Aged Patient Dies In Co. Home Accident

COLLAPSE OF CEILING ACCELERATES DEATH

On Tuesday morning last August 15th at about 8 a.m. a portion of the ceiling of the women's ward at the Co. Home, Dungarvan, became dislodged and fell on Miss Margaret Power (60) Knockbrack, Kinsalebeg, Clashmore as a result of which she died. She had been admitted on the previous Wednesday evening suffering from severe heart trouble.

INQUEST

Mr T C Williams, s.o.r. Deputy Coroner sitting with the following jury held an inquest into the circumstances surrounding the death on Tuesday evening of Miss Margaret Power (60) Knockbrack, Kinsalebeg, Clashmore as a result of which she died. She had been admitted on the previous Wednesday evening suffering from severe heart trouble.

Evidence of Identification
Ellie Power, Knockbrack, Kinsalebeg, Clashmore identified the remains as those of her sister Margaret Power who was 60 years old and unmarried. At home she used to help her at the house. Her sight was bad and she was deaf and in indifferent health.

The Accident
Miss Moira Fitzgerald, deposed as a wardmaid in the County Home, Dungarvan, and on Tuesday morning at about 8.5 a.m. I heard a noise in the room in which the deceased was sleeping. I rushed to the door of the room and saw some mortar from the ceiling falling on the deceased who was in bed. I called for help and nurse McGrath and others came. While waiting for them to come I removed the mortar from the deceased's head and bed. She was conscious but seemed to be stunned.

Nurse Bridget McGrath stated I am a nurse in the County Home, Dungarvan. On Tuesday morning I was called to the bedside of the deceased shortly after 8 a.m. I found the deceased in a shocked condition covered with dust and mortar with a wound on the right side of her forehead. She was partly sitting up at the time but she then fainted. I laid her back on the bed and put a pillow under her head. I gave her a stimulant and she became conscious. I asked her to have some more but she said she was alright and had enough. She was subsequently attended by Dr McCarthy. The deceased was admitted to the Co. Home about 6 p.m. on Wednesday August 9th. She was in poor physical condition and was about 60 years old. I was present when she died and I identify her as Margaret Power and believe she is unmarried. I never noticed anything wrong with the ceiling of her room.

Medical Evidence
Dr D T McCarthy in his deposition said I examined the deceased Margaret Power, subsequent to her admission to the Co. Home from the Cottage Hospital, Youghal, where she had been a patient. Prior to her admission she had suffered from severe internal bleeding. On admission she was in a very feeble state of health suffering from advanced disease of the heart due to chronic inflammation of the heart muscle and bloodlessness. I examined her on Tuesday morning at 8.45 a.m. and she was then dying. There was a jagged wound on the right side of her forehead an inch in length and about 1 1/2 inches above the centre of the right eye brow. There were no other wounds or signs of injury. In my opinion death was due to cardiac failure accelerated by the shock due to the accident.

I visit this ward regularly and I never noticed any defect in the ceiling. Any defect is immediately reported to the engineer and all defects have been promptly dealt with.

A Stone Of Plaster

Mr J Ormond, B.E. said he was engineer to the Board of Assistance and when the accident was reported he visited the ward. He found that a section of the ceiling plaster about 3 feet by two feet had been dislodged and was on the floor nearby. The height from floor to ceiling was about 11 feet. The weight of the plaster in question would be about a stone. When he saw it it was in small pieces.

As part of his duties he makes periodic inspections of the institutions and the last made of this particular ward was about 4 or 5 weeks ago, and there was no apparent flaw in the ceiling then. In addition any unexpected defects which may appear from time to time must be reported to him for attention and no report was ever made about this particular room. Any such defects are quickly dealt with and two men are almost permanently employed to deal with such defects.

The jury having heard the evidence returned a verdict in accordance with medical testimony and added a rider exonerating the staff of the institution from all blame.

Supt P O Mahony and Sergt Liddane represented the authorities and Mr P J Morrissey, s.o.r. was present on behalf of Mr R J Farrell, s.o.r. Waterford for the B.O.A.

Votes of sympathy were passed with Miss Power's relatives.

AERIDHEACHT AT TALLOW

The Aiseirghe Aeridheacht at Tallow on Sunday proved a great success from every point of view and reflects great credit on the newly formed Cumann there. A fine selection of music, step dance and figure dance songs and recitations was enjoyed by a large audience and special praise is due to Miss Long whose pupils opened the Aeridheacht with a chorus in Gaelic and English, and to Mr Walsh of Balle Dub whose pupils charmed all by their fine exhibitions of step dancing and figure dancing.

The big event of the day for many was an Cluithche Camogaldheachta between Tallow and Lios Mor which was a closely contested affair the former winning by a small margin. We had Irish music go leor too from Buidhean Ceoil Tulaigh who added much to the success of the function. We do not forget to say "buidheaches le Dia" for the glorious weather which we enjoyed. The Ceilidhe which followed was like all recent Ceilidhthe a huge success.

This Aeridheacht will be an annual event in Tallow in future. There is plenty local talent here awaiting development.

SPRAYING OF POTATOES

There are few crops of potatoes that would not benefit by a further spraying. The prevailing weather renders the potato crop very liable to blight. Leaflet No 14 "Potato Blight and its Prevention" can be obtained free of charge from the Department of Agriculture, Dublin.

WATERFORD MAN

Mr George A Hartland, Conservative M.P. for Norwich from 1931 to 1935, whose death is announced at the age of 59 was a native of Aghlish Co. Waterford and son of a well-known doctor. Mr Hartland was a general Irishman who revelled in the liveliness of an election campaign and was never at a loss in exchange of repartee with hecklers.

Educated at St Francis Xavier's College, Liverpool he entered the foreign section of an insurance company and travelled extensively overseas in his long career with them. He spent ten years in India after the last war.

Big Crowd Attend Challenge Matches

CLONAKILTY GIVE GRAND DISPLAY

On Sunday last one of the biggest crowds seen at the Gaelic field, Dungarvan, for a long time attended to see Clonakilty (Cork Co Champions) master Stradbally (Waterford Co Champions) in a senior football challenge for a beautiful silver cup presented by Rev P Cummins OSA.

Prior to the football game Dungarvan senior hurlers who suffered such an ignominious defeat in their championship match with Portlaw recently, had their revenge when they reversed the decision against the Tannery team in a very good senior hurling challenge for a set of hurleys presented by Rev Fr Draper CC, Stradbally.

The day was extremely fine with a strong sun shining and little or no wind to favour any side. The large crowd gloried in the evening sunshine, and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The first match was due to commence at 2.30 p.m. but unfortunately it was well past time when the Portlaw men came on to the pitch. The crowd were getting very restless—many thought the game had fallen through. When the teams were eventually put in motion by Mr Dec Sullivan the spectators were treated to a good exhibition during which many good bouts of play were witnessed.

The Dungarvan boys, well supported by their many followers on the side line tore away from the start and in the first half scored a goal and two points to which Portlaw could only reply with a goal. The tannery stars—Hickey Power Doyle and Galvin were all well held by the Dungarvan men, who from the beginning, played in a winning vein. On the turn over the home side went further into the lead and ran up a score of three goals and two points against two minors for Portlaw leaving the final score—

Dungarvan 4-4
Portlaw 1-2

Dungarvan were best served by Barron who engineered most of the scores while Landers played an outstanding game and hit some beautiful frees and seventies. Moloney, Sheridan and Lyons were stonewall backs while Lannen Kiely Butler Donnelly, and Stack, also played well.

Prior to the major fixture on the programme the teams—Stradbally and Clonakilty, were played on to the pitch by the Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band under Mr M J McHugh Bandmaster and as they passed along the side line, the hundreds of Stradbally followers, who were present in force shouted words of encouragement to the team. Having taken their places in the centre of the field, the band struck up the National Anthem while the large crowd stood at attention. Then Mr M V O'Donoghue Chairman Waterford Co Board GAA, who refereed, put the teams in motion.

Immediately the Clon forwards were away in a whirlwind of hand-passing and when one of them was fouled close in a point resulted from the free which gave the visitors first blood. The Reds took command on the kick-out and the ball was sent down to Kevin Whelan who made no mistake when he equalised and the same player put his side ahead later when he pointed a free. The Clon boys then got going and Jim Ahern getting possession had a solo run of forty yards and finished with a beautiful point. A procession of scores for the visitors then resulted. The Clonakilty side gave the crowd a grand exhibition of high fielding long kicking and grand combination. It was during this period we saw real good football as played by a first-class senior club team and realised how much the standard of the big ball game has deteriorated in the Decies. The Stradbally boys rounded off their first half score sheet with a goal and a point leaving the scores—

Clonakilty 1-6
Stradbally 1-3

On the turn over Clon were again on top and J Ahern, who was the outstanding footballer on the field put Clonakilty further ahead with two lightning goals before Stradbally fought back for a major. The match then lost interest as it was clear that the visitors had the game well in hand. Further scores to Clon were a goal and a point while Stradbally scored two points towards the closing stages leaving the score at the final whistle—

Clonakilty 4-7
Stradbally 2-5

The Stradbally team were best served by Nickey Connors Andy Fleming, T Veale, and Whelan

while the visitors who all played a grand game, had the Ahern brothers (forwards) Donovan and O'Neill (centre field), Crowley Finn Cahalane, and Kiely, (backs) starring.

The matches were very well organised and a word of praise is due to Father Cummins for his great ability and enterprise in organising such a splendid fixture. The gate receipts totalled £128 odd.

That night both teams attended a grand dance run by the Stradbally club in the Town Hall Dungarvan which was packed to capacity, and all thoroughly enjoyed themselves to the strains of the Brideside Serenaders Band who played a grand selection of music.

It was indeed Stradbally's day out and they turned up in force and took the Old Boro' over for the day. We are glad that as a result of his efforts Father Cummins succeeded in making the day such a huge success financially and otherwise.

BALLYDUFF NEWS

Gymkhana—"It's in the air," is the title of a picture being shown this week at the Palladium Cinema Lismore. It's in the air here in Ballyduff. We can hear you say—what is? The Gymkhana of course, the air is full of it we swallow whole breaths laden with Gymkhana. It is so novel to us that we must talk about it or "bust." We are looking forward to a wonderful day and it will not be the fault of the committee if we do not, have one as they are leaving no stone unturned to make everything perfect.

There are many details to be discussed and arranged it must be very heartening to the committee the number of entries already received. The judges will have no easy time with competition so keen Major Lewis of International fame of the Army Jumping Team whose name needs no introduction to the people of Ireland, will be one of the judges. Sean Hughes and Mrs Bowen will judge too names well known to all lovers of horses. The proceedings will start with a parade of horses from the village at 1 p.m. (old time) as there are many items events must begin early. There will be no need for anybody to be hungry as there will be teas and minerals available in the field. We hope the weather will be as kind to us as it was on the sports day. Granted a fine day there is no reason why next Sunday's fixture should not be an outstanding success.

Auction At Mocollop Castle—During the week all the plate furniture, glass, pictures etc at Mocollop Castle, were sold. Bidding was keen and prices soared. There were many valuable articles and we are very glad that a good portion of them fell into local and appreciative hands. The Waterford glass did not leave Ballyduff neither did some of the very fine engravings. Book lovers had a rare time going through all the ponderous dusty towers, most of the books were beautifully bound. The people of long ago may not have been able to produce books in mass production but they surely did their work slowly and with infinite care.

What a pity the stones of the old castle cannot talk—they have witnessed many historical events from the passing of Cromwell to the present day. Truly if they could speak their narratives would be much stranger than fiction.

Old New Faces—We were glad to welcome again to our midst recently one who a few years ago was the "life and soul" of the party. Times change and we with them but time, grim reaper that he is cannot steal our memories from us. We are glad too that we have been remembered. Old friends, like old wine improve with time, and life would be a dreary thing were it not for the gift of friendship.

Anno Domini may be responsible for avoidupolis but now we are quits—the kettle can no longer call the pot black!

Hurling Semi-Final—So Cork won again. There is no limit to the hurling capabilities of our sister county. They had a close shave this time. We are glad however that the honours remained in Munster.

Hurling At Home—Athletics seem to be a kind of epidemic among the very juvenile portion of the community presently. On Monday evening the small girls v the small boys played a match and if there wasn't any spectacular display, what was lacking in technique was made up for in tongue. The boys won by 13 goals—think of that in points, and then remember that Cork only won by one point over Galway. Much ado about nothing we say!!

West Waterford Hunt

BRILLIANT GARDEN FETE IN BELLEVILLE PARK

The great popularity of the West Waterford Hunt was proved in the most convincing manner on Tuesday evening when a grand Garden Fete was held in the beautiful grounds of Belleville Park a mile from Cappoquin by kind permission of Mr R L Keane and Mrs Keane. Originally fixed for June 29th the event had to be postponed owing to a sad bereavement in Mr Keane's family and as matters since turned out the postponement proved a most fortunate circumstance because the weather on Tuesday proved ideal for the fixture, and far better than on the original date.

A brilliant sun shone throughout the entire evening so that the rich sylvan scenery surrounding Belleville Park and the beautifully laid out grounds looked at their best, and presented a brilliant and colourful scene with the huge crowds of people who filled the extensive Park during the proceedings. The gay and bright toilettes of the ladies were only equalled by the myriads of fragrant flowers all around and the scene of gaiety and animation simply baffles description. A more delightful setting for a Garden Fete could hardly be found in West Waterford and Mr R J Mulcahy M.F.H., and the other members of the Hunt should feel deeply grateful to Mr R L and Mrs Keane for having so kindly placed their grounds at the disposal of the Hunt for the occasion.

Mr R L Keane Hon Sec of the Hunt Committee having been absent on holidays for some week past the heavy work of making all the preliminary arrangements for the fixture and attending to the many other details devolved almost exclusively on the shoulders of Mr Mick Sargent, whose great organising powers have long been recognised by the promoters of all classes of sport in Cappoquin.

The result was that with one exception everything that had been originally arranged, was carried out to perfection, and the general arrangements were a credit to all concerned.

The one exception was the absence of the Military Band which had been advertised to attend but it was not through any fault of the promoters that the Military Band did not attend as the authorities had sent word that all the troops of the 21st Division were on manoeuvres during this period.

Undaunted by this set-back, which was undoubtedly a serious one, Mick Sargent still persisted in carrying out the "Fancy Dress Parade" from the end of the town to Belleville Park on Tuesday evening and even without the martial strains of a Band the "Parade" marched through the town with the greatest military discipline.

Some of the characters depicted in the Fancy Dress Parade and several of the original costumes worn would have done credit to a more important town than Cappoquin but still the natural spirit of resource and originality so characteristic of the "Old Cornerstone" once again asserted itself, and we were treated to one of the grandest Parades seen in Cappoquin for a long time.

Under the warm and brilliant rays of a glorious sun the judging of the various competitors later took place in Belleville Park before a big crowd of spectators when the Judges were Mr R J Mulcahy M.F.H. Ardinnan Mrs Mulcahy do Mr R L Keane Hon Sec West Waterford Hunt and Mrs Keane do assisted by Mr M J Sargent P.C. Cappoquin and other prominent officials.

The task of the Judges on this occasion was not by any means an easy one owing to the pretty and original characters depicted and the novel and attractive costumes worn by the competitors but after a most careful examination of all the competitors Mr R J Mulcahy as Judge awarded the prizes as follows—

On Horseback—"Snow-White and Prince Charming" Miss Brenda O'Connor daughter of Mr M J O'Connor egg & poultry exporter Cappoquin and Miss Nora Davey daughter of Mr Martin Davey Clonmel and Mrs Davey do, (formerly Miss Stella Walsh Cappoquin).

Second Prize—A Gypsy Caravan Messrs Moss and Tom Foley Cappoquin and usual routine of slaves kids etc.

The third prize was awarded to Master Paddy and Miss Browne children of Sergt J and Mrs Browne G.S. Cappoquin for "Bringing The Turf Home" replete with donkey baskets and all the other paraphernalia so inseparably associated with rural life in the West of Ireland. The Misses "Pat" Sargent and Susie Browne provided a pretty picture in this competition as "John Peel and Mrs Peel," while Master Eddie Mulligan, Dublin, was also a most original and attractive character in the full garb of "The Huntsman."

The Mounted Competition having been decided, as above, the Judges had a further difficult task in awarding the prizes to the competitors in the foot-class but they decided that the winners were as follows—
"The Gay Nineties"—Master Brendan Moloney and Miss Mary Fraher, Cappoquin.

Most Original Costume—Master Noel Moloney, as "Biyoux," a character in Mrs R L Keane's book "Spring Morning," while the special prize for the prettiest girl on the Parade was awarded to Miss Kathleen O'Connor, daughter of Mr M J O'Connor, egg & poultry exporter, Cappoquin who represented "A Swiss Peasant Girl" and who, undoubtedly was the prettiest and best-dressed girl in the Parade.

Special prizes were also awarded to "The Bisco Kids" (Master Kevin and Laurie Moloney Cappoquin), "Newly-Weds" (the Misses Tessie and Phyllis Browne), "Turkish Delight" (Miss May Daly Cork) and "A Chinese Girl" (to Miss Mary Curran Mass Lane Cappoquin).

After the judgements had been given in all the above events the usual amusements were proceeded with, and what a strange and attractive variety of amusements we had there were Roulette, Spinning Wheels, Wheel-of-Fortune, Shooting Galleries, Clock Golf and a variety of other amusements to keep the minds of those present busy all the afternoon.

In addition there was an Open Open-Air Platform for dancing and at various intervals during the evening some splendid exhibitions of Irish step-dancing were given by the Misses Angela Mason, Phyllis Mason, Mary Lacey and Nellie Mescal in four-hand reels, jigs and hornpipes, while further delightful dances were executed by the Misses Kathleen-Mason, Lulu Mason and Kathleen Curran.

A special exhibition of Irish step-dancing was given by Miss Peggy Oimond, Belleville, Cappoquin who is at present a pupil of a leading Convent College in Galway, but who is the holder of several medals for her high proficiency as a dancer at several dancing competitions throughout the country. Her performances were of an outstanding order, and she was, certainly, the best individual dancer at the Fete.

The music for the dancing was beautifully rendered by the Starlight Serenaders' Band, Lismore which added greatly to the enjoyment of the proceedings.

In the course of a very busy evening, where all excelled themselves we must pay special tribute to Mr R L and Mrs Keane, Belleville Park, for their active and successful work during the whole proceedings. Mr R J Mulcahy, Ardinnan, M.F.H. and his charming wife, and member of the popular Daly family, Cork were also outstanding in their attention to the various stalls, and in their general interest in all phases of the work during the afternoon.

Other general workers amongst the ladies who deserve special mention were—Mrs R Keane Tivoli House, Miss Dobbs Camp-hire, Mrs O'Loughlin, The Rectory, Mrs Ruby Chearnley, Sallerbridge, Mrs J V Conway, Miss Winnie Murray, Mrs S Kingston, Miss Anson, Lismore, Miss Godfrey, do, Miss Peggy Barnes Ballinamult, Mrs Boyd, Cappoquin, Mrs R Glasse, do, Miss McConville, Ballinamult, Mrs T F Gillespie, Cappoquin, etc etc, while the gentlemen responsible for the great success of the function included—Mr M J Sargent, P.C., Cappoquin, (the principal organiser and M.C. of the entire programme) Capt Alexander F Anderson S. Kingston, Sean Bell, T Beston, M J Sargent, Junr P Mulcahy, B.A., M.F. Walsh P.C. Auctioneer A Dawson, Thos F Gillespie, Joe Walsh M. Mason, etc, and as the golden sun sank in the West on Tuesday evening and cast its slanting rays over the beautiful and picturesque Belleville Park we thanked God that He had spared us all to spend such a happy and glorious evening amongst the kindly and hospitable society of the Keane family and in the midst of one of the most wonderful scenes of sylvan beauty in West Waterford.

Enjoyable Juvenile Concert In Cappoquin

Encouraged by the great success which had attended the two previous Concerts held by the Juvenile ladies of Cappoquin in the CYMS Hall, Mill Street, the same plucky and talented young artists staged a further Concert on last Sunday night but on more ambitious lines on this occasion as they had changed the venue from the smaller CYMS Hall to the larger Boathouse Hall which we think, was a rather serious mistake for them. While juvenile voices may be able to produce the most melodious effects in the CYMS Hall, it should have been remembered that only voices of full volume and range are able to fill the larger Boathouse Hall, so that some of the young artistes clearly suffered from this disadvantage on Sunday night. Not that any of the voices had lost any of their former sweetness and expression but it was quite obvious to all that they were unable to make the same impression in the larger space of the Boathouse Hall as they had made in the smaller CYMS Hall on the two previous occasions. The arrangements also seemed to have been carried out more smoothly and punctually in the CYMS Hall because on Sunday night there were several unduly long intervals between the items.

With the exception of these defects the concert proved most musical and entertaining and it was a high tribute to Miss Mary Moynihan as chief organiser and the other young ladies associated with her, that the audience proved the largest and most appreciative seen at any local juvenile entertainment for years.

Valuable assistance was given to the promoters by Mr Fred Anderson, and Mr J P Olden, the latter being particularly effective in his capacity as Announcer and Stage Manager the duties of which he performed with all his wonted eloquence and efficiency.

Mr John O'Brien Boherberay, (violin), and Mr Thos McGrath do, (piano-accordeon), rendered the music for the dancing items, and further gave some delightful musical selections at intervals, but the honours of the night went to Miss Eily Mullins A.L.C.M. (London), Cappoquin who had so patiently trained the young artistes for their respective "turns" and who played all the accompaniments (except for the dancing events) with rare brilliancy and accomplishment throughout the night.

The programme was opened with a tuneful and well-balanced chorus "Make Yourself At Home" by the entire Troupe comprising the Misses Mary Moynihan, Anne Sargent, Mona Sargent, Bernadette Sargent, Angela Mason, Mary Fraher, "Pat" Fraher, Mary Lacey, Cella Lacey, Anne Meaney Dromroe, and Marjorie Meany, do in the course of which the various young voices blended most harmoniously the item being very loudly applauded.

The next item proved another rare treat, when a grand exhibition of Irish stepdancing was given by Miss Rita Mulcahy, Crough, Ballinamult, who proved a clever and most graceful dancer for which she was very loudly encored.

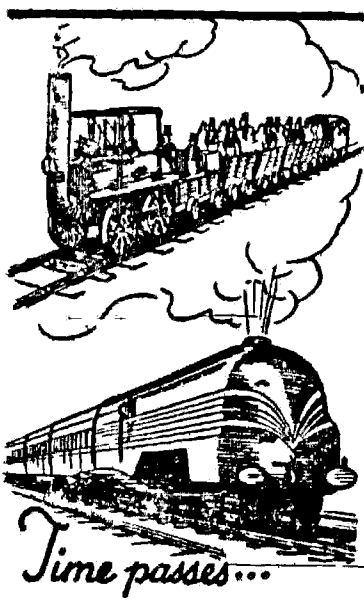

Miss Mona Sargent always a popular local artiste, sang "Alice Blue Gown," with such sweetness and expression that she had to respond to a most enthusiastic encore, when she again charmed the audience by her perfect rendering of "The Old Rustic Bridge By The Mill".

A lovely trio was next sung by the Misses Angela Mason, Anne Meaney and Bernadette Sargent whose fresh and musical young voices were heard to great advantage which won for them a great round of applause.

Miss Anne Sargent another great concert favourite who was richly attired in the picturesque costume of a gypsy scored a wonderful success by her beautiful and expressive singing of "The Gypsy's Warning" which brought her such a sustained encore that she had to respond with "Wont You Buy My Pretty Flowers" which was sung with great tenderness and pathos for which she was again very loudly applauded.

Mr Thos McGrath Boherberay next danced a hornpipe with great verve and beauty for which he was greeted with rounds of cheers.

Miss Rita Mulcahy Crough who had earlier charmed the audience by her graceful stepdancing, now displayed her great versatility as an artist by giving a beautiful selection of Irish airs on the violin in the course of which she proved herself to be a young lady of high musical accomplishments and she was very deservedly encored for her popular and high-class contribution.

"Snow-White And The Seven Dwarfs" was next presented as a Tableau by eight members of the troupe, and proved a well-executed and highly-popular item.

Mr Joe Walsh the ever-popular local comedian introduced the first ripple of hilarity by his masterly singing of "Little Brown Jug" and in response to a loud encore he next sang "The Masters From Sweet Donegal," with equally good effect.

Another pretty and interesting Tableau entitled "Three Rag Dolls" was very gracefully presented by the Misses Mary Moynihan, Anne Sargent, and Mary Fraher who looked very smart and pretty in their respective parts, and this was followed by a graceful dance and song by the entire troupe of girls which proved a most original and attractive item.

This concluded the first part of the programme and during the interval tickets were sold for a draw for a valuable prize of cigarettes the winner proving to be Mrs M J Sargent Cappoquin who was loudly applauded on her good luck.

The second part of the programme was opened by Miss Mona Sargent whose beautiful singing of "Santa Lucia" was a treat to listen to and this charming and accomplished little artiste was loudly encored from all parts of the hall.

Miss Mary Moynihan—the talented local comedienne, received a great outburst of applause for her capital singing of "Phil The Fluter's Ball" interspersed with some graceful dancing and humorous acrobatics during which she kept the audience in roars of laughter by her original antics, which proved her to be a wonderful entertainer.

For an encore she gave a short, humorous song, "The Hat," which proved another "scream".

Miss Anne Meaney Dromroe won fresh laurels by her beautiful singing of "Moonlight In Mayo" after which a short humorous sketch "Three Irish Cooks" was perfectly portrayed by the Misses Mary Moynihan, Anne Sargent and Mary Fraher whose perfect singing and acting fairly "brought down the house".

Mr Joe Walsh kept up the humorous spirit by his lolling singing of "There, A Tavern In The Town" after which Miss Mary Moynihan greatly enhanced her reputation by giving a recitation with great dramatic power and rare elocutionary effect.

Other items having followed Mr J P Olden MC suitably thanked the audience for their generous support that night, and also paid high tribute to the various artistes and particularly to Miss E Mullins accompanist and trainer of the troupe for the admirable manner in which they had acquitted themselves

CAPPOQUIN NEWS

CAPPOQUIN HURLERS RUNAWAY VICTORY

The town presented an unusually quiet and deserted appearance between 2 and 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon when the members of the junior hurling team and hundreds of their followers had left for Clashmore by cars, carts, bikes and every other available means of transport, for the junior hurling championship match between Cappoquin and Ardmore.

Cappoquin had previously been warned from various sources to be prepared for a surprise as it was hinted that the Ardmore team may prove a tougher proposition than expected but this did not deter or frighten the local hurlers in any way as they just travelled with the same team which they would have fielded in any other match.

Filled with quiet confidence in their ability to meet any team in the junior-grade the game had not been long in progress when they found that their confidence had not been misplaced as Ardmore after starting off well quickly faded out of the picture and after a most one-sided game Cappoquin proved the easiest of winners on the extraordinary score of 10 goals 8 points (38 points) against 2 goals 2 points (8 points) for Ardmore which will, probably prove to be one of the biggest victories in the history of the junior hurling championship in West Waterford this year.

The Cappoquin team was as follows—W Rea (goal), Jerry Sullivan J-Brackett J Cahill Lieut D Daly, James Ahearne W J Sargent, M Morrissey, M Connors Wm Lee P English R J Curran, Jim Sargent P Connors and Thos Lonergan.

In heartily congratulating our local Gaels on this striking victory may we suggest that they should not be content to "rest on their oars" now but should continue in hard training and practice during every available evening because some further obstacles have yet to be negotiated before the much-coveted county championship is won outright so it would be a pity if such fine team after having travelled safely over most of the way were to be defeated for the want of training and practice in the remaining games.

SUDDEN TRANSITION FROM GLOOM TO GAITY

The deserted appearance of the town to which we have already referred quickly vanished soon after 3 o'clock on Sunday when we had a welcome "invasion" of between 50 and 60 of the prettiest and most athletic young ladies from various districts in West Waterford who arrived on bicycles to take part in a series of camogie matches which had been fixed for the Sportsfield here that evening.

The Aglish camogie team with their followers, were the first to arrive as fresh and radiant as a flower-garden on a dewy morning and they were soon followed by contingents from Dungarvan—Cappagh, Bearys Cross and Ballyduff, so that the town was transformed into a scene of brightness and gaiety about 4 o'clock.

There was a fine attendance in the Sportsfield when the first game was started between Dungarvan and Aglish but owing to the absence of most of the Cappoquin Gaels the few of us left at home had some difficulty in keeping the playing pitch clear as the girls in their enthusiasm kept crowding in all the time because all being inside the railings there was no physical barrier to keep them out.

The pitch had been carefully laid out by the local hurling club since Saturday evening and the goal-posts erected in their proper positions and everything possible had been done to facilitate the fair players in every way.

The Dungarvan players were no strangers to Cappoquin as they had appeared here twice previously when they defeated Ballyduff on both occasions.

Their club being longer established than most of the other clubs in West Waterford they have naturally greater experience of the game so with Aglish being only a recently formed club their team on Sunday proved no match for Dungarvan although the "green-horns" put up a great fight and were simply glorious in defeat.

The game was very fast while it lasted but Dungarvan never left the issue in doubt and won on the score of 4 goals to 1 goal for Aglish.

The teams were as follows—

Dungarvan—N Dalton P McGrath, P Condon N Veale M Curran B C McGrath B Kirwan M Creed A McGrath N Collender N Phelan and E Farrell
Aglish B Fitzgerald B Duffy G Beston Joan Curtin K Lynch K Dower K Connell M Longan May Ryan Bride Scallan Sheila Foley and Ann Foley
Mt J Vaughan, Lismore, referee.

The second match was between Ballyduff and Cappagh but the former found themselves in a stronger position against a recently-formed Cappagh team than they were against the more seasoned Dungarvan team on the two previous occasions.

Ballyduff proved their superiority almost from the start and although Cappagh offered stubborn resistance, they had eventually to suffer defeat on the score of 4 goals 3 points to nil.

The teams were—
Ballyduff—S Cashin (goal) M Scallan Bridie Quinn M Murphy, N Hennessy N Dunne M Whelan Kitty Higgins Lizzie Daly, Mary Lahill Janie Sullivan.

Cappagh—Helen Kiely, Mrs Corcoran Eily Walsh P Flynn Mona Barron K O'Brien, P Ahearne M Flynn K Kiely, B Moore and Dodo Burke.

Mr Joe O'Donnell, Cappoquin was referee.

The last match provided the best contest of the evening when the team from Bearys Cross Ballinamult, played a combined team from the Dungarvan and Aglish clubs.

Although the score was three goals to nil against Bearys Cross at half-time the latter showed much better form in the second half when they scored 2 goals and 1 point, but as the combined team added 1 goal 3 points in the same half, they emerged winners of a hard-fought game on the score of 4 goals 3 points to 2 goals 1 point.

This match was refereed by Mr Con Higgins Ballyduff, and concluded a most interesting evening's sport for all present.

CAMOGIE CLUB FORMED IN CAPPOQUIN

The sport of camogie having taken such a firm hold of the young ladies in most of the surrounding towns and villages in this part of the county Waterford it was inevitable that the young ladies of Cappoquin should also become infected by the fever and since a short article of ours on the subject appeared in these 'Notes' a couple of weeks ago we have been flooded with queries from several of the young ladies here as to when a camogie club would be started for the town.

Accordingly a public meeting was held in the CYMS Hall on Monday night and was attended by between 20 and 30 of the sporting young ladies of the town while Messrs M J Sargent P C Cunningham Hon Sec, Hurling Club John Greene do, Joe Donnell do and John F Ryan also attended.

Mr M J Sargent having been moved to the chair briefly explained the object of the meeting, and suggested that one of the ladies present should first formally propose that a Camogie Club be formed for Cappoquin.

Miss B McCarthy then proposed a motion to this effect which was seconded by Miss Maura Keating and passed with acclamation.

The election of officers was then proceeded with and on the proposal of Mr P Cunningham seconded by Miss B McCarthy Mr M J Sargent was elected Patron of the club.

On the motion of Miss "Pat" Sargent seconded by Miss Kathleen O'Connor Miss Mary Omond was elected Chairman.

Miss B McCarthy was unanimously elected Captain and on the motion of Miss Kathleen O'Connor seconded by Miss M Colbert Miss "Pat" Sargent was unanimously elected Treasurer and on the motion of Miss Phylla Regan seconded by Miss Eily McCarthy Miss Maura Keating was unanimously elected Hon. Secretary.

The following five members were then elected on the Committee in addition to the five Honorary Officers—
Misses M Colbert Kathleen O'Connor Susie Browne Kitty Greene and Carmel Miles.

It was decided to adopt the colours of the hurling club Red and Black—and arrangements were made to purchase a set of jerseys and hulleys for the members.

Mr Sargent said as no club could get on without funds he suggested that a concert and drawing of prizes be held on an early date and he promised a valuable prize for the purpose. It was then decided that a concert and drawing of prizes be held in the Boathouse Hall on Sunday night, September 3rd and Mr Sargent said he would ask Mr F X O'Leary NT to assist them in preparing for the concert.

The subscriptions for members were fixed at 1/ each and Mr P Cunningham said as he would be in Dungarvan the next day he would get the club affiliated on the spot so that they would be able to take part in the Co Championship matches right away.

He also promised the fullest co-operation of the hurling club and said they would facilitate the members of the camogie club by every means in their power.

The question of holding a tournament was next discussed and Mr Sargent kindly promised a set of medals for the purpose, but a final decision on this matter was deferred for the present.

It was decided to arrange a friendly challenge match with Lismore club on Thursday evening August 17th at 7.30 o'clock and Mr P Cunningham said the players could have the use of the hurling pitch for practice from 7.30 to 8 o'clock on four nights of the week and at 8 o'clock on Tuesday and Friday nights.

The camogie club having now been started on such a solid basis we wish it every success and we can promise the members that they will receive every support and encouragement from us through the Press as every GAA and other sporting body here have always received from us for the past half century long before some of the present-day "Mushroom Gaels" were ever heard of either in Dungarvan or Cappoquin.

OMITTED

In our report of the funeral of Mrs Bridie Driscoll in last week's issue the following Mass cards were inadvertently omitted—From Lena Cunningham, England Alice Jerry and family, Blarney Mrs Collins and family Dublin, while in our report of the funeral of Mrs Ina White one of the Mass cards was given as having been sent by John and B Ryan and family in error as this should have read "From John and B Regan and family Barrack St. Cappoquin."

A GOOD WINNER AT BLARNEY SPORTS

At Blarney (Co Cork) Cycling and Athletic Sports on last Sunday week our popular local cycling champion Jimmy Foley showed rare form in winning the five miles cycle (scratch) from all the best cyclists in Munster as well as the famous Leinster champion J J Pender New Ross who got second place. This was a very brilliant achievement for which we wish to heartily congratulate the winner while our warmest congratulations are also due to Master David Anthony McSweeney the 15-year-old son of Mr Michael McSweeney NT Cappoquin, who won the 100 yards race for boys under 16 years at the Waterford Sports on last Sunday, although he was handicapped 5 yards behind elder boys who had already several wins to their credit.

ANOTHER GRIEVANCE FROM POUND LANE

We are sorry to learn from some of the most respectable and reliable inhabitants in Upper Castle Street (Pound Lane) that the street was badly neglected after the last fair day when heaps of filthy and objectionable stuff were left lying in close proximity to the residence of some of the inhabitants which must surely have proved a serious menace to public health especially in warm weather.

It is no pleasure to us to be making complaints like this frequently but if a hard and fast rule were made that all this street from end to end should be thoroughly cleaned after each fair day we shall never again have occasion to refer to such a nauseating subject.

The Root Of The Evil

IN late years much publicity has been peddled by enthusiasts on the Irish Language question An Taoiseach himself has spoken on the problem at every available opportunity all over the country but we can see no great results from all this platform talk and idle publicity There is no doubt but big barriers have to be surmounted if the language is to come into its own again But will this objective, be realised according to present methods

For the amount of money spent and the amount of breath and effort wasted, progress has not been proportionate There is one thing that can be said however as a consolation, and that is that the younger generation all have a good working knowledge of Gaelic But this is not going to make Irish the living vigorous language that it should be

No effort is being made to increase the amount of Irish used by Government administrators even though An Taoiseach is one of the greatest enthusiasts When the machinery of State and Local Government is moved through the medium of English how ever can we expect our young people to use Gaelic which is relegated to a back seat by those who count

The real root of the trouble is the lack of Nationalism amongst us today Young boys and girls growing up do not care a hoot about love of country, and have apparently no patriotic instincts If love of Ireland, her flag and national anthem was once firmly rooted in our hearts it would be the ambition of all, instead of the misfortune (as the majority think it) to learn and use the Mother Tongue

Let us put first things first and not be trying to build a house by putting the roof on first Set the proper, healthy foundations, and the rest will gradually grow

News Of The Town And Round About

LATE CHIEF SUPT FITZGERALD—The death of Chief Supt Fitzgerald, Drogheda, took place during the week Many will remember when the Garda Force was started, Chief Supt Fitzgerald then holding the rank of Inspector was first stationed at the Barracks (now the Post Office) in Dungarvan in 1923 We extend deepest sympathy to his widow and family

MONTHLY FAIR—The August monthly fair held on Wednesday last can be described as big but slow Trade in all departments was slow as due to the incidence of foot and mouth in certain English areas no purchases for the export trade were made There was a big supply of cattle 3 year olds making from £20 to £26 while 2 year olds were at £14 to £18 and yearlings from £9 to £12 with very little buying Pigs were very dear at £6 to £8 and sheep and lambs were scarce and dear At the close of the fair a lot of stock remained unsold

A BOMBHELL IN THE COUNTY—During the week we learned that contrary to all expectations Mr T B Boyle Dungarvan, presently Acting Secretary of the County Council, was not appointed permanently to the position in the weeks gone past all the posts in other parts of the country were filled and it was assumed that Mr Boyle would remain in his own county as County Secretary The news that such was not so came as a bombshell, and protests have been voiced by all sections against this treatment of a man who deserves the highest praise not only from his ordinary acquaintances but also from the Government of the country

Mr Boyle a man of strong national outlook, was Co Accountant since 1916, a position he took over on the death of his father who had held it since the initiation of the Co Council Brilliant even by the highest standards of intellect he has behind him years of sound experience which marked him as the ideal man for this position A Gael at heart he was actively associated with Sinn Fein and after the 1918 election the great Cathal Brugha himself paid glowing tribute to Tommy Boyle for the success of the undertaking

He conducted the last local elections for the Co Council without a hitch to the entire satisfaction of all He had completed and qualified in the Irish course needed for the position he had the long experience and outstanding ability which marked him as the one and only man for the post—why then was he not appointed? We think that on the merits Mr Boyle should have been appointed to one or other of the vacancies as he has proved his worth

CONGRATULATIONS—We extend heartiest congratulations to Guard Coffey, Ardmore, on his success in obtaining the coveted appointment of District Court Clerkship in Dundalk as the result of a recent examination Guard Coffey is well-known in the Dungarvan Ring and Ardmore districts and is extremely popular with all

We also congratulate Guard Wall Clerk in the Supt's Office at Dungarvan, on his success in the recent Sergeant's examination

NEW C.B.S SUPERIOR—We welcome Rev Bro Murray who has come as Superior to the Christian Brothers' School Dungarvan, and wish him well amongst us Bro Murray, prior to his advent to the Old Boro, spent six years in the Capital of the Kingdom and we are sure that he will uphold the highest traditions of the Christian Brothers who have done so much for education not alone in this town but throughout Elre and many parts of the world We extend to him Falte Ul Ceallaigh

SWIMMING GALA—The Dungarvan Swimming Club will hold a grand swimming Gala at the Swimming Pool commencing at 3 pm on

OLD COMRADES I.R.A.—WEST WATERFORD AREA—A general meeting of the above was held on Sunday last in the Town Hall, Dungarvan. Mr P Whelan in the chair The principal business before the meeting was the opening of a fund to help members in case of illness or hardship from other causes

It was decided to start a Benevolent fund within the existing organisation, a special drive to be made to have all Old IRA included Owing to the increased number of calls being made on the Associations funds recently the matter was one of urgency and it is to be hoped that there be an increased number of applications for membership cards from all areas in West Waterford

Mr P Ormonde was appointed Assistant Treasurer to help Mr P Lynch (Treasurer) and Mr P Croke was appointed Secretary, pro tem

Resolutions of sympathy were passed with Mr Martin Kelly on the death of his father and with the family of the late Mr P Beresford Abbeyside

MATCH OFF—The fixture in which the Nire senior footballers were engaged is off due to harvesting operations in the Nire district

CAMOGIE CO BOARD MEETING—The first meeting of the Camogie Co Board was held at Cappoquin on Thursday last, Aug 10th, Rev W Flynn, P.P. Knockanore presiding A full quota of officials and club delegates attended The main item under discussion was the forthcoming inter-county match v Tipperary at Clonmel on Aug 27th It was stated that the selection of a team to represent the county at this early stage of the organisation presented difficulties A selection committee was appointed and a number of trial games fixed as a result of which two teams were picked to play a final trial at Cappoquin on Sunday next at 3.45 pm

The selections are "A" team—R Fitzgerald, Aglish; M Curran, Clashmore M Hennessey, Ballyduff, K Higgins, do, P Condon, Dungarvan, B McGrath, do, P McGrath, do, M Curran, do, C Curran do A McGrath do P Neville Knockanore, M Landers do

"B" team—Lismore Goalkeeper, M Scanlan Ballyduff P Daly or B Enright, do, B Kirwan Dungarvan, N Phelan, do, P Curran Clashmore, N Healy, do B Cunningham do M Connell, do, G Murphy, Knockanore H Kiely, Cappagh, J Curtin Aglish

TALLOW AND MOOREHILL NEWS—Up to the time of going to press, Tallow and Moorehill News had not arrived

Western Divisional G.A.A. Notes
(By AN HUNAHIDE)

Presentation to Departing Gaelic Player—Clashmore G.A.A. Club made a valuable presentation of a fountain pen and wallet on last Wednesday evening to Guard Baker to mark their appreciation of his services to the Clashmore Club. Guard Baker played Inter-County Football for Clare and is a fluent Irish speaker. The presentation takes with it the best wishes of the Gaels on his transfer to the Depot.

Consent Money—Jas Dwyer, Hon. Sec., Dungarvan G.A.A. Club wishes to acknowledge receipt of P.O. valued 3/- refund of amount due to the club.

At Villierstown—On Sunday next St Mochudas meet Tourin Ramblers in the minor football championships. Tourin have a string of young players that will take some beating. St Mochudas believe they can win out this year and are very confident of victory on Sunday. Blackwater Rovers meet Glenlickey Rangers in junior football at the same venue. Glenlickey had appealed against this venue to the Co. Board but as the appeal was ruled out of order on several points the venue and date remains unaltered. The Glenlickey Rangers can rest assured that a fair field and no favours will be given to both teams. Villierstown club will provide plenty of stewards and P. Ryan will see to it as referee that the pitch will be kept cleared. Clubs are reminded that they can and will be held responsible for the actions of their supporters. Sunday will be a great day in Villierstown.

Board Meeting on Sunday—A meeting of the Divisional Board will be held at 8.15 p.m. (S.T.) in the C.Y.M.S. Cappoquin on Sunday next. The Lismore v Camphire objection and counter objection if lodged will be held. All clubs are to accept this notice as official.

Co. Board Meeting—A Co. Board meeting will be held in Dungarvan during the week following so as to clear up all outstanding business.

At Dungarvan—On Sunday Dungarvan meet Ballycoe in junior hurling and Eire Oge meet Kilmachthomas in the same code. Ballycoe will rely on the selection that defeated Kilgobnet but Dungarvan will be trying a complete new team. Most of the Dungarvan juniors have gone into senior ranks and the Blues will have to rely on a big number of minors.

Kilmachthomas will at last meet Fitzies Eire Oge team and the winner will be found. This game has been postponed for many reasons from date to date but Sunday sees the finish of it. Under no circumstance can a postponement from Sunday be granted.

Army S.W. Final for Dublin—During the week high hopes were held in Dungarvan that the Army Hurling All-Ireland would be played there. The Board officials agreed to give a clear date to the Army to help but at the last moment it was found impossible to arrange the game for Dungarvan and Croke Park has been selected as the venue.

Presentation of Medals to Army Teams—Arrangements are under way to present the junior football Co. Championship 1943 medals to McDermotts J.F. team and the Green Cross Tournament medals to the Collins hurling club before their departure from Dungarvan. It was hoped to stage this in Cappoquin but certain things make that venue impossible. Sunday 27th is a likely date and it is suggested to have an Army Selection meet a Western football selection in Dungarvan on that day with a Ceilidhe Mor to follow that night at which the medals would be presented by the Co. Board Chairman.

Ring Tournament—The following fixtures have been made Aug 27th Ring v Old Parish, Sept 10th Dungarvan v Ballycoe. All teams are warned that if they fail to field they will be reported to the Board.

Things That I Have Heard—That certain minor teams will have to be careful of the age limit rule. Investigation of over age players will be very serious for the players and officials who play them.

That Ballycoe meet the Army in a replay on Wednesday evening and they expect to win this time.

That the Co. Board and Western Board will impose heavy suspensions at their next meetings.

LISMORE ITEMS

Obituary—It is with deep regret we record the death of Mr Declan Lehane which sad event took place recently at his residence in Glencalm, Lismore. A devout and practising Catholic, he was comforted by the last rites of the Church before his passing, and during his lifetime had endeared himself to a wide circle of friends by his genial and courteous manner.

Testimony as to the regret which his passing had evoked was manifested by the large and representative cortege which accompanied the removal of the remains to St. Carthage's Church. The funeral to the Council cemetery where the interment took place was also largely attended, and proved the great respect which deceased was held. Our wholehearted sympathy is extended to his sorrowing widow, family and relatives.

Rev Fr Meehan C.C. Tallow, Rev Fr Ahearne, C.C. Lismore attended at the graveside and were assisted by Rev Fr O'Riordan Lismore and Rev Fr Devine Lismore.

Chief mourners included—Miss Ellen Lehane (widow), Misses Mary, Mildred Eileen and Kathleen Lehane, Mrs Joan Flynn and Mrs Maureen Costello (daughters), Messrs Ed and Terence Lehane (sons), Mr Michael Flynn (son-in-law), Messrs Gerry and Edward Guinevan (brothers-in-law), Miss Julia Guinevan, Messrs Patrick Richard James and Mrs Ormonde (relatives), etc.

Late Mrs Barry, Bishopstown—Our sympathy is extended to the Barry family Bishopstown, on the recent death of their mother which sad event has occasioned them great sorrow.

Alltiri Na h-Aoiseirge—A public meeting under the auspices of Cumann Culturtha na h-Aoiseirge, will be held at the Monument in Lismore on next Sunday evening. Many prominent speakers will attend. A private meeting will be held afterwards for the purpose of forming a Cumann in Lismore, and which all who wish to enrol are invited to attend.

Successful Sports At Ballysaggart—A huge crowd was present to witness the Annual Sports at Ballysaggart on Sunday last. The day was ideal for the sports and everyone spent a most enjoyable time. The capable and energetic committee deserve to be complimented on the efficient manner in which the field was laid out and on the clock-like precision with which the events were run off.

Ceilidhe Mór—A Ceilidhe Mór under the auspices of the newly-formed Camogie Club will be held in the Town Hall on Sunday next, August 20th. We are glad to see that the Irish dancing is coming into its own again and we are glad to hear that arrangements are being made to run Ceilidhe regularly in the town during the winter months. A very competent committee are in charge of the arrangements and we are assured of a very enjoyable night. The Lismore Ceilidhe band will supply the music.

L.S.F. Question Time And Re-Union At Cappoquin

The local Group of the L.S.F. held its first Question Time Competition on last Wednesday night and took advantage of the occasion to hold a social reunion. There was a large muster of member and the guests of the evening included members of the District Staff L.S.F. local members of the District Staff L.D.F., Captain Kinsella the Company Staff of the L.D.F. and representatives of the Red Cross Society.

Under the supervision of Mrs Conway an appetising supper was served by members of the hotel staff and the many good things having been disposed of the Question Time Competition took place. All the questions were relevant to the duties of members of the L.S.F. and were designed to test their knowledge of First Aid, A.R.P., Traffic Control, Communications, Signaling etc. The answering was extraordinarily good and time and again the competitors were applauded.

The following scored one hundred per cent—Messrs M Geary (Traffic Control), G Russell (First Aid), J E Crowe (A.R.P.) and J Olden (Communications).

Mr S Bell A/G.L. acted as question master. At the conclusion of the competition Mr M J Sargent, D.S.O. 1 thanked the members of the Group Staff for their invitation to be present paid a tribute to the members for their keenness and complimented them on their knowledge of their duties as shown by their answering in the competition. He said he was particularly glad to see Sergeant Brown G.S. present as no one man in the area had done more work for the Force since its inception than the Sergeant.

In thanking Mr Sargent for his tribute Sergeant Brown said it had been a pleasure to be associated with the L.S.F. in the district. Cappoquin he said had responded nobly to the call when the Force was being founded and the enthusiasm displayed in the early days had never waned.

Captain Kinsella, in a short address, said his presence at that function was an indication of the happy relations which existed between the Army and the L.S.F. and thanked the members of the Force for the help which had been given the military at all times.

Coy Leader Kelliher on behalf of the L.D.F. and Mr F Anderson on behalf of the Red Cross also expressed their pleasure at being present.

An enjoyable concert followed and a pleasant evening concluded with the singing of the National Anthem.

OUR WATERFORD LETTER

The Best Boxing Tournament Seen for Years—The best boxing tournament seen for years in the city took place in the Olympia Hall, Parnell St. under the auspices of St. Anthony's Boxing Club on Friday Aug 11th. There was a very large and representative gathering of spectators. All the contests were keenly fought and a high standard of boxing was shown. Our local amateurs acquitted themselves very well as exponents of the fist art. At an interval in the tournament Dr Vincent White, President St. Anthony's Boxing Club delivered a brief address in Irish and in English complimented the boxers on the lively bouts which they provided.

Forthcoming Marriage—The marriage arranged between Dr Bernard Courtney Ardee Co. Louth and Miss Breda Henderson Waterford will take place at Butlerstown Church Co. Waterford on September 4th. Dr Courtney is son of Mr Patrick Courtney Chief Organiser of the I.A.O.S. and a well-known and popular personality amongst the farming community of the Waterford. Mr Courtney lives at Foxmount Dunmore East where he works a large farm.

Swimming Carnival—The members of St. John's Swimming Club will hold a Carnival in St. John's Pill on Aug 30th when a varied programme of aquatic events will be decided.

Pirate Jarvey Cars—There was another invasion of pirate jarvey cars on the fifteenth of August similar to that experienced in 1943. Those pirates plied for hire in the County Borough area early in the day and subsequently drove people to Tramore. That encroachment on the rights of the local jarvey drivers is very unfair competition in view of the fact that they have to pay an annual license to the Corporation for permission to ply for hire in the city.

Irish Cultural Course At Tramore—The ever increasing popularity of the Irish Cultural Course at Tramore conducted by Sean O'Hoban and Seosamh O'Fathaigh is amply demonstrated by the increased numbers from adjoining areas who attend the weekly ceilidhe on Tuesdays Thursdays Saturdays and Sundays. The practice ceilidhe on Monday Wednesday and Friday nights, is also well attended. During the intervals at the practice ceilidhe the community singing is taught. The morning classes are well attended by local children who enjoy all the privileges of a real Gaeltacht. An adult class has now been formed and is now well under way.

A special feature of Thursday night's entertainment was the excellent display of Irish step dancing by Miss Nancy Troy (Oreachtas and Fí Mathew Fels prizewinner) and Master Jim Phelan, Clonmel who holds the coveted title of the Deise championship. Their dances included "The Reel in Couples" and the hornpipe. They were loudly applauded and received numerous encores. The pair are well known in Irish dancing circles.

Later in the night two junior pupils of Miss Troy's dancing school delighted the company by a fine exhibition of the traditional art (double jig and hornpipe). They were Misses Eileen Hogan and Angela Carroll.
