms here, when he disposed of a large collection of valuable furniture at highly-remunerative prices.

DEATH OF MR P LENANE, DROMANA—

Deep regret has been caused by the death of Mr P Lenane which occurred at his residence, Dromana on Tuesday week 4th inst, after a comparatively brief illness, and at a fairly young age.

"Paddy" as he was more familiarly known to all his friends was brother of Mr John Lenane a respected employee in the Dromana Estate and had been connected with the kennels of the West Waterford Hounds at Dromana for several years during which he had proved himself a most trustworthy and faithful employee, who had enjoyed the respect of Mr R J Mulcahy M.F.H. and all the more prominent members of the Hunt.

Quiet kindly, obliging and unassuming he was a great favourite amongst all classes in Dromana and Cappoquin, and the deepest sympathy is now felt for his widow and four young children in their sad bereavement.

The remains were removed to Affane Catholic Church on Wednesday evening week when there was a very large attendance at the funeral and after Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul on the following morning, the interment took place in the presence of another large number of mourning relatives and friends from various parts of West Waterford.

DON'T FORGET SUNDAY'S 45 DRIVE—

We make no apology for again calling the attention of the public to the great 45 Drive to be held in the C.Y.M.S. Hall in Mill Street on next Sunday, 16th inst in aid of the Cappoquin Cycling and Athletic Club.

This popular and progressive Club is deserving of the warmest support on the part of all genuine sportsmen in West Waterford and in view of this fact and also the valuable cash prizes offered there should be a large attendance present at the Final Rounds on Sunday night.

As stated last week the Hall will be open from 3 o'clock (S.T.) for the convenience of those who will not have previously played their first rounds so that everybody should be ready to start the Finals at 6 o'clock. For further particulars see advt in this issue.

OPENING OF THE SALMON FISHING SEASON—

The season for net-fishing for salmon on the river Blackwater will open on Tuesday morning, Feb 1st and the fishermen usually engaged in this hazardous business are already busily engaged in preparing their boats and nets for what we hope will be a busy and prosperous season for them.

As in previous years, Messrs J O Connor & Sons, Egg Poultry Rabbit and Salmon Exporters, Cappoquin, will again be open to purchase unlimited quantities of salmon at controlled prices this season which should be welcome news to all the fishermen between Cappoquin and Youghal on both sides of the river Blackwater.

TO REMOVE MISAPPREHENSION—

In case any misapprehension may exist or in the event of some people attempting to make capital out of the fact that a Soccer match was played in the Cappoquin Sportsfield on last Sunday, we think it will be of interest to all classes of sportsmen to reproduce just one clause in the Articles of Agreement governing the purchase of the Sportsfield, which is as follows: "The Grounds are being provided for the purpose of playing all forms of games, including jumping contests coursing dog shows football matches cricket hurling lawn tennis or any other Athletic or Sporting purposes, whatever on such occasions and on such terms and conditions as the Company may deem fit."

It will thus be seen that the Town Park Committee is absolutely free to let the grounds for any and every form of legitimate sport as they have been letting it for years past and who according to the Articles of Agreement are quite within their rights in letting the grounds for last Sunday's match.

CAPPOQUIN G.A.A. CLUB—

Owing to the absence in England of several of the more prominent members of the former hurling and football teams here, it may be difficult for Cappoquin to affiliate either a hurling or football team this year, but as the Annual Convention of the Western Divisional Board will not be held until Sunday 23rd, inst we hope that some definite decision will have been arrived at in the meantime.

Cappoquin has now been so long actively associated with the G.A.A. that it would be a pity, if this town dropped out, even for one year so we hope to again see it in its usual place in the ranks of the G.A.A. during the coming season.

RE OPENING OF THE VOCATIONAL SCHOOL—

Look out for an interesting article in next week's issue concerning the re-opening of the Cappoquin Vocational School, and a brief survey of the important and successful classes conducted here within the past year.

All the local National Schools having now resumed business after the Christmas Holidays matters have generally got back to normal again and all traces of the holiday spirit have now disappeared and must remain in abeyance until the welcome period of the Easter holidays arrives a few months hence.

YOUGHAL U.D.C

Mr D C Murphy Manager held a meeting of the Youghal Urban Council at which the tender of Messrs John Murray & Sons Youghal at £39 being the lower of two received for the supply of 50 tree guards, according to specification was accepted.

The first list of rent defaulters having been before the Manager he ordered that notice to quit be served on each of our tenants in Sarsfield Terrace.

The Manager instructed the Town Clerk to invite tenders in the public press for the purchase of a number of gas standards now no longer required.

The Clerk reported that the number of applications received so far for allotments was 42 against 71 last year.

The Manager ordered that a further appeal be made to the unemployed to avail of the generous offer of land and seeds at a nominal rent of 1/- by the Department of Agriculture.

Pretty Military Wedding

POPULAR YOUNG CAPPOQUIN LADY MARRIED IN CORK

(From Our Cappoquin Correspondent)

St Patrick's Catholic Church McCurtains Street Cork, was the scene of a very pretty wedding recently when Lieut Vincent Flinn, youngest son of Mrs Mary Flinn, Bray, Co Wicklow, and the late Mr T Flinn, R.I.C., was married to Miss Breda Spillane, only daughter of Mr John and Mrs Neil Spillane, Tivoli Terrace Cappoquin.

The bridegroom first came to Cappoquin with the 21st Battalion about 2 1/2 years ago which later went to Youghal, and was later transferred to the 1st Motor Squadron at Salterbridge Cappoquin, but now belongs to the 7th Motor Squadron.

While stationed in the Cappoquin area, he had proved himself to be a most active and intelligent young Officer who was extremely popular with the men under his charge, and the public generally, and was a great favourite with all classes in Cappoquin.

The bride, who is a most charming and attractive young lady, belongs to one of the oldest and most respectable families in Cappoquin, and as a prominent member of the Lawn Tennis and Badminton Clubs, is one of the most popular sporting young ladies in the town.

The wedding ceremony (with Nuptial Mass) was performed by Rev J Cantillon, C.C. Cork, the best man being Lieut A P Mooney, while the bridesmaid was Miss "Lal" Ryan, Cappoquin an intimate friend of the bride.

In the unavoidable absence of her father (who is in England), the bride was given away by her uncle, (Mr J E Crowe Cappoquin) and looked lovely in a Delphinian Blue Woollen Two-Piece, trimmed with Navy, with Floral Head-Dress to tone, and she carried a beautiful bouquet of Cyclamen Chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaid who also looked most attractive wore Dusky Pink with hat to match, and carried a similar bouquet.

After the wedding ceremony, a reception was held at the Hotel Metropole, Cork where a number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties were hospitably entertained, and later in the day the happy pair left for the Shelbourne Hotel, Dublin, and later for Bray where the honeymoon was spent both receiving a wonderful send-off from their relatives and friends all of whom wished them the best of good luck happiness and prosperity during their future lives.

GRAND GAME IN CAPPOQUIN

(From Our Cappoquin Correspondent)

The Semi-Final of the 1st Brigade Soccer Championship was played in the Cappoquin Sportsfield on last Sunday, and being the first game of its kind ever played in Cappoquin, it attracted a very fine attendance of sportsmen from the town and most of the surrounding districts.

The weather had, unfortunately proved wet in the morning which resulted in the sod being on the soft and slippery side, so that falls were frequent but despite this handicap the play reached a high standard on both sides and the game provided one of the most stylish and attractive exhibitions of sport seen in Cappoquin for years.

The clean fast and grand football without any handling of the ball made a great appeal to the large number of spectators and with a more firm sod and under better weather conditions the people of Cappoquin would love to see a similar game played here again in the near future.

The contestants in Sunday's game were the 21st Battalion Youghal (1st year's winners) and the Cavalry Corps, (Salterbridge and Belmont) and as the latter were out to avenge last year's defeat a great game was assured.

The game started at a fast pace but owing to the splendid defence put up by each side, not a solitary score was made by either side in the first half.

For the first ten minutes of the second half play continued to be of the same even character, but the 21st eventually broke through for a goal, the first score of the match.

Cavalry then got going, and had the equalising goal in a few

WHY WINTER WHEAT?

1. Winter wheat usually produces heavier crops of grain, stands better and ripens earlier than Spring varieties.
2. The tillage programme is a big one and the cultivation of your other crops will keep you very busy in Spring.
3. The greater the 'spread over' of the work the less strain there will be on man and machine.
4. An abundance of good seed of Winter wheat varieties is available while supplies of the more popular Spring varieties may not be so plentiful.

(These are four good reasons why you should minutes which they supplemented with a second goal shortly afterwards and although the 21st had decidedly the best of the play in the last quarter of an hour, they could never penetrate the splendid defence of their opponents in the course of which several thrilling and spectacular saves were effected by the Cavalry goalie who was easily the star turn of his team.

The game was played in a grand sporting spirit with hard knocks given and taken as part of the strenuous play, and was a treat to watch from start to finish.

Wedding Belle—A very pretty wedding was solemnised at St Carthage's Cathedral, Lismore, on Tuesday the 11th inst., when Mr Christopher Tanner, Conna, was united in matrimony to Miss Hannah Murray, daughter of Mr John Murray, Ballym, Lismore. The ceremony was performed by Rev Fr Ahearne, C.C. Lismore.

The bridesmaid was Miss Mary McCarthy, and the best man, Mr Michael Murray, Creamery Manager, Thomastown, Co Kilkenny, (brother of the bride). After the ceremony a reception was held at the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Lismore, where an enjoyable time was spent. The honeymoon is being spent in Dublin.

We join with their numerous friends in wishing the happy couple length of years in health and happiness.

Death of Mr. John Mangan, Corrignacour—Deep regret was caused by the death of Mr P Mangan, Corrignacour, Lismore, which sad event occurred at his residence during the past week. His remains were removed to St Carthage's Cathedral on the 8th inst and were followed by a large and representative cortege. The interment took place immediately afterwards.

The chief mourners included Mrs Mangan (widow), the Misses Margaret and Ellen Mangan (daughters), Mr Thomas Mangan (son).

Successful L.D.F. Concert—On Friday night last, a variety concert and film was held in the Palladium Cinema Lismore under the auspices of the Lismore Local Defence Force. The programme opened with a film entitled 'The Big Guy' which pleased both young and old.

The second part of the programme included Camp fire singing a grand variety of songs were sung by a group of the L.D.F. Mr Harry O'Brien sang 'Bonnie Mary Of Argyll' and as an encore sang 'Teddy Neill'. This was followed by a recitation 'The Green Eye of the Little Yellow God' by Master Jack Healy and as an encore he recited 'Pearse's Request'.

Mr Frank Ryan Tallow, the celebrated tenor, sang two songs 'The Irish Emigrant' and 'For You Alone' for which he was loudly applauded, and in reply to an insistent encore he sang in beautiful voice 'Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms'.

Mr Tom Healy, danced a hornpipe and a jig. The next part of the programme was the 'Roll of the Drum' performed by a young group of the L.D.F. After this interesting item Miss Emily Williams sang two songs 'Ora Pro Nobis' and 'Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes', which was followed by two more songs 'Juanita' and 'Marching Through Georgia' sung by Mr J Fogarty.

A Sketch entitled 'The New Doctor' was next presented and created roars of laughter and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The last part of the programme included two more songs by the one and only Frank Ryan, they were the old favourites 'Macushia' and 'Martha' for which he received tremendous applause.

Before the final curtain, Mr J Fogarty, thanked the audience for their kind attendance, and all those who helped to make the concert such a great success.

A very enjoyable evening was brought to a close by the playing of the National Anthem.

Death of Mrs K Tobin—It is with deep regret we announce the death of Mrs K Tobin, New Street Lismore which sad event occurred rather unexpectedly at her residence on Saturday 8th January. The removal of the remains took place on Sunday to St Carthage's Cathedral, and were followed by a large cortege. On Monday the interment took place in the new cemetery.

The chief mourners included Mr Matthew Tobin (husband), Mr E Tobin and Mr J Tobin, (sons), Mrs Colbert (daughter), Mr J Colbert (son-in-law), and grand-children, etc, etc.

VIEWS OF OUR READERS

KNOW THE FARMER

(To The Editor)

Mr de Valera paid a visit to Cork quite recently and he told his Cork audience that the farmers were relatively better off at present than any other section of the community. Wages of city workers had not gone up anything like the cost of living, but farmers had been more than recouped. The prices given to farmers were fair and in a time of crisis they should not make it impossible for a large section of the people to get essential foods.

No evidence was brought forward in support of the contention that farmers were better off than any other section of the community except the assertion that wages of city workers had not gone up anything like the cost of living while farmers had been more than recouped.

An Taoiseach introduced the word "relatively" in making his comparison but what conclusion are we to draw from that? If he wants us to accept it that the relative standards of the farmers and the others pre-war and for many years before were anything like fair to the farmers then as farmers we flatly reject any such assumption. That we are better off relatively than any other section today we deny. We join issue on this point because it is indicative of an outlook which we seek to eradicate in the interests of a progressive agriculture and a virile Irish nation.

Our hopes for the future must be mainly based on the intelligent organisation and management of our agricultural industry. This pre-supposes intelligent men and women remaining on the land. If they elect to do so they must be credited with having desires and ambitions of ordinary intelligent people everywhere. When comparisons are being made are we farmers to be entered in the category with the lower income groups in the slums of our towns and cities?

The Trade Journal gives the comparative cost of living figures pre-war, and mid August of the year 1943. The index figure is 111 points or 64 per cent higher than 1938, and the increases are accounted for in the following manner: Food is 91 points up or 58 per cent; clothing 202 points or 90 per cent; fuel and light 152 or 84 per cent; sundries 125 or 65 per cent.

It will be noted that FOOD shows the smallest increase of all the groups of commodities on the price of which the cost of living figure is based. Even assuming that despite higher labour costs and lower yields some of this increase eventually reaches the farmer it is to be agreed that his outlay on dearer clothing, fuel light and sundries is something which he can avoid and has therefore no

AISEIRIGHE 1919-1944

On January 21st 1919 one of the most significant events that had taken place in Ireland for hundreds of years occurred when Dail Eireann the Government of Republic held its first public session in the Mansion House Dublin, presided over by the fearless noble-hearted Cathal Brugha. On the same day the first shot of the War of Independence was fired at Soloheadbeg in Tipperary.

To commemorate those unique events a concert under Aiseirigh auspices will be held at the Halfway Hall on Jan 23rd. The programme will include two plays Irish and English by the Aiseirigh Dramatic Class. The Irish play recalls a humorous incident in the bad days of the landlords and serves to show that even in those terrible times of rack-rents and evictions the Irish people never lost their traditional sense of humour. It is one long laugh from start to finish.

They will also produce Maeve Cavanagh MacDowell's famous tragedy of the Trouble "In The Time Of The Tans" Drama action and romance against the blazing background of Ireland's fight for freedom. When a 'wanted rebel' in the guise of a clergyman meets two Auxiliary officers and is recognised by one of them there is sure to be no lack of thrills or gun-play. To see this play is to live again through those days of death and destruction of terror and tension of grief and glory.

The Proclamation of Independence will be read and one minute silence observed in honour of those who died for the Irish Republic in the years 1919-1923.

We confidently count on the veterans of that period to show their respect for their fallen comrades by attending this function and to give their support and encouragement to the youth of Aiseirigh in the final phase of our fight for freedom—"Niall MacNeill"

I DUNGARBHAN

To commemorate the event Aitiliri na h-Aiseirigh will hold a Free Lecture in the Town Hall, Dungarvan, on Friday night Jan 21st at 8.30 p.m. The Lecture will deal with the trend of events in Ireland since 1921. It is expected that a large number will attend.

BALLYDUFF NEWS

45 Drive—The Parish Council 45 Drive held last Sunday night was another very successful one. The drives are exceptionally well attended this year, proving that they must be very much enjoyed otherwise they would not be so well patronised.

We missed some of the 'flappers' from the last drive they missed much too by not being present. We tender our sympathy to the gentleman who was 'hit below the belt' but on second thoughts we're not so sorry he can hit himself too when the occasion arises but not we admit as he was hit.

'Flu Epidemic—Many have fallen victims to that leveller of all classes 'flu. Whole families are laid up. The epidemic is of a mild form and most of the victims are about again after a few days though looking a bit off colour. However this mild weather which savours more of April than of January will soon bring the roses or the tan as the case may be to pale cheeks again.

Lengthening Days—There is a welcome stretch in the evenings now. The old people used to say that there was a 'col's ceim choillig' or a 'cocks step' in the length of the day after January 6th. The mornings are still very dark and we try to persuade ourselves when we wake that it is much earlier than it really is but the hands of the clock move on relentlessly and we must leave our warm beds, light our candle butt and begin another day. Omar Kyam must have felt thus when he wrote in his famous Rubicat "The moving finger writes and having writ moves on."

Death of Mrs H Hennessy—We very much regret to announce the death of Mrs H Hennessy of the Station House Ballyduff which sad event occurred at her residence on Sunday 9th January. Mrs Hennessy was wife of our courteous efficient and ever obliging Stationmaster Mr Michael Hennessy and we tender to him and to Frank and Michael (sons) and Monica (daughter) our deepest sympathy in the irrepaable loss they have sustained. Natives of Dunmanway, West Cork they have made their homes among us for many years and we do not think we exaggerate when we say that they have taken as kindly to us as we have to them.

The late Mrs Hennessy was kind and gentle ever ready to give and help any deserving cause.

Her remains were conveyed to St Michael's Church, on Monday evening and on Tuesday after Requiem Mass she was laid to rest in the adjoining Churchyard.

Though far from her own native place, we know that many a prayer will be said for her when her remembrance is best—before God's altar. May she rest in peace.

Tallow & Moorehill Notes

Vote Of Sympathy—At a meeting of the Kilwatermoy Dramatic Class held at Moorehill on Friday night last the following vote of sympathy proposed by Mr J Dunne and seconded by Mr T Roche was passed in silence—"That we the members of the Kilwatermoy Dramatic Class tender our deep sympathy to the relatives of the late Mr James Dahill on their recent sad bereavement."

Successful Concert—On Sunday night last a very successful and enjoyable concert was held in Camphire School under the auspices of the local hurling club and was a great success for long before starting time the school was packed to its utmost capacity and judging by the prolonged applause that followed each item they were much appreciated by the huge attendance present.

A one-act Irish Comedy by the Kilwatermoy Players opened the proceedings and from the rise to the fall of the curtain, one could hear peal after peal of merry laughter, and at the fall of the curtain the players taking part received loud applause.

Miss Condon opened the next part of the programme, when she sang "Smilin Thro'" in a delightful way, and as an encore 'Red River Valley'. Mr J Power sang "The Kiss Behind The Door" for which he was loudly applauded. A delightful selection of American melodies played on the piano accordion by Mr V Acres followed and as an encore played and sang a selection of cowboy numbers. Mr M Hogan and Mr B Creagh kept the audience in roars of laughter with comedy musical items which showed what polished artists they are and they received tremendous applause. Miss B Geary sang an Irish song in her own charming way for which she received a great ovation and as an encore sang 'Impedent Berny O'Hea'. Mrs Mary Rose Acres followed with the "Road to the Isles" sung as only Mary Rose can sing it and she simply brought down the house and had to respond with an encore "The Rose of Mooncoin" was sung by Mr B Furell who was loudly applauded. A delightful exhibition of Irish step dancing was given by the Misses McLoughlin and that part of the programme was brought to an end by Mr J Connors singing "Only a Bunch of Violets" for which he was loudly applauded. Then came a one act farce which kept the house in roars from beginning to end. The members taking part were Miss K Dunne, Mr M Murray and Mr T Roche. The concluding part of the programme opened with a song "Reilly the Fisherman" sung in a charming manner by Master James and Mauraen McGrath. Mr B Creagh the popular comedian sang "I don't mind if I do" and had to respond with 'Glasgow' for which he was loudly cheered. Mr V Acres followed with a delightful and varied selection of Irish airs on the piano accordion, and he had to respond to repeated encores. Then the Misses McLoughlin danced a jig in a very artistic manner. Mr J Connors sang "An Irish Rebels Grave" Mr B Farrell sang "I'll walk beside you," and the concluding item was a comic song "A Job an a half" by r Creagh. During the intervals, selection of Irish music was played by Mr D Geary. Before the close Mr J Dunne thanked the audience for their kind attendance, and the playing and singing of the National Anthem brought a very enjoyable night to a close.

Remembered—At Mass in Kilwatermoy Church on Sunday last prayers were offered up for the repose of the soul of Mr M Baldwin Moorehill, the anniversary of whose death occurs about this time and for whom Masses were offered up during the week.

Grand Dance—On Sunday night next a grand cinderella dance will be held at Moorehill Hall and patrons can be assured of a gala night all arrangements in connection with same are being carried out by a very energetic committee so that everything will be in apple pie order. Music will be supplied by a first class orchestra and the dance commences at 9 p.m. (old time).

Obituary—It is with deep regret we announce the death of Mr James Dahill which occurred at his residence Glencairn, Tallow after a very brief illness and at an early age. Deceased was a member of an old and highly respected family and was held in the highest esteem by all whose pleasure it was to know him. Quite genial and unassuming he made hosts of friends, and many a silent tear was shed, and many a heartfelt prayer offered when the sad tidings became known that "Jim" as he was familiarly called was no more. For young and old rich and poor, he had a cheery word and a ready smile and if needs be a helping hand, also he is gone from amongst us and one and all mourn his loss. During the Anglo-Irish struggle Jim was a prominent member of the I.R.A. and took part in a number of ambushes, and was severely wounded in the struggle the effects of which no doubt helped to shorten his career. He was always to the fore in any movement for the betterment of his own beloved country and was never really happy only when doing something to help his neighbour or his country. On Tuesday evening the remains draped in the tri colour were removed from his late residence to the Church of the Immaculate Conception Tallow and were followed by one of the largest corteges of people seen with a long time. Members of the Old I.R.A. marched beside the coffin. Requiem Masses were offered up on Wednesday morning, and the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery the coffin being borne to the graveside by his I.R.A. comrades and a volley was fired over the grave by a firing party of the Old I.R.A. The attendance at the funeral was both large and representative, friends and comrades travelling long distances to pay a last tribute to an old and valued friend. May Mother earth rest lightly on the breast of a gallant soldier of Ireland. May he rest in peace.

Leap Year—We would like to remind the colleens that once every four years, you get a special privilege so if that nice young man is rather slow (or well say shy) asking the important question (will you marry me darling) why ask him yourself and if he refuses let the wailer know "Nuff said."

Local Tit Bits—We heard one of the colleens made resolutions on New Year's morning and she had five of 'em broken before twelve that night.

Two of the boys had to toss, to know which of 'em would see the colleen home from the dance the other night. 'Twas a sporting way out but wasn't it tough on the loser.

Alarming Figures

LAST week at a quarterly meeting of the Tipperary Co Council Mr J P Flynn County Manager made a statement giving figures regarding Home Assistance which were described as alarming The discussion arose as a result of a motion calling for a 25 per cent increase of Home Assistance to all recipients The matter is of importance in County Waterford also in view of the fact that agitation for an increase is also going on in the County Board of Public Assistance and like conditions we regret to state exist here

In distributing assistance the needy poor are the only sections that should be looked after as able-bodied men should be able to find employment of some kind to keep themselves and their families It is hard to understand why men capable of making an honest living should choose to allow themselves to be kept out of charity It is bad for the man for the family and for the country and therefore should not be allowed to continue

In the course of his statement to the meeting Mr Flynn said There are figures of able-bodied men in receipt of Home Assistance in South Tipperary compared with the rest of the country Since 1931 there has been an abnormal increase in the number and I intend asking the Assistant Co Manager to inquire into the matter Continuing the Manager said that at Clonmel Corporation the previous night, interesting figures were produced There were 220 unemployed men in the town but they had applied only for 98 plots There were 90 on Home Assistance but only 21 had applied The unfortunate position amounted to this That a bad habit had arisen and once it had arisen they were committing hardships in trying to rectify it The number of able-bodied men tended to show that the feeling had got abroad that men hadn't got the principle that you can only eat bread by the sweat of your brow People were on Home Assistance who won't take plots and won't work on them It had been stated that people didn't take plots because their vegetables were stolen But who stole them? It was hardly the industrious workers If they wanted to do anything for those really in need they must see that those who can work will work The Manager added that they had difficulty in saying the harvest but when it came to some future historian a nation that gave home assistance while grain was rotting in the fields from not being harvested would not make good reading He thought the matter should be thoroughly investigated to see that only people who should get it were getting assistance He could not agree to an increase which would mean £5 000 on the ratepayers—on people who were every bit as poor He said there was no reason for anybody to die of mal-nutrition Concerning complaints the Manager said that he had asked girls why they were not working and they said they were too delicate There was many a delicate farmer's wife or daughter slaving hard so that they could pay the rates out of which that home assistance was met It was a very hard position

The position as set out by Mr Flynn is revealing and it will be interesting to see what effect his factual statement has on the matter as it relates to Co Waterford The next meeting of the Board of Assistance is due to be held in Dungarvan on Monday next, January 17th

Interested in this glorious period of our history will be present to hear it explained and analysed Cui is ficeadh Billain o shoin do leigh Cathal Brugha (bean-naicht Dé da anam) Fógri neamhspleadhachas na h-Eireann Do dearmadadh an méid san o shoin acht as so amach—ar aghaidh a Ailtiri!

LITERARY CLUB DANCE—The time is now drawing near for the great event of the dancing year Everybody is going and everybody is confident that they will have a great night Mick Delahunty has written to say how glad he is to be coming to Dungarvan again after such a long absence He says that the band is in tip-top form, and that they will all be at their best on the 20th He has all the latest hits hot off the printing presses and he also has plenty of the "good old" tunes

All the arrangements have now been completed, and no expense has been spared to make everything perfect The running buffet will be in the very capable hands of Mrs Grene The Square and her charges will be very moderate

If anything were needed to top off a really excellent dance it would be 'a nice cup of tea' The dance has been very much publicised in all the surrounding districts (as far as the borders of Kilkenny Cork and Tipp) and it is expected that a great many people will come out of town It seems to add spice to a social event if there are some strange faces present so we will make the strangers doubly welcome All arrangements have been made to cater for people from the country in the matter of cloakrooms bicycle parks, etc and it might even be possible that this very resourceful Club could conjure up a little whiskey in case the night is cold

OUTSTANDING SUCCESS—The Garda Dance held at the Town Hall on Wednesday night last was an outstanding social and financial success The attendance included dancers drawn from all sections of the community, who thoroughly enjoyed themselves throughout the night Had the night been fine instead of being torrentially wet the hall would hardly have been large enough to house the numbers who would attend It says a lot for the popularity of the Garda Force that even on so bad a night so large a crowd attended

NEW BANK MANAGER—His large circle of friends in Dungarvan where he lived for five years before being transferred a short time ago to the Bandon Branch of the Provincial Bank as Accountant will be glad to hear that Mr Denis Donovan has now been appointed Manager of the Cotehill Co Cavan Branch which is one of the oldest established branches of the Provincial Bank of Ireland

This rapid promotion shows the great esteem that the Governors have for Mr Donovan's outstanding ability, and we join with all his friends in this locality in wishing him and his charming wife and family all good health and prosperity up North

INEVITABLY—A bicycle is an absolute necessity nowadays As the possessor of a machine you realise its worth When it requires repairs you desire the best possible job in the minimum time at a moderate charge

Despite scarcity of parts my motto is Efficiency Quick Service Reasonable Charges so to better your bike have it looked after by me—it will repay you in the long run—MICK DOHERTY Mitchel Street (—)

THE LAST AND THE BEST—February 20th is going to be a memorable night in Dungarvan, as the Communications Company, as the LDF are making arrangements to hold a grand dance in the Town Hall on that night A special ladies Committee has been formed to look after the supper and plans are being made to work out an original design for decorating the hall Negotiations are also going on to engage a first-class band and as this will be the last big dance before Lent don't forget to make a note of the date

DUNGARVAN LITERARY CLUB—At a Committee meeting of the above Club it was proposed by Mr E Phelan President and seconded by Mr J Carroll Vice-President that we the Committee of the Literary Club Dungarvan and on behalf of the members of the Club tender a sincere vote of sympathy to Mr Thomas McGrath Capt Maurice Mc Grath and to all the members of their family on the death of their uncle Very Rev Dr McGrath OSA, St Patrick's College Rome

pectful silence, the vote of sympathy was passed

DUNGARVAN CHORAL SOCIETY—This week the members of the Choral Society met to commence the second part of their season Filled with fresh enthusiasm, and with the memory of their recent Choral success still fresh in their minds, they all looked bright and happy Miss Mauread Delaney (Director) welcomed all back again, and then got down to business "From now on" said our Director "the real business of the Choral Society must begin" It contemplated to give a concert in the Town Hall in the near future so all must now begin to take seriously to their work There is an amount of work to be done—we must start from the very beginning, so regular attendance at the classes is essential While our aim is to re-establish a love of music and singing, and to give it its rightful place in our lives, we can still enjoy ourselves Everybody is welcome among us we have a splendid Choral Society, and with co-operation and help we can go far The concert which we propose to run will be on different lines to that which most of us are accustomed to see Our Programme which we hope to make as bright as possible, will contain nothing that is not well loved and well tested by music lovers We also intend to invite some guest artistes At the moment I understand the membership list is closed, but on reflection we think that there are still some vacancies for more—An Runaidhe

WAGES TRIBUNAL AT WATERFORD—At a meeting of the Wages Tribunal at Waterford, on Wednesday last the following bonuses were agreed on by the employers concerned, and the Amalgamated Unions—J Mc Grath, & Sons, Dungarvan 3/- per week, Thos Power & Co supplementary bonus of 8/- Joseph A Power, Dungarvan, supplementary bonus 8/- Sheehan Ryan & Co Dungarvan, 8/- M J Casey & Co, Dungarvan, 3/-, Crotty's Bakery, Dungarvan 3/-

INDEPENDENCE DAY COMMEMORATION—DUNGARVAN LEADS THE WAY—Friday Jan 21st 1944 is Independence Day and will be observed all over the country by members of Ailtiri na h-Aiseirge On that day 25 years ago Cathal Brugha read in Dail Eireann the Declaration of Ireland's Independence That was the greatest moment in Ireland's history since 1170 It was the first time in 750 years that a real Irish Parliament met and the first time that Ireland's independence was formally declared It was the goal for which thousands of Irishmen had striven for generations and though it was but short lived it was a glorious moment in our history

All members of Ailtiri na h-Aiseirge are bound to observe this day in some special manner It is not possible at the present time to have any elaborate celebrations but in Dungarvan a Public Lecture is being held in the Town Hall on the night of Jan 21st Every member is expected to attend and it is anticipated that everyone who is at all

Catholic Scout Notes

4th WATERFORD TROOP CBSI (St Joseph's Abbeyside)

Parade—According to plan all Scouts are supposed to be at the Den at 7.45 a.m. for the Confraternity parade but last Sunday at that time there were only three on view. Soon they wandered in by twos and threes and on the way down the road Scouts joined from all angles. Any bets taken on a full attendance of the Knight Clan were lost and the odds against them will go up for the next time.

KE Clan—There has been considerable activity by the Clan over the past week noticeable because unusual. Sent the otherwise Knights Novice are busy with Social Science First Aid Camping and various other tests in order to be ready for Registration and Initiation as full blown Knights Errant. It took a threat of exterior darkness maybe it will be a g move no. A couple of chaps are rocking on the brink and unless they make a great effort in the right direction somebody will be heard singing "Adieu Adieu my friends Adieu I can no longer stay with you".

Troop Meeting—Each Patrol made a good shot at making a fair attendance record. There were a number of recorded mistakes at the few minutes drill practice which could have been avoided. For semaphore test we played 'Radio Docking' and one or two Patrols have not come to port yet! To brush up the compass points we played 'Blind Flying'. The Scout in charge of each Patrol had to direct his Scouts who were all blindfolded from one end of the Den to the other by shouting compass directions, and the way was blocked with obstacles representing rocks, mines and sandbanks. There was confusion in many departments and numerous wrecks.

Thanks and Good Luck—To our esteemed Assistant Scoutmaster, John Daly who has held the important position in the 4th Waterford for the past four and a half years. He took a deep interest in the Troop and will be hard to get another like him to take on the work he did so well. He will continue as a member of the Troop Committee and will be available as a Test Examiner. When this news was announced after the Parade on Sunday it was remarked that it was a case of "coming events casting their shadows before whatever that means".

Mince Pie—The lazy chaps are recommended to look at the sketch on the Notice Board and the tip for 1944—OUT OF YOUR SHELL YOU SLUG! The Troop Leader will be given special "Uniformathome" on Troop Meeting nights. There will be no change in the government of the Tiger Patrol as the old one is back to be stronger than ever. But what the CO of wonders is to be done about the Beaver Patrol? Prize for the best solution. GM T S

(By AN RUNAIDHE)

Dungarvan Club—The Annual General Meeting of the Dungarvan Hurling and Football Club will take place at the Town Hall, Dungarvan on Sunday next Jan 16th at 12.15 pm (sharp). Agenda will include the election of officials and Committee for 1944.

Fourmilewater Club 25 Drive—A 25 Drive in aid of the funds of Fourmilewater Hurling Club will be held in the Hall Ballymacarbery on Sunday next Jan 16th. This is an annual event and promises to be as popular as ever. Doors open at 6 pm (o.b.) and the prizes of £5 each to the winning pair and £1 each to the four runners-up will make it worth anyone's money. Tickets will be 6/- per table.

Will Ring Lose Their New Sec—I hear a lot of underground work is still going on among some of the big football clubs to secure the ex-Dublin-Kerry man stationed at Ring, Dungarvan, Stradbally, Kilrossanty and the Blickey Rangers would all find a place for him. Well I expect it will be soon known with whom he will line out but I believe Ring has still the strongest pull.

Sympathy—Aglis FC at a special meeting passed a vote of sympathy with the Flynn family Coolrua, on the recent death of their mother.

Blackwater Rovers Meet—The Annual Meeting of the Blackwater Rovers FC will take place in Bower Dromore on Wednesday Jan 19th. One of the many important things to be discussed is the suggested formation of a hurling club as well as the football club. All interested are requested to attend. Several other important items are on the agenda.

45 Drive—A 45 Drive in aid of the Blackwater Rovers club will be held in Aglish Schoolhouse on Sunday next Jan 16th. Prizes include £5 in cash and a hamper and cigarettes.

OUR WATERFORD LETTER

Waterford City Branch Gaelic League—The Annual general meeting of the above was held at the League Hall Lady Lane. In the absence of the President Very Rev Archdeacon Kelliher who sent a message regretting his inability to attend, An Cathaoirleach Mr Eamonn Stundon presided. So as to bring the work of the League prominently before the Hon Secretaries report should be read in Irish and in English.

The activities of the branch were not up to the usual high standard and this was principally due to the fact that the annual branch Feis was not held.

The election of officers for the Waterford Branch for 1944-45 resulted as follows—President—Very Rev Archdeacon Kelliher P.P., V.F., S.T.L. Vice-Presidents—Messrs J Daly, T D Connolly and P Cahill M.A. Cisteoiri—Risteard Doyle Hon Secretary—Mr Patrick Sarsfield Committee—Messrs T P Walsh, Seamus O'Cleary, Eamonn Nevins, E M Riain, M Mac Flannchadha and L O'Kieley. Rev David Power—His many friends tender their congratulations to Rev David Power who has been appointed Parish Priest of Kilrossanty. Father Power was the zealous Administrator of the Parish of St John's for the past ten years. He took a special interest in the Confraternities and it is largely due to his unremitting efforts that those sodalities in St John's have grown to such a remarkable extent. The St Vincent de Paul Society benefited considerably through Father Power's advice and co-operation.

Mr T O Hutchinson's New Auction Mart—Tradesmen have been very busy for the past few weeks in getting Mr T O Hutchinson's new Auction Mart in Great George's Street into shape for the opening sale of furniture which will take place during the month of January. Mr Hutchinson has arranged a most elaborate plan for holding auctions of very valuable antiques which will be conspicuously displayed on a gallery to be erected on the premises. The lay out of the new Auction Mart will facilitate in every possible way the members of the buying public.

Active Service Medal—Mr William Fennessy Exchange Street has recently received from the President of Eire the Active Service Medal ribbon and bar. He was a member of Fianna Eireann and was active in the National struggle for independence from 1918 to 1923. Several other Waterford men have had the honour of receiving the Active Service Medal.

Classes Resumed At "The Tech"—The classes at the Central Technical Institute were resumed on Monday Jan 10th when there was a good influx of students. The class for the teaching of French started on Tuesday night Jan 11th. 12 students attended. There was a big crowd of buacailli and cailini at the opening of the Clascceadal class on the same night.

Juvenile Advisory Committee To Send Delegates To Meeting of Commission in Dublin—At a special meeting of the Waterford Juvenile Advisory Committee held in the Employment Exchange Buildings O'Connell St on Tuesday night at 8 pm (Rev. D Power P.P. Chairman presided) it was unanimously decided to send Miss M C Henberry Secretary and Mr A K Killeen M.Sc. CEO Technical Institute as representatives of the committee to a meeting of the Commission of Youth Unemployment to be held in Dublin on Jan 19th and at which the memorandum recently forwarded by the Juvenile Advisory Committee will be considered. Many important recommendations are being made by our local committee.

Some of the Recommendations—The Waterford Juvenile Advisory Committee recommend to the Commission that Juvenile Clubs (similar to ones operating in Dublin) should be opened in cities like Waterford so that young fellows could spend their leisure hours learning a craft and indulging in games instead of hanging around corners. The local committee also suggest that Construction Corps not under Military control should be organised throughout the provinces to provide useful employment for young men up to 21 years.

THE CHARMING BOULTA BELLE

Now all dear friends and comrades just pray attend a while Unto those lines which I have penned will cause you for to smile Concerning a young female whose name I will not tell You must know her for the present as the Charming Boulta Belle

When I first met this pretty girl was on the 5th of May that fatal date she haunts me n g an day

She's in my thoughts she's in my dreams she's in my heart as well I try my best but cannot rest o'er Boulta's Charming Belle

I'm sure to keep a keen look out for Sunday's morning Mass I watch the roads and fields as well to see which way she'll pass

I watch the paths that lead alone to Cotter's famous well For to take a chance to get one glance at Boulta's Charming Belle

At 8 o'clock each evening I go out on the road To see her nimble skip along from her pretty close abode. Then we to the fireside go some fairy tales to tell Which make my time still more sublime with Boulta's Charming Belle

(Rivals) Some are working on the land more upon the road Others by the seaside dwell whilst more have gone abroad

Of one thing I am certain and that I know right well That twill take some art to win the heart of Boulta's Charming Belle

I've seen the Gulf of Mexico I've seen the Suez Canal I've been to many places amongst them being Natal But now I'm in sweet Ballynoe for ever more to dwell Where I'll live in peace and comfort with my Charming Boulta Belle

CO WATERFORD COMMITTEE OF AGRICULTURE

PREMIUMS TO BULLS, 1944

The County Waterford Committee of Agriculture invite applications from persons intending to compete for Premiums to Bulls under the conditions set forth in the Department's Scheme for encouraging improvement in the breeds of cattle 1944 and who are prepared to purchase such animals at any of the Spring Shows or Sales approved by the Department. In making selections the Committee shall have regard to the need for securing the location of an adequate number of Bulls of the Shorthorn (including Dairy Shorthorn) breed.

Towards this end, the Committee shall allocate at least two-fifths of the available premiums for Bulls of that breed, but of the total number of Premium Bulls of all ages to stand in the County for 1944 the proportion of Shorthorn (including Dairy Shorthorn) Bulls must not be less than the corresponding proportion in the year 1943.

The Committee shall if necessary take other special steps as they may deem most effective to secure that at least this proportion of premiums is fully availed of.

Cow-Testing Associations and Co-Operative Societies can compete for those Premiums.

Breeds of Bulls eligible for Premiums and value of Premiums Pedigree Dairy Shorthorn entered in the Register—

(a) Where both sire and dam are entered in the Register and the dam and dam of sire have each a milk record of 7 500 lbs. or over—£28

(b) Where both sire and dam are entered in the Register but the dam and the dam of the sire have not each a milk record of 7 500 lbs. or over—£22

(c) Where the dam is entered in the Register—£20 Non Pedigree Dairy Shorthorn, entered in the Register—

(i) Where the dam and the dam of sire have each a milk record of 7 500 lbs or over—£22

(ii) Where the dam and the dam of sire have each a milk record of 7 500 lbs or over—£16

Pure-bred Shorthorn—£18 Hereford—£15 Aberdeen Angus—£15

Each applicant for a Premium Bull must lodge a deposit of (£2) with application. No application will be considered unless accompanied by a deposit. The deposit will be returned to each purchaser of a Premium Bull.

Applications on Forms which will be supplied for the purpose, must be duly filled up and returned not later than 22nd January, 1944, to—
