DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT

MANY CASES DEALT WITH

Irish Used Freely.

The Dungarvan District Court was held before Mr Sean Treo, D.J., at the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Tuesday and occupied the entire day. We commend the action of the District Justice in fostering the Irish tongue in his courts as Irish was used freely at Tuesday's hearing.

Decrees were given in applications for ejectments made by Mrs Kathleen Healy Old Blackrock Road, Cork against Joseph Whelan Still Lane Dungarvan and to the Urban District Council against Edward Kirby, Mary Barry and Stephen Barry, 23 Cathal Brugha Place.

In the case of Mrs Johanna Nugent, Windgap Dungarvan, against Daniel Stokes, Killongford the application was refused.

Mr Williams solr was for plaintiff and Mr Morrissey solr was for defendant.

Plaintiff in evidence said that defendant was tenant of her house at Killongford at a weekly tenancy of 5/- per week and that 19 weeks arrears were due.

Cross-examined by Mr Morrissey plaintiff said that she never refused to accept money from Stokes and that the reason she wanted the house was that defendant was causing damage.

Defendant in evidence said that the last time Mrs. Nugent called she refused the rent and said she wanted the house.

P J Stokes son of defendant also gave evidence.

The case was adjourned until March 13th and if the rent is paid by then no order for possession will be given.

Alleged Assault At Old Chapel Lane

William Attridge of Keating St summoned Patrick Moylan Junior, of Davis St, that he did on Dec 4th last strike him with his fists and kicked him into the face and all over the body causing numerous cuts and bruises.

As a result plaintiff lost Monday's work and ruined his suit and shirt.

A cross summons was issued by Moylan against Attridge for assault on the same day and a further summons by Moylan against Attridge for assaulting him at the Town Hall on Dec 26th was also issued.

Mr A R Farrell, solr, was for plaintiff and Mr C Quinlan solr Waterford, defended.

Opening the case Mr Farrell said that this was a case of a savage assault on his client who was deliberately waylaid on the night in question. The assault, he said was due to the fact that plaintiff gave evidence for a man named Kiely in a case against defendant which was heard last June since then plaintiff has been assaulted several times by different members of the Moylan family.

William Attridge in evidence said that on Dec 4th last he was at a dance in the Town Hall and about 3.30 a.m. he was going home by Main St, and O'Connell St. He noticed a crowd ahead of him and as he passed he noticed two named Meskill and Havens. Having passed them he turned into Old Chapel Lane and then saw a man coming out of a doorway towards him and recognised him as Moylan. Moylan said to him—"you went again me in the court and swore false."

He then hit me said witness and I hit back Moylan shouted for Mick Meskill who came up and while Moylan held my hands Meskill hit me all over. I fell and Paddy Moylan kicked me in the side, the legs and the neck. I got up and Guard Giblin then came along and told me to go home. I got my face bathed as there were cuts on my forehead, cheeks, nose and neck. The knees had been torn out of my good trousers, and I had to get my coat cleaned as it was all blood. I was unable to go to work next day at Messrs. Sheehan Ryan's. On Tuesday I was attended by Dr Ryan.

In reply to Mr Farrell, plaintiff said that he estimated the damage to his clothes at £2 and 10/- for loss of work. Dr Ryan had attended him three or four times. He had been troubled by the Moylans ever since he had acted as witness for Kiely last June. Moylan's father had attacked him in Main Street some time ago and had tore his shirt and said to him "I'll get you no matter where you go." He was also assaulted by another member of the family last November but both these cases were settled out of court, and he wanted the thing settled as he was afraid of the Moylans.

Plaintiff also stated that he had been in England for nearly three years and was involved in a row there once. He had been charged in England for not reporting to the police and had got six weeks after which he had been given the option of joining the British Forces or going home. He had come home. He had never been in any trouble here.

Mr Quinlan solr—"You say you were never in trouble here?"

—Yes.

Did you ever assault a clergyman?—No.

Were you ever taken to the Garda Barracks?—I was.

Why didn't you tell the whole story to your solicitor? Where were you at 10.30 p.m. that Sunday night and what happened?

—Nothing.

Did you see Moylan and Maurice Whelan talking in the Square?—No.

They'll swear that when you were going to the dance you came along and were drunk and wanted to fight Moylan. Will they be swearing false?—Yes.

Was there a bar at the dance?—Yes.

From 10.30 p.m. until 3.30 a.m. how many drinks did you have?—It was 12 o'clock when I went into the dance.

And I suppose you were studying the stars until then how many drinks did you have?—I had three small stouts.

How did your coat get on the ground during the row?—Moylan whipped it over my head when they tried to do me rightly.

You started the hostilities when you said "will you fight me Moylan"?—No.

The sickness you had on Monday was due to being drunk on Sunday and partly to the scuffle started by yourself?—No.

On Dec 26th at the Town Hall didn't the Attridge faction open up on the Moylans, and the Guards had to remove the Attridges from the hall?—I was not there.

You were the cause of the trouble yourself?—No, it is lies.

Mr Farrell—"You had witnesses named Paddy Noonan, and John J Donnelly for this case?"—Yes.

Are they coming here?—I don't think so.

Why?—They are afraid.

Mr Quinlan objected at this point and said that that statement would have to be proved.

Dr P Ryan, said that he attended Attridge on the Tuesday after the occurrence and he found ten small superficial abrasions on the face, an old blood-clot in the nose and about fifty drops of blood on the coat. There were also bruises on the legs. He stated that plaintiff was a good worker.

The names of Thomas Donovan and Patrick Mooney, both of Cathal Brugha Place—two witnesses—were called, but neither was present.

him back. Patrick McCarthy came to make the peace, but Attridge told him to go about his business. Martin Walsh Mooney, Donovan, and Meskill then came along.

Mr Quinlan—"Is Meskill sometimes known as Healy?"

—Yes.

Witness continued "Attridge then hit Meskill and Meskill went away home and then Guard Giblin and Detective Guard Gordon, came along. On Dec 26th the Attridges set on me and they had to be put out of the hall by the Guards."

Mr Farrell—"If Attridge was drunk at 10.30 p.m. he must have been very bad at 3.30 a.m.?"

—He was tearing the clothes off himself and mad for fight.

Haven't you a grudge against him for giving evidence against you?—No.

Michael Meskill in evidence said "I was coming home from the dance at about 3.30 a.m. with a crowd and saw a row near the "Leader" Office. I went over and saw it was Attridge and Moylan, and I said "throw it away and stop."

Attridge abused me and hit me a poke in the mouth, I went away then. Attridge was well on it at the time."

Mr Farrell—"You were reared by the Moylans, and you are a cousin of Moylan?"—Yes.

Did the "poke" hurt you?—No.

Did you pull the coat over Attridge's head?—No.

Did you threaten Mooney and Donovan and tell them not to come here today?—No.

Maurice Whelan said that he was standing near the weigh-house with Paddy Moylan after the pictures on Dec 3rd.

Attridge, who was nearly drunk came along and used nasty language and wanted to fight Moylan. Moylan said "go away, I don't want anything to do with you."

Martin Walsh, Cappagh, gave evidence of seeing the row after the dance. He thought Attridge was in good fighting form then.

Mr Quinlan—"He was well oiled and trimmed?"—Yes.

Detective Guard Gordon also gave evidence.

Justice—"I am not satisfied that Attridge was attacked without cause he was drunk and looking for trouble and he got it. I feel I should bind both of them to the peace but on this occasion I will dismiss the summonses on the merits."

License Transfer

On the application of Mr J F Kenny, solr, on behalf of Michael Power, O'Connell St, the license held by his late father in respect of the premises in O'Connell Street, was transferred to him.

Club Registration

The renewal of the application for club registration made by Mr Kenny solr, on behalf of Thomas Maher Secretary, Dungarvan Club, was granted.

Catholic Scout Notes

4th WATERFORD TROOP C B S I. (St. Joseph's Abbeyside)

Hike—Though not exactly according to plan a hike took place on Sunday when P.L. G Morrissey and some Scouts from each Patrol set out for Deelish where they spent a lively time. They reported back at the Den after tea wearing muddy boots and smiles.

Troop Meeting—The game which opened Wednesday's Meeting was a relay race at which the small chaps like Scout T Maher were faster than the long-legged chaps.

There were two teams and every Scout in turn had to race to the other end of the room walking only on two sheets of paper. It took a lot of bending and twisting to get this done and P.L. J Fraher's team won the race by having the whole team transferred first.

After Patrol work we had a bandaging demonstration and then a competition. With each Patrol lined up and a patient ready ears were cocked to listen to a tune which gave a hint of where the bandages were to be applied.

"Step together" meant that bandages were to go on 'firm each FOOT erect each "HEAD" There were five tunes played altogether and the Panther Patrol were very quick at spotting the hints and won the competition.

The P.L.'s special job at this meeting was to set up Signalling Stations, Readers Senders Receivers and Writers to show Scouts how it should be done.

The practice showed that the Writers were the mistake-makers. This is an item to be included for outdoor practice at next Patrol Meetings.

The Scout Law on the list for mending tonight was the 5th "A Scout is Courteous and Chivalrous."

References were made to a gent who once spread his coat on a muddy road for a lady to walk on but it looked as if some chaps thought that this kind of chivalry was very foolish.

We know some chaps who don't don their new coats for ladies to walk on. We were glad to have our Chaplain at the Den tonight and we look forward to a treat which he will provide by taking the Troop and Clan to "Going My Way" next week.

General—The COH is planning to scalp a few Scouts who let us down on Wednesday night without explanation. Some of the chaps who were to be first-class Scouts by 17th March ought to begin waking up now.

Discussion on camp by the P.L.'s took place on Wednesday night and some chaps favour the banks of the Shannon above Limerick as an attractive site.

The Troop was planning to go there a few years ago but went to Cobh instead. Two of the K.E. Clan say they will hike to the Puck Fair for holidays.

They are the chaps who did a cycling tour last year and they have been getting their "bivy" ready. We must keep an eye on the brush now as they pinched it last year to use as a tent pole.

—PANTHER.

REGENT DEATH—Mrs. Cait Foley, Stella Maris Kildare who has died, was wife of Mr Maurice P Foley B.E. Assistant Co Engineer, Kildare. Prior to her marriage—Mrs Foley, who was daughter of Mr M. Landers, NT, Blessington, was a domestic economy instructor at Dungarvan.

Western Divisional G.A.A. Notes

(By AN RUNAIDHE)

Abbeyside Anxious To Cater For Minors—The officials of Abbeyside (St. Augustine's) Hurling Club are anxious to have a minor hurling team in the championships. I can't say if it will now be accepted, but I certainly am in favour of as many minor teams as possible in the Division. Without the youths we cannot make progress. Seeing that the first rounds have not yet been played, if any minor team were willing to play Abbeyside, I would recommend a concession being made in this case.

Of course if there is no team available to play, then I am afraid nothing can be done as it would only give a lead to teams to enter late so they would have a bye in the first round.

Senior Football At Dungarvan On Sunday—From what I have heard of the selection made to play Cork on Sunday, I am very much in favour of it. If all goes well and the team turns out as selected I look forward to a good game. Now is the chance for the selectors to find a team to beat Tipp next June.

Sunday's game should give the Stradbally selectors a good idea of the worth of Sunday's team and the two matches on the following Sunday should provide men to fill the places of any who are not up to the mark on Sunday.

Great Attraction At Dungarvan—The Russell Cup games at Dungarvan on Sunday week promise to be the attraction of the year. Interest is steadily mounting as the date draws nearer.

Ballycoe are hard at it getting their team fit for the match with Dungarvan. The Blues on the other hand are in a confident mood, and for the first time for years the footballers are getting the pride of place in the attention of the club officials.

Who will win this first game is the question asked everywhere. Since Dungarvan juniors defeated Ballycoe last year a lot of people think Dungarvan lost a final due to a clerical error in their list. Sunday week will tell. Kilrossanty will also be out trying a come back.

No matter what defeats they take these Comeragh boys can always be relied on to give as good as they get. Stradbally with a big percentage of the players on Sunday's team are fit and ready and needless to say are favourites for the game. Anyway the selectors will have something to go by for this year's pick.

St. Patrick's Night At Dungarvan—The local club are providing a novel feature in a Question-Time during their Concert on St. Patrick's Night at the Town Hall. The Dungarvan Orchestral Society will provide a special programme of music before and during the concert.

Several well-known singers and artistes have consented to contribute. The night promises to be the most successful for years. Tickets reserving seats at 2/6 can be secured during next week.

Things That I have Heard—That the new St. Patrick's Club have secured a well-known Co. Cork hurler for this year's contests.

That Ring club have also got a new footballer with inter-county experience.

That Dungarvan have strengthened both their clubs with a well-known hurler and footballer and they expect to have another very soon.

DUNGARVAN GNORAL SOCIETY—Music lovers in Dungarvan district will be pleased to know that the above Society is giving its 2nd Annual Concert on April 4th and which will be broadcast.

The members under the very capable direction of Miss Maureen Delany, A.T.C.L., are working very hard to make this concert even more enjoyable than that of last year.

Further particulars will be given in later issues.

DOUBLE BEREAVEMENT FOR POPULAR TOWNSMAN

Mr R. J. Collender ex-NT Main Street whose beloved wife had died only a week previously sustained a double bereavement when his younger brother Jack died in a Nursing Home in New York on last Friday 23rd ult.

Mr R. J. Collender had three younger brothers viz Hugh who is still alive in Dakota U.S.A. "Bill" who died in San Francisco, several years ago and Jack, who had resided in New York for over the past 40 years and whose death in exile we now record with deep regret.

Jack, like all his brothers, was a young man of great intelligence, and held an important position on the clerical staff of the Cappoquin Foundry until this firm closed down in Cappoquin and was transferred to Wexford about 44 years ago.

During his long connection with the clerical staff of the Foundry in Cappoquin he had amongst his colleagues such able officials as Mr J. Parnell an Englishman, Mr Wm Stacy, a Lismore man, Mr J. Storey, a Wexford man and Mr Joe Fitzgerald Ballintaylor and happy were we who worked in the mechanical department of the foundry during those bright and prosperous days in Cappoquin.

It makes the writer sad to think that he is now practically the last of the survivors of this once-flourishing cycling club and also one of the few survivors still left in Cappoquin of the grand staff of employees of the foundry.

LATE WILLIAM O'DONOGHUE, CROWHILL

The accidental burning of the residence of the late Mr Wm O'Donoghue Crowhill, last year, with most of the furniture and effects proved little short of a tragedy, as up to the time of his unexpected death he and his wife and ten children had to live in some of their outhouses which had escaped destruction, under the most trying and depressing conditions. Realising the pitiable plight of the family, several kind friends in the Melleray and Cappoquin districts started a movement to try and raise the necessary funds to enable the family to re-build the old residence, or build a new house but the premature death of the head of the family seems to have had the effect of suspending all further efforts in this respect.

We understand that only part of the district was collected during Mr O'Donoghue's lifetime, so that the result fell far short of what the Committee had hoped for, so we are glad to hear that a special meeting of the Committee is to be held in the near future to make arrangements for the completion of the collection throughout the entire area.

Those who admired the patriotic principles of the late Mr William O'Donoghue during his life should realise that the greatest tribute they can now pay to his memory is to help to provide a proper dwelling for his widow and family so we trust that practical steps will shortly be taken to complete the collection and so enable these unfortunate people to live in a decent house in future.

CLOSE OF THE RABBIT MARKET

For the purpose of preserving the Rabbit Industry for future years Messrs J. O'Connor & Sons, Egg Poultry, Game and Salmon Exporters have decided to close their Rabbit Market as from today (Friday, March 2nd) after which no further rabbits will be purchased by them during the present season.

The breeding season being now at hand they consider that it would be little short of criminal to continue killing rabbits after this date, if the industry is to continue in future, so it is hoped that all those who expect to make a living out of the business in future years will now discontinue the further killing of rabbits unless they wish to kill "The Goose That Laid The Golden Eggs".

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE ROWING CLUB

The Annual Meeting of the Cappoquin Rowing Club will be held in the Boathouse Hall on next Monday night, March 5th, as all statutory meetings of this club are bound to be held on the first Monday in March each year according to the bye-laws of the club.

Although Rowing activity has been at a standstill for some years past, owing to war conditions the Social side of the club has been kept almost as active as ever, and a most interesting review of the general working of the club during the past year may be expected from Mr M. J. Sargent P.C. Vice-President and Treasurer on Monday night while Mr Wm H. Doyle, the energetic Hon. Sec., will also have an interesting report to submit so that a full attendance of members is requested on the occasion.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CAMOGIE CLUB

Owing to the absence in England of Miss Biddy McCarthy last year's Captain, Miss Mary Ormond was unanimously elected Captain of the Cappoquin Camogie Club at the annual meeting on Sunday night, while all the other outgoing officers were unanimously re-elected.

Although not started until August last year the Cappoquin club put up a brilliant display in all their contests, beating every team they met except Dungarvan, the ultimate winners of the Co. Championship who were hard-pressed to beat Cappoquin by the narrow margin of one goal. As Dungarvan beat Knockanore by a much larger score in the final, Cappoquin can justly claim to have been the second-best team in the County, and we hope to see them rising to still greater heights of success during the coming season.

GRAND MILITARY CONCERT NEXT SUNDAY NIGHT

IRISH RED CROSS SOCIETY DUNGARVAN BRANCH

In the unavoidable absence of Very Rev. T. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F. Chairman, Rev. P. Farrell C.C., presided at the Annual General Meeting held in the Courthouse Dungarvan, on 22nd Feb. Father Farrell addressing the meeting, expressed deep gratitude towards the various Public Bodies who gave such valuable help towards the Branch's endeavours during the past year. It was also very gratifying to note that the Branch membership had considerably increased, which goes to show that the good work being done by the Irish Red Cross Society is not unnoticed by the public.

Regarding the Half-Million Drive the target set for Dungarvan is unfortunately, still very far from being attained. In fact the percentage of the target reached—i.e. 27.5%—is the second lowest in the County. This is to be regretted, more so as Dungarvan has heretofore been foremost on the list of financial achievements. However, there is still time to make up for this discrepancy and those who have not yet subscribed are now appealed to and will, we hope, put our town once again at the head of the list. The objects of the drive are worthy ones. Much is being done in the Anti-Tuberculosis Campaign, and, out of the fullness of our well-being here in Ireland we cannot refuse a little help towards the starving war-stricken countries abroad.

The following Officers and Committee were then elected for the year ending 31st January, 1945:

- Chairman—Very Rev. T. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F. Vice-Chairman—Rev. P. Farrell C.C. Hon. Treasurer—Mr J. F. Bowen, Provincial Bank House. Hon. Secretary—Miss N. Moloney Skahacrine. Committee—Miss C. Flynn, B.A., B. Comm. Mrs M. Shalloe, Mrs O. Bowman, Dr M. K. Cusack, Messrs S. J. Moynihan, D. Phelan, L. Comerford B.A., H.Dip. in Ed. Branch Auditors—Rev. P. Farrell C.C., and Mr M. Flynn, South Terrace. Subscriptions for the current membership year are now due and may be handed to the Hon. Treasurer the Hon. Secretary, or to any member of the Committee.

Death Of Mr. Anthony Lineen, Cappoquin

Much regret has been caused in Cappoquin by the death of Mr Anthony Lineen which occurred at his residence in Barrack Street on last Sunday evening at a ripe age, and after an illness of only about three weeks' duration.

Deceased was a member of the Old R.I.C. and belonged to an old and respected family in Miltown-Malbay Co. Clare. He had served as a constable for many years in the counties of Kerry, Waterford and Wexford but his great ability and efficiency being duly recognised by the authorities of that time he was promoted to the rank of sergeant, a position which he capably filled until his retirement on the age limit in 1911.

Before completing his period of service in Wexford he had been stationed for a considerable period in Cappoquin, during which he married a popular young local lady, Miss Norah Murphy, a member of the well-known Murphy family Crinaughtane about a mile from the town.

After his transfer from Cappoquin his wife went to live with him in Wexford, where he was placed in charge of an important Police Station, and on his retirement both came back to Cappoquin, as Mrs Lineen wished to again breathe the pure and invigorating air of healthy Crinaughtane area.

They started an important shop business in Barrack Street which has since proved a most successful venture and it was only when the late Mr Lineen came back as a civilian to reside in Cappoquin that the full qualities of his personal character became properly known to the townspeople.

Of a quiet and rather retiring disposition, he was a grand character to meet in his shop while it was an intellectual treat for anybody to enter into a deep conversation with him as he was well-conversant with almost every subject under the sun.

A keen and experienced horticulturist he loved gardening in all its phases and kept a beautiful garden at the back of his residential quarters the solitude and open air of which he always liked to spend his spare hours in, rather than in the noisy and more confined atmosphere of his shop. He had reared a most popular and distinguished family, being father of Mrs. M. Hayes Accrington, England, Miss "Babe" Lineen, and Mr Thomas Lineen, Principal Teacher of Aghish mixed National School, all of whom hold a high place in the love and esteem of all classes of the people in Cappoquin and the surrounding districts.

During his brief illness of three weeks duration, he was regularly attended by Dr. Wm White M.O., Cappoquin while Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C., and the Sisters of Mercy were also in almost constant attendance by his bedside, so that he died a most peaceful and happy death after having received the last rites of the Catholic Church of which he had always been a most devout and exemplary member.

On Monday evening the remains of the deceased were removed from his late residence to St. Mary's Catholic Church, Cappoquin, being followed by a large cortege of the general public from Cappoquin, Ballinacult, Aghish, Villierstown and many other distant centres. Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C., Cappoquin, headed the cortege, and received the coffin at the Church, where Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated for the eternal repose of deceased's soul on Tuesday morning before a large congregation. At 2 o'clock on that day the funeral took place to St. Declan's cemetery Dromroe, when there was another large and representative attendance of the general public which proved a fitting mark of respect to the memory of a gentleman who had been so deservedly esteemed by all classes. Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C., headed the funeral procession, and subsequently read the final prayers at the graveside.

The chief mourners were—Mrs. Norah Lineen (widow) Mrs M. Hayes, Accrington, England and Miss "Babe" Lineen, (daughters) Thomas Lineen, N.T., Aghish (son) Mrs T. Lineen do (daughter-in-law) Thomas and Mrs Fitzgerald, Derra, Modellig Thomas and Miss Flynn Kilcooney, Ballinacult James and Mrs Murphy and family Crinaughtane James and Mrs Flynn Lacken Andrew and Mrs McGrath and family Crinaughtane etc, etc, (cousins and relatives).

Mass cards were sent by the following—His loving wife and "Babe," Minnie Joe and Sheila, Accrington Joe and family Tom Peggie and family Flynn family Kilcooney, Joseph L. Hayes Accrington Murphy family Crinaughtane Fitzgerald family, Derra Alice and Madge Fraher Crowe family, Church Street Patrick and Mrs O'Sullivan, Fernville, Lismore, Declan and Mrs Foley and family Barrack Street John and Mrs Connors Abbeyside K. and M. Noonan and "Mossie" Andrew and Mrs. McGrath and family, Crinaughtane, Willie and Mai McCarthy, Cappoquin Paddy and Martha Thomas F and Gene Olden Mrs K. Olden and family Nicholas and Lizzie Herr Mrs E. McCarthy and Jack Mrs Walsh and family Belica Kathleen Hurley and family, Shanbally etc, etc.

Telegrams and letters of sympathy were received from various parts of the Counties of Waterford, Cork and Wexford.

LATE MR W. B. PRENDERGAST, M.R.C.V.S.

The death has occurred at his home in Dublin of Mr W. B. Prendergast, M.R.C.V.S. Deputy Chief Veterinary Inspector, Department of Agriculture who was very well known to livestock breeders and owners throughout the country.

During the serious outbreak of foot and mouth disease a few years ago he was in charge of the measures taken to combat it in Kilkenny and the adjoining counties. His untiring efforts to stamp out the plague and his sensible handling of difficult and delicate problems at the time made him many friends amongst the farmers and others with whom he had to deal officially. His ability as a professional man and a Government official was of a very high order and in both capacities he earned the very definite regard of his colleagues and the public.

The late Mr Prendergast was a native of Leixlip Co. Kildare, and his widow, formerly Miss B. Devereux is a native of Dungarvan, Co. Waterford.

"A Costly Ornament"
Bad Turf—Who is To Blame
Chairman On Need For Respect To National Anthem.

Only three members—Mr T McCarthy, chairman, Mr T Kyne and Mr L Veale, were present at the fortnightly meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council held at the Town Hall on last Friday night.

Mr Michael O'Meara, Acting Town Clerk, attended.

"A Costly Ornament"

The Westmeath Co Council's resolution calling on all political parties to agree on the selection of the President in order to avoid the expense of an election was marked "noted."

Mr Kyne said that he could not see how any Council could be expected to agree to such a resolution when they could not agree on the question among themselves. It was his view that it was the privilege of the people themselves to elect the President who was indeed nothing but a costly ornament to the country but as he is there it is their right to elect the person. He did not agree with the resolution and stated that the President should be the choice of the people.

Mr Veale also disagreed with the resolution as did the Chairman.

Footpaths

Chairman—I'm sure you've all seen the footpaths which have been laid in Brigid's St and that they are a very good job. I would like if a similar job was done at Cathal Brugha Place and Loughmore now, as they are in a bad state up there. It would be well if Mr Ormond could see his way to do this as soon as possible. The job done by him at Brigid's Street is highly creditable and I think almost better than concrete.

It was decided to recommend the matter to the Acting Borough Surveyor.

What About The Turf—

A letter from the Department of Supplies was received in connection with the recent resolution passed by the Council regarding the inferior quality of turf on sale at Dungarvan. It pointed out that the Dungarvan Fuel merchants are free to obtain supplies of turf from sources of their own selection, and where the turf delivered to them does not conform to a proper standard are entitled to exercise the normal commercial methods of redress for their own protection and in the interests of the consuming public.

The letter further stated "Your Council's suggestion that an inspection system should be established to supervise the dispatch of turf from the varying supplying areas is not considered practicable. It should be pointed out that any dealings between fuel merchants and their suppliers are in the nature of ordinary business transactions and official intervention on the lines suggested would lack all enforceability. The services of the local inspectors of the turf development Board are always available however, for purpose of advising merchants as to dependable sources of supply. It is understood that up to the middle of last month the quality of turf received in Dungarvan was on the whole a reasonable standard and could give grounds for no complaint. The turf on offer in the main production areas has been seriously restricted by the recent unfavourable weather. The problem is purely of a seasonal nature and will improve with the advent of good weather."

Mr Veale—Why not sent a copy of that letter to the merchants?

Clerk—Mr O'Leary an inspector called recently and told me he had informed the merchants of some suppliers in Cork.

Mr Kyne—Did he see the local stuff or did he make any comment?

Clerk—He admitted it was bad.

Mr Kyne—The turf sold lately was not even reasonably good—it was very very bad. We know it as we have to burn it and the Department do not know that much about it. The inspectors should make a correct report when they visit. The bad turf may be the fault of the merchants, but they say that it is the bogs and the Government is also blamed. They say that they pay top prices and get the best turf, but I think that is doubtful. I was going to bring over a couple of sods this evening to the meeting—it was terrible bad stuff.

Chairman—I know that the merchants don't buy turf at a loss for the sake of the people.

Mr Kyne—We should ask the inspector to inspect again.

Chairman—When turf comes from Kerry and other distant places it should not be brought in open wagons as it is. There should be tarpaulins placed over the wagons as it is the people who buy the turf suffer. I think we should ask the GSR to cover these wagons—they have plenty stuff to do it.

Mr Veale—The turf sold here during the whole winter was bad.

Mr Kyne—Notwithstanding the inspector's report we should point out that we are of opinion that the turf sold in Dungarvan is of the very lowest grade.

Chairman—All the people will agree with that!

Mr Veale—Yes everyone is complaining.

Mr Kyne—We are also charged the highest price in Ireland but get the lowest quality. In Dublin turf is sold at £3 4s per ton while we have to pay £3 10s here!

Chairman—The people themselves should stand up and make a complaint.

Mr Kyne—If the merchants could be prosecuted they should and then let them go to court and make their defence. A copy of that letter should be sent to them.

Chairman—Was there any protest made by the Co Council?

Mr Veale—I proposed a resolution about a year ago that turf should be sold by cubic capacity and not by weight as it was an injustice to the people, but the Department said that such a scheme was not feasible. They do not care about the public much except at the approach of an election!

Mr Kyne—That letter as much as says that the merchants are not interested in buying good turf.

It was decided that a copy of the letter be sent to each fuel merchant in town.

Repairs

Mr Kyne—The road at Castle Street is in a terrible state and the many people who have business at the Garda Barracks and about 15 or 16 Guards have to travel this patch which is about 50 yards long many times each day. I think we should recommend to the proper authority that this road be put in some kind of repair. I would also mention the atrocious state of the roadway at Home Rule Street, Abbeyside. The people there have to wade through it. I know we have no authority in the matter but our recommendation should carry weight.

The Chairman drew attention to the damage done to Mrs Kiely's house in Barrack Street due to demolitions by the Council. It was he said the Council's responsibility to put the house into normal repair for her.

It was decided to recommend these matters to the Manager.

Water Supply

Mr Veale referred to the water supply to Mr Cowming's house New Line Abbeyside, and said he understood that Mr Cowming had made a reasonable offer.

Clerk—An estimate of £35 has been made by Mr Ormond but the matter has been deferred until after April 1st.

Chairman—Isn't the Council bound by law to bring the pipes to within a certain distance—40 feet or 40 yards, I'm not sure which. If this is so it is not fair to mulct this man over it.

The Clerk was directed to make inquiries.

Lack Of Respect For National Anthem

Chairman—As you all know I go to the pictures pretty often and for the last six or seven months I notice that when the National Anthem is being played the audience pay no respect to it. I do not allude to this myself because I am a great hero or anything but the anthem is ours and we should accord it proper respect. When it is played the children—I don't mind them so much, and the grown-ups leave their seats and walk out. This is not proper, and I think we should write to the management of the Cinema to flash a slide on the screen, asking the people to stand to attention while the National Anthem is being played. I was at a recent picture for the Forces, and when the anthem was played it was grand to see how all stood up and paid it due respect. This example should be taken for the future. We should ask that no exits be opened and that the people stand. I know it is mostly thoughtlessness, but we are all Irish no matter how we differ in politics, and we should all respect our National Anthem.

It was decided to write to the Management on the matter.

Acknowledgments were received from Ellen O'Brien, Shandon, Maureen J. Muldoon, Main St.,

A resolution authorising the Co Manager to expend in excess of amounts allowed in 1944/45 estimates sufficient to maintain essential services for the remainder of the year, was proposed by Mr Veale, and seconded by Mr Kyne, and passed.

Votes of Sympathy

Votes of sympathy were passed with Mr M. Morrissey, O'Connell St with Mrs A Waters, Abbeyside and Mr Wm. Moylan, Keating Street, in their recent bereavements.

Death Of Mrs. A. Power, St. Patrick's Terrace, Abbeyside

It is with feelings of sincere regret that we announce the death of Mrs Anastasia Power, relict of the late Patrick Power, New Bridge Abbeyside which sad event occurred at the residence of her daughter Mrs N Shanahan St. Patrick's Terrace Abbeyside, on Saturday morning Feb 24th.

The late Mrs Power was a most industrious woman all her life and was held in the highest respect and esteem by a wide circle of friends. She lived to a grand old age and her death is now regretted by all.

A good mother and a kindly neighbour, she was an example of what the old stock was like. An exemplary Catholic, and a most charitable woman all her life, she was popular with all, which was proved by the large and representative cortege which accompanied the removal of the remains on Sunday evening last to Abbeyside Church.

Rev J Roche P.P. Abbeyside met and blessed the coffin at the Church gates.

After Requiem Masses for the happy repose of her soul the funeral took place to Ballinroad on Monday where interment took place.

"WHY"?

I question why my heart should sing.
 At the beauty of a linnets wing,
 That skims afloat a river bank.

I question why the wild flowers grow

 In gay, riotous profusion.

I question why the changeless story,
 Of life's eventide, in dimming glory,
 Answers not my aching cry.

A THOUGHT FOR TO-DAY

It is becoming more evident that, as far as essential foodstuffs are concerned, this country will have to rely on its own resources long after hostilities have ceased

No matter what happens abroad, the need for maximum food production at home is as great in 1945 as in any year since 1939

These are facts which should be borne in mind during the present sowing season, and because of them every farmer should increase as much as possible the area under a slaughter-house without first having obtained a license, was again called.

Mr Williams solr, prosecuted, and Mr Morrissey, solr, defended.

Mr Williams dealt with the aspects of the case as already reported in previous proceedings and said that since the last court defendants had submitted their proposals which stated that all meat etc, would be removed from the stall before the beasts are driven through, or falling this that they would be willing to build a slaughter-house in the shambles. Neither of these alternatives was acceptable to the County Manager.

Mr Morrissey—There are no other available sites in Dungarvan for a slaughterhouse. It was said here the last day that Mr Brennock was not run out of business by the Urban Council but he is here now to swear that he was. I think this action is most unfair.

Dr M O'Farrell Gc M O H, said that he knows the premises of Mrs Kathleen Morrissey and the objection is that the only entrance to the slaughterhouse is through the meat shop through which manure and offals are also carted. This being so he couldn't recommend to the Urban Council that such a condition should continue in the interests of public health.

Justice—In view of this the license cannot be granted, but I think the case should not be pressed as it is a great upset to these people to have to go out of business after being in it for such a long time.

Mr Morrissey—The business has been carried on since the beginning of the last Great War. Justice—It is hard to expect a person to give up, especially as it is so hard to get another suitable place and I will not press the case. I will impose a penalty of 10/- It is understood that the authorities want it stopped, and it will have to be if not the penalty in the statute (£5 for the offence and a like sum for each day it is continued) must be enforced. I will allow two months as a reasonable time to put things in order before proceedings can again be taken.

Mr Morrissey asked for three months as his clients would take High Court action against the Urban Council for the breach of trust in refusing the Meat Shambles and this takes a lot of time.

Dr O'Farrell objected and the Justice said he thought two months should suffice.

School Attendance Cases
Fines of 1/- in each of three cases were imposed on Ml Curran Rathnamrineach, Ring and 1/- on E Donovan, Ballinagoul who were summoned under the above by Guard Broderick.

Lock Up Shop Larceny
William Walsh, 52 Loughmore, and Paul Dunne, Fair Lane, were charged by the Attorney-General at the suit of Supt P O'Mahony that on Feb 15th they did steal from the lock-up shop of Mr Patrick Broderick Abbeyside cash to the amount of £3 14s 0d cigarettes, value 14/-, and chocolates, value sixpence.

The accused who appeared in custody, pleaded guilty. A suspensory sentence of two months with hard labour was imposed warrant not to issue if accused are of good behaviour for 12 months.

Case Conducted in Irish
Michael E Curran, Ballinacourty, Ring, summoned Patrick Keane same address, for entering and trespassing on his lands at Ballinacourty, on Feb 1st and taking away a quantity of gravel not exceeding the value of £5.

Plaintiff also summoned defendant's son William Keane, for assaulting him by hitting him in the face with his fist on the same day and place.

Mr Williams, solr was for plaintiff, and Mr Morrissey solr, defended, and the case was conducted in Irish.

Plaintiff in evidence said that he owns a farm at Ballinacourty, Ring part of which is bounded by the sea. Continuing, he stated "On Feb. 1st, I was on my land near the seashore and found the two defendants taking gravel from the shore close up to the land. I approached them and saw they had gathered three heaps. I said "you know where you are now," and Keane said "Ah, go to hell." I said "I'll pace it for you," and the old fellow kept the shovel up to my chest and the son came over and let me have it with his open fist. I fell and as I was getting up I was tripped again. I heard the old fellow say "don't hit him."

My left hand was septic at the time and in a bad state. They wouldn't let me measure the distance, and I had to go to the Guards for protection, and came back with a measuring tape and we found that a medium tide under normal conditions comes to within 15 feet of the base of the cliff. The gravel that Keane was taking was within 4 feet of the cliff. When I came back with the Guard the Keanes and the three loads of gravel were gone and seaweed had been strewn to cover up the marks.

Mr Morrissey—Weren't you watching this man that day?—I was watching my land. Did you approach him fast?—I didn't.

Wasn't it over the heap of gravel you fell?—It was. It wasn't the blow that knocked you?—It was.

Isn't this man drawing gravel for a long time?—He is.

Wasn't part of Ring College erected with the gravel from this place?—I don't know where they got it.

Wasn't the tide over the entire shore today?—It was not.

Guard Thomas Broderick, said that on Feb 1st he was at Ring Garda Barracks when Curran came in. He appeared to be excited and said Keane was taking gravel and asked him to come while he was making some measurements. The only one witness noted was that the distance from where the gravel was to the cliff was 4 feet.

Mr Morrissey—Was he angry when he came to the barrack?—I wouldn't say so; he appeared to be more afraid.

Patrick Keane, defendant, said he was drawing gravel from this spot for the last 35 years. He drew it to the College and to the new cottages when they were being built, and the neighbours and even strangers drew it. The gravel comes and goes with the tides and the tide comes up to the very base of the cliff. On that account he thought he was within his rights in taking the gravel. On the day in question Curran came at them in a passion and said "do you know what you're doing," and witness said "everyone takes this gravel." I laid the shovel against the cart said witness and told my son not to interfere. Curran just fell over a small lot of gravel that we had gathered from the foreshore. He is always bringing us into court.

To Mr Williams witness said that the spot from where they took the gravel was more than 4 feet from the cliff. He denied that he told Curran to go to hell but admitted saying there was a place to settle the dispute (meaning the courthouse). His son didn't hit Curran.

Patrick McKenna a neighbour said that the gravel at the spot is drawn by everyone and that the tide comes to within 12 or 14 feet of the cliff.

William Keane said that the day they were drawing the gravel Curran rushed at them with passion and tried to hit him. He caught him and pushed him away and he fell over a heap of gravel.

Christy Power said he often drew gravel from the spot for housing schemes in Dungarvan.

Justice—There is evidence that a technical assault was committed and I impose a fine of 2/6 and 10/- costs on that summons. In the trespass case I am not satisfied that the defendant has proved an easement and therefore Keane has trespassed on part of Curran's foreshore and in that case I impose a penalty of 5/- with 20/- costs.

In reply to Mr Morrissey the Justice said that on the evidence he would regard it that Curran's land goes to 14 feet from the cliff and the rest was the property of the State.

General Exemption
On the application of Supt. P O'Mahony, (speaking in Irish) a general exemption for town publicans was granted for Sunday next, from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. and from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m.

A Uniform Formula
Supt. O'Mahony applied to the Court (also in Irish) to settle particulars under which licensed premises should be licensed so that a uniform formula might be used all over the country. He said that these particulars should appear in Irish.

The matter was adjourned to the next Court.

DANGER TO HEALTH—STRADBALLY RESOLUTION—

At a meeting of the Eamonn Power Fianna Fail Cumann, held at Stradbally on last Monday night, Feb 28th, it was unanimously decided to request the Public Health Authorities, that pending the implementation of the complete water and sewerage scheme for Stradbally which is not possible at present due to emergency conditions, a temporary building of a septic tank be taken immediately before the

Kilmacthomas And District News

Clonea Defeat Dunhill—Clonea junior hurling team (Eastern champions and League holders) retained their league title on Sunday last when they defeated Dunhill in a very well contested game at Newtown. The game was well balanced during the first half which ended on the score—Clonea, 1-3, Dunhill, 2-0. It was only in the closing stages of the second half that the title-holders began to show their superiority over the Dunhill boys. The final score was—Clonea 5-4, Dunhill 4-0. The attendance was fair and the pitch was in excellent condition. Mr P. Donnelly, proved a most efficient referee.

Kilmacthomas Monthly Fair—The February cattle fair held at the Fair Green Kilmacthomas, on Tuesday last was one of the poorest fairs on record owing to the fact that all the preceding fairs held here for the last 12 months have been bad. The attendance was unusually small. Drop calves fetched only from 3/- to 4/- and first quality roan heifers were bought for ten shillings.

Clonea Branch of the Legion of Mary—The Clonea Branch of Legion of Mary held a very successful Whist Drive at the National Schoolhouse, Clonea, on Sunday night last. The school was filled to capacity and many intending patrons were refused admission. The proceeds of the Drive were given in aid of the Foreign Missions.

Our Congratulations are cordially extended to Miss Margaret Walsh, Fews, Kilmacthomas, whose name appears in the recent list of successes issued by the General Nursing Council. Miss Walsh who entered for the examination in January last had been attached to the staff of the County Hospital, Waterford where her efficient and devoted services were greatly appreciated.

Language Drive—It is pleasing to learn that the Gaels of Kilmacthomas district have made a determined effort to further their knowledge of the native language, and to supplement these efforts the Gaelic League have arranged to hold evening classes in Irish on two nights weekly at the Schoolhouse, Kilmacthomas. Mr Maurice Walsh, N.T., Newtown, has been appointed Irish teacher to the classes.

The Stradbally Irish classes are now being held twice weekly and are being well attended. Mr Thomas Lincoln, is the popular teacher in this branch. New Veterinary Inspector—Mr Louis Gleeson, V.S., Stradbally, has been appointed Veterinary Instructor by the Waterford Co Council. Mr Gleeson will fill the vacancy created by the death of Mr C.P. Hynes, Lismore, who was well known in this area.

Treas.—Mr James Wall, Captain—Mr Thomas Lonergan.

Obituary—Mr. Patrick Cleary whose death occurred at his residence in Ballinard Bonmahon, on Thursday last, was a widely known member of the farming community. He was a likeable and most unassuming person, and his passing which occurred rather suddenly, is deeply regretted.

Death of Mr. J. Collins—The death took place unexpectedly on Monday evening last of Mr. Jeremiah Collins Mahon View Terrace Kilmacthomas. Deceased was a member of the Army for a number of years and in which force he attained the rank of Sergeant-Major. At the commencement of the Emergency he offered his services to the L.D.F. and helped in no small way to make Kilmacthomas District one of the leading units of the Curragh Command. Deceased was deservedly popular with all classes, and his death at such an early age has aroused the deepest feelings of regret. An exceptionally large cortege attended the removal of the remains on Tuesday evening last to Newtown Parish Church, where they were met by Rev. T. Galvin, P.P., Kilmacthomas. Re-summer months.

Last summer the unhealthy condition of the entire sewerage of the village gave rise to much complaint as the health of the populace, especially children who play in the vicinity of the outlet is endangered.

VIEWS OF OUR READERS

(To The Editor)

A Chara—Almos, a year ago the Green Cross Fund formed its branch in Dungarvan, and on the occasion of its first birthday I wish to thank the people of the town and of West Waterford for the generous way in which they answered the appeal for help for Six-County internees and their dependents. The local Press helped greatly in the efforts of the organisation by the unfailing courtesy and assistance it gave in publishing Green Cross news a happy contrast to the attitude of the daily papers of the country.

The contributions from this area have not passed unnoticed into "Unrecovered" Ireland as can be seen from the following extract from a letter which was received last week from Mr Cahill Healy M.P.:

"A contribution of almost £100 from Dungarvan is really very fine, and per head of the population is perhaps the best of any place outside the Six-Counties. It shows a virile National spirit as well as a practical sympathy with those who are suffering for the National Faith they hold. We thank you very much."

Our activities for this year have already commenced with a sale of tickets for the Green Cross raffle and the prizes will shortly be displayed publicly. In addition to this, the Annual Collection and Flag Day will be held during Irish Week—11th to 18th March. Funds are urgently needed, and it is the duty of every citizen to give generously.

Most Rev Dr Mageean, Founder of the Organisation, has said "While these prisoners are in gaol, their families are often in want, and but for THE GREEN CROSS FUND would be in destitution."

Something to meditate on. However knowing of the generosity of the people of Dungarvan and West Waterford I feel confident that you will not shirk your National duty to your Northern brothers-in-arms.

Youghal Family Bereaved—Sincere regret has been expressed at the death with such tragic suddenness of Mr Richard Harney, younger son of Mrs Margaret and the late Patrick Harney North Main St., Youghal and brother of Rev. Patrick Harney, O.S.A., Nigeria Dick, as he was popularly known, was still in his early twenties, and was in his usual good health and form prior to being stricken down rather suddenly with pneumonia while on a visit to Cork. His early death is regretted by all and the deepest sympathy is extended to his bereaved relatives.

Coal Imports At Youghal—At a meeting of the Youghal Harbour Commissioners Mr M. D. Broderick chairman, presiding the Secretary read from a news item which appeared in the daily Press of the 16th Feb. 1945, that local authorities can help harbour boards which, owing to the emergency, are unable to finance and repair their harbours.

Chairman—I think this is most unfair. The county-at-large benefits by the harbours, and it is most unfair to ask local authorities to finance harbours. If we here were permitted to get in coal water-borne to Youghal for our own gasworks it would be a different matter but we are not permitted to do so. The financing of harbours should in my opinion be a national and not a local obligation.

Mr Lynch—Before we ask any of the ratepayers to come to the assistance of the Harbour Board I propose we call on the Government to give us permission to get in our own coal. They dictated terms to us and now we are not bosses in our own house and I do not see why we should subsidise the Harbour Board.

Chairman—I hope Mr Lynch's resolution will do some good.

Mr O'Gorman—I don't think it would do any good we are only wasting our time, and I do not think the Minister would agree. I will however, second Mr Lynch's proposition.

Youghal Town Roads—Youghal U.D.C. had a long discussion on the state of the roads in the town, and it was suggested that the attention of the County Manager and the Acting County Surveyor be called to the matter, the road at MacCurtains-town and the Clifton-Loretto road being especially mentioned.

The sympathy of the Council was extended to the relatives of the late Mr M. Kelly, and Mr R. Harney.

Spinning Classes At Youghal—Mr L. Daly, U.D.C. Hon. Sec., Gasra Gaedhille oYughal is doing more than a man's share to foster not alone the study of the Irish language, but Irish culture and Irish ideals also. Some time ago he purchased some spinning wheels and just now a number of ladies, all members of Gasra Gaedhille, interested in the art of spinning, meet a few evenings a week in the Town Hall, where under a capable teacher they are being taught the spinning art, and they are making excellent progress. As a home industry, this is one that should be encouraged.

Special Court at Youghal—A young man named Joseph Walsh of Tallow Street, Youghal was brought before Mr M. H. Walsh, P.C., and charged by Sergt. W. Lupton with stealing or receiving bedspring mattress, and clothing, household utensils and clothing, the property of Ml. Dea, of Tallow Street, Youghal, value £15. Having heard the accused's statement, he was released in his own bail to appear at the next District Court to be held in Youghal on the 2nd March.

Swan Shot By Rifle—There was much indignation in Carrick-on-Suir at the shooting of one of the beautiful swans that are such a picturesque picture of the river at Carrick. A 22 rifle bullet was found in the dead swan's neck. Efforts are being made to trace the perpetrators of this blackguardly act.
