that you could be put to Jail for making a statement that the cattle were bought from Walsh?

—No I never said that Did you suggest to Mr Beres-ford that Walsh could say that he never sold those cattle 9—No

This concluded the cross-ex-amination

Mr McCarthy then outlined the case for the defence and the first witness called was John Fenton Junior who stated that he was at the Dungarvan fair held on June 10th with his held on June 19th with his father They sold 23 cattle to Mr Beresford and with 5 others

Mr Beresford and with 5 others he had bought from Mr Walsh they drove the lot down to Dunne's lane He counted the cattle he had there and there were 28 There were other cattle in the lane but he was not sure of the number.

In reply to the Supt witness said that he only went as far as Dunne's lane with the cattle where he handed them over.

Mr F Templeton Abbeyside, Representative of the American Oil Company said that on the evening of June 19th he met Mr Beresford coming from the fair with some cattle He had some business to do with Mr Beresford which took about five by Supt P O Mahony for tak-ing a bicycle without the con-sent of the owner—John O Con-der I therefore impose a susnor Abbeyside, on July 28th pensory sentence of 3 months, Mr P J Morrissey solr who defended admitted that his client took the bicycle from near years a local church to go on a journey out the country When he came back he left it outside another minor and her father Nicholas back he left it outside another church and when inquiries were made about the case the defendant admitted them He said that the boy was indispensable to his employer Mr Ryan—a threshing mill owner for the harvest

The Supt said that the boy was just home after doing nine months imprisonment and the only reason why he did not press for another term was that it would be a hardship on Ryan As the defendant did not show any sign of mending he suggested with driving the which is a speed and in a manner dangerous to the public at Emmet Street Dungarvan, on July 30th

The same defendant was also charged with driving the vehicle on the same occasion or insurance

Messrs Farrell and Morrissey, solrs defended and stated that Mr McEvoy was ill and aexed for an adjournment would be a hardship on Ryan
As the defendant did not show any sign of mending he suggested that the case might be met by a substantial fine

The Justice said that people like defendant must realise that they eannot take bicycles without consent If he sent defendant to jail farmers expecting Ryan for the harvest would suffer and for that reason he would give defendant a last
