Before proceeding with a description of the game there are some things which deserve special mention and I am sure my next remarks are but the sentiments of every man woman and child in the district who had the pleasure of sharing in the day's festivity whether as an organiser or spectator

It would be invidious for us to single out any feature of the days events as a top-liner but since the newly formed band so creditably and mention These lads were truly magnificent whether playing rousing martial airs or those ever-popular old-time favourites Grass Seeds, Seed Potatoes while the perfect formation and order maintained throughout a strenuous day was something to be marvelled at The general all-round display seems to im prove with every outing Le is hope that we will hear from them very soon again

The field committee too are worthy of our highest praise To those who were present on Sunday it is not necessary for us to say anything—they saw it for themselves To describe it to those who were not present we would hardly do it justice The wire netting which encloses the field is a vast improvement on all former railings while the general lay out of the playing pitch left nothing to be desired The comments of approbation heard amongst the huge crowd proved that the expense and lab-our expended by the untiring committee have been fully ap-
