New District Justice Welcomed

Will Encourage Irish In Courts

Local Clubs Fined

Before the usual business of the District Court was commenced at Dungarvan on Tuesday Mr T C Williams solr.

(Messrs J F Williams & Son)
as senior solicitor welcomed the as senior solicitor welcomed the new District Justice assigned to Mr Williams solr was for de-

the area, Mr Eamonn O Riain Extending to him a welcome to Dungarvan Mr Williams said that he hoped the new District Justice would be spared to them for many years to administer Justice in the area Referring to the retirement of Mr Sean Troy DJ Mr Williams said that he was not present at the last Court when Mr Troy announced his retirement and he had no idea that he was leaving He therefore took this opportunity of expressing his appreciation of the magnificent way in which Mr Troy carried out his duties He thanked him for all the kindness and generosity shown by him at all generosity shown by him at all times and said that he hoped the new Justice would equal if not excel all that Mr Troy did Concluding Mr Williams assured Mr O Riain of the co-operation of all in coducting his duties Supt P O'Mahony on his own

Supt P O'Mahony on his own behalf and on behalf of the Gardai under his control associated himself with the expression of welcome to his Worship He assured him that the district is as quiet and orderly as any over which his Worship had jurisdiction and said that he would find the Courts as far as the Criminal side was concerned light
