Breach of Licensing Laws

Mrs. Mary Egan, O'Connell St., Dungarvan, was charged by the Attorney-General at the suit of Supt. P. O'Mahony, Dungarvan, for selling intoxicating liquors at 11.45 a.m. on Sunday, August 27th.

Ten men found on the premises were also charged.

Mr. Williams, solr. appeared for all defendants and pleaded guilty.

Inspector McGonigle, G.S. said that when the Guards entered the premises on that Sunday morning they found signs of a good substantial trade going on. The licensee had no excuse to offer and the Inspector stated that this was a grave breach of the licensing laws.

Mrs. Egan had been fined £3 on May 25th, 1943, for a similar offence.

Numerous complaints concerning the breaking of the licensing laws had been received.

Mr. Williams, solr. defending said that it was a Sunday morning and all except one found on the premises were farmers from the neighbourhood who had come in for Mass and who had put their traps in the yard. It was a very bad wet morning and the men were waiting for the rain to stop before going home. While waiting they asked Mrs. Egan to give them a few drinks and she did this. They were all perfectly sober and he did not think the case was as blatant as the Inspector made out.

Justice—It was open trading.

Mr. Williams—But who would refuse a man a glass of whiskey or a bottle of stout on a very cold day?

Mr. Williams then asked the Justice if he would deal with the other cases before deciding on this case.

The cases against (1) Mrs. Alice O'Connor, Sexton Street, Abbeyside for a breach of the Licensing Laws on August 27th, at 10 p.m., when four men were caught; (2) Mrs. Kate O'Neill, Main Street, Dungarvan, for a breach of the Licensing Laws, on August 17th, at 11.20 p.m. when six men were caught; and (3) Mrs. Josephine Butler, Main Street, for a breach of the Licensing Laws at 11.15 p.m. on August 17th, when two men were caught, were then called.

In the case of Mrs. O'Connor, Mr. Kenny, solr., defending, pleaded guilty.

Inspector McGonigle said that this was also a Sunday breach and when the Guards entered they found ten soldiers, six of whom gave wrong names. The licensee said that they had been coming in all the week and she couldn't refuse them. A fine of 10/- in a similar offence had been imposed last July.

Mr. Kenny—The manoeuvres were on at the time.

Justice (smiling)—And it was a wet day Mr. Kenny?

Mr. Kenny—It was pouring.

Mr. Williams, on behalf of Mrs. O'Neill, also pleaded guilty, and Inspector McGonigle said that six men were found on the premises and there were glasses containing drink all over the place. No excuse had been given. On April 25th last, the licensee had been fined £1 for a similar offence.

Mr. Williams—This was a week-day and not Sunday. There had been a meeting at the Town all that night and these prominent men had come and Mrs. O'Neill found it hard to refuse them.

Dealing with the case against Mrs. Butler to which Mr. Kenny, solr., pleaded guilty, the Inspector said that the Guard found 2 men on the premises concealed under the stairs. One had a bottle of stout and a glass in his hand. No excuse had been offered, and on the 28th of Sept. 1943, the licensee had been summoned and the case had been adjourned for six months to see how she would conduct the premises. That period had only expired a few months ago.

Mr. Kenny said that the men were particular friends of the licensee's brother, and he pointed out that since last year the Guards had raided the house forty times and always found things in order.

Justice—They went once too often.

Mr. Kenny—She must not have been expecting them.

The Justice then imposed a fine of £3 on Mrs. Egan, the conviction to be recorded, £2 on Mrs. O'Connor to be recorded, £2 on Mrs. Butler.

Fines of 2/6 were imposed on each party found on the premises.

Wrong One-Way

David Murray, Ballintaylor, had a claim for £8 against J. J.

Walsh, Mary St., Dungarvan, for wrongfully converting a quantity of straw to his own use.

Mr. Williams, solr., was for plaintiff and Messrs. Farrell & Morrissey defended.

Maurice Trihy, Prap, Grange, in evidence said that in November last year he bought a quantity of straw from James Walsh for £8 and he left it in an out-house on Walsh's land at Ballintaylor. At the same time he took some grazing from the defendant and when the time expired in January he asked Davy Murray for a stand for the cattle until he got another place. The straw he had bought from Walsh had got damaged by the weather and he made a deal to swap the damaged straw with Murray for some dry stuff.

Some time after witness's cattle trespassed on Walsh's land and the latter wanted the straw in compensation but witness told him he was too late as it was given to Murray who wanted it as manure.

Mr. Farrell—This straw was grown on Walsh's land?—Yes.

Wasn't it in Walsh's shop you made the bargain?—Yes.

And one of the conditions was that you were to winter your 16 heavy cattle in Walsh's yard at Ballintaylor so that he would get the manure?—No.

It was also stated that on no circumstances the straw was to be moved off the land?—No.

Weren't you to keep the cattle in this yard?—No.

Wasn't that part of the bargain?—Sure the cattle couldn't live on a sop of straw for the winter.

Weren't you working in town?—Yes.

And you couldn't look after the cattle?—I could.

When you were leaving didn't Walsh say to you that you had not kept the cattle in the yard and there was no manure and you said he could have the straw instead?—No.

David Murray, said that Trihy came to him in January last looking for a stand for his cattle until he got another place. Plaintiff had a lot of good straw and when he went and saw Trihy's straw damaged they agreed to swap as he only wanted it as manure. He gave Trihy enough to feed the cattle for 2 1/2 months. When he went to move the straw Walsh stopped him saying that Trihy had already given him the straw.

Mr. Farrell—Wasn't Walsh depending on Trihy's cattle to make winter manure?—I don't know.

James Walsh, defendant, in evidence said that he had bought a farm in Ballintaylor within the past two years. He lives in town but cycles out to see it. In November, Trihy made a bargain with him. He gave him a month's grazing at £6 for 16 cattle and sold him some oaten straw for £8 on condition that the cattle would be wintered in his yard so that he could get the manure. He also gave him a rick of wheat straw free for litter. Trihy did not put the cattle in the yard as agreed. When Trihy was leaving his lands he had a conversation with him about not keeping the bargain and Trihy said it was too late then but he could have all that was left which included the damaged straw.

After legal argument, the Justice held that the property had passed to Trihy without condition and he gave a decree for £8 to plaintiff.

And Right The Other

James Walsh, the previous defendant, had a claim for £8 against J. J.

Catholic Scout Notes

4th WATERFORD TROOP C.B.S.I. (St. Joseph's Abbeyside)

Mike—A number of younger Scouts and candidates went biking to Deelish on Sunday last but I didn't hear the outcome of it.

Troop Meeting—The meeting commenced with a peg raiding game for which Scouts had to take off their coats—at least their neckerchiefs and lanyards Two teams lined up with their backs to two circles which contained a peg for each Scout in the team. When the whistle blew Scouts from one team had to try and get pegs from the other team's circle to their own.
Of course Scouts of the other team wouldn't be inclined to agree with them and so there was some fun. A knotting competition resulted in a draw between the Panthers and the Wolfhounds. In the last fortnight we took in three new candidates. Now is the time to join the Troop—not the week before camp.

Rawly—Here is Jack Blunt's
description of a Tenderfoot (Rawly to you) from a recent issue of the Scout—It is a little animal that walks erect like a baboon. It is always chattering and as it doesn't know anything it gets mad easily. Its plumage is ruffled and sometimes a bit soiled through crawling through the undergrowth. When approached it becomes formidable though it can be tackled by a brave P.L. If met suddenly by a P.L. it realises that it hasn't a chance and assumes an air of incredible innocence and usually says in sweet honeyed tones
'Hello!' Underneath this camoflage it is toying with the playful idea of biting off his foot.
'My' what narrow escapes we've had—this from the P.L.s.)
The P.L. wings him, shooting from the hip pins him to the ground by his garter tabs while the A.P.L. helps to put him in a cage. He is gradually trained to act like a human being. After ten years he becomes a First Class Scout and after another 10 or 15 probably becomes Scoutmaster of, say the 99th Heckmondwike Troop.

Now Rawlies do you really think this is true?

General—The 2 P.L.s who were off the active service list for the past week are back on duty (which entails caging Raw-lies etc) again. I hear that the French lessons are continuing successfully—but they do take time. I hear that a number of Scouts forget to be "Ullamh" sometimes—even Pee Ellis James Young is home again for a short holiday. Scouts who cannot attend Troop meetings owing to schoolwork will get full marks if they attend Patrol meetings in uniform. By the way a certain wise guy in the Wolfhounds says that anyone could whip a rope—that is if the SM is not around. The meeting on next Wednesday at 8.15 p.m. due to October Devolutions. Scouts are expected to be at the devotions in uniform on Troop meeting nights and in their own part of the

PANTHER

KNIGHT CLAN NOTES.
Our meeting was held as usual on Tuesday night. Beginning at 7.30 with prayers. It consisted of a lecture on First Aid by our A.K.C. Christy to-you. This was followed by a discussion on social sciences of which notes were taken to be learned for our next meeting.
The meeting, at which the attendance was fairly good, ended with the Scout prayer.

General—Many thanks to Panther for his kind introduction last week. I hope to be able to do something for him next week. We are all glad to see James R.N. home again. He makes everyone so happy when he's around. We heard during the week that a certain old-timer was preparing to stage a come-back after a long absence from the Troop. "All characters and names in this map are entirely fictitious, and any similarity to maps, dead or alive, must be regarded as purely coinciden-tal" or so Kett says about his map of an ideal camp site.

Western Divisional G.A.A. Notes (By AN RUNAIDHE)

A Clear Day—The Western clubs have a breaffthing space this week-end. Due to the intercounty Camogie game at Cappoquin, and the County Senior Football at Dungarvan, the clubs engaged in the Co Championships had to wait a week to finish out.

Surprises—The championship has seen one long series of surprises. On Sunday last Slabh gCua completed the series by defeating the fancied Blackwater Rovers team. And I believe that we are not yet at the end of them. Sunday week when Ballycoe and Slabh gCua meet may give us yet another surprise result.

Appeal—Speaking of Ballycoe
I hear they have appealed to the Co Board for a change of venue from Modeligo for the Divisional final.

A Clean Game—The Ballycoe
v Mahon Ramblers game at Dungarvan played on Sunday last, showed Ballycoe at their best. The Ramblers against a fast well-trained team, gave a great display. The difference in scores does not at all indicate the run of the play. May I congratulate both winners and losers on a clean game and encourage the Ramblers to look forward to great things in 1945.

My Mistake—Dungarvan minors correct me for an error in last week's "Notes"—I said they were out for 4 in a row.
They point out they have already held county honours for the past 4 years and they are out for the fifth victory this time. Sunday's win certainly makes their chances look good.

Can Slabh gCua Win—I asked a great judge of football on Wednesday last if he thought Slabh gCua could beat Ballycoe on Sunday week. He said:
"When Slabh gCua get any team from a town district out-among their hills, they not only can but will defeat them. There is something about the yells of encouragement that get their players going and they can do anything then."

What Ballycoe Thinks—Ballycoe officials admit there is a big lot in what my friend says, but point out that the best team usually wins and they know that they are by far and away the best. Next week will be an anxious one for both teams.

Sympathy—Kinsalebeg club passed a vote of sympathy with Richard and Maurice Tobin, on the death of their sister May. I extend the sympathy of the Division to them on their loss.

CAPPOQUIN NEWS

NEXT SUNDAY'S CAMOGIE CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH

Everybody here is praying for fine weather for the great Munster Final Camogie match to be played in the Sportsfield on next Sunday Oct 1st, between Clare and Waterford, which should provide a most exciting and thrilling game.

The Waterford ladies proved their mettle by the easy manner in which they defeated Tipperary in Lismore a few Sundays ago, but in view of the great form shown by Clare in defeating Cork by 10 goals to 4 a few weeks ago Waterford should not take any risks on this occasion lest the fair daughters of the Banner County may spring a surprise on them on Sunday.

We understand that the Waterford team will be practically the same as that which defeated Tipperary, and we don't think that a better selection could be found in the County.

The people of Cappoquin are glad to know that Miss Biddy McCarthy, Captain of the Cappoquin Camogie Club, who proved her worth against Tipperary, will again be one of the Waterford representatives on Sunday, and with another redoubtable "Biddy" from Dungarvan, (Miss Biddy McGrath), we think the Waterford team has two of the strongest and most reliable players to be found in the County.

Sunday's match is arousing extraordinary interest throughout West-Waterford, and if the weather conditions should be favourable, there will be a huge attendance in the Sportsfield on the occasion.

Mick Sargent, Patron of the Cappoquin Camogie Club and Paddy Cunningham, Hon Sec. of the Hurling Club, together with all the prominent members of both clubs, will have the field arrangements perfect.

SUNDAY NIGHT'S GREAT DANCE

After the excitement of the Camogie match on Sunday evening, the young ladies and gentlemen of West Waterford will have a different and more attractive treat in store for them when the Irish Dairy Shorthorn Breeders Society will hold one of their "glorious" dances in the Boat-house Hall on Sunday night. No trouble or expense has been spared in making the most elaborate preparations for this big event and from present indications it promises to be one of the most brilliant and enjoyable dances held here for years.

FURTHER ENTERTAINMENT FOR NEXT WEEK

We appear to be in for a non-stop feast of entertainment next week because following close on the big dance on Sunday night "Mack's Show Stars Company" will open a seven-nights engagement in the Boat-house Hall on Monday night, Oct 2nd, which will be a welcome treat for the townspeople. This is one of the brightest and best Variety Shows that has ever visited Cappoquin where Mr McKenna, the enterprising proprietor, and his principal artiste Bert Patterson, are great personal favourites. We hope to see packed houses at their splendid show every night next week.

A DISAPPOINTING MINOR HURLING MATCH

The minor hurling match between Dungarvan and Cappoquin, which was expected to provide a close and exciting game on last Sunday, proved a regular fiasco, instead, as Cappoquin was never in the picture, and failed to score even a solitary point during the hour.

The display given by the Dungarvan boys was not only brilliant, but simply dazzling, and they were only toying with their opponents, whom they defeated by the big score of 5-5 to nil.

The Dungarvan minors having won the Co Championship for the past 4 years in succession are hot favourites for their 5th Co Championship this year.

Those who wanted to see robust football must have had their desires full satisfied during the junior football match which followed between Sliabh gCua and Blackwater Rovers, in the course of which fouls were very frequent.

Sliabh gCua started off in whirlwind fashion and had a goal in the first few minutes and maintained the lead during the first half-hour when they turned over with a lead of 1-4 to 1-0.

Play was a bit more even in the second half when the Rovers showed improved form, but on the whole the game was spoiled by fouls and rough play. The final whistle left Sliabh gCua winners of a tough game on the score of 2-4 to 2-2 points for

CAPPOQUIN AND LISMORE FOR DIVISIONAL SEMI-FINAL

Now that the objections and counter-objections between Lismore and Camphire over the junior hurling championships have been finally decided by the Divisional Board, Cappoquin and Lismore meet in the semi-final here on Sunday week, Oct 8th.

OPENING OF RABBIT MARKET

On next Monday Oct 2nd, the annual market for the purchase of rabbits will be opened here by Messrs M J O'Connor & Sons Egg and Poultry Exporters, who will be prepared to purchase unlimited quantities of rabbits at the highest market prices during the remainder of the season.

CAMOGIE CONCERT REPEATED

The Camogie Concert held on Sunday night was repeated before an audience of children on Monday night, when some additional turns were given by Mr Joe Walsh, comedian, who sang a number of comic songs. All the other artistes who had appeared on Sunday night again contributed on Monday night.

WHO WANTS 100 CIGARETTES?

Don't ignore the pretty girls of the Cappoquin Camogie Club when they ask you to buy a ticket while on your way to the Sportsfield on Sunday.

They will be offering you tickets at the modest price of 3d each, any one of which may win for you 100 cigarettes, 4 ozs tobacco or a bottle of wine, so try your luck, and you will be at the same time helping the funds of the Waterford Camogie County Board.

CAMOGIE

Meeting of the Waterford County Board.

A meeting of the Waterford County Camogie Board was held in Conway's Hotel, Cappoquin, on last Tuesday night week, Sept 19th.

Rev W Flynn, P.P., Knockanore, President of the Board, presided, and delegates were present from the following clubs—Aglis, Kinsalebeg, Cappoquin, Cappagh, Knockamore, Lismore Tallow and Clashmore. The Dungarvan club was not represented for the first time since the formation of the Co Board some months ago.

Miss M Montayne, Knockanore Hon Sec., Mr M J Sargent, P.C., Patron of the Cappoquin Camogie Club and Mr P Cunningham, Hon Sec, hurling club, do, were present.

The Rev Chairman said he was very grateful to see so many delegates present, and he then gave an interesting review of the proceedings at the Munster Council Convention on the previous Sunday, a full report of which appeared in last week's "Leader."

He referred in very complimentary terms to the sporting action of the Clare County Board in agreeing to travel the long journey to Cappoquin to play the Munster final against Waterford on Sunday, Oct 1st, and he appealed to all the Clubs in the Co Waterford to be present and give the Clare team a cordial reception on their arrival here.

County championship fixtures were then made for the following Sunday, after which arrangements for the Inter-County match, Clare v Waterford, were fully discussed.

It was decided that the same selection committee which had acted in connection with the Tipperary v Waterford match a few weeks ago should also function for the Clare v Waterford match, and an order was made that the members of the committee should meet at Conway's Hotel on the following Sunday to select the Waterford team for Oct 1st.

Collectors and stewards were next appointed for the Cappoquin Sportsfield, on Sunday, Oct 1st and Mr M J Sargent on behalf of the Cappoquin Camogie Club, and Mr. Paddy Cunningham hon sec, Cappoquin hurling club, gave a guarantee that both clubs would have the field arrangements perfect, and would give all the assistance possible on the occasion for which the Rev Chairman sincerely thanked them.

It was decided that the Clare and Waterford teams should meet at Conway's Hotel, Cappoquin, at 2.15 (ST) on Sunday, Oct 1st, together with all the officials and stewards, and that both teams in full playing costumes should march through the town to the Sportsfield at 3 o'clock, so as to be punctually on the spot for the start of the game at 3.30 (ST).

It was suggested that it would be a good idea if a band could be procured for the occasion, and Mr M J Sargent said they had a splendid Boys' Brass and Reed Band in Cappoquin, which he was sure, would be delighted to attend and Miss Montayne, hon sec, was directed to communicate with Mr. M J Walsh, conductor, and invite the band to attend while a similar invitation was ordered to be sent to the Cappoquin L.D.F. "Pipers" Band to also attend on the occasion.

The question of possible accidents to the players having been discussed, Father Flynn said that on the occasion of the Tipperary v Waterford match in Lismore two qualified lady members of the Lismore Branch of the Red Cross were specially in attendance, and kindly rendered first aid in all cases of injuries to the players, and said it would be a good idea if some trained members of the Cappoquin branch should be similarly available during the Clare v Waterford match.

After a short discussion, the Hon Sec was directed to write to Miss E Bell, Hon Sec, Cappoquin Red Cross Branch, and request her to kindly arrange to have some qualified members of the Cappoquin Branch in attendance in the Sportsfield during the match.

Regarding the rent of the Cappoquin Sportsfield for the day, Father Flynn said it would be remembered that Lismore gave their Gaelic field free on the occasion of the Tipperary v Waterford match and had also carried out all the arrangements free so in view of this, both Miss Montayne and he had interviewed Mr M. F. Walsh, Hon Sec Cappoquin Sportsfield Committee, to ascertain the most reasonable terms on which the Sportsfield could be had for the day

A letter was read from Mr. M E Walsh, Hon Sec, stating that the Directors had decided that the rent of the Sportsfield would be £2 for the day, and although some disappointment was felt over these terms it was finally agreed to accept them under the circumstances.

Mr M J Sargent suggested that a raffle be held in the Sportsfield in aid of the Waterford Co Board on the occasion of the match, and said this would be the means of raising some necessary funds for the Board. Tickets could be sold at 3d each, and he would give 100 cigarettes as first prize for the event, (applause).

Miss Hayes, Clashmore, proposed, and Miss Maura Keating, Cappoquin seconded that the raffle be held for the Co Board, and this was agreed to, and Mr Sargent said he would get books of tickets printed in the "Leader" Office, and all the members of the Cappoquin Camogie Club would act as sellers on the way to the Sportsfield on Sunday.

Two further prizes have since been added, so that the first prize will now be 100 cigarettes; 2nd 4 ozs tobacco, and 3rd a bottle of wine, and we hope there will be a brisk demand for tickets on Sunday.

Miss Montayne undertook to make early application to the Minister for Supplies for the necessary permits for motor cars to bring the members of the Waterford team to Cappoquin for the match, and arrangements were also made to have the visiting team and Clare officials, as well as their own team and officials, suitably entertained in Conway's Hotel after the match.

It was announced that a meeting of the Munster Council would be held later in the evening, while all the Munster Council Officials were on the spot.

Several other details having been attended to, a hearty vote of thanks to Mr M J Sargent for his generous offer of 100 cigarettes for the raffle, and a similar vote to Fr Flynn for the able manner in which he had presided over the meeting, concluded the proceedings.

Death of Mr. Michael Maher, Dromroe, Cappoquin.

A painful sensation was caused in the Cappoquin district on Friday evening when the sad news became known that Mr Michael Maher, Dromroe, had died under very tragic circumstances.

Deceased belonged to a most respectable farming family in Newcastle, Co Tipperary, but had resided in Dromroe for a considerable number of years. He had been under the doctor's care for some time, as a result of which he had to give up all work, but he was able to move about amongst his friends in the Dromroe district, where he was held in the highest respect owing to his quiet and retiring manner, and his upright and respectable character.

He was out and about in the usual way throughout the greater part of Friday, and on that evening he visited a neighbouring farmer's house, but he had not been long there when he suddenly collapsed and expired while sitting in a chair. Owing to his previous medical care an inquest was not deemed necessary, and on Saturday evening his remains were removed from his late residence to St. Mary's Catholic Church, Cappoquin, and were followed by a large gathering of the leading people from Dromroe, Tourin, Cappoquin, and other districts as a striking mark of respect to his memory.

After Requiem Mass on Sunday, the funeral took place by motor hearse to his native Newcastle, large numbers of mourners meeting the cortege on the way so that it had assumed very large proportions before Newcastle was reached.

The coffin was received at the cemetery by Rev Fr Power, C.C., Newcastle, who read the last prayers at the graveside.

The chief mourners included Patrick and Eugene Maher (sons) the Misses Kathleen and Mary Maher (daughters), Jas and Wm Maher (brothers), Mrs. O'Donnell (cousin), and several other cousins and relatives.

Amongst a number of Mass cards laid on the grave was one from the Fianna Fall Cumann, Cappoquin, of which deceased had been a respected member for several years.

Mr E J Fraher, Undertaker, Cappoquin had charge of all the funeral arrangements. (—)

Death of Mr. William Walsh, Cappoquin.

An old and popular resident of Cappoquin, in the person of Mr. William Walsh, passed peacefully to his reward in Lismore hospital on Thursday, Sept 21st, after a rather protracted illness.

Although a plumber by trade, deceased had also a sound mechanical knowledge of the motor and cycle trade, and had been for a considerable time employed in Mr. M. J. Sargent's Motor Garage, Cappoquin.

Of a remarkably quiet and obliging disposition, he was a great favourite with all classes, and his death has now removed one of the most popular and familiar figures in Cappoquin.

He was father of Mrs. D. Nugent, Villierstown, to whom, as well as to all the members of her respected family, the deepest sympathy is now tendered in their sad bereavement. On Friday evening the remains were removed from Lismore hospital to St. Mary's Parish Church, Cappoquin, where the coffin was received by Rev. Stephen Brennan, and after Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul on Saturday, the funeral took place to Arane cemetery, the general attendance including the Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C., and Rev. S. Brennan, both of whom later officiated at the graveside.

The chief mourners were Mrs. D. Nugent, Villierstown, (daughter), Mrs. Nellie Merrin, do., Mrs. Nora Brewster, Mrs. Peggy McKay, Mrs. Kathleen and Stasia Nugent, John, James, Billy and Daniel Nugent, (grandchildren), Brian Brewster, Patricia and Kathleen McKay, (great-grandchildren), Daniel Nugent, (son-in-law), etc.

The funeral arrangements were most satisfactorily carried out by Mr. E. J. Fraher, Undertaker, Cappoquin. (—)

VIEWS OF OUR READERS

Four-Mile-Water Hurling Club

(To The Editor)

Sir—We the Fourmilewater Hurling Club would be pleased if you would allow us space to bring a few facts before the public.

The primary object of the G.A.A. is the promotion of Gaelic games, not the acquiring of finance or parochial honour, but in the West Waterford junior hurling championship 1944, this seems to have been completely overlooked. At the start of the year the clubs of the Division were divided into convenient groups so as to save them from travelling long distances to fulfil their championship engagements, yet in their very first championship fixture the Fourmilewater club were asked to travel outside their group area and pass two suitable venues, Touransena and Modeligo, which were even more central to the opposing team than the venue chosen. This procedure even in normal times would be unreasonable, but with the present travel restrictions and taking into consideration the previous grouping of clubs, it was considered ridiculous that the club should be asked to travel to a venue ranging from 16 to 23 miles distant from its players. The very fact that officials should even contemplate asking men to do the impossible by such a fixture so disgusted the Fourmilewater club that they decided to withdraw from the championships.

We hear a lot nowadays about how to promote Gaelic games in the county. This was surely an example of how not to promote them and we would remind the G.A.A. Clubs of the county that if they ever hope to produce a team for Croke Park they should appoint officials who are sportsmen and who have discarded that parochial outlook which does not extend beyond the village cornerstone.

Sincerely yours,
Fourmilewater Hurling Club.

ENJOYABLE CAMOGIE CONCERT IN CAPPOQUIN

GENEROUS LOCAL SUPPORT FOR THE NEW CLUB

For the purpose of raising funds for the recently-established Camogie Club in the town, a very interesting Concert was held in the Boathouse Hall, Cappoquin, on last Sunday night which was attended by one of the largest and most appreciative audiences seen at a local Entertainment for a long time.

The Cappoquin Camogie Club having been started little over a month ago through the enthusiasm and sporting spirit of the young girls in the town, but without any financial backing Mr. M. J. Sargent, P.C. who was elected Patron of the Club at its initial meeting, then suggested that a concert be held for the purpose of placing the club on a sound financial basis, and this having been unanimously agreed to, all the arrangements for the organisation of the event were left in the hands of Mr. Sargent, with the assistance of Mr. F. X. O'Leary, N.T.

The large and enthusiastic audience which packed the spacious Boathouse Hall proved a great tribute to the popularity of the organisers and the Camogie Club in Cappoquin.

Several of the actual playing members of the Camogie team took an active part in the programme, and proved that they were quite as brilliant on the concert stage as they had already proved themselves to be on the playing pitch.

Messrs. M. J. Sargent, P.C. and F. X. O'Leary, N.T. received great assistance in preparing for the event from all the officers of the Camogie clubs more particularly from Miss Biddy McGrath, captain, Miss Susie Browne, Treasurer, and Miss Maureen Keating, hon. sec. while Mr. Paddy Cunningham, hon. sec. hurling club, Mr. Joe O'Donnell, do., Mr. P. McCarthy, Mr. John Greene, Mr. E. Lonergan, Mr. Frank Walsh and Mr. Michael Mason, also rendered very valuable assistance in other respects, which was very highly appreciated.

The programme, on the whole, was interesting, but a few more vocal items, and a few less dancing "turns," would have balanced it better and would have been a distinct advantage. From a financial point of view, the concert was a distinct success, for which we wish to congratulate the members of the Camogie club, the promoters, and all others concerned.

The programme opened with a rousing series of choruses by the entire troupe which included the following—

Mrs. Dignam, the Misses Kathleen Mason, Maura Hickey, Mary Meskill, Justina Walsh, Susie Browne, Phyllis Mason, Angela Mason, "Pat" Sargent, Eily McCarthy, Mary Lacey, Maura Keating, Phylla Watson and Messrs. Wm. J. Sargent, Frank Walsh, Michael Mason and Trooper Lenihan.

The choruses sung included "The Minstrel Boy," "Two Lovely Black Eyes," "Little Brown Jug," "Swanee River," "Me And My Girl," and other popular numbers, all of which were sung in a well-balanced and most harmonious manner, for which the accomplished young artists were loudly encouraged.

Master John Elliott, Passage East, brother of Mrs. Dignam, dancing instructress, Cappoquin, next danced the "Sailor's Hornpipe" (in character) in the most perfect and graceful manner, for which he was loudly applauded.

The ever-popular song from the Opera, "Maritana" entitled "Scenes That Are Brightest," was rendered with great feeling and expression by Miss Anne Sargent, daughter of Mr. M. J. and Mrs. Sargent, whose pure and flexible voice did the fullest justice to this difficult song, and she was loudly encored from all parts of the hall.

A Four-Hand Reel was next beautifully danced by four of Mrs. Dignam's dancing pupils, the Misses Mary Meskill, Maura Hickey, Kathleen Mason and Angela Mason, whose well-timed and graceful evolutions proved a credit, both to their teacher and themselves, and the four pretty and accomplished performers won the greatest plaudits of the night.

Mr. William J. Sargent, who possesses a remarkably pure and sweet tenor voice, created a great impression by his masterly rendering of the beautiful song, "Because," which deservedly won for him a loud and sustained encore to which the "no encore" rule prohibited him from responding.

Mr. F. X. O'Leary, N.T., greatly enhanced his reputation as a local comedian by his inimitable singing of the side-splitting comic song, "The Sample in the Bag," and this was another case in which the "no encore" rule again disappointed the audience very much.

A four-hand reel by the Misses Phylla Mason, Angela Mason, Maura Keating and Mary Lacey, proved a delightful treat, which was very warmly applauded by all, after which Miss Brenda O'Connor, the pretty and talented daughter of Mr. M. J. O'Connor, egg and poultry exporters, displayed rare elocutionary power in a popular recitation, which won for her loud applause.

Another clever pupil of Mrs. McCarthy Lismore, and a cousin of the previous young artist, Miss Mona Sargent, the accomplished young daughter of Mr. "Bud" and Mrs. Sargent scored a great success by her beautiful singing (in character) of "Alice Blue Gown" in which her sweet and expressive voice was heard at its best, and this charming and popular little artist received a great ovation for her lovely contribution.

A three-hand reel by the Misses Mary Meskill, Kathleen Mason and Angela Mason was a rare treat to witness, and this concluded the first part of the programme.

During the interval an interesting drawing for three prizes viz, a Bicycle Tyre, a Bottle of Port Wine and 100 Cigarettes, took place, for which large numbers of tickets had been sold amongst the audience.

The draw was conducted by Mr. Frank Walsh, and the winner of the first prize was announced to be Mrs. Whelan, Allen St., Cappoquin. Great amusement and applause followed the drawing of the second ticket by Mr. Frank Walsh, when he was announced as the winner, but very generously refused to accept the prize and let it go for another draw, when, by a strange coincidence it was won by Mrs. Whelan, Allen St., Cappoquin, the winner of the first prize. The third prize was won by Mr. David Scanlan, Lismore, the respective winners being loudly applauded on their good luck.

The second part of the programme was opened by Master John Elliott who danced a hornpipe in great style.

A lovely part-song was next rendered in charming fashion by the Misses Anne Sargent, Mona Sargent, Mary Lacey, Mary Fraher and Bernadette Sargent which proved a most delightful item, for which the clever young artists were warmly encored.

Mr. James Ahearne received a great ovation from the "gods" for his sweet and perfect singing of "The Miller's Daughter," to which his pure tenor voice did the fullest justice and he was followed by Miss Mona Sargent and Miss Brenda O'Connor in a popular duet, which was sung with rare harmony and sweetness.

Miss Maura Hickey scored the greatest success of the night by her beautiful singing of "Moonlight In Mayo," in the course of which she revealed a beautiful and rich soprano voice, and she received a veritable storm of applause.

Mr. F. X. O'Leary, N.T., who had performed the duties of M.C. and stage manager in his usually efficient manner, then thanked the audience for the splendid support which they had given to the Camogie club, and he also thanked the various artists for the splendid manner in which they had acquitted themselves during the concert.

He specially thanked Mrs. Dignam for the grand troupe of dancing pupils whom she had produced, and he also thanked Mrs. McCarthy Lismore and Miss Eily Mullins, Cappoquin, for having played the accompaniments for their respective pupils in songs and dances.

On behalf of the Camogie Club, he said their best thanks were due to the Rowing Club and to Mr. M. J. Sargent, for having so kindly given them the use of the Hall for the concert and he also thanked the officials of the hurling club for the great assistance which they had given during the night (applause).

A striking Tableau, representing "McNamara's Band" in which all the members of the Troupe appeared with a strange assortment of instruments, and played a variety of tunes both in harmony and discord provided a most amusing wind-up to the programme, after which the singing of the National Anthem by the entire members of the Troupe concluded an enjoyable feast of light entertainment for all.

Dungarvan U.D.C.

Mr. T. McCarthy Chairman presided at the fortnightly meeting of the Dungarvan Urban District Council at the Council Chambers Town Hall on last Friday night. Messrs. L. A. Veale, and John McGrath, were also present. Mr. M. O'Meara, Acting Town Clerk, attended.

Manager's Orders

The Acting Clerk informed the meeting that the Manager had made orders (1) to have the gate piers at St. Thomas' Terrace plastered and rebuilt at a cost of £50, (2) to have the footpaths at Main Street fixed and (3) to have the sewer at Abbeyside fixed.

Concerning the proposed gate at the Council houses at Western Terrace, it was stated that some of the tenants objected to it.

The Chairman said this should not be so as the gate was for their protection.

It was agreed that the rent collector inquire from the tenants.

"Slur to Memory of Gallant Patriot"

The Secretary of the Old Comrades I.R.A. wrote as follows— I am instructed by my committee to remind you that some time ago the Council made an order that Fair Lane be re-named Wolfe Tone Street. Up to the present, however, nothing has been done in the matter. The plate bearing the name of Wolfe Tone now presides over a ruinous and deserted alleyway. This in our opinion, is a slur to the memory of a great and gallant patriot. The committee feels that the plate ought to be removed to its rightful place without further delay.

Mr. Thomas O'Mahony has intimated that he has no objection to the affixing of the plate to the eastern wall of his house. The Committee are willing to carry out the work of transference and to defray any expenses incurred.

The Acting Clerk said he could not remember any such order. Chairman—It would be well to have it done anyway, but the Council should do it and not the Old Comrades I.R.A.

Mr. McGrath—Two plates would be wanted—one at either end of the street. Would a notice of motion be required for that?

It was decided to put the matter on the agenda for the next meeting.

[The Acting Clerk has since informed us that an order was made in 1939 to have the name of Fair Lane changed to Wolfe Tone Road—Ed. D.L.]

Acknowledgments

Acknowledgments of votes of sympathy were received from Mr. P. Elsted, Ballinacoury, Rev. J. Corbett, C.C., Dungarvan, and Mr. McGovern, Church St.

Votes of Sympathy

The following resolution of sympathy was passed— "That the very sincere sympathy of the Council be conveyed to Denis Heskin, T.D., and members of his family on the irreparable loss they have sustained by the death of Mrs. Heskin. The Chairman said that they were all very sorry for Mr. Heskin's great trouble. He was a man who since his election to Dail Eireann had done his best for everyone irrespective of what political party they followed, and everyone now felt deeply sorry for his great loss.

Messrs. Veale and McGrath, also associated themselves with the vote and the Acting Clerk on behalf of the officials, also joined.

Votes of sympathy were also passed with Mrs. Forde, Mitchel Street and with the relatives of the late Mrs. Duggan, Cathal Brugha Place.

LAYING OF FOUNDATION STONE OF NEW PARISH HALL

The provision of a Parish Hall has been the great ambition of the local Parish Council for some years past. Many difficulties had to be surmounted, not the least being the search for a suitable site but after many disappointments, this obstacle was at last overcome and an excellent site, convenient to the village, was secured.

Affiliation to Muintir na Tire was the next step and as a result a wonderful spirit of Christian co-operation was created and has been the main factor in the success which has so far attended the efforts of the Parish Council. All sections of the community have taken part in the good work either by voluntary labour or by acting as guarantors, or by assisting at the social functions, sports and other activities organised in the area. Now their efforts are near-

YOUTH AND OLD AGE

It is a remarkable fact that the vast majority of Industrial Assurance Policies effected in Ireland are on the lives of young children or people of advanced age.

For some reason the person who needs Life Assurance cover more than anyone else—the young married man—fails to insure his own life.

No man can foretell the length of his days and if the breadwinner were suddenly taken away, his earnings would cease. His widow would then find it hard to provide the necessities of life for the children and herself.

And yet it is so easy to secure financial protection for your dependants through The Irish Assurance Company—Ireland's leading Life Office—at the cost of a few pence a day, and the earlier in life an Assurance is taken out the cheaper the premium will be.

Lismore Man Weds—A very interesting wedding took place in St. Mary's Church Cappoquin, when Mr. Patrick Morrissey only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. P. Morrissey, Ballyrafter Lismore, was united in matrimony to Miss B. Walsh, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walsh Dunmoon Tallow. Mr. Michael Llineen Lismore was best man while the bride was attended by her niece Miss Mollie Walsh.

The bride was given away by her brother Mr. P. Walsh. The happy couple then motored to the Greenpark Hotel, Youghal, where the reception was held, at which numerous guests were entertained after which Mr. and Mrs. Morrissey left for Cork where the honeymoon will be spent. We join with their numerous friends in wishing the happy couple every happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrissey are both very popular in their native districts and received many useful and costly wedding gifts, and also numerous messages of congratulation.

Belonging to a popular and respected family Father Geoghegan is a firm favourite in his native district where he has won the esteem and admiration of innumerable friends with whom we join in wishing him length of years in his sacred calling.

CARE THE STOCK

AT a meeting of the Scholarship Committee under the Waterford County Council held some time ago, a very sound suggestion was made by Rev P Magee, O.S.A. when he stated that a Scholarship in Veterinary Science should be provided by the Co Council There is a great demand for the services of Veterinary Surgeons, and the necessity for increasing their numbers is becoming more and more evident. If the stock of the Irish farmers is to be properly cared for adequate arrangements will have to be made so that the high mortality figures can be reduced. We would also suggest that it is time that a scheme be brought in whereby the services of veterinary surgeons will be made available free by the Government or the Local Authority to those whose means would not otherwise permit of having expert advice

Listed as the match of the year, the meeting of Stradbally and Kilrossanty in their senior championship tie at the Gaelic field, Dungarvan, on Sunday next, is the sole topic of conversation in these parts.

Mr. P. McGrath, trainer of the Kilrossanty men informed us that his team are in perfect trim and are much more confident of victory this year than they were last year.

GAELIC NOTES SENIOR CLUBS

(By "TAOSHLINE")

Both ends of the county are well catered for this week-end and a feast of hurling and football is in store for all Gaelic lovers throughout the county.

At Dungarvan the famed football rivals Stradbally, Co Champions four in a row, once again meet their neighbours Kilrossanty in the senior football County Championship.

Kilrossanty favour the catch and kick style of football, whereas the champions excel at passing movements which is the secret of their success.

The clash of the different styles should lead to a great game especially when the Kilrossanty slogan is now or never dethrone the champions.

Kilrossanty wearers of the green and gold, have been the champions greatest rivals for the past number of years, and there is little or nothing between the two only Stradbally always bring out the little extra in the closing stages.

The register was examined and the objection was found to be correct.

The Chairman upheld the appeal and awarded the match to Mahon Ramblers.

Lismore junior hurling club objected to Camphire junior hurling team being awarded the match played on Sept. 10th.

The grounds of objection were (1) That Sean Slaney and Stephen Murphy, both of whose names were on the Camphire list were not registered;

(2) That Patrick O'Shea, who played was illegal as he came from outside the county; (3) That four players were not registered 12 days before the match.

Points No 1 and 2 were withdrawn, and the Chairman ruled that in point number 3 Camphire had offended and he awarded the match to Lismore on this point.

Camphire counter-objection to Lismore on the following points (1) That John O'Gorman, who played was illegal;

(2) That John O'Donoghue, and John O'Gorman, played with Eire Oge on July 18th, 1943 without their names appearing on the list (3) That Con Higgins, played with Kilmcronat against Castle-martyr in a Cork county hurling tournament on Aug 21st 1938 and had not being reinstated.

The Chairman ruled after having heard evidence that proof was not sufficient in point No 1 and marked points No 2 and 3 not proven and disallowed the counter-objection.

Stradbally Rovers minor club objected to Dungarvan minor football team being awarded the match played on Sept 10.

The grounds were that Joe Duggan, Nicholas Power, Michael Wade and John O'Brien all of Dungarvan were over-age players.

Mr J O'Dea, Dungarvan produced the required birth certificates, and it was admitted after particulars had been checked that the players were legal to play, being under age on Jan 1st 1944.

The objection was, therefore ruled out.

The Army have not been idle either and they are in training quietly at Waterford, under the baton of Capt P Murrhly, their O/C.

Portlaw expect to take home the championship on Sunday next and their is great confidence in the Tannery Town, and all modes of conveyance are being availed of to follow Mick Hickey and his men in quest of the blue ribbon of Decie hurling.

Capt. Murrhly says the Army team were not seen at their best in the drawn game, but on Sunday they are hopeful of reproducing their past brilliance, and if the Army boys play to instructions they will win their first senior hurling championship.

This replay should be a thriller, a game without trills in which two of the fittest teams ever to play in a county final, will be the contestants.

Hurling of a high order is assured and enthusiasts citywards should not fail to see the greatest of all replays.

M V O'Donoghue, B.E., Chairman of the Co Board will referee the game which is timed to start at 4 pm (S.T.) Fenor and Mt. Slon meet in the East Waterford junior football final and a rousing game is expected.

This game is timed for 2.45 p.m. (S.T.)

The Western Division should certainly be proud of their minor hurling champions, and on Sunday last I was an interested spectator at Cappoquin where I saw the "Blues" score handsomely over the Cornerstone boys.

I was very much impressed by the displays of Michael and Johnny O'Connor and the grit and determination of Dec Barron.

John Wade was another young stalwart to come under my eye, he is, by the way, a younger brother to Paddy of Erin's Hope fame.

The Ring youngster Paddy Curran, gave an outstanding display as a defender, and I am glad to note he is keeping up the family tradition, who always and ever have been great Gaels and sportsmen.

John Kiely Captain of the team, has a record of his own, being holder of four minor championship medals, and on his display on Sunday last I expect him to add yet another in the near future.

"Runaidhe" please excuse my small intrusion.

West Waterford Divisional Board

A meeting of the Western Divisional Board G.A.A. was held at Egan's Hotel, Dungarvan, on Friday night last, Sept 22nd.

Mr. M. O'Connor, Chairman, presiding Messrs D O'Sullivan, P Ryan, and T A. Kynne, were also present.

A good number of club delegates were present.

Mahon Ramblers junior football club objected to Stradbally junior football team being awarded the match played on Sept. 17th, on the grounds that John O'Brien, was not a registered member of the Stradbally club.

The register was examined and the objection was found to be correct.

The Chairman upheld the appeal and awarded the match to Mahon Ramblers.

Lismore junior hurling club objected to Camphire junior hurling team being awarded the match played on Sept. 10th.

The grounds of objection were (1) That Sean Slaney and Stephen Murphy, both of whose names were on the Camphire list were not registered;

(2) That Patrick O'Shea, who played was illegal as he came from outside the county; (3) That four players were not registered 12 days before the match.

Points No 1 and 2 were withdrawn, and the Chairman ruled that in point number 3 Camphire had offended and he awarded the match to Lismore on this point.

Camphire counter-objection to Lismore on the following points (1) That John O'Gorman, who played was illegal;

(2) That John O'Donoghue, and John O'Gorman, played with Eire Oge on July 18th, 1943 without their names appearing on the list (3) That Con Higgins, played with Kilmcronat against Castle-martyr in a Cork county hurling tournament on Aug 21st 1938 and had not being reinstated.

Detective-Officer Gordon Dungarvan, was on hand and some tussles ensued before peace was restored.

Luckily no one was seriously injured. As a sequel five young men were charged at the Clonmel District Court on Wednesday last with riotous behaviour and the charges were adjourned.

YOUGHAL BRIDGE

At a meeting of the Youghal Urban District Council references were made to the fact that nothing had been done concerning Youghal Bridge for a considerable time.
