Mr C F Carri Auctioneer

Clonmel in evidence said that in February last he sold five tons of ban hay to Mr Tobin rere sentenced at the Waterford Crourt Court on Feb 5th On the night following the Tobins went to bed and they awakened in the early hours of the morning to find the entire barn on fire He said that malice in the last could be proved up to the last could last the the last can the valid and plaintiff said to him you can have the tillage for the same price as I paid for it. They then went to Mr Condon's office and defendant agreed to take the tillage and paid him over the last can the provide the premises after the fire. Mis-Use Of LDF Uniform

At Kilkenny District Court on Tuesday before Mr T O She i District Justice Martin Bridgett Patrick Bridgett and Thos Wall were charged with wear ing LDF great-coats contrary to regulations

Mr M J Crotty State Solicitor for the prosecution and Mr came forward to give evidence the Justice said 'Why didn t you apalogise when you were caught instead of coming in here to try to justify it '?

Defendant—I didn't get time Justice—You got plenty of time but you only laughed and sneered at the whole thing Defendant—I did not Justice—Do you know that you could get 6 months' imprisonment or a fine of £100 for it?

Mr Kearney said this was the first case of its kind in the area Justice—There have been cases all over the country It is an absolute disgrace the way this offence is being committed and the worst area for it is the area beween here and Carlow You never see cases of it in the Urlingford Thomastown or Callan areas He first fined the Bridgetts £5 each and Wall 30s but after an appeal by Mr Kearney and after being informed that the defendants had good attendance records at parades he reduced the fine to 30 - (ach in the cases against the Bridgetts and 20 in the case of Wall Th Justice said he was very grateful to the Army Officer and CQM.S for bringing this matter to light. The next time anyone in any locality came before him for a similar offence it would be a sentence of imprisonment he would impose
