State Pathologist's Findings

Inquest Adjourned

On Friday last Sept 1st Dr John McGrath State Pathologist, assisted by Dr M K Cusack Dungarvan, and Dr Lydon, A.M.S., held a post-mortem examination at the Dungarvan Hospital, on the body of Private Charles Daly (23) member of the Defence Forces and native of Clara, Co Offaly who died as a result of an assault made on him in Dungarvan on Wednesday night, August 30th. Subsequently an inquest was held and on the application of Supt P J O'Mahony, G.S., was adjourned sine die.

The scene of the crime was visited by members of the G.I.D. (Criminal Investigation Department) on Friday morning who took photographs and measurements at the place.

THE INQUEST

Dr D T McCarthy, Coroner for West Waterford sitting with the following jury held an inquest when the post mortem had been performed—Mr J J Crotty (foreman), Messrs J Humble J Dower, C Quigley J Delany M Cummins T Donohue D Walsh, P Foley, and Ed Fleming.

IDENTIFICATION

Private J Lowe was the first witness called and he stated that he was a member of the Defence Forces and knew the deceased. He was a native of Clara Co Offaly and witness and deceased who lived about 150 yards apart went to school together. Deceased was 23 years of age and witness last saw him alive at between 4 p.m. and 7 p.m. on the evening of the crime. He was then in his usual good health. He next saw him lying on the narrow laneway leading to the quays in an injured condition at about 9.50 p.m. He appeared to be dead. He had seen the remains and identified them as those of Private Charles Daly.

STATE PATHOLOGIST'S EVIDENCE

Dr J McGrath, State Pathologist, deposed: "On the 1st September, I performed a post mortem examination on Private Charles Daly at the Dungarvan District Hospital. The body was identified by Private Lowe and I was assisted by Dr Cusack and Dr Lydon. The body was that of a very well-built man of between 12 and 13 stone weight height 6 feet. There was a bruise with slight scratches on the right cheek. There were two wounds on the back of the head somewhat to the left side, and a deep bruise behind the left ear. The skin over the first wound and over the bruise showed abrasions with almost linear edges and almost one inch wide. Blood was coming from the nose mouth and left ear. There were several fractures of the skull mainly under the two wounds and bruise mentioned. The injuries fell into two groups joined at the base of the skull and extended to the back and along the base through the inner bones of the left ear, and to the bones over the nose. There was marked haemorrhage on the surface and base of the brain. All the other organs were normal and specimens of the stomach and blood were removed. Death in my opinion was due to shock and haemorrhage on the brain caused by multiple fractures of the skull produced by three severe impacts on the back of the head.

In reply to Supt O'Mahony, Dr McGrath stated that no medical aid could have saved deceased.

DEAD ON ADMISSION TO HOSPITAL

Dr Cusack said that he arrived at the scene of the tragedy on the night of August 30th and found deceased lying on the roadway. He was deeply unconscious and blood was coming from his left ear and there was a large bruise on the back of his head. In view of these injuries Dr Cusack said he arranged for transference to the Dungarvan Hospital, and was there with a number of medical officers from the Defence Forces and an Army Chaplain when deceased arrived at about 10.40 p.m. He was dead on admission. Witness said that he assisted Dr McGrath at the post mortem and agreed with his evidence.

ADJOURNED SINE DIE

At this stage, Superintendent O'Mahony said that this was all the evidence he was prepared to submit and asked for an adjournment to a later date.

The Coroner then adjourned the inquest sine die. Dr McCarthy then extended his deep sympathy to the relatives of the deceased soldier. He pointed out that every aid had been given to Private Daly after the occurrence but so extensive were the injuries that he could live but a short time after. He also sympathised with the Army Authorities stating that the occurrence had cast a great gloom over the town which was always most orderly and well-conducted and all the people deeply regret such a tragedy. He paid tribute to the fine orderly way the men had conducted themselves while in town and said they had endeared themselves to all.

Mr Crotty on behalf of the jury also sympathised with the relatives of the dead soldier and said that a gloom had indeed been cast over the town as a result of what happened. He also stated that the Army had been most exemplary while in the area.

Mr Dower endorsed Mr Crotty's remarks.

Supt O'Mahony, on behalf of the Authorities said he wished to be associated with the expressions of sympathy in this unfortunate occurrence. He more than any other person knew how the soldiers behaved and they had done so in a very exemplary manner which had been a credit to themselves and the homes from which they came, and the Officers placed over them had nothing to be ashamed of. That being so it was very tragic that this fine man should meet his death so suddenly. He added that everything spiritually and medically could be done, but nothing could help.

Commndt Hogan representing Col Hannon, Brigade O/C thanked all for their expressions of sympathy and also for their remarks on the good conduct of the soldiers while in Dungarvan. He also expressed sympathy with the relatives of the dead soldier.

After the inquest, the remains of Private Daly, were removed to his native Clara on a military lorry. As the coffin was carried out on the shoulders of his colleagues, it was saluted by a guard of honour. Having been conveyed to the hospital gates it was placed on a lorry draped in the National Flag. Although the day was very wet a large number of people from the town accompanied the remains along the road until the main Dungarvan-Clonmel road was reached at Ballinamuck.

Among those who attended the funeral were—Fr Smith Brigade Chaplain Fr Molunby CF Fr Quinlan, CF Commandant Hogan, Lieut Egan Lieut Lynch Engineers in charge of funeral party Capt Begley, in charge of marshalling Thos McCarthy, Chairman UDC, L A Veale UDC J Dahill UDC Senator J Butler, Chairman Co Council Ml Morrissey TD UDC, S J Moynihan Co Manager J Curran Harbour Master Patrick Walsh and Michael O'Meara, representing LSF T A Kyne, UDC and D Sullivan, representing Divisional Board G.A.A., D.T.O., Keating, Vol. W Cullinan and Coy Adit Fraher, representing LDF, etc, etc.

Mass cards were sent by Dungarvan UDC, LSF (Dungarvan Group), LSF (District Staff) and LDF.

CORRECTION

In our last issue the address of William Donoghue, one of the men charged in connection with the death of Private Daly was given wrongly as our reporter was erroneously informed. The address of Donoghue should have read 'no fixed abode but presently lodging at Mrs. Moylan's Cathal Brigha Place, Dungarvan,' not Davis Street, Dungarvan as mentioned. We regret any inconvenience and annoyance that may have been caused as a result.

A FURTHER REMAND

At the Tipperary Court, on Tuesday last, before Mr J S Troy, DJ

William Donoghue (23), tinsmith, no fixed abode, and John Donovan (29) married labourer, Cathal Brigha Place, Dungarvan were charged by Supt P O'Mahony, Dungarvan, with the wilful murder on August 30th of Private Charles Daly (23), at Crossbridge St., Dungarvan. The two accused were brought in custody from Limerick prison. Inspector McGonigal, Dungarvan deposed to arresting the two accused on August 31st, and charging them with the murder of Private Daly. Witness was still pursuing enquiries in the case.

The accused, who were not represented professionally, did not question witness.

Supt O'Mahony said the enquiries into the case were still far from complete, and he would not be in a position to submit a file to the Attorney-General before October 1st at the earliest.

The Justice remanded both the accused in custody to the Tipperary Court on September 19th.

Special Meeting

Recent Tragedy In Dungarvan

VOTE OF SYMPATHY WITH RELATIVES AND MILITARY AUTHORITIES

On Friday night last a special meeting of the Dungarvan Urban District Council was held in connection with the recent tragic occurrence in the town resulting in the death of Private Charles Daly of the Defence Forces.

Mr T McCarthy, Chairman, presided and Messrs L A Veale, Ml Morrissey, TD, T A Kyne, and J Dahill, were present. Mr S J Moynihan Co Manager and Mr Ml O'Meara, Acting Town Clerk, attended.

The Chairman stated that his object in having the meeting convened was to pass a vote of sympathy with the relatives of the late Private Daly, and also to the Army Authorities. He expressed horror at this unfortunate tragic event, and he felt he was expressing the feelings of the townspeople that such a brutal act should have occurred in the town. He paid a tribute to the deceased who was an exemplary soldier, and highly regarded by his superiors and comrades.

Mr Morrissey, voicing a similar protest paid tribute to the men of the 1st Brigade and stated that the townspeople all admired the behaviour of the men for their discipline and fine conduct whilst they were in the town.

Mr Veale joining in expressing his disgust at the crime was supported by Mr Dahill when he stated that some steps should be taken to keep those undesirable out of town.

Mr Kyne said that the men of the 1st Brigade had proved themselves fine sports who played the game at all times.

Mr Moynihan (Co Manager) on his own behalf and on behalf of the officials desired to be associated with all that had been said.

The following resolution was proposed by Mr Veale, seconded by Mr Kyne and passed unanimously—

"That we the Members of the Dungarvan Urban District Council in meeting assembled do hereby express our utmost abhorrence of the terrible tragedy resulting in the death of Private Charles Daly of the Defence Forces. That such an out-

YOUGHAL NEWS

Transport And General Workers Union—A meeting of the local committee took place in Youghal last week. Mr P Cooney, Secretary reported progress of the action taken by the Union by way of securing bonuses for the employed in Youghal and after transacting some routine business the meeting adjourned.

Summer Visitors—A large number of visitors are still coming to the Strand although the weather is not very encouraging at the moment. Still the hotels and other places of accommodation are being fully engaged.

Some improvements to the town and strand have been suggested by the Town Improvements Organisation which if carried out would help to encourage holiday-seekers from remote places to patronise the second healthiest seaside resorts in Ireland.

Bowl-Playing—The big match which had been arranged to take place on the Mount-unlacke Killeagh, road, on Sunday last had to be postponed owing to the inclemency of the weather. The contestants who were to take part were leading players of East Cork, both of whom competed in many big "scores" in the counties of Cork and Waterford, viz, Con Sexton, Myrtlegrove, Youghal, John Sexton Ballinvarrig, to play Matt Harte, Mogeely and P Mackessy, do. The event will come off on next Sunday weather permitting commencing at 3 p.m. ST. when it is anticipated that some hundreds of spectators from various parts of East Cork will avail of the opportunity of witnessing one of the greatest bowling contests held in East Cork for years.

The matches which were to take place on the Ballincurrag (Middleton) road on Sunday last were also postponed until next Sunday viz Leahy v Barry Moss v Nicholas Murnane v Fahy. All the scores will take place on Sunday next commencing in their respective venues at 3 o'clock ST.

Sale Of Land—A very important sale of land will take place in the Lisgoold district on the 21st inst when a very valuable dairy farm will be offered for sale. The farm is situated in the townland of Oldcourt, and the area is about 70 acres. The auction will be conducted by Mr Joe Rohane, Auctioneer.

Obituary—The funeral of the late Rev Mr Muller late Rector of the Coolkellure Church near Dunmanway, took place last week to the ancient Churchyard Dunmanway and was representative of all creeds and classes of the county and city of Cork. Being a reputed Gaelic scholar as already stated in our last issue many Gaelic revival enthusiasts were present. The deceased clergyman reached the fine old age of ninety-four years.

"Dungarvan Leader"—The "Dungarvan Leader" is now on sale at McGovern's, Newsagents Main Street Middleton, and in all other East Cork towns at 1 p.m. on Fridays.

Rathanning Athletic Sports—This popular annual meeting was postponed owing to weather conditions on Sunday last. Large numbers were disappointed but we all look forward to a finer day for the fixture which will be announced in the Press. A big number of competitors were on their way to Rathcannig early on Sunday from very remote places such as Fermoy, Youghal, Cork City and Carrigaline. This great annual sports was first organised under the rules by prominent East Cork Gaels many years ago.

October Time in Ireland—(This very beautiful poem is from the pen of Sister M. Brigid of the Sisters of Providence, St. Mary's of the Woods, Indiana USA. The author is a sister of Mr P. J. O'Brien the well-known Youghal historian and auctioneer.)

Sister Mary Brigid was a native of Drinagh, Dunmanway. She received her early education in the Dunmanway Convent Schools under the supervision of Sister Mary Blundin sister of the late Duke of Norfolk. The late Sister Brigid died last January at St. Mary's of the Woods, Indiana USA. She was a brilliant Gaelic scholar, and prior to her departure for the United States contributed various articles in Gaelic in the Dublin "Freeman's Journal" also to the "Irish Emerald" and "Shamrock".

'Tis Rosary Time in Ireland, And looking across the years A picture unfolds before me— 'Tis dimmed with mist of tears For sure it lacks gorgeous setting No wealth of colour it boasts But Rosary Time in Ireland Is envied by angel hosts

Ah never was rank or station Or fame of glorious deeds, As dear as the scene in Ireland When mother took down the beads And readily would I barter The trophies the years have won To kneel by that hallowed fireside When the days rough task is done

I care not for stately temples Or glamour of service grand, I'd rather one prayer in Ireland For isn't it God's own land? The smell of the turf for incense And love for the sacred light, Ah! Rosary Time in Ireland, My heart is with you tonight

GAELIC NOTES SENIOR CLUBS

(By "TADSHLINE")

The meeting of Dungarvan and Kilrossanty at Dungarvan on Sunday next in the senior football Co Championships is arousing great local interest and once again the wearers of the green and gold clash with their old but respected rivals from the "Boro". Kilrossanty are going great guns this year and they are intent on regaining lost laurels which evaded them for the past two seasons. Sunday's match should be well worth watching and from a spectators point of view it will be interesting to see how the Comeragh men with their lengthy kicking fare out against this budding championship team from Dungarvan, who favour the short snappy passing movements and wing play. I make no secret of the fact that the "Blues" are well on the road back and a junior victory recently showed that the locals are to be strongly reckoned with. In Paddy Stack Percy Butler, Terry Donnelly, Tommy Cashin, Mickey Tobin, Tom Ciancy and the elusive Percy Dillon they have young players who should show up well when backed by the experience of Barron Hosey, Mountain, Lannen Landers and the Good Bros. All those young players are gradually coming into the limelight and backed by local enthusiasm on the home venue they certainly will be a tough proposition for Tom Veale & Co. Kilrossanty are taking no chances however and Monnie McGuire and John Kett are making the journey from Kildare to don the Green and Gold. Tom Veale, Dick McGuire, Plus Dalton, P. Lynch, P. Wade, and Dykie Veale are others of a strong Comeragh team who are making the journey to the Old Boro, in quest of county honours. Mick Moloney, who trains the team says "We have a very useful fifteen and we expect them to give an outstanding display on Sunday next."

Last Sunday's senior football match Dungarvan v Nire billed for Modeligo had to be postponed on Sunday morning as the wretched weather conditions prevailing at the time would not allow the contestants to bike to the venue and under the circumstances there was no alternative but to declare the match off. At Waterford on Sunday next Mount Sion and P. H. Feaise meet in the finishing rounds of the senior hurling championships. This game should give a gee-up to the county final on Sunday week and enthusiasts citywards have rich fare in the offing.

Portlaw and the Army are presently in strict training in view of their forthcoming senior hurling Co Final clash at the Sportsfield Waterford, on Sept 17. This the first appearance of the Army in the final is creating great interest, and it is expected a record crowd will patronise the city venue to see the greatest of all finals. Mick Hickey was not at all pleased with his team's display against the locals at Dungarvan he however has informed me that he has remedied this little set back and he expects his team to be in great fettle on Co Final day.

Seen, Heard, Noted—Dungarvan club have two sets of medals or should I say one the "Wasps" I believe won the other.

Another set back to our juvenile Gaels is the transfer of Brother Rogers from Dungarvan to Caheriveen. Donal missed him at any rate and cried over the departure of his favourite.

Brickey Rangers go over the hall on Sunday next to Ardmore where they meet an Army team which will include Lieut E. Young and Lieut Minogus. Cork County players in a senior football friendly. I expect in the near future to send Michael T his medal but don't blame me for the delay Mick.

LISMORE ITEMS

Gaelic League—A public meeting was held in the Courthouse, on Sunday week for the purpose of forming a branch of the Gaelic League in the town. The large crowd present were addressed by Rev Fr Murphy, C.C. who reviewed the history of the Irish language throughout the centuries. Mr Feargus Murphy, next addressed the meeting and stressed the necessity of the use of the language in our everyday lives if it is to be the spoken language again. The meeting was also addressed by Mr P. Collins F.A.O., and Mr James Dunne, D.A.O., Lismore. The following were elected to the committee—President—Rev T. Murphy C.C., Lismore, Chairman—Mr Michael Ryan, Treas. Mr Feargus Murphy, Hon Sec. Mr James Dunne, and Mr T. Cunningham, Mr Joe Keller, and Mr J. Bennett. Ceilidhe Mor—The Ceilidhe Mor under the auspices and in aid of the local Cumann Culturdha Na h-Aiseirge which was held in the Happydrome, on last Sunday night was largely patronised by the people of Lismore and surrounding districts. Expressions of satisfaction as to the arrangements in general and as to the suitability of the splendid spacious hall for Ceilidhe dancing were to be heard on all sides. A first-class selection of Ceilidhe music was rendered by the Eire Instrumentalists Ceilidhe Band in charge of Johnny Flynn, and in passing, we think it right to pay tribute to these talented musicians who are deservedly and rapidly gaining in popularity. Dancing continued with unabated vigour until 2.30 a.m. when the playing of the National Anthem brought a most enjoyable night to a close. This was the first Ceilidhe to be held in the Happydrome and the record crowd on Sunday night attests well for all future engagements. A delightful exhibition of Irish step-dancing was given by Mr Tom Healy Lismore, and Miss M. Lyons Tallow. J. O'Brien delighted all by his singing of "Maidin in Bhearra" and as an encore sang "White, Yellow and Green". Padraig Ceitinn, Timire Ailtiri Na h-Aiseirge, Dungarvan addressed the dancers and emphasised the necessity of learning the Irish language and Irish dances. He thanked all who had contributed to the success of the Ceilidhe.

Mr Michael Ryan, proved a very efficient MC and was largely responsible for the great order maintained.

Weekly Ceilidhe—Commencing Thursday, Sept 7th a weekly Ceilidhe under the auspices of Cumann Culturdha Na h-Aiseirge will be held in the Happydrome to enable the people of the district to learn Irish dances.

Cappoquin Again—On next Sunday, Sept 10th, the old familiar cry come on the Black-an-Ambler, will again be heard in Cappoquin, when Lismore take on Camphire in the replay of the Lismore Group junior hurling final. This match has aroused great interest and an epic struggle should be witnessed. Joe Kelly has done everything in his power to get the Lismore lads in shape, and having undergone a course of intensive training, they will not hear of defeat. We expect some new faces on the Lismore fifteen on Sunday and with the return of Ed Foley to the back-line, we can safely say that their optimism is not without foundation—Lios Mor Abu!

Brother Riss, Centenary—On Tuesday, Sept 5th, Solemn High Mass was celebrated in St. Carthage's Church Lismore, in connection with the centenary of Bro Edmund Ignatius Rice. The celebrant was Rev Father Murphy, C.C. Deacon, Rev Fr Dowley, P.P. Ballyduff sub-deacon Rev Fr M. J. Walsh (past-pupil of Lisraois CBS) Master of Ceremonies Rev Fr Dunphy, C.C. Cappoquin. In the choir were—Very Rev Canon Walsh, P.P. V.F. Lisraois Very Rev M. C. Crotty P.P. V.F. Cahill, Rev Fr Flynn P.P. Knockanore Rev Fr O'Riordan D.Sc. (past-pupil, Lisraois CBS), Pev Fr Meehan, C.C. Among the Christian Brothers present were—Rev Bro M. Meers Superior Mitchelstown Rev Bro McGovern, Superior Lisraois Rev Bro Archbold Superior, Youghal Rev Bro Reynolds Superior, Fermoy, Rev Bro Murray, Superior, Dungarvan, Rev Bro Kelly, Lisraois Rev Bro Brady, do, Rev Bro Murphy do Rev Bro O'Connor Youghal, Rev Bro O'Sullivan, Mt Sion, and Rev Bro O'Connor, do. The main choir, which consisted of past and present pupils of the CBS Lisraois, in charge of Mrs K. O'Connell Lisraois rendered the Gregorian chant. The sermon was preached by Rev Fr W. O'Riordan, D.Sc. a past pupil of the Lisraois schools.

Tallow & Moorehill Notes

Annual Horse Fair—The annual horse fair was held on Monday last, and was up to the average of former years. We have often seen a larger fair, and the standard was not up to pre-war days, but nevertheless a very large number of horses were on view in which all classes of horse-flesh were represented. The heavy type of farm horse was much in demand and sold at remunerative prices. On the whole a big number of sales were effected with prices about average. Some good prices were realised for first-class hunters but not many were on offer. Well-known buyers were in attendance from Clones, Dublin, Cork, Waterford, Burturbet, Malrow, Knockloag, Clonmel, Bandon, and many other centres. The highlight of the later day were the numerous transactions of travelling fraternity, which were followed with much interest by the civilian population. The various deals between them were good-humoured ones, as they jockeyed and abused each other, and in the end the deal was transacted to the satisfaction of all concerned. Horse fair day is a kind of re-union, and many who meet only annually renew old acquaintances over the cup that cheers, or perhaps something stronger, there to recount to one another the news and stories of the past 12 months. Towards evening, perhaps there is a little sing-song, they are now in a merry mood, then comes the parting of the ways. And so ends another horse fair.

Enjoyable Cinderella—A very enjoyable Cinderella was held at the Cinema Hall on Horse Fair night, and was attended by a very large crowd from all the surrounding districts. Despite a very large attendance the best of order prevailed and all enjoyed every moment of the time. The promoters are to be complimented on its success as all arrangements were perfect. The music was provided by the well-known Brideside Serenaders Dance Band. This band is now an established word wherever social functions are held and their bookings this season has established a new record.

Congratulations—We wish to extend on behalf of their many friends, hearty congratulations to Misses Patricia and Vera Beecher on their success in the recent Leaving and Matriculation examinations respectively. Both young ladies are daughters of Mr and Mrs J. M. Beecher, West Street and students of the Mercy Convent Carick-on-Suir.

Annual Retreat—The Annual Retreat for the community of St. Joseph's Carmelite Convent which closed recently, was conducted by Rev Father Benignus O.C.C. Dublin.

Well Done Portlairge—We extend our hearty congratulations to the Portlairge Camogie team on their victory over Tlobrad Araun at Lisraois on Sunday last, under climatic conditions which would make some of our prominent hurlers shudder. The victory was all the more meritorious when it is remembered that the majority of the camogie clubs have only been in existence for a couple of months but they certainly rose to the occasion and showed what determination and the will to win can do.

Ballyduff v Knockanore—The meeting of the above teams in the camogie championship at the local venue is arousing keen interest and a great game is anticipated. Players from both clubs were very prominent in Sunday's inter-county match and will be all out to bring back honours to their respective parishes. The fixture was provisionally made for Sunday next, but up to the time of writing we have not been able to ascertain whether the fixture stands or not. The local Gaels will have the pitch in apple-pie order so all who want to send a pleasant evening's enjoyment should make Tallow their venue on Sunday next.

since Sunday week. Reports from the various threshing operations say that the yield is well up to the average of former years.

Water Mains Test—Recently a further test was made by the County Fire Brigade Chief Mr K. McGrath and his assistants, of the water mains pressure, and also a close inspection of all hydrants. The latter were found to be functioning perfectly, but the water mains leave much to be desired, especially in the western, eastern and southern sections.

Lisraois Area Replay—A very large crowd will fill the "Cornerstone" town on Sunday next, when Lisraois and Camphire replay the area final. On their first outing Camphire were successful by the smallest of margins after a really first-class game. On Sunday next Lisraois will be all out to reverse this verdict, while Camphire will be all out to repeat it. Both teams are fielding out at full strength so a great game is assured.

Conna's Victory—At the Rathcoamac venue on Sunday week, Conna and Castlelyons met to decide the issue in the East Cork B Grade hurling championship and a really first-class game was the result. The teams were well matched and from the start it was score for score. First Conna led then Castlelyons, and vice-versa, and at the end of a grand and sporting game the score board read—Conna 6-5, Castlelyons 5-3. For the winners M. Byrne, M. Beecher, A. Cronin, and T. Browne, were outstanding, while T. Meade, J. Mulcany, J. Keller, and J. Buckley, were best for the losers.

Cork's Victory—Cork scored a decisive victory over Dublin in the All-Ireland hurling final on Sunday last. Listening-in to Michael O'Fithrin's fine running commentary, it looked as if Dublin were never in the picture after 20 minutes play. Cork have now won the All-Ireland 15 times in all, and four years in succession which constitutes a record which will take some beating.

Moorehill Sports—All arrangements are now being completed for the holding of the postponed fixture on Sunday week, and we wish to remind competitors that entries for the first meeting hold good, and there is no need to enter again. A grand Ceilidhe Mor will be held on Sports night when we hope to see a record crowd present from all the surrounding districts.

Removal of Travel Ban—Since the removal of the ban a number of our exiled friends have visited us which includes Mr and Mrs. James McGrath, Dunmoon, Mr. T. Hancock, and Mr. J. McNamara, Tallow. We were delighted to see them all looking so fit and well, and we extend to them a hearty cordial mile falline.

The Light Problem—The announcement by the Minister for Supplies that each householder is to receive a gallon of oil in September has been received with much satisfaction in all country districts where, since the shortening of the days we have been in a sorry plight. This coupled with the shortage of lamp batteries, has made life very dull and dreary in the country districts. In some parts of the country they tell us cycle batteries can easily be obtained, but in Tallow they are practically unobtainable. And by the way we heard that for want of a light some of the boys went astray lately and were out nearly all night, but perhaps we will tell you that story, some other time.

The Blackberry Season—All over the countryside the blackberry harvest is in full swing, and young and old are busily engaged at this very remunerative work. At present prices good pickers earn an average of 10/- a day, which is considered very satisfactory. The recent heavy rains has destroyed a large portion of the crop, and a return of favourable weather is eagerly looked forward to.

Successful Examination—We offer our congratulations to Master D. O'Shea, son of Guard D. and Mrs O'Shea, Chapel St., on his success in passing his intermediate examination with honours. His many friends join in congratulating him, and wishing him further success as the years roll by.

Local Tit-Bits—We hear one of the boys is diligently looking for a "cage" though by the look of things he hasn't got the "bird" yet.

Between two stools you come to the ground, and after Sunday night, one of the "sly boys" is in for a hard bump—Tough luck!

West Waterford Divisional Board G.A.A.

A special meeting of the Western Board G.A.A. was held at Egan's Hotel, on Friday night last, Sept 1st Mr M Connors, Chairman, presiding. Also present were—Messrs T A. Kyne Secretary; T Mahony Treas., D Sullivan W Barron, and P Ryan Clubs represented were—Ballycoe Slabh gCua, Mahon Ramblers Tourin, Eire Oge Cathal Brughas and Dungarvan. Only club delegates and officials were allowed attend he meeting which dealt with a number of objections.

Tourin v St Mochuda's

The first objection dealt with was Tourin against the awarding of the minor football match to St. Mochuda's. The grounds stated were (1) that the list of players was deceptive and misleading as Ml. Curran played although not listed, and (2) that three of the St. Mochuda's team were over age.

Mr John Fives was the Tourin delegate, and the St Mochuda's club was not represented.

The Chairman said that he had been speaking to the Chairman of the St Mochuda's club who admitted that two of the players who took part in the match were wrong. The club knew the penalty and are satisfied to let the match go to Tourin. The two players were suspended for 12 months and the Chairman, Secretary, and Captain of the club were suspended for 2 years.

Replay

The venue for the replay of the junior football match between Mahon Ramblers and Stradbally was fixed provisionally for Leamybrien, on September 17th, provided the clubs failed to agree to some other venue. Mr P Dalton, was appointed referee.

Ballycoe Win Objection But Dungarvan Appeal

The Ballycoe junior football club objected to Dungarvan being awarded the junior football championship match played at Dungarvan, on Aug 27th last, on the grounds (1) That the Dungarvan team was illegally constituted as Joseph Duggan, did not play although listed, and (2) That T Clancy's name did not appear on the list although he played.

The rule quoted was rule 94 page 91 O G.

Messrs M Fives H Foley and E Foley were the Ballycoe delegates, and Messrs J O'Dea, and P Lannen represented the Dungarvan club.

Prior to the hearing of the objection J O'Dea made a suggestion that the Ballycoe club withdraw the objection as they had won the hurling and Dungarvan the football, and as they were neighbours he did not like any ill-feeling to be created from what he saw he thought that neither club would go any further in the championship and he appealed to the sportsmanship of the Ballycoe club to withdraw.

M Fives said he was sorry but the club could not withdraw the objection.

On Mr Kyne's suggestion at this point the referee's report was amended to include the name of J Hogan who was injured in the last minute of the match.

When asked to support his case, M Fives said that all he had to say was that Duggan did not play.

Chairman—There are only 15 players listed and someone must have taken his place. What proof have you?

M Fives—I saw Duggan on the sideline at the match, and Tom Clancy played centre-forward. I know both of them.

Chairman—Tom Clancy's name is not on the list.

J O'Dea—I admit that after Ballycoe have given their proof. The rule quoted says that duplicate lists of players and subs be handed to the referee before the match. Our list was handed to the referee before the match and we complied with the rule.

Chairman—But it was a wrong list.

J O'Dea—The word 'wrong' does not appear in the rule.

Chairman—Your list does not show Clancy's name and he played.

M Fives—That argument is only petty!

J O'Dea—The Ballycoe man says it's petty. Maybe it is, but he did not quote the right rule.

M Fives—We could have six objections in but we did not wish to take up the Board's time. Anyway we got very short notice of this meeting.

Chairman—You had all the week.

J O'Dea—If you decide against us we still have seven days to counter-object, Ballycoe have only 15 names on their list and no subs although they played two.

Chairman—I hold this list is wrong.

J O'Dea—On what grounds—the rule does not say so.

Chairman—You have not abided by the rules.

J O'Dea—Did we comply with rule 94 page 91?

Chairman—You did not. You must hand over the list of players you are playing.

J O'Dea then quoted the rule "A list of players in duplicate with substitutes."

Chairman—You did not give a correct list and I have given my ruling.

J O'Dea—What is the penalty on that rule?

Chairman—There is no penalty.

M Fives—The question is whether Dungarvan team was legal.

P Lannen—It was quite legal.

J O'Dea—What is your ruling, Mr Chairman?

Chairman—Don't rush me. At this point the Chairman and Secretary conferred with each other.

J O'Dea—I would like the Secretary to make a note of the fact that the Chairman is looking for assistance.

M Fives—Mr Chairman, was Dungarvan illegal?

J O'Dea—There is only one rule quoted and that is all we can discuss. We don't want to raise any antagonism!

The Ballycoe delegates then went through the rule book and submitted rule 127 page 103 in support of their case.

Chairman—On that rule the Dungarvan team has been proved illegal and according to that Ballycoe are entitled to the match.

J O'Dea—I wish to give notice of appeal to the Co Board on the ground that the Chairman ruled on a rule not quoted in the objection.

Chairman—Don't keep us here all night, we don't want to listen to any speeches.

J O'Dea—You don't have to be afraid about it!

Chairman—I'm not afraid.

The Secretary then stated that the matter was closed.

Kilmacthomas Win Objection

Kilmacthomas junior hurling club objected to Eire Oge for playing an illegal player who was not registered on the team which played on August 20th.

E Fitzgerald, the Eire Oge delegate admitted the fact and said they would counter-object.

The Chairman ruled that the match be awarded to Kilmacthomas.

Linesman Abused

Mr D Sullivan referee of the Ballycoe v Dungarvan junior hurling match stated in his report that J. Elsted one of the linesmen had reported a Dungarvan player for abusing him.

The referee said that the linesman gave a wrong decision and he was challenged by the player and an argument started.

The Chairman said that this put a different complexion on the case.

The referee was asked if he reversed the decision and he said that he didn't.

The Chairman said that referees should be more careful in appointing linesmen and umpires.

D Sullivan—I got one from each side.

The Chairman said that this was wrong as club men are always inclined to give decisions in favour of their own team.

It was decided that the player in question be asked for an apology and that he be warned that the suspension for this offence is 12 months.

Secretary's Remarks

The Secretary said that the meeting had been called to facilitate clubs and he took exception to the remarks of the Ballycoe delegate about being rushed. The Board could not be blamed if a club were to lose an objection through faulty wording.

He also said that in future when players were being registered that the date would have to be put after each name. Due to the non-co-operation of the clubs concerned who had put in counter-objections no fixtures could be made. He said that this was pure cussedness.

P Ryan, suggested that by-law 6 be carried out and that an objection committee be set up for the rest of the season.

It was decided to put this matter and also the formation of a fixtures committee on the agenda for the next meeting which was fixed for Cappoquin on September 8th.

Votes Of Sympathy

Mr Kyne proposed on behalf of the Western Board G.A.A. that a vote of sympathy be extended to the relatives of the late Private Daly who died as a result of an assault on Wednesday night August 30th. He said that Private Daly had attended a match at the Gaelic Field that night and the 1st Brigade had

Valuable Presentation To A Popular Cappoquin Man In Cork

(From our Cappoquin Correspondent)

A most interesting function was recently held at the Cork group Insurance Offices of the 'Yorkshire, Commercial of Ireland' and 'Celtic when Mr B F Doyle, Agency Inspector of the 'Commercial Insurance Company of Ireland, Ltd' was made the recipient of a valuable silver writing set on his retirement on pension from the above important position.

In making the presentation Mr George Exshaw Group Manager, said the staff felt that they could not let the occasion of Mr Doyle's retirement pass without paying tribute to the esteem in which he was held by all at the office, and their deep regret that the 'Age Limit' had now severed his long and honourable association with them.

He added that Mr Doyle was regarded with such affection in the Dublin Office that several of the members there had insisted in participating in this presentation, and the entire staff and himself now wished Mr Doyle many years of peace and tranquility to enjoy his well earned pension in his regretted retirement.

Mr E J Blake local manager, 'Commercial of Ireland Association,' referred to Mr Doyle's long and active insurance career during which he had earned not alone the goodwill and confidence of his employers but also that of the insuring public as well. All would now miss his genial personality, his witty reminiscences and his charming and willing readiness to render assistance, when any knotty problems had arisen, by his shrewd and experienced advice.

Concluding Mr. Blake paid tribute to Mr Doyle's sterling work in putting the 'Commercial of Ireland' in the foremost ranks of Insurance Offices operating in Munster and he expressed his personal sorrow that the 'March of Time' had now called a halt to his tireless and energetic progress while in office.

Mr O'Regan 'Yorkshire' Inspector, and Mr Riordan 'Celtic' Inspector also spoke in most appreciative terms of Mr Doyle's high qualities, and his long and faithful services and fully endorsed all that Mr Blake had said about him.

Other speeches having followed on somewhat similar lines Mr Doyle in replying stated that he and his family would always treasure this gift as a memento of the happy days he had spent in the office, and he was very grateful for all the nice remarks made by the previous speakers, for which he expressed his most sincere thanks.

He added that the Company had always treated him very kindly and generously, but he only expected this because in all their dealings with the public they had always acted in the most decent and straightforward manner by always paying claims with promptitude and liberality in recommending the placing of Insurances with the Company he had always felt that he was doing the Insurers a service and he would continue to do so in the future even though he was no longer on the "active list," (applause)

Mr B F Doyle referred to above is a native of Cappoquin and is married to an esteemed Cappoquin lady, formerly Miss Emma Glasse. He was for many years employed as accountant and book-keeper in the firm of the late Mr John Stanley, draper and hardware merchant Cappoquin, but on the latter's death he and his wife and most of his family went to reside in Cork city where he has since been prominently associated with the Insurance business. He was for over 30 years the able hon secretary of the Cappoquin Rowing Club and was mainly instrumental in having the present fine Boat-house and dance hall erected done everything to help the local clubs since their advent. He also expressed sympathy to the Army Authorities and the Board's shame at what happened. He said that he had anticipated the Board's wishes in sending a Mass card and paid tribute to the way the men had behaved while in Dungarvan, saying that they were a credit to the Army and the country.

Votes of sympathy were also passed with John Elsted and Sean O'Brien on their recent bereavements.

The Chairman endorsed the Secretary's remarks and the votes were passed in silence all and as a mark of appreciation and gratitude for his invaluable services to the club an enlarged photograph of him was hung in the main hall of the club within the past year.

He is father of Mr Wm H Doyle photographer etc Cappoquin who is faithfully following in his father's footsteps by now efficiently filling the important position of hon secretary of the Rowing Club while his other sons resident in Cork Davy, 'Nick' and Batt, have all been prominently identified with the leading Rowing Clubs in Cork for many years.

His numerous old friends and associates of "boyhood's years" in Cappoquin now heartily congratulate him on the happy termination of a long career of honourable and fruitful service in the insurance profession, and all will now heartily join in wishing him the best of luck good fortune and good health, together with length of years, to enjoy his well-earned retirement in the beautiful city on the banks of the lovely Lee!

Camogie Inter-County Match

WATERFORD'S SENSATIONAL WIN OVER TIPPERARY

(From Our Cappoquin Correspondent)

Playing in their tie in the Munster Camogie Championship Tipperary v Waterford met in Lismore on last Sunday evening under most unfavourable weather conditions.

After a dull and drizzly afternoon, it was felt at one time that the match could not be played, but, true to their traditional spirit of sportsmanship, the Waterford team which was composed of players from Dungarvan Clashmore Cappoquin, Knockanore Ballyduff etc bravely travelled from their respective districts and were the first to arrive in Lismore.

Rev W Flynn, P.P. Knockanore President of the Waterford Co Board, headed the Waterford team and by his presence, and inspiration, infused a spirit of confidence in his players, which, no doubt helped them in no small way to their great victory, which followed.

Having to travel through a rather dense fog over the Knockmealdown mountains it was sometime later when the Co Tipperary players arrived in charge of Rev M B Morrissey P.P. Clogheen, President of the Co Tipperary Camogie Board all of whom received a most cordial greeting from Father Flynn and the members of the waiting Waterford team.

In view of the fact that Camogie has been seriously taken up in West Waterford only within the past couple of months, (there being no teams in East Waterford, below Dungarvan), little hope was felt that a comparatively 'green' team like this could possibly hold an experienced team like Tipperary many of whose members had been engaged in inter-county matches since 1942.

Still with the hope which always "springs eternal within the human breast" the young Waterford ladies were not a bit dismayed by the stiff task which they believed lay before them, and proceeded to the Gaelic Field with such an unconquerable spirit as made their hitherto pessimistic supporters become quite optimistic.

Arrived at the venue it was then found that owing to the inclement weather Tipperary were unable to muster their full team as they had only nine players available instead of 12 so this meant that Waterford had to drop three of their players, which led to a number of positional changes from the places already allotted to the full team of twelve.

With only nine aside the game was then started, but it had not been long in progress when it became evident that Tipperary were not going to have matters so easy as their previous record had suggested.

Waterford fought them with great vigour and judgment, and never let them get away with the game, and after some brilliant play both sides turned over at half time on level terms with two goals each, which gave the Waterford supporters fresh heart.

Contrary to Tipperary expectations it was practically all Waterford's game in the second half as they gave Tipperary only one goal and adding four to their half-time score Waterford won a brilliant and most sensational victory on the fine score of

WATERFORD TIPPERARY 6-0 3-0

For the winners Miss Biddy McGrath Dungarvan (Capt of the team), was easily the most brilliant player for Waterford, and she was ably supported by Miss Biddy McCarthy Cappoquin Miss Curran Clashmore the Misses A McGrath, and P Neville, Knockanore and the Misses M Scanlan (goal), Ballyduff and N Hennessy do, while the other members acquitted themselves so brilliantly that they did not give the Tipperary 'veterans' a chance from start to finish of the game.

Mr Jim Byrne, Lismore, proved an able and impartial referee.

Rev Fr Morrissey, P.P. and the members of the Tipperary team and their supporters were subsequently entertained to tea by the Waterford team, when felicitous speeches were made by Father Flynn and Father Morrissey and members of both teams after which a most hospitable and enjoyable time was spent by all for some hours.

The Waterford team will next meet Limerick in Mallow on a date to be fixed when we hope our young Co-Waterford ladies will be able to acquit themselves as brilliantly against the representatives of the County of the Treaty Stone as they did against the valiant ladies of gallant Tipperary on last Sunday.

CAMOGIE

CAPPOQUIN'S DOUBLE VICTORY OVER LISMORE

Under most depressing weather conditions the members of the Cappoquin Camogie team cycled to Lismore on last Monday evening to play Lismore in return for the latter's visit to Cappoquin a fortnight ago, when Cappoquin won their first match since the formation of their club by 2 goals 1 point against 1 goal for Lismore.

Several changes had been made in the Cappoquin team, while Lismore played practically the same team as on the first occasion.

Although the ground was greasy and treacherous, and control of the ball was very difficult still both teams gave a very smart and stylish display, the Lismore ladies showing far better speed and combination than they had done in the first game.

Against this, the changes in the Cappoquin team had proved a decided advantage and they always seemed to have complete mastery of the game, although they were severely tested by Lismore on several occasions.

There was a fairly good crowd present, and all enjoyed as fast and brilliant a game as the weather conditions would permit but try as they would Lismore could never get the mastery of their faster and more expert opponents so that Cappoquin proved very worthy winners of a great game on the final score of 1 goal 1 point, to 1 goal for Lismore.

In view of this close and exciting finish we should like to see another match between these teams so perhaps, the Lismore young ladies may be agreeable to pay a return visit to Cappoquin on some evening in the near future, when they can be assured of receiving a warm greeting, and absolute fair play in the fine sportsfield in Cappoquin, where the general arrangements are always the best.

Mr Joe O'Donnell, Cappoquin H.C. refereed the match in his usually courteous and strictly impartial manner.

WORTH WHILE

THE recommendations of the special Scholarships Committee at their meeting held in Dungarvan on Monday last should meet with all round approval, and we hope that the parent body will endorse these recommendations. The provision of Secondary and Vocational Scholarships is a praiseworthy undertaking, as it provides opportunities for pupils of a high standard of intelligence but whose means would not otherwise allow, to pursue their studies and carve outstanding careers for themselves

Very often it is the boy or girl from the lowly home who when given a chance proves a guiding light to all in later years

We congratulate the Committee on their recommendations in bringing within the scope of these people the opportunity of proving themselves

SILVER JUBILEE SOUVENIR OF IRELAND'S PRESS AND PRINTING

The special number of Ireland's Press and Printing, official Journal of the Associated Irish Newspapers and Irish Master Printers Association, to celebrate the Silver Jubilee of the founding of these organisations has just come to hand. Beautifully printed and produced it contains histories of the activities of the Associations since their foundation in 1918

A special section "Who's Who in Press and Print" contains photographs and brief biographies of the Editors and Managerial heads of Ireland's leading Provincial Newspapers. Among these the only paper in County Waterford mentioned is the "Dungarvan Leader" which is affiliated with both Associations and Mr John B Nagle, Manager, and co-proprietor with Mr John J Troy, and Mr M C Nagle Editor, are mentioned

It is to be hoped that the object of this section which is stated in its foreword "to forge a link of closer friendship" among members who are scattered over the four provinces, will be achieved

The book which is made up of 136 pages contains grand reading for those in the printing trade and reflects the highest credit to the publishers and all others concerned for the magnificent manner in which it is turned out

CHARITY DANCE

The people of the town should make it a point to attend the dance run by the Dungarvan District Welfare Committee at the Town Hall, Dungarvan, on tonight (Friday, Sept 8th). The entire proceeds of the dance will be handed over to the dependents of the late Private Charles Daly who died as a result of an assault on August 30th last. Those non-dancers who will not attend the dance should show their sympathy in a practical way by at once purchasing tickets either at Messrs James Walsh's, Mary St, Cunniffe's Main St or Alice O'Flynn's The Square. In this way the townspeople will be able to make up in some way the terrible loss sustained by the Daly family

Besides being run for so deserving a cause the dance as usual will be well worth attending as it will be a great success

SUCCESSFUL DANCE

Despite the most unfavourable weather conditions dancers came to Ballinacoola National School on Sunday night last in great numbers to support the dance which was run by a special Committee in aid of Parochial purposes. Late Mr. Edmond Ryan, Abbeyside

Widespread and very sincere regret has been occasioned by the death after a short illness of but a few weeks duration of Mr Edmond Ryan, Sexton St, Abbeyside, one of the most popular and honest members of the community. His death, which took place at his residence on Wednesday last Sept 6th, at an early age, has been the cause of great grief to his wife and family

Ned, as he was familiarly known by all, possessed a genial and humorous character, and was a favourite with all whose pleasure it was to know him. A sound, hard-working farmer, he was ever ready to lend a helping hand, and he will be sorely missed from amongst us. A great card player, he was a regular patron of the drives at the Scouts' Den, at Abbeyside and the card-playing fraternity will regret his vacant chair when the winter "drives" commence again

To his widow, sons and daughter, as well as to his other relatives the sincere sympathy of the community is extended.

On Thursday evening the remains accompanied by one of the largest corteges seen in the village for some time were removed to Abbeyside Parish Church and the funeral to Killinon graveyard will take place today (Friday) at 2 pm

The immediate chief mourners were—Mrs Margaret Ryan (widow), Patrick, Jimmie, and Martin (sons) Noreen Ryan (daughter) Mrs P. Ryan (daughter-in-law), Messrs. Tom and James Ryan (brothers)

A large number of Mass cards and messages of sympathy were received

The Coroner expressed his sympathy with the relatives of the deceased, remarking that it was a sad thing to see a boy of 22 taken suddenly away through no fault of his own

Scholarships Committee Meets

RECOMMENDATIONS TO CO COUNCIL

Senator John Butler Chairman Co Council, presided at a meeting of the Scholarships Committee held at the Court-house, Dungarvan, on Monday last. Also present were—Messrs M. Morrissey, T.D., M.C.C., L.A. Veale, M.C.C., M.F. Walsh, do, M. Harty, do, Rev. Fr Magee, B.A., O.S.A., St. Augustine's Seminary, Rev. Bro Murray Superior, C.B.S., and Mr M. Brennock I.N.T.O.

Mr T. B. Boyle, Acting Secretary County Council, attended Memorandum On Formulation of Scheme

The first item on the agenda was to hear the views of the teaching profession on the Memorandum of the Dept of Education in connection with the formulation of Scholarship schemes. The memorandum contained twenty-eight paragraphs.

Prior to the start, the Chairman welcomed the representatives of the teaching profession and voiced the hope that with their aid they would be able to make schemes better than those in operation before.

Dealing with the memorandum, Father Magee said he deemed it a step towards bureaucraty and State control of education, and that it killed all local initiative. They were only there to fill up a few minor details as the scheme in the main had already been formed by Act of Law. He said the same views were expressed in the recent report of the Commission on Vocational Organisation, and all pointed towards the Government taking over complete control.

Mr. Brennock said that all they could recommend was the fixing of the number and amounts of the scholarships. He said his organisation had discussed the matter, but he now found that these matters were already fixed in the memorandum.

The Chairman said that the new enactment did not alter the existing scheme very much.

Means Test
Referring to the means test Mr. Brennock said that the memorandum laid it down as necessary. His organisation could put up a good argument against it.

Secretary—It is the Council's wish to have a means test. At present it is £40 valuation for farming and £300 income for others than farmers. This is roughly applied to people with four in family and for families under that number there was an increase of £5 valuation and £20 income for each child.

Mr Magee suggested that the existing figures stand and Mr. Brennock asked that they be reduced.

Bro Murray said that the figures were very generous as compared with other counties. The Secretary read the figures for other counties and pointed out that the Waterford ones were almost the highest.

Mr. Veale—If you go any further the Minister may not sanction.

Finally it was agreed to recommend a basic salary of £300 and valuation of £70 with an increase of £20 in salary and £5 in valuation for each child.

Concerning the number to be awarded, the Secretary said that the Council were awarding eight at £20 for those residing under four miles from the school chosen and £25 for those residing more than that distance away.

Mr. Morrissey proposed that the number be increased to ten. Fr Magee—£25 is too low for a Boarding School, and as the value will depend on the number I suggest six, leaving the value for day schools at the present figures and increasing that for Boarding Schools to £40.

Fr. Magee further stated that the present scheme is against the country boy and a scholarship at the existing figures is dearly bought as a boy may be a wreck for life afterwards.

Mr. Morrissey suggested that where a child had to reside in a town to attend a secondary day school or a residential college the figures should be increased to £35.

Fr. Magee objected to boys and girls coming to a town to attend a school and going into lodgings without supervision stating that it was contrary to Catholic teaching.

The Chairman suggested a £20 Scholarship for those residing within 4 miles of a school, £25 for over 4 miles, and £30 for over 8 miles.

An around increase of £5 was suggested by Mr. Morrissey, i.e. £25 for under four miles £30 for four to eight miles and £35 for over eight miles for pupils according to their places of residence from the secondary school which they decide to attend.

The meeting then agreed to recommend this scale to the Co Council and also that the number of Scholarships to be awarded be increased to ten.

Concerning the examination Fr Magee said it was unfair to put primary and secondary pupils on the same basis. The pupils of the secondary schools who qualify in age have a decided advantage over boys and girls in rural areas he said.

Mr Brennock—We discussed that at our meeting and decided that the fairest way was to give half to the towns and half to the country schools.

Finally it was recommended that the ten scholarships be equally divided five for schools with two teachers or less in the county and the rest for the urban schools, provided a sufficient number of pupils qualify in each division, failing this the unawarded scholarships in any division will be granted to the pupils next highest on the order of merit.

Concerning the residential qualification it was decided that parents or guardians must be bona fide residents in the functional area of the Co Council on 1st October preceding the examination.

Scholarship in Veterinary Science.

The question of providing a scholarship in the faculty of Agriculture was next discussed. Mr Harty said that there was no such faculty at Cork University only one in Dairy Science.

After discussion it was decided to recommend the granting of such a scholarship tenable at University College, Dublin.

Fr Magee recommended that the Co Council grant a scholarship in Veterinary Science as Veterinary Surgeons are badly needed while most of the other professions were overcrowded. He understood that a place at the College would have to be booked two years in advance and then through the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons London, even though the College in Dublin was under the Department of Agriculture.

The recommendation was accepted and the meeting concluded when the Chairman thanked the delegates from the teaching professions for their help and advice on the matters discussed and said that he knew as a result the schemes will all be improved.

Kilmacthomas And District News

Wedding Balls—Congratulations are cordially extended to Mr and Mrs Patrick Kiliwan on the occasion of their marriage which happy event was solemnised at Ballybricken Parish Church on Monday of last week. The bridegroom is elder son of Mrs E. Thompson Currahaha Kilmacthomas and his bride is only daughter of Mr and Mrs Manning Roanmore, Waterford. The ceremony with Nuptial Mass was performed by Ven. Archdeacon Kelliher, P.P. V.F. Ballybricken.

Pretty Wedding At Stradbally—A very pretty wedding of great local interest was solemnised at Stradbally Parish Church on Monday morning last when two well known members of Mid and East Waterford families were united in holy matrimony. The contracting parties were Mr Edward (Ted) Gater of Ballybricken and Eileen O'Neill eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs John O'Neill Tracey's Hill, Kilmacthomas. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass was performed by Rev. E. English, P.P. Stradbally. The bride who was given away by her father, looked charming in a navy two-piece with pink trimming and navy accessories, and was assisted by Miss Della McGrath, Millbrook Terrace, Kilmacthomas who also looked charming. Mr Michael O'Neill (brother of the bride) acted as bestman.

The bride is a very attractive young lady of renowned popularity, and is widely respected for her graciousness of manner. The groom, who is equally well-known is a gentleman of many fine manly qualities and was until recently employed by Irish Shipping Ltd, and is now the proprietor of a very successful business establishment in his native city.

After the ceremony the party motored to the home of the bride where a reception was held and at which a large number of guests attended. Later in the day the happy couple left for Cork where the honeymoon is being spent. Both were the recipients of numerous, costly and serviceable wedding gifts. We join with their hosts of friends in wishing, the newlyweds good luck and happiness.

Successful Ceilidhe At Kill—A very successful ceilidhe under the auspices of the Newtown Junior football club was held at Baldwin's Hall, Kill, on Sunday night last. The music was supplied by the Social Ceilidhe Band, and dancing continued until 3 a.m. We are glad to record that Irish dancing is becoming very popular in Kill and that the Irish Classes that were held there during last winter will be resumed there in a short time.

Dance At Faha—The first dance held in the new hall at Faha on Sunday night last was a most enjoyable function. Mr Paddy O'Shea, who is responsible for this and many other social functions held in Faha recently is to be congratulated. Mr O'Shea is now Platoon Leader of the new L.D.F. Platoon in Faha.

G.A.A. News—A heavy storm accompanied by torrential rain prevented delegates from Kilmac' junior hurling club from attending the Western Divisional Board meeting held at Dungarvan on Friday night last. This however, did not prevent the Board from awarding the Kilmacthomas v. Eire Oge match to Kilmacthomas. After the news of the Board's decision arrived in Kilmac' a special meeting was held at which a new programme of training was devised. Sergt. John O'Dowd Army Instructor, Kilmac' has been appointed trainer of the team, and is certainly wasting no time in doing a good job.

Rumour now has it that Eire Oge have put in a counter-objection.

Kilrossanty senior football team after a fortnight's hard training are in great trim for their match with Dungarvan at the Gaelic Field Dungarvan on Sunday next while Stradbally minors are confident of victory when they meet the Dungarvan minors at the same venue and on the same date.

Union To Be Formed In Stradbally District—An initial meeting of the farm labourers and workers of Stradbally district was held in Stradbally on Tuesday last. It was decided to apply for membership of the Amalgamated Transport and General Workers Union. An acting chairman, Secretary and Committee were elected pending a full meeting when branch is formed. T. A. Kynne Sec. Dungarvan and members from that Branch attended.

Western Divisional G.A.A. Notes

(By AN RUNAIDHE)

Brickies Meet The Army—At Ardmore on Sunday next the Brickie Rangers senior football team play an Army selection which includes such prominent players as Lieuts E. Young and Minogue. The Army lads have a team entered in the Co. Cork championships and will turn out at full strength to have a real try out against the Brickies. Martin Curran is again all out to make a come-back and hopes to have a big say in the championships in 1945. We all welcome this new outlook in the Rangers camp.

Div Board Meeting—Another meeting of the Divisional Board will be held in Cappoquin on Sunday next at 6.15 p.m. (immediately after the matches). This meeting will deal with the Knockanore objection and any other counter-objections that may be lodged. It was intended to hold this on Friday, but certain circumstances prevented this and Sunday has now been selected. Clubs please note date venue and time as this notice must be taken as official.—T. A. O' Cadhain Runaidhe, West Div Board.

The above has been inserted over the name and at the instructions of the Div Sec.

Ring Tournament—The Ring Committee desire to express their regret to those who had intended visiting Ring for the game on Sunday last. It is now hoped to play the fixture abandoned on Sunday last due to rain on 17th Sept. or some other game if these teams cannot field.

Camphire Confident—The replay of Camphire v. Lismore at Cappoquin on Sunday is the big attraction of the day. I have just received word from Camphire which gives promise of victory for that team. Here is an extract from it: "We have a big selection and will have a good young team whose weight and experience coupled with first-time pulling plus confidence got from their last victory will win the day." How is that Bob for putting your boys in the headlines!

Lismore Quite—Lismore hurlers are quite if I were Camphire I would be more afraid of this than if they talked a lot. This hush-hush policy may mean anything, but one thing I am sure of is it means nothing soft for Camphire.

Before the junior game St. Michael's meet Geosh Emmetts in a minor hurling tie.

Mick Regan a few days ago Mick asks me to deny the talks that was going around that he had been hurt. We are all glad that Mick is still in his usual good health and hoping to be home soon again.

For Refs.—Sorry I forgot to answer the question I put last Friday week. The answer as you will have found from the rule book is—He could kick the ball twice.

Try This One! In hurling a goalman misses the puck out and then lifts the ball on his hurley and hits it. Is it foul or not?

Aiseirghe Ag Bruhadh Ar Aghaidh.

The result of the Aiseirghe campaign is now becoming evident in the number of new recruits coming forward in Co. Portlargo. More workers and funds are what we now require—yes but more and more efficiency in the organisation itself. Slipshod methods of work are no longer excusable.

"Let every Ailtire take notice now that the 'Aiseirghe year' finishes at the end of Meadhon Faghmhair when a renewal of membership is necessary. I am certain that some weeding will be carried out then, as some members by their laziness and neglect are tending to lower the prestige of the organisation in the eyes of the public. The rules on the application will have to be fulfilled in the spirit and in the letter from the beginning of Deire Faghmhair. All members who have been previously enrolled will be approached during this month. Each Ceannasail should keep a list of members who have proved failures so that in future we shall not have those people getting into a place of prominence in the organisation. 'Connac me cheanna tu ars an cat leis an mbanne te'." Ordinary members must know that they will be required to subscribe each week to the funds of the movement. As regards making an effort to learn Irish let them know their duty in this respect.
