ST PATRICK'S (KNOCKA-NORE) DEFEAT ST MOLLERAN'S (CARRICKBEG) IN JUNIOR HURLING CO FINAL REPLAY

Knockanore 42, Carrickbeg 4

At the Gaelic Field Dungarvan on Sunday last Knocknore and Carrickebg met to decide the 1947 junior hurling championship and after a dour robust struggle the Knockanore men won a well-merited victory

This was the second time the teams met as they drew on the first occasion The match could first occasion The match could not be described a brilliant one as the heavy condition of the field did not lend itself to fast hurling or overhead striking but nevertheless the large crowd present were treated to a good, to game The stewarding on the game The stewarding on the side line calls for attention and if a better attempt is not made during the present season it would be just as well to cut out sidelines altogether
