well nigh perfect, when Glen keeping goal behind brother Rovers took the field against Tourin in the opening round of the will have to be on their toes if the will be the same to chalk in more Tourin in the opening round of the junior hurling championship on Sunday last. The biting wind and driving rain of the pievious fortinght gave way to brilliant warm sunshine and this sudden change in atmospheric conditions was reflected in the very large crowd who turned up to witness an hour of good hard hurling. The final score is hardly a fair indication of the general run of the game for Glen Rovers dominated the for Glen Rovers dominated the they are billed to appear in the play for long periods but their torward line lacked sting and shooting ability. They were obviously lacking in training class hurling should be the and this point raises the question in our minds of the ad-visability of postponing junior Activities games until later in the season games until later in the season Most junior teams are drawn from rural districts where for the first four months of the year farming takes precedence over everything else and teams cannot be expected to give of their best without at least a few weeks collective training Howels our own least which the Lawren was some weeks collective training how lever this is only our own later the Secretary of the above Society that Wednesday 21st July has been fixed as the date for this year show In their endeavour to set up a record prize Fund the Committee in have decided to run an All-Night dance at the Happydrome on 12th May for which the Lawren was a secretary of the Sec ever this is only our own than Dance Band Fermoy has been specially engaged For furprobably never materialise but this issue we do feel that much could be

KILLEAGH NOTES

Interesting Find-About three weeks ago, Mr Thomas Smiddy of Garrymore Killeagh when working in a kitchen garden at the rear of his home unearthed the people in the rural areas get a penny one hundred and twenty all the benefits and it would be Father Carey when in Youghal six years old The only difference between it and the present day coin is that it is twice the thickness the former weighing half an ounce the latter one quarter We thank Mr Smiddy for letting us know of the find as Ireland is building up its own Folklore which had been interrupted over and over again A Spring Garden. - This beautiful month of April when our think we should demand greater Canon Carey

ideal conditions Fields averaged out well and with the perfect view obtainable the proceedings always sustained interest The various events were got through well up glorious land is bedecked by the hand of the Omniscient Gar-dener when wayside and lea are with the meeting must be concolourful as the rainbow when

A spectacular finish in which Mr Sean Hyde shone was that for the Lightweight Race in which Golden Ray was prominent for the greater portion of the But that takes me back to a bleak dreary day in January or journey Then Kathleen came bleak, dreary day in January or to him but she made a mistake early February when scarcely a half a mile from home, and then flower was to be seen While Then Kathleen came bleak, dreary day in January or half a mile from home, and then Golden Ray took a good lead After the final fence The Pie who had been last throughout, began to make up ground rapidly and admirably ridden by Mr Sean Hyde his sister's horse got up to secure the verdict by half a, length Metal Man was in front for about half the journey in the Ballyduff Hunt Cup but then he fell and Certo led until half a mile from home when Pretty Rose went on to win easily

Langth Prostataly when scaled was to be seen While awaiting the funeral of a friend I sauntered along only to find myself outside the beautiful cottage homestead of Mr Thomas Motherway Ballinameeta Mogarden and was surprised to see dainty little flowers of every colour sheltered from the weather by hardier shrubs On entering the home it reminded me of the old fairy tales everything was done as if by magic the same taste exhibited inside as well as in the garden.

After the ceremony a reception was held at Ocean View, Clonea and subsequently Mr and Mrs Flynn left for Dublin on their honeymoon carrying with them the best wishes of all their firlends for future happiness and prosperity
