DESMOND BALLROOM CAPPOQUIN

APOLOGY

The Management of the Desmond Ballroom Cappoquin desire to apologise to their many patrons who turned up for the dance advertised Sunday night August 1st and wish to state that due to no fault of theirs the Band booked for the occasion failed to

This band was booked by the Management on March 28th and was reminded on subsequent occasions through correspondence of their engagement for August 1st

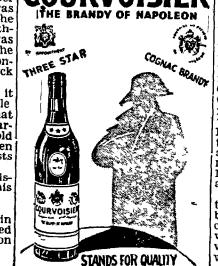

No previous word was received that the band would not turn up and it was expected to arrive up to 10 30 pm on Sunday night

Not having arrived by then the Management were forced to get the best band available order to facilitate the patrons who remained on for the dance

They again apologise that such action had to be taken and trust that patrons will ap-preciate the difficulty they were placed in

TRIUMPHS AT

I left Dungarvan on Sunday that if we would win the minor hurling championship we'd be doing well I returned with a different story and what a story it makes Someone suggested to me that I should caption the story with the title "Waterford Gives Cork A Keaning" and I was indeed tickled with it What I should have accepted as a good augury was a most artistic notice in blue and white prominently displayed on the roadside just beyond Ballymacarbery which bore the legend Up Waterford This was Up Waterford This was transferred to the opposite side of the road when I was coming back with the terse addition Croke Park and Croke Park it is indeed for the All-Ireland Semi-final against Galway on

Contrary to general expectations the seniors played like an inspired team when they toppled the champions from their throne and everyone played his part in the epic victory Jim Ware was a great captain and manned the bearna baoghail in heroic fashion and thwarted the Cork sharp-shooters on more than one occasion Newcomer John Cusack of Clonea gave an outstanding exhibition as full

Tom Curran's goal in the opening of the second half was a masterpiece and it was this escore that put Waterford on the base five players on the Waterford on the country some the base with glory in helping Mi Ryin also said that the Bond should congratulate the losing Counties on Sunday as both Coik and Tipperary thought they had easy victoris in $100 connor all of the Cappoquin feat of both was all the more butter for the players but despite this there was not one mendent to have five players on the Wa-Tom Curran's goal in the opening of the second half was a masterpiece and it was this score that put Waterford on the score that put Waterford on the bark road to Dublin | Kelleher W Conway and make Cappoquin feat of both was all Rovers minor team.
