The death of Mr Thomas The Dungarvan Coursing Club White (52) retired postman of can feel justifiably proud of Ballyhane Cappoquin which october ach evement in running curred at the District Hospital Dungarvan on January 1st resulted in the holding of an inquest on Friday January 2nd, which on the request of Superintendent P Creane Lismore representing the Authorites was day a very large attendance saw coursing at its best Torrential rain however spoilt the second day as far as the spectators were adjourned sine die pending furadjourned sine die pending fur-concerned and only the very en-ther instructions on the inci-thusiastic coursing fans braved dent which resulted in de-the elements and these were re-ceased s removal to hospital warded in a big way by witnessceased s removal to hospital warded in a big way by witnesson New Year's Day a post mortem examination was conducted by Dr J McGrath State Game strong-running hares made every course exciting and in the finals of the Deise Cup

From this examination we formed the opinion that the cause of death was septic menhaving the causative infection having entered through the wound at the time it was inflicted The wound and bruises would not have caused death or serious injury if the infection had not occurred —Signed John McGrath MD MSc Patrick Joseph Ryan MB BOH, BAO Adjournment

The Coroner explaining the matter to the jury stated that deceased had died from a trivial injury and in 99 cases out of injury and in 99 cases out of 1000 it would not cause death Deceased had got the orthodox treatment for meningitis but that request this disease nearly always proves fatal He said that the Superintendent was requesting an adjournment sine die as there were other matters pending and he would comply with ing and he would comply with unfortunate occurrence

HIDDEN TREASURE _ 6

OUNTLESS expeditions have crossed the Pacific bound for Cocos Island And not all for coco nuts. Here it is said lie vast hoards of pirate gold Indeed many people have claimed possession of charts showing exactly the place where the treasure is buried. About a dozen treasure-hunting ships went to the Island in the nineteenth century. Their crews returned empty-In recent years several well-equipped expeditions have sailed there The rocks on the shore and the trees in the interior are carved with the names of ships and of disappointed men. But they still go. The lure of untold wealth will ever attract the adventurous

Views Of Our Readers

To the Editor

A Chara—My attention has been directed to a letter of Mr T Kynes labour candidate for Waterford Constituency in your issue of Dec 27th in regard to a controversy between himself and Mr Burke, Kiely's Cross FF Cumann on the question of the responsibility for the erection of factories in Dungarvan Portlaw and elsewhere in Co Waterford Feeling that this matter is entirely the concern of the two gentlemen named I do not intend to intrude only to mention that in disclaiming any responsibility for the starting of these sibility for the starting of these industries Mr Kyne should be prepared to admit that it was the FF Government's policy of industrial development and expansion which made the erection of these factories possible and thus provided employment for hundreds of workers at wages compatible with decent living Furthermore he must be prepared to admit that this industrial policy of F.F. provided a very fruitful field for his activities as a Trades' Union Organiser activities which received special encouragement The Old And The New—The old year is past and gone and as we look back on its ups and downs fading into insignificance as they recede from view our thoughts turn to what lies there and in shead. # CONTRACTS SIGN NOW and SAVE MONEY

Comhlucht Siuicre Eireann, Teo, wishes to inform beet growers that supplies of Nitrate of Soda 16% N and Muriate of Potash 60% K<sub>2</sub>0 for the 1948 crop will shortly be imported. In order to facilitate distribution and save unnecessary freight charges, supplies will be sent directly by rail from the ports to the grower's nearest railway station. for all growers who have signed then 1948 contracts not later than the 17th January,

These contractors will, therefore, obtain Nitiate of Soda and Muriate of Potash, free on rail, at their nearest station in accordance with Clause 4 of the terms of contract, 1948/49

Imported Manures not so disposed of will be sent to the Sugar Factories and growers who sign contracts after the 17th January, 1948, may be required to take delivery of these manures at their factory or to pay the freight charges from the factory

Farmers who intend to grow beet in 1948 should, therefore, see the local Loading Agent of Comhlucht Siuicre Eireann, Teo, without delay and complete their 1948 Sugai Beet Contracts It they have any difficulty in seeing the Loading Agent before the 17th January, they should write to the Manager at Carlow, Mallow, Thurles or Tuam

The guaranteed price per ton for the 1948 beet crop is as follows

 $15\frac{1}{2}\%$  sugar content 93/10 99/8 105/6

If the total tonnage of beet delivered exceeds 650,000 tons a bonus of 2/- per ton will be added to the foregoing prices, and if the total tonnage exceeds 700,000 tons the additional bonus will be increased to 4/- per

This would bring the price to—

92/- for beet with  $\frac{1}{2}$ % 97/10 ,, ,, ,,  $\frac{1}{103}$ %  $\frac{103}{8}$  ,, ,, ,,  $\frac{17\frac{1}{2}}{100}$ %  $\frac{103}{8}$  ... ,,  $\frac{18\frac{1}{2}}{100}$ % 92/- for beet with 15½% sugar content 19½%

In addition a uniform freight subsidy will be paid to all growers whose beet is grown more than 15 miles from a factory This subsidy increases from 9d per ton to 7/- per ton according to the distance involved
