AND YOUNG IRELAND CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS

PARADE AND CONCERT

DUNGARVAN can be justly proud of the honour paid to the memory of Thomas Davis, and the other . Young Irelanders, whose hearts beat in unison one , hundred years ago to: the weltare of Ireland as a , nation, when on Monday night last, October 1st the , townspeople turned out en masse to take part in, and to witness one of the greatest parades ever held within . living memory in the town

The Parade was the first leg in a two nights programme to celebrate the Centenary of the young man whose writings have proved to be the gospel of every true-hearted Irishman within the past hundred years

With flags flying and torches blazing in the darkness of the Dramatic and Orchestral night the parade representative Societies Camogie Club Staff or every phase of life in Dungar- and Students Sgoil na gCeard van moved off from The Square at about 813 pm on the com-

Overdraft On Harbour Account
A resolution proposed by Mr McGrath and seconded by Mr Clancy requesting the sanction of an overdraft of £300 on the Harbour Account was passed
It was stated that the overdraft was required due to emergency conditions and was sug-gested by the Auditor

Mr Clancy said the prospects bour were very bad at present M1 McGrath—Things are likely to improve soon Acquisition Of Cunnigar The motion in the name of Mr A Veale deferred from the last meeting (already published) calling on the Manager to pur-chase the Cunnigar or to take steps to acquire it for development came up for consideration The motion was seconded by Mr Moving the motion Mr Veale for building the Cunnigar bridge and £5 000 for dredging the har-bour I was the Borough Surveyor then and Messrs Delap and Waller Engineers asked me to bore for soundings for the bridge The war broke out then and the matter was set aside and then the trouble strated and then the trouble started I'r Edward Dee who was a member of this Council at that Water Supplies In Town time and also a member of the first Dail was asked to see that that portion of this money set aside for Dungarvan was forth coming but his answer was I won t touch British money I cannot blame the present Gov-ernment for the loss of that money said Mr McGrath but the Government in power at that time should have looked after it I do think that there is a moral obligation on the Government for that amount and I think we are entitled to the £6 000 and the £5 000 set aside for dredging and the provision of a deep water quay at Abbeyside

I think we should acquire the

Mr McGrath's Statement Challenged

Mr Morrissey—It is my duty o contradict the statement made by Mr McGrath concern ing the action of the late Eddie Dee which I cannot let go un-challenged The way Mr Mc-Grath put it it reflects on Mr Dec as being primarily responsible for the loss of this money said that they had already been to the town. ANTRIM BEATS WATERFORD IN THE ALL-IRELAND CAMOGIE FINAL

A RECORD ATTENDANCE FOR CAPPOQUIN

(From Our Cappoguin Correspondent)

IN order to deal in proper sequence or perspective with the events which led up to last Sunday's famous Camogie match between Antiin and Waterford for the All-Ireland Final Camogie Championship we cannot do better than start with the arrival of the Antrim colleens in Cappoquin on Saturday night

Having been travelling since early morning on Saturday over a distance of nearly 300 miles by motor this should have been enough to unnerve the most stoical passengers but it failed to unnerve our pretty northern 'invaders all of whom arrived here remarkably fresh and well about 11 o clock on Saturday

ced both in Cappoquin on Sunday last and in Dungarvan on Monday and Tuesday nights when the need for a civic pride in our Country and in our National Language was forcibly brought into the lime-light

At Cappoquin we had the All Ireland Camogie Final featuring teams from Antrim in the partitioned north of our country and our own county team Although Antrim with the five other counties at the north-eastern tip of Ireland are cut away by an unnatural border from the rest of the country and are ruled by Orange Unionists for the British Empire it filled the hearts of the Southern Gaels to hear the Irishmen and girls of Antrim speaking in Irish singing in Irish dancing Irish dances and excelling in Irish games That the partitioning of our Nation is wrong and unnatural was proved by the spirit of fraternity and goodwill which existed between the North and South at Cappoquin on Sunday We join fervently with those speakers at the reception for the teams in hoping that before long this cruel wrong inflicted on the Irish people will be ended In Dungaryan we had the Centenary Celebrations in honour of Thomas Davis and the
