Perfect Productions By Dungarvan Dramatic Club

On last Friday Saturday and Sunday nights the Dungarvan Dramatic Club achieved another outstanding success at the Town Hall with their production of a double-feature programme featuring Riders To The Sea" (J M Synge) and The Shadow Of A Gunman (Sean O Casey) The Club we are sure should be more than pleased with the support their efforts or Casey) The Club we are sure should be more than pleased with the support their efforts received on each of the three nights but more especially on Sunday night when there was a capacity house. The productions went off without a hitch and were absolutely perfect.

Once again the supporting musical programme of the Dungarvan Orchestral Society under Mr Michael Clancy conductor proved a real delight to the audiences. Too high praise cannot be given to the members of the Society and the great cooperation which exists between the society and the club produces a combination for which theatre-lovers in Dungaivan and district are distinctly thankful. We think that mention of those who work behind the scenes should also be made. It takes much time and patience to prepare the players for their casted roles and it is due to the patience and guidance of the producers.

Or Casey (Electrician) Joseph Or Riordan (Assistant Stage Managers) Padraig Or Murchadha (Settings) Toma Casey (Electrician) Joseph Or Riordan (Hall Superintendent) Miss Bridie Whittle (make-up) The effects were carried out by Captain R Keatings Lieut Maurice Kiely and Sergeant Howlin LDF.

The members of the Orchestra were—Mr Ml Clancy Conductor Mr M Walsh Misses, H Boyle M Donaldson and G Endersen (1st violins) Masters J Boyle M Donaldson and G Endersen (1st violins) Masters T Costin (clarinet) T Crotty (concert flute) M Walsh Junr (double bass) W S Miller (organ) Mrs O Hara (panist) director casted roles and it is due to the patience and guidance of the producers during rehearsals that the finished product is made ready for the public The work of Professor M H O Hara in this respect showed the master touch as all the players were well prepared (Clarinet) T Crotty (concert flute) M Walsh Junr (double bass) W S Miller (organ) Mrs O Hara (pianist) director

Foot Troubles and Rheumatism have always been looked upon as permanent complaints that suddenly afflict humanity Sufferers could tell you how they have tried every remedy without getting relief and after years of agonising pains have given up all hope of becoming cured They are deprived of healing powers and the blissful forgetfulness of sleep. They become Neurotic and irritable and consequently their general health is The reports made by grateful patients is convincing proof of

this Scientific Treatment
WALKED TO CHAPEL FOR FIRST TIME IN SIX YEARS Ballindagging Monbeg Co Wexford

Dear Mr Berry I wish to make it known through publicity of this letter so that other sufferers can take not, of your Excellent Treatment for years I have been tortured with unbearable agonising pains in my limbs which gave me little sleep and badly affected my nerves. My feet legs and back were extreme'y weak and caused great difficulty when I had to walk about and latterly it became necessary to stay at home

Since undergoing your treatment, a remarkable change occurred It is with pleasure to write that for the first time in six years I was able to walk to charel, and have been going regularly ever since. My health is greatly improved now, and everyone is delighted with the results of your Treatment and the great change they have seen in me With deep gratitude

I know that if Doctor Casey were up and about (please God he will soon be) the claims of Dungarvan would be pressed on in the TB in no uncertain manner. To be constructive I would suggest the local Development Committee should get together immediately formu late a scheme and submit it to the Tourist Board I feel they would have a good friend on the Tourist Board in the Fear Mor
