The Church founded on the The Surface of the Case ing For what is meant by infallibility in teaching except that the teacher in his teaching is secured from error? And how can fallible man be thus secured except by a supernatural infallible guidance? The Church has the office of teachment for and the matter of that ing and the matter of that teaching is the body of revealed doctrine which the Apostles left behind them to the Church as her perpetual possession

These doctrines are said to be de fide of faith that is truths necessary to be believed as included in the Divine Teaching The terms revelation depositum dogma and de fide are correlatives And our reli-gion is called The Faith by the Waterford County Council to which we mean that our reli-forward to you herewith a copy glous doctrines have not been of a letter dated 2nd Jannuary invented or discovered by men 1947 from the Department of

In the Catholic Church one is our Master Jesus Christ the Son our Master Jesus Christ the Son of God who is the Lord of Truth All this can be seen in two assents which are described in the Gospels The first is that of St Peter Our Lord had preached a strange but sublime doctrine about the bread from Heaven . To many it proved a hard saying They had witnessed miracles and had abundance of evidence for accepting the word of Jesus Christ but they turned away When Our Lord asks St Peter whether he too will go away St Peter answers

POINTING THE WAY....

The spring that is now beginning brings hope for a lessening of our present difficulties and an end to shortages and rationing

Farmers can do more than any others to ease these difficulties. More home produced food is needed to bring about a return to better days.

Now is the time to prepare for spring sowing Wheat is the most important crop Only a very big acreage will point the way.

today we abide With the shadow of want marching on by our side Today all we get is just one loaf of bread

And I don't have to say 'tis a manage on this much in drafting plans for the prothroughout the long day posed building scheme In this cheerful way cheerful way special tribute to the invaluable special tribute to the invaluable consistence rendered by Mr pain in the head Yet we carry on in our own And this week once more all heard the bad news

Which caused me to shrink almost down to my shoes, Four ounces of butter no longer 'twill be, But only just two now for you and for me Well all you good people I hope

and I pray, That we may all live for a much better day Our troubles increasing our lives

May God care old Ireland and MCC and seconded by Mr M guide her well through All storms like this one for me passed unanimously

Proposed Building Scheme
The County Librarian stated that he was at present engaged in drafting plans for the pro-

assistance rendered by Mr Browne, senior assistant both in the drafting and by his many helpful suggestions

As the proceedings at the last County Council meeting had been accurately and fully reported in the press it was unnecessary to present a special

A discussion on future procedure followed, and it was suggested by Mr. T Kyne MCC that the County Librarian report fully to the County Manager and that the Librarias Committee average for the County Manager and that the Libraries Committee express their opinion formally in a resolution to be forwarded to the County Manager

The following resolution was then proposed by Mr T Kyne,

That having heard the report of the County Librarian on the relative advantages and disadvantages of having the new Headquarters in Lismore or Dungarvan the Committee were un animously of the opinion that the new Headquarters should be located in Dungarvan, under the same roof as the Branch Library for Dungarvan

Borrowing of Books Mr Kyne said that he had complaints regarding the booka breach of the Licensing Laws stock in Dungarvan and also and All-Age beating the £2,000 pm Supt Sean Hughes BL had borrower without centres was in poor and soiled and Shelbourne where he did condition However he had 30.54 first time budgeted for 1 000 new books for considerably eased

With regard to the complaint of passing of books from borrowdrinking lemonade who was left this system was not permitted and that all books must be regarvan Branch indicating that turned to the shelves by the Librarian-in-charge before being borrowed again

Increases of Salaries
Mr T Kyne inquired if the recent increase of salaries proposed were applicable to Branch Librarians The County Librarian stated that he believed the case of Branch Librarians was covered by the resolution passed
