Occasional License

Mr T. C. Williams, Solr, on behalf of Mr P I Power O'Connell St., was granted occasional licenses for Garda Dance Commercial Club Dance and the Literary Club Dance.

Breach of Licensing Laws

Supt. P O'Mahony, summoned Mary Anne Halpin, Publican, Cross Bridge Street, Dungarvan, with a breach of the licensing laws on Christmas Eve at 10.45 p.m.

Four men found on the premises were also summoned.

Guard Begley in evidence said that all the men were locals and they were in a room off the bar.

The defendant said that the men were old friends and had been invited to a little party.

The case was dismissed.

"Before and Not After"

Joseph A Power, O'Connell St., was similarly charged in respect of a breach at 5.10 p.m. on Sunday, Dec 3rd last.

Fourteen men found on the premises at the time were also charged.

Mr Kenny, Solr, defending said there was a genuine mistake made in this instance.

Superintendent—There was a G.A. function in the town that day and the rumour went out that there was an area exemption order got. Some publicans made inquiries at the barracks but Mr Power just opened his place.

Mr Kenny—When the Guards called the whole place was in full swing there was no creeping in and out of backdoors and it was a genuine mistake.

Guard Enright also gave evidence and the case was adjourned for 3 months and if there was no further breach in the meantime it would be withdrawn.

Superintendent—Prior to the 1943 Act it was the Guards used get the area exemption order but now it is up to the publicans themselves and I can not be looking after their business for them.

Justice—Yes it would be just as well for them to consult their solicitors before and not after an offence.

Another publican, Mrs Margaret Landers, Grattan Square was charged with a breach at 5.40 p.m. on Dec 3rd last, and 2 men were also summoned.

Mr Kenny, Solr, also defended in this case and pleaded guilty.

Sergt. Teahan said when he called he found the men on the premises. The defendant said they were neighbours of hers and she could not refuse them.

To Mr Kenny witness said that the men live about 2 1/2 miles outside the town.

Mr Kenny—These two men used help Mrs Landers on big occasions and they had come in for a big match in town but there was no excitement and she did not open and the men who were more or less employees for a specific period went in for a drink.

Defendant was fined 5/- and each of the men 2/6 each.

Xmas Eve Offence.

Mrs Alice O'Connor, publican, Barton Street, Abbeyside, was also charged with a breach on Xmas Eve at 11.50 a.m. and six men found on the premises were also summoned.

Mr Kenny again defended.

Guard Burke in evidence said that the men were in the bar when he called and the explanation given was that they were old customers who had pressed her hard and she did not like to refuse them.

Mr Kenny—The defendant also carries on a grocery business and Xmas Eve is a heavy shopping time. These people were on the premises looking for parcels and I would ask your worship to deal with the case leniently having regard to the time of the year it was.

A fine of £3 not to be recorded with a warning was imposed on the publican and each of the men were fined 5/- each.

Dangerous Driving

Joseph Byrne Ardnagreine Dysart Ardmore was charged by Supt P O'Mahony with dangerously driving a motor lorry at Killosera on Dec 16th last.

Declan Regan Shanakill, Ring was similarly charged in respect of a pony and trap.

Mr Williams Solr was for Byrne, and Mr Morrissey, Solr was for Regan.

Guard Farrell in evidence said he investigated the accident at Killosera on that day which was very wet. There were no marks on the road and he saw a pony and trap turned up on its right wheel with the shafts and right spring broken. The inside wheel was two feet from the left ditch going from Dungarvan and the road was 23 ft wide. He also saw a mark along the first board of the lorry on the left side. He took statements from both men. Byrne's statement was to the effect that he was drawing beet from the Ardmore district that day and he was going for his last load at about 4.45 p.m. when he saw the pony and trap about five or six hundred yards ahead. When he got to within three hundred yards he blew his horn and the driver of the trap waved him to come on but made no attempt to pull over. He slowed down to 20 m.p.h. and blew a long blast on his horn and the trap then pulled over. When he was passing he felt the lorry catching the trap he put on his brakes and pulled up. He got out and went back and apologized but the driver of the trap who appeared to be drunk used abusive language towards him.

Mr Williams—The driver of the lorry was sober?—Yes.

Did O'Regan show signs of drink?—He smelt slightly of it but I would not say he was drunk.

To Mr Morrissey witness said that Regan did not hear Byrne's statement being made.

Mrs Teresa Mooney, Shanacillane in evidence said she came to Dungarvan on Dec 16th last with Declan O'Regan and his wife in a pony and trap. They were ready to leave town between 4 or 4.30 that evening which turned out very wet. O'Regan was sitting on the right side of the trap and she and Mrs O'Regan were on the left side. When they were out near Dromeys she saw a lorry coming behind them but said nothing to Regan as she thought there was plenty room for it to pass. When it came nearer it hooted and they pulled in to the extreme left. When the lorry was passing them it shot into the left and hit the trap and they were all thrown out on the ground.

Mr Williams—When Byrne blew the horn did Regan beckon him on?—He did.

Did Regan pull in to the left?—Yes.

How often was the horn blown?—I heard it only once.

Had Regan signs of drink on him?—He was not drunk but had a few bottles.

Mr Morrissey—You were in Dungarvan from 1.30 p.m. until 4.30 only?—Yes.

John Hennessy, Killosera, said he saw the accident occur. He first saw the pony and trap coming on the centre of the road and then the lorry with its lights on coming behind it. The lorry hooted and Regan pulled into the left and the lorry passed by slowly and then pulled in sharply to the left and jammed the pony against the fence. The trap was upset and the occupants and contents thrown out on the road.

To Mr Williams witness said the cause of the accident in his opinion was that the lorry driver misjudged his distance and pulled in too sharply.

Thomas Murray a helper on the lorry also gave evidence and said that as the lorry was passing the pony must have shied and that caused the accident.

Supt O'Mahony then read the statement made by O'Regan which stated that he was 47 years of age and on Dec 16th he came to Dungarvan. He left at about 4.15 p.m. and was travelling out on his left-hand side when he heard a hooter and waved on the vehicle. As it came nearer his wife said that a beet lorry was coming. It was raining hard at the time. As the lorry passed it tore against the side of the trap which was turned over and they were all thrown out on the road.

Joseph Byrne, in evidence said he was driving a lorry for 4 1/2 years and during that time he had no accident. He had been drawing beet that day from the Curragh Ardmore and was going on his fourth journey. He corroborated the statement made to Guard Farrell and said he did not pull in to the left as Mr Hennessy said, but kept on in a straight line.

Declan O'Regan gave his evidence in Irish to the same effect as in his statement and said that the pony which was on the road for 20 years did not shy.

The Justice said that no trap has the right to travel near the centre of the road as it is a slow-moving vehicle. The lorry driver did everything to get the road clear and O'Regan did pull in somewhat. He thought he then had room to pass and went ahead, and the question to be decided was how did the accident occur. He thought the lorry driver pulled over to the left a little too soon and he accepted Mr Hennessy's evidence on that. The accident was not serious and was due to a slight error of judgment.

He imposed a small fine of 10/- on the driver of the lorry.

Drunk

James Costigan, Cathal Brughna Place, was summoned by Guard Enright for being drunk on Dec 21st last. A fine of 2/6 was imposed.

Unloaded Horse and Cart

Denis Daly, 15 Loughmore Dungarvan was summoned by Guard McGowan for causing obstruction at O'Connell St., on Dec 19th by leaving his horse and cart unattended.

Defendant said that the horse was only there about 2 minutes.

The case was marked P.O.A.

Second Slaughter House Offence

Simon J Moynihan, Manager of the Dungarvan U.D.C. was plaintiff in an action under the Slaughterhouse bye-laws brought against Mrs Kathleen M Morrissey, 88, O'Connell St., Dungarvan. The summons stated that the defendant did on Sept 26th 1944, and on divers other dates at 88 O'Connell Street, use and occupy the premises there as a slaughterhouse without first having obtained a license contrary to the bye-laws made by the Dungarvan Urban District Council, and to the statute.

Mr Williams, solr, for the Dungarvan U.D.C., prosecuted and Mr P J Morrissey, solr, defended.

Mr Williams said that last July the same defendant was up on the same offence when she was convicted and fined 10/-.

Since then she has continued to use the premises and has not obtained a license.

Mr Morrissey admitted that the business was being carried on.

Mr Williams—My instructions from the Manager are to press the case.

Mr Morrissey—There is nothing in the bye-laws compelling my client to take out a license and as a violation of the statute is claimed, I submit it must be named. Since last this matter was up I put a case to Mr Lavery, concerning another premises in Dungarvan held in trust by the Urban Council for the butchers of the town. My clients applied for the use of this site and were refused, and

4th WATERFORD TROOP C.B.S.I. (St. Joseph's Abbeyside)

Troop Meeting—There was a good attendance at tonight's meeting but there were a number of multi mikes and the SM had to play Nelson's telescope trick on the Tiger Patrol when the P.L. appeared in slacks to cure a sore-throat. The first item was a Mixed Relay Race with two teams and after doing the length of the room by runs walks and hops, everyone was warmed up. The list of Scouting terms in Irish was produced and half a dozen read out. We got a short instruction on the Hygiene 2nd Class test and then a little Inter-Patrol test showed that the Wolfhound and Panther Patrols were not the worst at practicing the hygiene rules. Did we shiver though when four chaps stepped forward and informed us that they had a swim that day! For signalling instruction the Troop divided into three sections, Merit Badge Signalling in charge of P.L.s Fraher and O Shine 2nd Class in charge of P.L. G Morrissey and 1st Class with An Reactaire (N.B.—Irish for SM, and if you want the A.S.M. put Leas before it—or say 'two more for the last table'). It was suggested by the C.O.H. that the next meeting's programme be divided into three parts, one run by the P.L.s, one by an Reactaire and one by the Leas Reactaire. We want to see more neatness at the next inspection as some of the neckerchiefs looked as if they had been stuffed in keyholes to keep out the wind.

Parade—The first of 1945 will be held on next Sunday morning at 7.45 a.m. and we are looking forward to a full attendance both from Scouts and K.E.s. We may expect to see a few seniors in slacks but please not brown shoots or boozie.

45 Drive—Leas Reactaire Martin made a great job of the Monster Drive which went through without a hitch on Friday Saturday and Sunday nights. The Panther P.L. and his Patrol kept the Den in good shape during the time.

General—A number of chaps feel relieved by the fact that "K.E." did not write any Notes this week. We hear about two of the Clan who were dancing with the brush recently. The notes were rather short last week which was due to the fact that I was writing up arrears in the Troop Log and was fed up with Parades, Meetings and hikes. I heard that the SM bumped into a convoy on Monday night—what a shock for the escort but maybe they had the fifth Scout Law in mind—'A Scout is Courteous and Chivalrous etc'. The A.S.M. has been turning pages and shouting "Two more here for a table" in his sleep lately. I wonder if K.E. Seamus Mac Aod Buide at the Mansion House last Saturday night. We tuned in but failed to hear his voice or his feet. During the week we said "Good-bye" to Jimna and soon Thomas will be allowed to go back to Ballyvourney which he has been waiting to do since he came home! The "Library" was not open at all last week so we expect to see a queue line on Saturday night at 7.30 o'clock. Talking over a possible campsite for 1945 at the C.O.H. someone suggested Limerick. It would save a number of fellows postage stamps at any rate—or would it? The Troop log is up to date again and any Scout who wishes to obtain information for his record sheet may do so on Sunday morning. I am writing under a kind of a strain this week—back to school you know. I am thinking of opening a new heading next week on the lines of "Social and Personal" or "People and Places," but I am also thinking of arranging for a bodyguard first.

LEADING OPTICIANS COMING HERE NEXT WEEK.

Readers of this paper will be glad to hear that Messrs. George Prescott & Son, the well-known Opticians of 18 Upper O'Connell St., Dublin, will be paying a special visit to this district during the coming week. THOROUGH EXAMINATION

Every person, old, and young, who is suffering from any form of eye trouble such as difficulty in reading or sewing, tiredness, dizziness and headaches is cordially invited to have his or her eyes examined when an expert opinion will be given.

TO THOSE WEARING GLASSES

Should you have worn glasses for a number of years without having your eyes re-examined changes are bound to have taken place which may impair your vision. Every person who calls will be given the same painstaking attention and care that they would receive at Messrs Prescotts' Head Office in Dublin, and should glasses be necessary they will be supplied at the very moderate price for which Prescotts are famous.

WHY SUFFER ON WITH BAD SIGHT?

The lives of men, women and children to-day are made miserable by weak sight. It may not be generally known that after the age of 40 years nine out of every ten people need glasses. To go on from day to day overstraining eyes that have already grown weak is unwise.

NEGLECT IS THE GREATEST ENEMY OF GOOD SIGHT

THIS MAY BE YOUR LAST OPPORTUNITY.

Owing to travel difficulties that occur daily, Prescotts may not be able to make a return visit to this district. It is therefore, important that you arrange to visit the town nearest your home when our Representative calls. If your troubles are not caused by your eyes, you will be freely told so, and advised to seek medical attention. Prescotts aim to help all eye-sufferers—this has been proven by over 250,000 people in Eire who wear Prescotts' glasses to-day.

CAPPOQUIN NEWS

PRETTY WEDDING IN ST MARY'S CHURCH

St Mary's Catholic Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding of great local interest on last Saturday (Feast of the Epiphany) when Mr Patrick Hyland Clonmel was married to Miss Mary Whelan Crowhill Mellera.

The bridegroom is a most popular and respected young gentleman in his native town of Clonmel while the bride belongs to a very old and esteemed farming family in the Crowhill district not far from the famous Mount Mellera Abbey.

The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev T Dunphy, C.C. Cappoquin, the best man being Mr J Hyland, brother of the bridegroom while Miss Whelan, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid.

There was a very large attendance of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties present at the ceremony, at the conclusion of which the entire party motored down to the premises of Mr Thomas Uniacke Lower Main Street where a sumptuous reception was held, the catering arrangements being splendidly carried out by Mrs B Uniacke, wife of the popular proprietor.

After a most hospitable and enjoyable time there the party motored to the residence of the bride's family in Crowhill, where a big reception was held, which was continued far into the night during which the best wishes of all were extended to the bridegroom and bride on the happy occasion of their marriage.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE HURLING CLUB

The annual meeting of the Cappoquin Hurling Club will be held in the C.Y.M.S. Hall in Mill Street on next Sunday, 14th inst at 3 o'clock (S.T.)

Owing to the brilliant success of the hurling team in winning the junior championship of the county for 1944 the proceedings on this occasion are bound to be of more than ordinary interest so we trust there will be a full attendance of members on the occasion.

We hope however that no change of officers will be made for the coming year, as the officers who have steered the club so ably during their championship year, are a credit to the G.A.A. and have done much to ensure the success of the club during the past year.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE WATERFORD COUNTY CYCLING BOARD

The Waterford County Cycling Board of which Mr J Thompson Waterford is Hon President and Mr J J Foley, Cappoquin, is Hon Vice-President will hold its annual meeting in the Adelphi Hotel Waterford on next Sunday at 3 pm (S.T.) when the activities of the various Cycling Clubs in the City and County will be full reviewed.

Owing to the brilliant form displayed by Jimmy Foley in winning five Munster Championships last season besides numerous other events, we think the Cappoquin Cycling Club should easily hold pride of place in respect of last year's racing events, and we wish this prosperous club still greater successes during the coming season.

JUVENILE LADIES' CONCERT ON SUNDAY NIGHT

On next Sunday night a grand Juvenile Ladies' Concert will be held in the C.Y.M.S. Hall commencing at 8 o'clock when a most interesting vocal and instrumental programme will be produced by several of the most accomplished young artistes in the town.

The event has been organised by Miss Mary Moynihan and Miss Anne Sargent, two young ladies of outstanding talent and ability, who will be supported by several other well-known juvenile performers, so that this entertainment is bound to prove most attractive, and should be well supported by all classes of the townspeople.

MORE VISITORS FROM ENGLAND

In addition to the list of visitors from England which we gave last week, we must now include the names of Mr Joe Burns and Mrs Burns the latter being better known as Miss Gretta Walsh, who was a popular and skilful nurse on the staff of Lismore hospital for several years prior to her marriage to Mr Joe Burns over two years ago.

Both have just completed a most enjoyable holiday with Mr M F. Walsh, P.C. and Mrs Walsh, (parents of Mrs. Burns), and their numerous friends in Cappoquin and Lismore were delighted to see them looking such pictures of health and happiness, and all now wish them a continuance of this happy state in the country of their adoption.

Waterford Camogie County Convention

INTERESTING PROCEEDINGS IN CAPPOQUIN

The first annual Convention of the Waterford Camogie County Board was held in Conways Hotel, Cappoquin, on last Sunday.

Rev W Flynn, P.P. Knockanore President, presided, the other officers present being Miss Cait Flynn, Dungarvan Chairman, Miss Moyra Ryan Tallow, Treasurer, and Miss M. Montayne, Knockanore, Hon Sec.

Mr M V O'Donoghue B.E., Lismore, Chairman of the Water Co Board G.A.A., was also present, while there was a full muster of delegates from all the affiliated clubs in the county.

Satisfactory Reports
Miss M Montayne, Hon Sec submitted a very interesting report showing the activities of the various teams affiliated with the Co Board since the latter was founded some six months ago, and also giving the results of the various championship matches played which showed that Dungarvan Club had won the County Championship by defeating Knockanore in the final at Cappoquin after a great game.

Miss Moyra Ryan Treasurer also submitted a very ably-prepared Balance Sheet which showed the Co Board to be in a strong financial position, and both officers were congratulated by the Rev Chairman on the excellence of their reports, both of which were unanimously adopted, amidst applause.

Election of Officers
The election of Officers for the coming year resulted in the unanimous re-election of the following—

President—Rev W Flynn, P.P. Knockanore
Vice-President—Miss C Flynn, Dungarvan
Hon Sec—Miss M Montayne, Knockanore

Miss Moyra Ryan Tallow, outgoing Treasurer withdrew from the position and although strongly pressed to remain in office for the coming year she declined to do so and Miss R Daly Ballyduff was then elected on a ballot vote as Treasurer for the coming year.

Three Delegates to the Munster Council

On a ballot vote the following were elected as delegates to the Munster Council—Miss Cait Flynn (32) Miss Cronin (23) and Miss Joan Cotter Aglish, (14)

For the position of one delegate to the Annual Munster Convention the following were elected—Miss Cronin Miss J Cotter and Miss Biddy McGrath, Dungarvan.

For the position of one delegate to the Annual Congress, Miss M Montayne Miss C Flynn and Mr J Byrne Lismore were proposed and seconded but Mr Byrne having withdrawn his name, a poll was taken between the other two when Miss Montayne received 19 votes and Miss Flynn 17 so that the Chairman declared Miss Montayne elected.

In returning thanks to the delegates for the honour they had conferred on her, Miss Montayne said as she would be going to Dublin on private business at the same time, she would represent the Co Board at the Congress, but she would not claim any expenses from the Co Board in the matter (applause).

Lady Referees Suggested

A motion from the Ballyduff Club to the effect that in all future Camogie matches all the officials including referees and umpires, should be ladies, as across the Irish Sea.

Another popular visitor is Mr John Smith, Ballygelane, who is a great favourite amongst all sporting circles in Cappoquin, and throughout West Waterford generally.

This popular young gentleman was a well-known cross-country rider for years before going to England, as he frequently rode at Cappoquin and Lismore Point-to-Point Races, being first jockey to Mrs Smyth, Moneyvroe, who kept several noted Point-to-Pointers in pre-war days.

He is married to Miss Coughlan, daughter of Mr Daniel Coughlan, Belleville and he has received a warm welcome from all his old friends in these parts, who wish him a very pleasant holiday while he remains amongst us.

AFTER A STORM COMES A CALM

After the bustle and activity associated with the Christmas and New Year holidays, the inevitable period of calm has now set in, with the result that news of any interesting kind is unusually scarce this week.

this was a ladies association was supported by Mr C Higgins Ballyduff but was opposed by the Chairman who said that the male referees which they had within the past 5 or 6 months had always given satisfaction and he did not think the time was yet ripe to agree to the terms of this motion.

After further discussion, the motion was withdrawn.

A motion from Dungarvan Club that a juvenile grade be formed in addition to the senior grade, was supported by Mr Landers and Mr L Condon who explained that this was meant to include schoolgirls who may not be fit for senior grade.

After an interesting discussion the motion was adopted.

Mr J Byrne Lismore, suggested that an Insurance policy be taken out to cover all players injured in county matches, the same as in the G.A.A., and was favourably considered, and it was decided to have the matter brought up at the Munster Convention, which will be held in Tipperary town on Sunday Feb 11th.

Several other matters having been dealt with, the Chairman said he was very glad to see the Chairman of the Waterford Co Board present at their Convention, as it showed that the Camogie Board had the support of the G.A.A. behind it, and they all felt honoured to see Mr O'Donoghue present with them that day. He then invited Mr O'Donoghue to say a few words to the delegates before he left the meeting and in a few well-chosen words, first in Irish, and then in English, Mr O'Donoghue congratulated all the delegates on their great enthusiasm in the sport of Camogie, and appealed to them to keep up the same spirit in the future as they would always have the support of the G.A.A. behind them, (applause).

The Chairman spoke in a similar strain and said he was very thankful to all the delegates who had attended in such large numbers that day, and he appealed to all the clubs in the county to do their utmost to keep the spirit of Camogie alive and virile in the county during the coming year, (applause).

A meeting of the Camogie Co Board was subsequently held at which the Hon. Sec said she had received applications from four newly-formed Camogie Clubs in Waterford City asking for particulars as to how they were to become affiliated to the Co Board.

The Hon. Sec. was instructed to advise them to affiliate with the existing Co. Board for the present, pending the formation of an Eastern Divisional Board, when sufficient clubs have been established in East Waterford.

Presentation of Championship Medals

It was decided to hold a Ceilidhe in Lismore Courthouse, on Sunday night, Feb. 4th, when the Co. Championship Medals will be publicly presented to the winners—the members of the Dungarvan team.

A discussion took place about the cost of transport for the Dungarvan team in travelling to Lismore on the occasion, and Mr. L. Condon, proposed that Dungarvan be awarded £5 towards their expenses.

Mr J. Byrne, Lismore, proposed that they get £3, which was supported by the Chairman and other members.

On a show of hands, 12 voted for £3, and 10 for £5, and Mr. Condon said they would lay the matter before the Dungarvan club for their decision.

A vote of thanks to the Hon. Chairman concluded the meeting.

Obituary—The death occurred at Lismore District Hospital, on Saturday, Jan. 6th, of Mr Cornelius O'Brien, Church St. after a comparatively short illness. Deceased belonged to one of the oldest and most respected families in the district. In his young days he was an athlete of repute comparing favourably with the best in Munster. His passing is deeply regretted by his numerous friends.

The remains, accompanied by a huge cortege were removed to St Carthage's Church on Sunday evening and the interment took place in the Council cemetery on Monday morning in the presence of a very large gathering—R.I.P.

Death of Mrs. Mary Lynch

With deepest regret we record the death of Mrs Mary Lynch Chapel St, Lismore, which sad event took place at her residence on Sunday morning Jan 7th after a very brief illness. She was the relict of the late Mr J Lynch, who predeceased her by about seven months. Of a gentle quiet and unassuming manner, she had endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact and her passing is deeply lamented by hosts of friends over a very wide area.

A huge cortege accompanied the removal of the remains to St Carthage's Church on Monday evening. The interment took place in the Council cemetery on Tuesday morning in the presence of another huge gathering of mourners and sympathisers representative of all sections of the community—R.I.P.

Enjoyable Ceilidhe Mor

The Ceilidhe Mor at the Happydrome on Saturday night Jan 6th under the auspices of Cumann Culturtha na h-Ais-eirge proved to be a very enjoyable social function. The great support accorded this Ceilidhe shows the ever-increasing popularity of Irish dancing in the district. The Eire Instrumentalists played a delightful selection of Irish dance music. During the night Kathleen de Nebhille sang two songs viz. 'The Scenes around Lismore' and 'Won't you buy my Pretty Flowers' which were very much appreciated and Mr Thomas Healy, in his own inimitable fashion, danced a hornpipe for which he was applauded to the echo. Dancing continued until 12.30 when the playing of the National Anthem brought a memorable night to a close.

Hurling Club Card Drive—On next Sunday Jan 14th the hurling club 45 drive will take place. A lot of cards have already been returned but first rounds can also be played at Courthouse on Sunday night until 9 pm. The draw for a bicycle (proceeds to go for the renovation of the Gaelic field) will also take place on that night.

The O'Gorman Cup—At Fermoy enclosure on last Saturday Jan 6th Lismore Coursing Club ran off their annual stake. There was a huge entry for the cup their being some very useful youngsters present of whom "Lismore Castle" and "Bawneen Belle" were easily the best. The former disposed of "Glenribon Pet," "Lismore Highland" and "Lucky Biddy" on his way to the final. "Bawneen Belle" a dog of considerable promise is a daughter of the well-known champion "Wireless Rally." She beat "Hyrenacalle" and "Lucky Selection," but as she was showing signs of fatigue (having had two gruelling courses) she was withdrawn in the final. This left "Lismore Castle" a deserving winner of the Cup.

The winner is bred and owned by Mr K Lineen Ballyin who is a consistent supporter of greyhound coursing. He carries the best wishes of all coursing fans in Lismore. His brood bitch "Moneygorm Miss" has produced such fine dogs as "Lismore Castle," "Dust and Ashes" a recent winner in Clonmel and Trooper Mulligan who was purchased some months ago for a three figure mark and now racing with great success in Scotland.

I submit this was a breach of trust.

Mr Williams—On my instructions I must press for a heavy penalty.

Justice—The penalty I can impose is £5 for the offence and £5 a day as long as the nuisance is continued, that is from Sept 26th last.

Mr Morrissey then went on to point out that his clients slaughterhouse was well kept. There was no chance of obtaining alternative accommodation in the town except the meat shambles on the Quay, which was originally the gift of the Duke of Devonshire to be held in trust for the town butchers by the Commissioners. On Oct 17th last they wrote to the Urban Council asking them to erect a building suitable as a slaughterhouse or if not his clients would do so at their own expense. The reply they received was that this site was not suitable though his client says it is the most ideal place in town.

Justice—What other alternative site is there?

Mr Byrne MRCVS—There is none as far as I know.

Mr Morrissey—If the Urban Council are satisfied we are agreeable to enlarge the present slaughterhouse to meet the requirements if it is allowed in the same place.

Mr Byrne—The only objection of the Co MOH is that offal and manure is taken through the stall.

Justice—But isn't it allowed to hang up the meat on the side of the street. The regulation is very funny and is lopsided.

Mr Morrissey—One man has already been put out of business in the town by these regulations.

Mr O'Meara (Acting Town Clerk)—In fairness to the Council I don't think the man was put out of business by the Urban Council. Perhaps there was another reason.

Justice—I think that is a matter to be discussed at a Council meeting. While there is no hope of alternative accommodation I think Mr Morrissey's offer is fair.

Mr Williams—If Mr Morrissey puts all his proposals in writing I will submit them to the Co MOH.

The Justice then adjourned the case for a month to allow this to be done.

Three Months Suspensory Sentence

In the adjourned case of Supt P O Mahony v Patrick Neaham Abbeyside the Supt said that if any defendant ever tiffled with the court this fellow did. He stated at the last hearing of the case that he was home from England to make provision for his wife who was to go to hospital but he did nothing like this. He is now drawing the dole and under the circumstances he said he couldn't let the matter go without asking for punishment. He thought that if a suspensory sentence were passed or if defendant was bound over for 2 or 3 years it would meet the case.

Justice—I feel like sending him to jail but I'll impose a suspensory sentence of 3 calendar months with hard labour warrant not to issue unless the Superintendent requests it within twelve months.

Trespass of Fowl

John Hennessy Killossera claimed £2 damages from Patk Landers same address for the trespass of twelve fowl on complainants potato garden on Nov 1st 2nd 3rd and 4th last.

Mr Kenny soir appeared for plaintiff.

Mr Hennessy in evidence said that he owns a farm at Killossera and the defendant is caretaker of the adjoining land owned by Mr O'Donnell. He has had terrible trouble by defendant's hens since last spring and each time he approached Landers to take them away he refused. All he wanted was to have the nuisance stopped.

Mr Morrissey, soir, for defendant cross-examined and the Justice stating that it was most annoying to have fowl going in destroying gardens gave a decree for 10/- with 20/- costs and warned defendant that if the case came on again he would certainly put a stop to it.

Assault Actions

William Attridge Keating St, summoned Patrick Moylan, Junr Davis Street for striking him with his fists and kicking him in the face and all over the body causing numerous cuts and bruises on Dec 4th last, whereby he lost a day's work and ruined his suit and shirt.

A cross-summons was issued by Moylan against Attridge for striking him in the mouth on the same day.

Moylan also summoned James

Attridge, Keating Street, for assaulting him at the Town Hall on Dec. 26th last.

On Mr Farrell's application the case was adjourned. Mr Farrell also stated that some of his witnesses had been intimidated and the Justice said that anyone who intimidates witnesses will be very severely dealt with.

Alleged Larceny

Supt O'Mahony summoned Patrick Dunne (17) 13 St Bridget's Terrace, for stealing in November or December last from Mr Maurice Fraher Grattan Square, a scarf valued 12/6, a gent's belt valued 5/3 and a tie valued 2/11.

Mr Farrell soir, defended. John Cahill said he was employed at Mr Fraher's and they stocked a scarf the same as that produced in court. It was kept hanging on a line in front of the shop and he last saw it there about 5 or 6 weeks ago. Some 3 weeks back he was asked about it for a customer and then found it missing. He next saw it with Guard O'Dea.

Guard O'Dea in evidence said he made inquiries into the case and spoke to Dunne who handed over the articles and said he had found them in a parcel on the footpath between Fraher's and the Post Office. Defendant took them home and gave the belt to his brother and wore the scarf and tie himself.

Mr Farrell—Has the full price for them been paid?—Yes.

Justice (to defendant)—You know when you found it and took it home you stole it?—No sir I thought I might have found out who owned it.

Did you think of going to the Guards?—No.

Why don't you be honest and say you meant to keep them?—I didn't mean to keep them.

Justice—He really deserves punishment. It would be a decent thing to come in and admit it but he comes here clothed in the white veil of innocence and tells lies and very badly at that. I'm satisfied he didn't find the parcel as no one in Fraher's sold the articles. I'm very tempted to punish him but as he is so young and is working and good to his people I'll reluctantly give him the benefit of the P.O.A.

Alleged Larceny Case Dismissed

Thomas Kiely Kilbrien Upper was charged by Supt O Mahony that (1) he did steal a bicycle wheel complete with tube and axle the property of Mrs Mary Dunford Bohadon value for £1 10s (2) he did steal one bicycle chain value for 10/-, and (3) did receive these articles well knowing them to have been stolen.

Mrs Dunford in evidence said that the wheel was stolen from her in Aug 1943 and she identified the wheel produced in court (on defendant's bike) as hers.

Detective-Guard Gordon gave evidence of making inquiries into the case and at the conclusion of the evidence Mr Farrell soir for defendant asked that the case be dismissed as there was no evidence against his client.

The Justice dismissed the case but ordered that the wheel be returned to Mrs Dunford.

Children's Court

Four youths from Mitchel St and Loughmore were summoned by Guard Begley for hurling on the public street on Dec 27th last.

After receiving a warning from the Justice the youthful defendants were let go.

Larceny Charges

Anthony Condon and his father Michael Condon Mitchel St Dungarvan were charged by Supt O Mahony for stealing a bottle of wine value 7/6 the property of Messrs R A Merry & Co Dungarvan.

Michael Sandford and his father Richard Sandford same address were charged with the same offence.

The same defendants were also summoned by Guard Farrell, for holding on to a moving motor lorry without the permission of the driver.

Supt O'Mahony said that on Dec 15th, one of Merry's lorries was coming into town after a delivery when these two boys hung on to the back of it. Young Condon lifted the lid off a box and took a bottle of wine. They were seen by a citizen who followed them and the bottle of wine was thrown away and broken.

Mr Farrell, soir, defended, and the Justice after hearing further evidence marked the case P.O.A.

Damage to Trees

Richard Young, and Augustine Young Sheare's St, Abbeyside Michael Organ and Molly Organ do, Matthew Organ and Patrick Organ do, were summoned by Miss Joan Nugent, Cloncoskaine, for unlawfully cutting growing trees, on Dec 7th last.

Mr Williams soir, for Miss Nugent, prosecuted, and Mr Morrissey, soir, defended. ML

FLEETING DAYS

The arrival of another year serves to remind us how quickly the days pass. Autumn gives place to Winter and presently Spring is back again. This procession of the seasons takes on a note of urgency when we are thinking in terms of cultivation and particularly of

WINTER WHEAT

The Autumn just past was unusually wet, winter, so far, has been very inclement, but with the coming of the new year we may hope for finer weather WHEN it does come.

NO TIME CAN BE LOST

for the wheat programme is a big one and a substantial proportion of it must be completed before the middle of February.

N.B.—Ample supplies of wheat seed of winter varieties are available, including Queen Wilhelmina, Fajbjerg and Squarhead's Master Dress all your seed with a mercurial dressing and sow as much as possible before the middle of February.

and Molly Organ

Mr Williams said that during the past 12 months Miss Nugent had deliberately withheld summoning these boys but she has had continued annoyance in that time. A padlock was broken, gate-posts removed, barbed wire cut, and gates left open.

Mr Foley the wood-ranger said he caught the two Organs and Young cutting a young ash tree worth £2. The damage done in the demesne is something scandalous.

Mr Morrissey pleaded for his clients.

Mr Williams—I might mention that Miss Nugent had a list of deserving families to whom she was giving a gift of free timber for Xmas but as a result of this these two families were cut off.

Justice—Miss Nugent has been very kind to the poor and it is base ingratitude for them to go annoying her. It is very unfair to the children also if their parents allow them to go on stealing and they can't be blamed if parents encourage them.

Fines of 1/- in each case were imposed with 3/- compensation and 17/- costs.

Mr Patrick Organ, Abbeyside father of one of the defendants, said that at the time his child took the timber he was getting the paltry sum of 9/- a week to live on and couldn't do it. He couldn't pay the fine imposed nor did he intend to. He was an old I.R.A. man, he said, and was never inside the courthouse before nor was his child.

DUNGARVAN POINT-TO-POINT RACES

The Irish National Hunt Steeplechase Committee and Stewards meet this week in Dublin to fix and allocate the dates on which various Point-to-Point Fixtures all over the country shall be held

This year there is one further application they must consider from a new comer to Point-to-Point Racing - Dungarvan

Naturally existing Fixtures have preference as to dates but it seems definite that Dungarvan Races will be held either on the 1st March or on the 28th of March next.

A fine bank course has been completed at Killosera. Probably there is not a better course in the South of Ireland from point of view of safety and view

The thanks of the Dungarvan Race Committee are due to Mr Jack Wall and to all those who by their voluntary assistance so greatly lightened the costs of this huge undertaking

Were the entire job contracted out to be completed, on the present scale the expense and cost would be enormous

As it is, a very considerable amount of money has been spent and the Committee appeal to all and sundry for subscriptions to meet this expenditure and to meet future expenses which they are bound to incur up to and even after the fixture is held

Speed The Plough

THE present period is the all-important time on which depends the reaping of a good harvest in the autumn. Irish farmers have done a magnificent job during the past five years and were it not for the herculean effort put in by them at the most critical period the Irish people would once again have been faced with the rigours of famine. But thanks to Providence and their efforts there was enough for all.

In order to further increase the acreage under crops in the coming year no time can be lost and the farmer must once again get his ploughshares into action. Now is the time to sow winter wheat and farmers are advised to put in as much winter wheat as possible as it has proved a better investment to be reaped in the early autumn than the later types. There is no use in waiting when the work must be done so speed the Plough.

News Of The Town And Round About

MASS FOR LATE CO SURVEYOR

On Tuesday morning next at 11 a.m. Mass will be offered at St. Mary's Parish Church at the request of the members of the Waterford County Council, for the repose of the soul of the late John Bowen B.E. County Surveyor of Waterford

GARDA DANCE

Never did such a merry throng of dancers fill the Town Hall to capacity as they did at the Garda Benevolent Fund Dance on last Wednesday night. Dancers from the length and breadth of the county were there in force—from Tallow to Waterford and from Ardmore to Clonmel and they came and all thoroughly enjoyed a first-class night's dancing. The hall was beautifully decorated and the Committee in charge in which all the local Guards gave great help, had all arrangements perfect. So great was the enthusiasm of the dancers that a special request was made for an hour's extension which was granted amid applause for Pat Walsh and his band who consented to play on. At the close of the night Superintendent P. O'Mahony thanked all for the great support they had given the dance, and said that he hoped they had enjoyed it as was the wish of the Committee.

LATE MISS MARY CURRAN BALLINTLEA

The death occurred on Friday last January 5th of Miss Mary Curran Ballintlea, Old Parish. Deceased had reached the fine age of 87 years and was well-known in Dungarvan years ago where she lived with her uncle the late John Curran Grattan Square. The burial took place in Old Parish on Sunday last and on the following morning Requiem Office and High Mass at which fifteen priests attended was held for the repose of her soul.

Usual 6d Drives on tonight (Friday) and Sunday (An Cosantoir—JANUARY, 1945)

What promises to be a most interesting and valuable series of articles on "Irish Leaders of Our Time" opens in "An Cosantoir" this month with a very fine study of Tom Clarke, by Donagh McDonagh. Too much of the history of the last half-century is in danger of being lost or of surviving only as legend, and these contributions to authentic history will be welcomed by a wide circle of readers and students. Tom Clarke represented one of the most significant links in the long story of the national struggle for freedom. As an uncompromising representative of the old Fenian tradition he lived on to set his name to the Declaration of the Irish Republic in 1916 and to give his life in its defence. Mr. McDonagh writes of the man and his period with insight and sympathy.

"Practice Makes Perfect" by Comdt. J. Adams covers effectively and comprehensively the problem of instructing and exercising the trained soldier.

"An Fiannuilgeacht" is introductory to a series on the ancient Fianna and "One Day on Kwajalein" continues an entrancing narrative of present-day close-quarter fighting.

"You're Part of the Infantry" is addressed directly and in forthright fashion to Junior Officers, and in "Physical Training for the L.D.F." every member of the Force will find food for thought and "a corner in the framework of a blueprint for the nation."

"Beal-Atha-Na-Buidhe," "We Learned in Tunisia and Sicily," "Simple Aerial Navigation" and "Deception" are but a few of the other notable features this month.

LITERARY CLUB DANCE

The Literary Club are holding their 10th Annual Dance on Wednesday 24th January 1945. That is a rather historic date because it will be the completion of half a score of consistently good dances. Never has this club had a failure or even a mediocre dance. They were all good and the 10th will be as good as the rest. All arrangements have now been made including the booking of the band that always makes Dungarvan want to dance—Mick Delahunty's Mick is looking forward to coming to Dungarvan on the 24th because he knows he has many friends there. Tickets are already being sold, so we can expect to see a record crowd in the Town Hall on January 24th.

mór at Moorehill Hall, on Sunday Jan. 21st, for full particulars see next week's issue Local Tit-Bits—We noticed one of the 'boys' looked very down and out the other night when one of the colleen's asked him for the "ladies choice" We heard some of the County Cork boys had a very busy day recently Somehow the "gander" business was very fishy, but sure twas a good excuse, and a New Year dawns much nicer in an adjoining county

BALLYDUFF NEWS

Holidays Over—The last of the holidays has passed away, and once again we have sunk back into the old familiar workaday groove

Soon the crib will be put away too, and for another year we will not see the familiar but never too familiar figures in the crib

Christmas has gone, and now we look forward to spring Already we gratefully note the lengthening evenings—the old people used to say that there was a 'cois céim chullog' on little Christmas day in the length of the evening

The weather is hard and cold, and despite extra clothing we shiver perhaps there was method in Brian O'Lynn's madness when he made himself a sheep-skin suit and turned the woolly side in We would advise our readers if they do contemplate making themselves a similar suit to wear it in the orthodox fashion

The daisy is pushing its meek head through the grass here and there and poor robin red breast is doing his best with his little piping song to cheer us and in his own way he is trying to tell us that the north wind will not blow always Poor faithful bird he stays with us when the rest of the feathered kind disport themselves in warm countries

However "all things pass and thou too with them" to quote Thomas A Kempis So if we have patience the winter will pass and spring, full of promise will take its place

Hunt Club—The next meet will take place on Sunday next in the village at the usual time The result of the recent draw organised by the club is published elsewhere in this issue

More And More Idle Thoughts—We were thinking (1) Could anybody invent a polish that would put a gloss on the brazen cheek of some people!

(2) The old Irish proverb says "You can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear" but could a purse be made out of the skin of one's teeth?

(3) Could anybody invent anything that could kill bees in bonnets or bats in the belfry If any of our local geniuses could be utilised to invent anything of this kind we would put West Waterford and Ballyduff for all time on the face of the map!

Finally you're wondering why inflict the unfortunate readers with so much raméls Well what is there to write about—if the sky fell or if the river suddenly got tired of flowing towards Cappoquin and thence to Youghal and turned back to its native Kerry then we'd write and write but since we can't write sense then we'll write nonsense, but we are determined that no matter what happens we will keep a corner in the "Dungarvan Leader"

The Orphan's Request

What will the New Year bring us? Was the question a little maid asked. Is it with joy it will greet us or only renew the sad past? I thought that when Christmas would come Mother, Daddy would come to us here. But he has not come once to see us though now he's been gone a whole year.

'Twas last Christmas Eve I remember, when Daddy left you and I. To go with the regiment away dear and they said that the enemy's nigh. He promised he'd come back so soon again, but he has not come back to us yet. And I know that he has not forgotten for he loved us too well to forget.

Last night when you thought I was sleeping I heard Grandmother in a voice soft and low. Say—there was word he had fallen in battle and was where the loved ones go. So I thought I would write to the Angels, just a message from you and I. To send back Daddy again to us from their bright home up on high.

Dear dear Angels please send back Daddy to me, Mother and I are so lonely since he has gone up to thee. I have missed him so sadly and mother is lonely too. For her eyes fill with tears—tears of sorrow when I mention that message to you.

Dear Angels, please tell him I've grown so and perhaps he will come back once more. And next birthday I know he'll remember his little one will be just four. And tell him I've cared so for mother but that every night when I pray, Her eyes fill with tears—tears of sorrow when that message I again to you say.

I know little children are loved by God, and He always comes to their aid. I know He will hear me and answer that's the reason dear angels, I've prayed, He knows we need daddy so badly for now there's no one to help or care. I know He will see our great sorrow—and will answer His little one's prayer.

Bars At Dances—In the course of a discussion at this week's meeting of Carrick-on-Suir Urban Council, re alterations in the dance hall at the Town Hall, when a member said the bar is very unsatisfactory at the hall, Mr Babington said he held there should be no bars at dances.

Another member said it was better that those who want to get a drink should get it in the hall instead of going out to public houses all over the town.

Decline in Applications for Tillage Plots—At this week's meeting of Carrick-on-Suir UDC it was stated that there has been a big falling off in the number of persons applying for plots for tillage. In 1943 the number was 380 in 1944 183 and for 1945 only 130. Causes assigned for the falling off were emigration to England difficulty of getting manures and increased employment of young men in town (at the local tannery and other places).

It was decided to ask the local priests to appeal at the Masses next Sunday for support for the tillage plot scheme. Plots, seed, manures and implements are given free to all persons whose means are under £1 per week.

Good Support for Co Library Branch—It was reported at the meeting of Carrick UDC that although the Carrick Branch of the County Free Library has been operating for only three weeks almost all the books in the library are out on loan. There is a good demand for books on history biography, travel and science.

Late Mrs B Walsh, New St, Carrick-on-Suir—The late Mrs Bridget Walsh, New Street, Carrick-on-Suir was an aunt of Rev Cyprian Aylward, C.P., Mount Argus Dublin.

Father Cyprian was the celebrant of High Mass for the repose of the soul of deceased on Monday last at St Nicholas' Church, Carrick-on-Suir. The interment took place at Carrickbeg Friary.

OUR WATERFORD LETTER

Oro Sa De Bheata Abhalla! I had the pleasure of meeting during the last weekend Mr William O'Shea (third Engineer of the "Irish Elm" who was spending a holiday with his relatives in Ballytruckle after returning from a recent voyage Mr O'Shea is a member of a very talented Waterford family He was a keen student of plumbing and engineering in the Central Technical Institute about 8 years ago In his residence Waterloo House, Ballytruckle there are many specimens of his handcraft (copper kettles, etc, etc) which were made in the "Tech" and represent lasting souvenirs of his industry and technical ability

"Like Father Like Son"—Mr William O'Shea, is a fluent speaker of Irish like his father (a former employee of the Tramway Railway) who was born and reared in the Parish of Dunhill Mr William O'Shea (senior) is a native speaker who has always retained a great "gradh" for the old tongue Mr O'Shea who is an ordinary working man, deserves great credit for the first-class education that he gave his many sons which enables them to hold very responsible positions at home and abroad

Barrack Street Band Concert—The members of the Barrack Street Brass and Reed Band, will hold a concert in the Large Room, City Hall, on Wednesday, January 17th, which should attract a very large audience The programme is a very varied one including selections by the Band of popular operatic airs and marches and contributions by several of the artistes who recently appeared in the very successful Pantomime "Cinderella" in the Theatre Royal I think it will be one of the most enjoyable concerts held in the city for a long time

The Crib in The Franciscan Church—The Crib in the Franciscan Church is much admired by persons frequenting that Church It is a very realistic and artistic representation of the Stable of Bethlehem where Our Saviour was born When you enter the Church the illuminated words "Gloria In Excelsis Deo" (over the crib) at once catch the eye A scintillating star to the left of the crib indicates the arrival of the Three Wise Men The scene is very devotional and beautifully planned

Margarine Factory Re Opened—Messrs W & C McDonnell, started the manufacturing of margarine in their big factory (the second largest in Eire) in William Street this week The factory will give much-needed employment to many men and girls

Master David Cronin—In my last letter I referred to Master David Cronin's versatility as a pantomime artiste He is one of the most talented youths in the city, an accomplished actor an expert conjuror, a ventriloquist who can do turns that would do credit to a professional, and a pianist of marked ability He is a fluent speaker of Irish and proud of the fact I met him daily in his father's bakery premises John Street (where he assists in the management of the concern) and I find it a pleasure to transact business with him through the medium of Irish

A Vague Licensing Bye Law—A local builder who is repairing a licensed premises (which has been closed for a long period) showed me the following printed notice which he discovered on the premises—"Persons Calling Here Before And After Hours Are Only Allowed Ten Minutes." There is no date on the notice so that it is not possible to state if the wording was extracted from a section or sub-section of the old British Government Licensing Laws The phraseology is so vague that it could hardly be used in evidence in the case of a "non-bona" being found on the said premises during the prohibited hours

New Headquarters of the St. Vincent de Paul Society—The big building in Lady Lane, an old Town House erected 200 years ago has been acquired by the St. Vincent de Paul Society. The Gaelic League, which was located there for some years has moved to a commodious building on the Mall The St. Vincent de Paul Society will have their headquarters in Lady Lane where conferences will be held and where their manifold activities will be centralised. Provision is made for a Night Shelter for men in the Lady Lane Building. For many months past Mr. Michael Hayes, Building Contractor, Farnell St., has been busy repairing the fine premises, and Messrs. Kearney Brothers,

Painting Contractors, were entrusted with the painting Both contractors did their respective jobs in a very satisfactory manner I inspected the premises this week and was impressed with the brand new appearance of the building

YOUGHAL DOCTOR'S FUNERAL

The late Dr J. F. Ronayne, Ardsallagh, Youghal, whose death occurred during the week was the eldest son of the late Mr. John Ronayne of Ardsallagh, who will be remembered as one of the great protagonists on behalf of the Youghal fishermen in the famous Youghal Fishery case against the Duke of Devonshire. The case was won in every court in Ireland, but the Duke appealed it to the House of Lords where he got a verdict in his favour.

The late Dr. Ronayne travelled extensively and spent some time in the British Navy from which he retired and carried on a lucrative practice in Liverpool for some years, after which he returned to Ireland where he continued his medical practice. Always of a kindly and generous

IMPROVING THE FAT CONTENT OF MILK

Farmers are always trying to discover some method of feeding their cows which will improve the fat content of the milk But the opinion among scientists, as well as the experience of practical men, on the whole, is that feeding has very little, if any, influence in this respect The weight of milk yielded by a cow can usually be modified fairly easily by changes in feeding On the other hand, the butter-fat content of any cow's milk seems to depend almost entirely on her ancestry. When a female calf is born she is endowed with a capacity to produce milk when mature, containing a certain percentage of fat which varies slightly with the animal's age, but which cannot be altered by changing her diet Jersey and Guernsey cows are, of course, famous for the high butter-fat percentages of their milk, while among Shorthorns and other breeds some individuals and strains yield much richer milk than that given by others of the same breed If it is desired to level up the average butter-fat yield of a herd, the only means of doing so is to breed from parents who come of strains noted for the richness of their milk

To the general rule that feeding has no influence on the quality of the milk, there are, it is true, a few apparent exceptions. One is seen in the effect of early summer pasture in lowering of the percentage of fat—a well-known and annual occurrence. Again, if cows have been underfed, either through accident or ignorance, and are afterwards put on a properly-balanced ration, there is almost certain to be an increase, not only in the quantity of milk yielded, but also in the butter-fat percentage of the milk.

SAVE WASTE PAPER IT IS A NATIONAL DUTY

disposition, the deceased doctor was deservedly popular in both counties of Cork and Waterford, where both he and his family were well known. To the members of his family deep sympathy is extended. During the funeral the Town Hall was filled, a traditional honour to members of the Ronayne family.
