Tipperary Win 13th All-Ireland Hurling Final

RECORD FIGURES AND DISTINGUISHED ATTENDANCE

In the presence of a record crowd which included An Uachtaran An Taoiseach, Church dignitaries, Ministers of State and representatives of other countries Tipperary beat Kilkenny by 5-6 to 3-6 in the All-Ireland Senior Hurling Final at Croke Park on Sunday last, having led at half-time by 4-3 to 0.

The huge crowd however were treated to a first-class surprise when the Tipperary minor team failed to complete the double being beaten by Dublin by 3-14 to 4-6 in the final of the All-Ireland Minor Hurling at the interval Dublin led by 1-7 to 1-4.

There was no delay in producing thrills. From the first minute when T. Maher opened the scoring with a point for Kilkenny until the last minute when Capt. Vin Baston (the referee) sounded his final whistle there was a packetful of the minute. There may have been more spectacular goals and there may have been closer marking finals but Sunday's game was a final that kept every spectator's eyes glued to the ball.

Both matches were well worthy of the occasion. They were splendidly contested and rewarded to the credit not only of the players concerned but of the Gaelic Athletic Association. If Tipperary seniors and Dublin minors were good winners it can be said with equal truth that Kilkenny seniors and Tipperary minors were gallant losers.

During the interval between the two matches a pageant in connection with the Thomas Davis Centenary was staged by several hundred Artane boys dressed in snow-white shirts and navy-blue shorts, they marched and counter-marched for close on half an hour to the strains of their school band before finally laying themselves flat on the ground to represent the following—1845 Davis, Tone, Cusack, Pearse, Ireland, 1945. The precision with which every movement was carried through excited the admiration of the crowd who applauded vigorously again and again winding up with a tremendous ovation as the boys marched off the pitch led by their instructors.

It was certainly a colourful sight and was appreciated to the full judging by the manner in which the crowd cheered and applauded. The Tipperary and Kilkenny teams were lined up behind two bands when An Uachtaran Mr. Sean T. O'Kelly arrived on the grounds. He crossed the pitch from the Cusack Stand side to the Hogan Stand to the accompaniment of tremendous cheering. His appearance on the pitch was signalled by a fanfare of trumpets. Then the band played the National Anthem as all stood to attention. This over An Uachtaran who was accompanied by Mr. S. Gardner, E.S.C. President, G.A.A. P. Mac Conmidhe, ex-President, Rev. Fr. MacGuaran, O.M.I. President of the Colleges Council and two aides-de-camp renewed their march across the pitch to the Hogan Stand amidst ringing cheers.

The teams then paraded the pitch amidst a scene of enthusiasm that will never be forgotten by those who saw it. The pitch was like a carpet of velvet and the general arrangements can be summed up in one sentence—They do things well at Croke Park. Great credit is due to the general secretary of the Central Council Mr. Padraig O'Keefe for the splendid manner in which he looked after even the smallest details.

The gate receipts amounted to £5,563 10s 1d representing an attendance of 69,459. This beats the record which was set up for gate receipts in 1937 at Killarney (Tipperary v Kilkenny) at £4,477 and for attendance in 1936 at Croke Park—51,205 on the occasion of the Kilkenny and Limerick Final.

West Waterford Minor Hurling Final

CAPPOQUIN'S BRILLIANT VICTORY OVER KNOCKANORE

The John Mitchell minor hurling team Knockanore which received a "walk-over" when the Dungarvan minors failed to turn up at Cappoquin Sportsfield about a month ago met Cappoquin in Aglish on last Sunday in the final of the minor hurling championship of West Waterford.

A great game was expected as it was known that Knockanore had made a special pick from outlying districts where no minor hurling clubs exist but this did not deter Cappoquin who relied entirely on their usual fifteen purely local lads.

The weather was ideal for outdoor sport and there was a very good attendance of spectators but any display of high-class play was rendered impossible by the long grass on the pitch which would have made it unsuitable even for a football match.

The Aglish Gaels cannot be blamed too much for this as we understand that owing to the wet weather which prevailed during the week-end they were unable to prepare the field as perfectly as they had intended doing.

Despite this handicap the game was played in a strenuous and spirited manner but the superior speed and science of the Cappoquin team was manifest from the start and they had little difficulty in defeating Knockanore by the substantial margin of 2 goals 2 points.

In referring to this match last week we wrote that Knockanore players must be at the top of their form if they are to beat Cappoquin's clever and dashing minors on Sunday and the result of the game proved how truly prophetic those words were.

Cappoquin scored two points before Knockanore responded with a point and a goal and a further point for Cappoquin were followed by a point for Knockanore so that the half-time score read—

CAPPOQUIN 1-3
KNOCKANORE 0-2
Knockanore added only a goal and two points in the second half while Cappoquin added two goals and three points so that the latter proved easy winners on the final score—

CAPPOQUIN 2-6
KNOCKANORE 1-4
Mr W. Fitzgerald, Cappagh proved a very capable referee. Cappoquin minors will therefore reserve their congratulations against the winners of East Waterford for the final of the Co. Waterford championship this being the first time that any Cappoquin minor hurling team has got so far in the Co. Championship and wouldn't it be a happy coincidence if the senior hurling team from Cappoquin was also in for the final of the senior hurling championship this year after having won the junior championship last year. Who knows!

The semi-final of the West Waterford minor football championship was played in the Cappoquin Sportsfield on Sunday before one of the smallest attendances on record as the gate receipts only amounted to 9s. It should have been well-known in advance that most of the public would be listening in to the final of the All-Ireland final hurling match between Tipperary and Kilkenny on Sunday afternoon so it seemed silly to fix a minor match for a clock the same day when only a couple of dozen people were around. Both the Divisional Board and the Cappoquin Club will suffer financially over this blunder and we trust that more foresight will be displayed if a similar situation should arise in future.

Modeligo had the better of the play in the first half and led by a goal and 1 point to 1 point at half-time.

Ballyduff played with more vigour in the second half and although they forced the play and bombarded the Modeligo goal time after time their shooting was so erratic that they were able to score only 1 point in this half.

Modeligo proved no better as they also scored only 1 point so that the end of a scrappy game found Modeligo the winners on the following score—

MODELIGO 1-4
BALLYDUFF 0-2
Mr P. Cunningham hon sec Cappoquin hurling club proved an impartial referee but had the greatest difficulty to get sufficient officials to act as umpires and linesmen at the start of the game owing to the small number of adults available in the field.

GAELIC NOTES

SENIOR CLUBS
(BY "TAGHBLINE")

All roads lead to Lismore on Sunday next where Cappoquin and Dungarvan meet in the senior hurling county championship. This match has created widespread interest due to the fact that last year's junior champions already have a victory over Dungarvan in the competition.

The Blues after their victory over Portlaw were reckoned strong contenders for county honours but Cappoquin put on a great show when they won well from the locals in the second round. Then came another great display by Dungarvan against Tallow and once more the Blues were in quest of the Blue Riband of Decie hurling. Those Dungarvan followers who witnessed their exploits display against Tallow cannot see Cappoquin beat them on Sunday next but if the Corner Stone hurlers hurl as well as they are trained Dungarvan will have to pull an extra ounce out of the bag to win the day.

Cappoquin in preparation for Sunday's great clash have undergone an intensive course of training and each evening at the Sportsfield all players are to be seen at sprinting and leap-frog. Candidly I admire their earnestness and enthusiasm and if Cappoquin do place they certainly will deserve all the praise which I can give.

For years it was Dungarvan and Tallow cock-of-the-walk in West Waterford hurling circles but now Cappoquin are very much in the limelight and there is nothing but a slight favour for the Corner Stone men as they are setting up new figures where training is concerned.

In preparation for the Cappoquin challenge Dungarvan have done little or nothing in the training line. The number out during the week improved over last week but really their present method of training would not hold candle to Cappoquin and it would not surprise me to see the Blues go down due to lack of training.

When the two met some months ago Dungarvan took things easy and they were inclined to dally with the ball whereas the Cappoquin men set out to win and with the will to win the result was a just reward for those whose methods were first time.

I have discussed Sunday's prospects with several of the Dungarvan players and all are confident of victory on Sunday at Lismore—one in particular said to me if we lack training we certainly should make up the balance in hurling ability and training. How well trained Cappoquin are we will beat them and well at that on the Lismore pitch where the Old Boro men are well-known performers.

Cappoquin supporters present at the Dungarvan-Tallow match were of the opinion their boys would beat the pick of the two. This may seem in my opinion most optimistic but it gives one an idea of the enthusiasm which backs the Corner Stone hurlers.

I am informed Jim Ryan will be in action on Sunday next after his sojourn cross-Channel. It will be interesting to see if he still retains his style and accuracy of some years ago with which Dungarvan players are well acquainted.

Sunday's game should surpass all others in senior competition and today the respective merits of both teams is the chief topic in Western hurling circles and when the two meet on Sunday next it is expected a record crowd will patronise the Castle Farm pitch scene of many a thrilling hurling encounter.

The game will be handled by Johnny Vaughan, Lismore, who so ably refereed the Dungarvan-Tallow match and he will set the teams in motion at 3.30 pm (S.T.).

It will come as a surprise when readers hear Mount Sion have objected to Erin's Own. I am informed a four-point objection

YOUGHAL AND DISTRICT NEWS

Mogeely Recreation Hall—The local Sports Committee are arranging to open the old parish hall in the course of a month or so and it is expected that a Gaelic League Branch will be established in Mogeely. Subsequently a Gaelic class will be conducted in the hall. Other interesting functions such as Concerts, Lectures, Question-Time competitions etc will also be staged.

We wish to congratulate the energetic committee on their splendid efforts. Mr R. Hennessy Hon. Sec. deserves the grateful thanks of everybody interested in the welfare of the young people in the district.

Bowl Playing—A big match is being arranged to take place in the Mogeely-Killeagh Roson on Sunday week. The contestants are Mr John Mackessy Mogeely the popular East Cork champion and a leading Carrigtwohill player.

Other Matches arranged are—Mountunlacke-Inch Road between Mr Michael Mangan and Mr James O'Brien, Ballyere on Sunday week at 4 pm. Mr Robert Buckley Gurtinagappal v Mr D. Savage Tallow from Stone Bridge to Lombards.

Boxing—Lovers of the manly art will be delighted to know that an interesting boxing match will take place in Ballinacurry on the 23rd inst between J. Lyons and T. Mulcahy both from Watercrosshill and Barthlemy.

Inch G.M.S. Hall—45 card Drives and Gaelic Concerts are to be held during the month of October in the Inch Hall. The committee are also making arrangements for various forms of entertainments during the long winter months which we are sure will be greatly appreciated by all.

Harvesting in Youghal and District—The farmers in the Youghal district are well advanced in harvesting operations. All the grain crop has been saved. The first of the threshing operations took place a few weeks ago at Barnageeha a farm owned by Mr J. O'Mahony and similar work is being carried on since then in the neighbourhood. The corn threshed gave a splendid return.

Youghal Strand—The visitors to the strand this season exceeded all expectations. Never in the history of the ancient borough town of Youghal were such large crowds seen and we are glad to say that they were all well.

The Youghal Development Association deserve a word of praise for the splendid work they are doing to make Youghal one of the leading seaside resorts in the country.

Inch and Killeagh Old IRA Comrades Association—A meeting of the above took place on the 3rd inst. It was decided to tion is in the hands of the County Secretary and the matter will come up for hearing at the next County Board meeting on Sunday next at Waterford. Mount Sion and the Army meet kindly and hospitable relations in the senior hurling championships and this game should prove interesting to followers of the game citywards.

The Army were sadly disappointed when Mount Sion failed to Erin's Own and victory for either of the two on Sunday next would yet make the championships interesting provided of course the hearing of the Mount Sion objection. The game is timed to start at 3.30 pm S.T. and will be refereed by Mick Hayes Butlerstown.

MY GARDEN

I have many visitors to my garden many to purchase fruit or vegetable and they bring their children with them and to them it all seems so peaceful and beautiful and I am often amazed at the ignorance of some of the young people who are brought up in town about the facts of nature I try to interest these young people and in addition to the garden I show the children my cows and chickens and a little calf and its great fun for them. For my part I often survey my garden as a miniature Eden and some plants stunted and weak the picture of misery for want of attention or unsuitable surroundings and then give them a shove to a better position and some food and water and they come on apace. Other plants there are that spread and increase and smother plants not at all fitted for the survival of the fittest. I try to get rid of them but they are so tenacious that I have to dig them out and burn them. I fight back with Derris and poison gas and liquid spray and this war never ends—there is no VE day

Tallow & Moorehill Notes

Annual Horse Fair - The annual horse fair was held on Monday last and was well up to the average of former years. We have often seen a large fair and the standard was not up to pre-war days but nevertheless a very large number of horses were on view in which all classes of horse-flesh were represented. The heavy type of farm horse was very much in demand and sold at remunerative prices on the whole. A big number of sales were effected with prices about average. Some good prices were realised for first-class hunters but not many were on offer. Well known buyers were in attendance from Clones, Dublin, Cork, Waterford, Bellinabreedy, Mallow, Knocklong, Clonmel, Bandon and many other centres. The highlight of the later day was the numerous transactions of the travelling fraternity which were followed with much interest by the local people. The various deals between them were good humoured ones as they heckled and abused each other and in the end the deal was effected to the satisfaction of all concerned. Horse fair day is a kind of annual re-union and many who only annually renew acquaintances over the cup that cheers or perhaps something stronger there to recount to one another the stories and news of the past twelve months. Towards evening there is a little sing-song they are now in a merry mood then comes the parting of the ways. And so ends another horse fair. Enjoyable and profitable, very enjoyable Ciderella was held at the Regal Ballroom on horse fair night and was attended by a very large crowd from Youghal, Lismore, Fermoy, Cappoquin as well as from the surrounding districts and despite the large attendance the best of order prevailed and all had a very enjoyable night. The committee in charge deserve to be congratulated on the success of their efforts. A delightful programme of music was supplied by the Brídside Serenaders who seemed to excel all previous performances and to the strains of this popular dance band dancing continued with unabated vigour until the playing of the National Anthem brought the happy and enjoyable function to a successful conclusion.

Town Lighting - The residents of the town were very pleased to find that the town lighting had been restored during the past week-end and is much appreciated by all. It is hoped that the full lighting service will be restored.

Whist Drive Resumed - The whist drive resumed under the auspices of the Tallow branch of the Gaelic League which were suspended during the summer months have been resumed and will be held every Thursday night at the Gaelic League Hall commencing at 8 o'clock. Very valuable prizes are offered and admission is only one shilling.

Camogie Tournament - The large crowd that attended the final of the Tallow Camogie tournament were very disappointed to learn that the Camogie club were unable to travel owing to unforeseen circumstances and as Cappoquin lined up at the appointed hour they were awarded the match and the medals. It was a very satisfactory ending to what promised to be one of the outstanding games in the tournament. We were asked to suggest that some arrangement be made to have the match replayed at the Cappoquin venue. It was a pity the match was not fixed for some Sunday afternoon as it is very hard for country teams to field out those busy harvest evenings.

Celidhe Mor - A very enjoyable Celidhe Mor under the auspices of the camogie club was held at the Regal Ballroom on the evening of the tournament final and was attended by a very large crowd who one and all spent a very enjoyable evening. During the evening the tournament medals were presented to the Cappoquin camogie team by Miss Myra Ryan who congratulated the Cappoquin club on their success. As Miss Ryan presented the medals personally to each member of the team they were loudly applauded. After the presentation of the medals dancing was again continued and concluded with the playing of the National Anthem.

Death of Miss E. Donovan - We regret to announce the death of Miss Ellen Donovan which occurred at her residence, Killybeg, on Monday of last week after a brief illness and at a fairly advanced age. She was a member of the Holy Catholic Church and a devoted member of the late Miss Donovan was a member of an old and highly respected family and was held in the highest esteem by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. Of a quiet and retiring disposition she made many friends who one and all regret her passing. To her bereaved brothers and other relatives the deep sympathy of the entire community is extended in their sorrow and loss.

On Tuesday evening the remains were removed from the late residence to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow where they were received by Rev. W. Meehan, C.C. who reduced the dead body to a very large and representative cortege accompanied the removal of the remains.

On Wednesday morning Requiem Masses were offered up for the happy repose of the soul of the deceased and the burial place in the afternoon in the adjacent cemetery in the presence of another large gathering and amid every manifestation of deep regret.

Rev. W. Meehan, C.C. officiated at the graveside. The chief mourners included Messrs. John Patrick and Daniel Donovan (brothers), Mr. M. Quinlan, (brothers-in-law).

Ballymacarbery Notes

TOURANEENA MEDAL TOURNAMENT - A great game for the final of the Touraneena Hurling Tournament for a valuable set of medals was played in Ballinacorney on Sunday week between the local players and Touraneena and ended in a draw after a most strenuous and spectacular contest.

The Fourmilewater players after their recent decisive victory over Modelglo in their championship tie are eagerly looking forward to the re-play against Touraneena and are very confident of being able to win the medals in their next effort so that this should prove to be the best game of the season in the Ballinacorney area.

LAYING IN SUPPLIES OF WINTER FUEL - Many enterprising farmers and others in the Ballymacarbery district are at present busy in drawing in loads of turf for the winter. It has been noted that in the surrounding bogs and which is of very superior quality.

The poorer classes who cannot afford to lay in such a large stock have been depending for their smaller supplies on the Knockmealton Cooperative Creamery Society Ballinacorney which has provided such an unfailing supply for all during the years of war and which had purchased large quantities of excellent turf at Ballysaggart in order to be able to meet the requirements of the local people during the coming winter.

Two powerful Bedford motor lorries had been recently purchased by the Knockmealton Society for the purpose of conveying this turf from Ballysaggart to Ballinacorney and on their arrival from England they were taken over in Dublin by the Department of Industry and Commerce and handed over to C.I.E. which now controls the business of the former Great Southern Railways.

As this matter was ably dealt with at the last meeting of the County Waterford Committee of Agriculture and as further developments are awaited we cannot go into the question any further for the present but in the meantime it is only right that the public should understand the cause of the Knockmealton Society's action in their turf now as they had been so faithfully and so regularly doing for the past six years.

A GREAT ANGLING RIVER - The river Nire has for many years enjoyed the reputation of being one of the best rivers for trout angling in the County Waterford. We are glad to know that it has fully upheld its proud reputation this year because large numbers of enthusiastic anglers were here from Clonmel, Dungarvan, Cappoquin and other distant areas enjoyed some rare sport and succeeded in capturing large baskets of splendid trout.

The famous and picturesque Valley of the Nire is a glorious place to spend a holiday in and when the visitors wind up at the grand day's angling at the popular "Sporting Bar" in Ballymacarbery then and then only can they call their day's happiness complete.

THE HARVESTING SEASON IN FULL SWING - The harvesting season is now getting into full swing all over this fair and fertile district and it is very gratifying to hear that the hardworking and enterprising farmers are promised a very bountiful return for their labours as all classes of crops promise to give a very satisfactory yield.

The hum of the busy mowers and reapers now sounds like sweet music in the ears of those who were used to the silence of the fields and the supreme during the summer months and we hope the farmers in all other districts will be equally fortunate with their crops as are the farmers of the Ballymacarbery district this year.

THE WATER QUESTION - Although very little has been heard in public about the necessity for a pure water supply in this district since the matter was discussed at the Waterford County Council meeting in Dungarvan some months ago it must not be inferred from this that the agitation has died down in any way as the ratepayers concerned intend to continue their grievance has been completely redressed.

From reports in the Clonmel Press it can be seen that the Tipperary County Council (South Tipperary Board of Health Section) has recently embarked on an extensive and costly Water Scheme which will benefit thousands of people living within the jurisdiction of the Council and as portion of this area adjoins the Ballymacarbery district being only right across the Border the people here are keenly interested in the progress of the scheme.

CAPPOQUIN NEWS

NEXT SUNDAY'S GREAT HURLING MATCH - Since hurling was first introduced into Cappoquin we have never seen the like of the enthusiasm displayed as we have witnessed during the past fortnight or three weeks in the Sportsfield where the members of the senior hurling team have been training hard for the senior hurling match against Dungarvan in Lismore on next Sunday.

Their striking victory of 16 points to seven Dungarvan a couple of months ago has fired the imagination of all the Cappoquin senior hurlers and they have prepared themselves for Sunday's match in such a thorough and earnest manner that they will enter the field on Sunday trained to the ounce and they make no secret of the fact that they feel they will be able to give Dungarvan the greatest game of the year. They are not "camouflaging" their preparations in any way by falsely stating that they have not been training hard as they prefer to let the opposition know in advance of their thorough fitness for the hard task which lies before them and they are beaten on Sunday it will not detract from their training and Dungarvan will deserve to be congratulated if they are able to perform such a great feat for the honour and glory of the county.

As this matter was ably dealt with at the last meeting of the County Waterford Committee of Agriculture and as further developments are awaited we cannot go into the question any further for the present but in the meantime it is only right that the public should understand the cause of the Knockmealton Society's action in their turf now as they had been so faithfully and so regularly doing for the past six years.

Several dangerous turns in the road have been straightened out and the road has also widened at several points, while the entire stretch from Cappoquin Bridge to Fives' Cross is to be steam-rolled so that there will be the finest stretch of road in the district in a short time.

We thank Mr J Ormond B.E. Acting-County Surveyor for having carried out their work in such a thorough and highly-satisfactory manner.

RE OPENING OF THE VOCATIONAL SCHOOL - The summer holidays having now concluded the usual Technical and Domestic Science Classes were opened on Monday by Mr Thomas F Halpin Headmaster and Miss T O'Gorman respectively. The attendance of pupils at the opening classes was fair but as most of the boys and girls usually attending this school belong to the farming class they are now kept busy with the harvest work at home so that when this has been completed they will be free to resume their studies in the various departments and we may look forward to an increased attendance of pupils during the next week or two.

IMPROVEMENT AT THE BOATHOUSE - A great deal of long-delayed improvement is now about being carried out in the Boathouse premises this being the laying down of a concrete path leading from the road entrance to the entrance of the Boathouse Hall about 30 ft below.

The old path had been rough and uneven from many years and was positively dangerous to walk over on dark days especially when a large crowd was coming out from a dance or a play so that the concrete path will not only save the appearance of the Boathouse but will also prove a welcome and necessary improvement for which all sections of the public should be grateful to the committee and the donors of the money.

LIGHTING OF THE TOWN LAMPS - We were all glad to see the Town lamps lighting on Saturday night 1st inst as the nights begin to get dark and dreary soon after 9 o'clock each night now.

Mr M F Walsh Co Councilor did a good stroke of work for the ratepayers by getting the lighting cut off from May to September as the lights were quite unnecessary during this period and it would have been only a waste of money to have the lamps lighting but now that they have become a necessity none of the ratepayers will grumble at the cost of keeping the lighting during the long dark nights.

DUFFY'S CIRCUS COMING NEXT MONTH - Duffy's Circus has already booked the Sportsfield for Wednesday 14th inst for this great entertainment will pay its annual visit to Cappoquin.

This is an event to be looked forward to by young and old as it is a most interesting break in the monotony of night-life while at the same time it will prove a stepping-stone towards the opening day of the New Cinema which should be completed about the end of October and thus certainly should prove a great boon by brightening the lives of the townspeople during the long winter months which will then lie before them.

MARKET FOR STORE GEES - Messrs J O Connor and Sons egg and poultry exporters have now opened a branch in Cappoquin and ducks for which the highest market prices are being paid.

All kinds of fowl including guinea fow are also purchased in unlimited quantities and also deer for which high prices are paid while blackberries and crab-apples are also being purchased daily in these extensive premises.

The only articles in short supply there at present are eggs and we were surprised last week usually come in thousands of eggs in the season to be without a solitary egg which gives a good idea of the egg famine prevailing here for some weeks past.

DUNGARVAN DRAMATIC SOCIETY - Several lovers of drama and comedy have been inquiring from us if there is any hope of a visit from the talented Dungarvan Dramatic Society in the near future.

This fine combination of artists gave us a grand performance of "Come in the Springtime" some months ago in the Boathouse Hall and they made a good impression then that the townspeople would welcome a return visit from them on an early date.

We note this paragraph will catch the eye of Mr M J Keane Dungarvan for he is the only gentleman who can arrange for further visit of these clever artists to Cappoquin. Come on M J!
