EUCHARISTIC PROCESSION IN DUNGARVAN

On Sunday last the annual Corpus Christi procession took place through the streets of The weather proved Dungarvan The weather proved ideally fine for the occasion and a bright sun shone throughout the evening As in former years large numbers of children women and men from the various sodalities participated in the procession and all arrangements for marshalling the large ments for marshalling the large crowd were carried out with the procession and all arrangements for marshalling the large crowd were carried out with perfect precision. The fervour of the processionists and also of the large crowds who lined the streets was inspiring and in keeping with the fine religious tradition of the Old Boro. As usual the streets were beautifully decorated with flags bunting and flowers and great creait is due to the Communities of the Mercy and Presentation Convents for their successful efforts where beautiful banners suitably inscribed and a number of tableaux were presented by the school children. Punctual at 2 30 pm. the Abbeyside portion of the procession (Boy Scouts Children and the Women's and Men's Sacied Heart Sodalities acompanied by Rev. Fr. J. Roche, P.P. and Rev. Gorous Christi Procession-Inspiring scenes of fervour and devotion were witnessed at Tailow on Sunday last when the first public procession through the town in honour of the Blessed Sacrament was held and proved a wonderful success Large crowds travelled from all the neighbouring parishes to participate in this great act of homage to the King of Kings

It was only on Sunday week that it was definitely announced that the procession would be held and during the remaining they must have worked like trojans painting housefronts and putting up decorations as the town looked lovely on Sunday morning for the triumphal procession of Our Saviour No dit is due to the people of Tallow for their magnificent response to the call of their esteemed and zealous Pastor Rev M F Hearne Early on Sunday morning when one entered the town it looked as if a fairy wand had been wafted over the entire place it seemed completely transformed—the streets were gaily decorated with bunting while Papal and National flags were everywhere to be seen Suitably inscribed banners spanned the the route were heautifully deco greens and it was easily to be seen that nothing was left unby the townspeople and it eloquently bespoke their reli-Punctually at 3 pm the pro-
