Western Divisional G.A.A. Notes

(By AN RUNAIDHE) More Surprise Results....As the championships conclude the results cause much surprise The ing amateur painters who has duff) in a wonderful fast hurling was how they were caught Mr Farrell said what happended was the boys went down town early that morning to mind some cattle for a farmer who promised them 2/6 if they called to Egan's Hotel later on the boys called at Egan's the farmer was not there and they were and they were and other articles. They took the bangle and other articles They took the bangle to a local leweller to see of it was gold or silver and if it was they intended the said and betters of sympathy were received from Kathband and letters of sympathy were and the farmer was the bangle morning to mind stelloe Cobh C Mansfield Dubling to note that very brisk fying to note that very brisk for the summer months It is gratified to note that very brisk business is being done at 89 The Quay where large numbers of objection following. The victory of Cappoquin hurlers over Lismore is another unexpected one artistic articles offered for sale in meeting held in the Erin's Hope Band—At a genderal meeting held in the Erin's but I am confident that the following committee were countries.

Telegrams and letters of sympathy were received from Kathband and there was something not quite fair functions in Tramore during the summer months It is gratified to note that very brisk for note fair fair functions in Tramore during to note t they were as much surprised as Lismore I can t include the Ballycoe victory with the above as from the very first I believed this team would go a long way in the championships

At Dungarvan—The victory of What Price the Prophet Now?

The prophet who forecast that the war would finish before the Divisional championship ended must feel he is not so 'old moor-ish" as he thought We have ish" as he thought We have very many critics in the game but the G.A.A. usually manages to confound most of them All going well our Divisional games end on Sunday and the war will not end until-well your guess is as good as mine

Sympathy—The sympathy of the Gaels of the Division is extended to the relatives of the late P Maione of Tallow who died recently after a long illness This young hurler who had barely reached manhood had marked himself as a brilliant hurler and a great sportsman.
