GAELIC NOTES

SENIOR CLUBS (By 'TAOBHLINE)

Last week-end I accompanied the Waterford SF team down to Tralee where we arrived on Saturday evening to be welcomed In the afternoon I visited the Austin Stack Park and quite a surprise was in store for me when saw the marvenous improvements made there since my last visit some years ago Today the Park is one of the most modern and best equipped grounds in the country-surely a great tribute to its name sake Austin Stack The frontage however took my fancy and worthy of mention to Waterford Gaels On the left-hand side you have the names of the Kerry nurling team who won their first All-Ireland in 1891 and ing love story—More suspenseful on the right the names of the than "Laura Kerry team who won their first

A great story a great cast a great picture with all the love laughter and pathos of life itself Splendid Supporting Programme "Captain Caution"

The work is very neat in cut stone and above each team is a "Captain Caution"

Thursday Next—Garry Cooper in between is a plaque showing the but of Austin Stack and the bust of Austin Stack and Coming—"Moon Over Miami," looking down from its lofty pin"Dead End', 'A Tree Grows of the All-Ireland Cup Naturally I was proud to note on the foot ball team the name of Kilmacborn Rody Kirwan who played a prominent part when helping Kerry to win their first All Ireland This final is recorded as 1903 but it was not played until November 12th 1905 at Jones to 100 acres intending sellers Road Dublin Kindly communicate with the undersigned (Strictly Confidenshow in the first half and they show in the first half and they tied Kerry down to six points Strange as it seems all same came from frees on the 21 yards Our backs were prone to foul at close quarters with the result they were penalised within easy scoring distance

Two points down on the turn ver our footballers looked as if they would be 11 at the finish but they never seemed to get going in the second period and Kerry piled up a substantial lead to win comfortably

It is hard to understand the failure of the team in the second half but I am of the opinion they were not able to stay the hour especially when the first half was so tough I believe the day is not far bff whin county teams in first class compet tion must utilise collective training However space is limited and I must turn to other matters The chief topic in Gaelic circles just now is the meeting on Sunday next at Dung rvan between Mt Sion and Erins Own in the senior hurling championships This game is creating countywide interest and it is expected a record crowd will patronise the Old Boro grounds on Sunday hext to see the famed rivals in action Waterford City Gaels were disappointed when it be came known that this match was coming to Dungarvan but both teams were anxious to play here with the result the sporting public are now looking forward to a needle game Erin's Own led by the ever-green Charlie Ware are travelling to Dungarvan in confident mood and they are out to regain lost laurels The county Sion captained by John Keane say they will win the premier honours this year and he main tains the big fast Dungarvan pitch will suit Mt Sion who are the more youthful team

Both teams however need no introduction to followers of our National Pastimes and the names of Mt Sion and Erins Oun will always be associated with Waterford hurling Erin's Own first came into prominence in 1927 when they won their first senior championship and they set up a record in county competition by winning the blue riband from that year until 1935. Nine wins in a row is certainly a great feat and today after nearly twenty years some of the men who put Erins Own on the map are still playing and going strong Mount Sion recognised as the nursery of Waterford hurling took three successive championships 1938 to 1940 and as pre sent holders they they will not readily bow to defeat on Sunday next J Keane P Dowling A Fleming M O Brien L Fanning will be the main stay of Sunday s team whilst Erins Own will likely include on their line out-Charlie and Jim Ware Johnny Fanning Fad Browne Frank Pinkert and newcomers with inter-county experience Fitzgerald Eddie Carew Barry and Ben Hoban

Sunday's game should thriller everything points to a ding-dong struggle and hurling of a high order seems likely Johnny Vaughan Lismore will have charge of the whistle as the game is timed for 3 30 S T Stradbally and Kilgobinet meet in a football friendly at 2 15 p m ST and this should prove an interesting curtain raiser Cappoquin are likely to places this year and their great win on Sunday last over Irish Tanners will give them great heart for their next round clash with Dungarvan The score 3-5 to 0-1 was a surprise to me but I am informed that Cappoquin were a well-balanced trained SF Championships — Stradbally v Ballycoe at Stradbally on Thursday August 1st Time 8 pm ST Referee P Dalton
