Camogie-Western Divisional Final—At the Gaelic field Lissurger on Sunday last Tallow and Dungarvan finished level after a good closely contested game which was favoured by a fairly good attendance despite counter-attractions Exciting exchanges were witnessed in the first half with Tallow having a slight advantage which they against a very strong set of Dungarvan backs In the second half the tide turned in favour of St Mary's but they were foiled time and again by the brilliant goal-keeping of J Beecher

Scholarship Winners —Congratulations are extended to Masers J Lineen M Coleman and Murphy all pupils of CBS Lismore on having secured a scholarship value £80 offered by the County Council for pupils of Primary Schools Both teachers and pupils are to be highly complimented on their great success against such keen competition and we now wish the winners further successes in the intellectual field The people of Lismore justly feel proud of these lads in their outstanding achievement in upholding the tradition of their school and town

Cricket -On next Saturday Cork selection captained by N A. Catchfield will oppose Lismore in a cricket challenge at the local field Five of this team have represented Munster in interprovincial cricket and their visit will afford the locals of seeing some first-class players

A good game should be witnessed and it will be interesting to see how the Lismore XI mil fare against this team whose prowess has been amply demonstrated by a succession of vic-

Mr Lynch—What I say it this if one of our sons goes to college and takes out his degree just the same as this contractor he should get a start in life after all they must begin sometime, is it because one man has experience that another has not got hee should be cut out I do not see why a young firm financially strong enough to carry out the work should not get a chance Mr Ahern—There is something in what Mr Lynch has said but I would like to give the job to someone with the proper equipment and is a very capable year as it will mean a great deal for the town and the charitable organisations will benefit I would like to say too that if the people would co-operate better we would have a big increase in our tourist traffic.

Mr Daly E E—The people are charging the visitors too much see why a young firm financially strong enough to carry out the work should not get a chance Mr Ahern—There is something in what Mr Lynch has said but I would like to give the job to someone with the proper equipment and is a very capable year as it will mean a great deal for the town and the charitable for the town and the charitable of the same Scout happens to be a pilot in the Silver Palm Badge and that same Scout happens to be a pilot in the Irish Army Air Corps

DEATH OF MRS. B. SARGENT, CAPPOQUIN Regretted Passing Of An Esteemed Cappoquin

It is with feelings of very deep regret we record the pass-ing of Mrs Bridget Sargent which sad event occurred at her residence Main Street Cappo-

quin in those far-off days Of a most charitable and homely disposition, she was a model amongst mothers and it would indeed be hard to find her equal Her death has now robbed Cappoquin of one of its most beloved and respected residents She will be sadly missed in the family circle and also by the people of Cappoquin and dis-trict who loved her so well and who always appreciated her charitable and obliging manner and her charming personality A most industrious woman she lived a most honourable and upright life and now after a long happy and useful life she has fully gone to her reward fortified by the rites of poquin
