GAPPOQUIN JUNIOR HURLERS

"ON THE MARK"—

The long-postponed junior hurling match between Cappoquin and Modeligo was decided at last on Sunday in the GAA field at Aglish and resulted in a decisive victory for Cappoquin on the score of 3-7 to 2-4

This match had been originally fixed for some months ago but Modeligo applied for a postponement for some reason or an-other and undoubtedly Modeligo fielded a very strong team on Surmay, and had made a very careful pick for the event while Cappoquin were short two of their leading players Willie Sar-gent and Moss Morrissey, both of whom were away in the Co Kildare

The game proved lively from the start but a strong breeze this should prove to be one of gave Modeligo great help in the the most enjoyable and successfirst half and they turned over with a lead of two points at for a long time half-time SUCCESS OF OUR LOCAL

CURDOLIX—a life-saver

Enclosed please find order for more CURDOUX. I shink it only

I sold a bottle of CURDOLIX to a man who had a one" with accord the had two of them buried with it, and the rest were in a dying condition. He direnched these with CURDOLIX and the following morning he had two of them on their feet again He purchased a second bottle for Caives with scour and had the very same success. There is no doubt but it is a wonderful cure.

From an unsolici od letter by G-CURDOLIX is obtainable in bottles 18/- and 36/- dozen From Agents and Chemists or in case of difficulty direct from the house at that time Negotiations went on about the house in 1943. The evidence for plaintiff is confusing, Mrs Quill's was the only clear evidence and she impresses me with her need of the house for her large family. She says an arrangement at 4/2 a week was made in February 1943 and a condition of the letting was that the large room in the house was to be reserved for Mrs Sexton This is quite a comprehensible arrangement Then Mrs Moloney got engaged and married and wanted the house for herself From then on there is confusion among the parties but the documents and letters favour Mrs Quill The rent when sent by her was accepted and no doubt Mrs Moloney knew about this Defendant has a strong cast and the server of the first time you saw Keane at the guite and with the first time you saw Keane at the guite and with the first time you saw Keane acting quite normally Rita Royane and William Cotter also gave evidence for the defence of the door—one fair foxy and the door—one fair foxy and the door—one fair foxy and the cotter also gave evidence for the defence of the defence ney knew about this Defendant has a strong case and I am satisfied that Mrs Quill has a weekly tenancy and plaintiff is not entitled to eject her and the ap-
