CHAMPIONS TRIED AND TRUE PITCH INVADED AT WATERFORD

Waterford, 2-6; Kilkenny, 0-9.

AT the Sportsfield, Waterford, on Sunday last the Waterford Senior Hurling team gave as brilliant an exhibition of huiling as was ever seen on any pitch when the defeated a hard-hitting Kilkenny side by a goal in the Orleachtas Cup Semi-Final

By their display the team has shown itself worthy to hold the title of All-Ireland Champions which they gained at Croke Park on Sept 5th, and their victory augurs well for future National League games

The scenes outside the pitch before the game commenced were reminiscent of Thurles at "the greatest Munster Finals Although there were at least half-fa-dozen turn stiles available there were 2 or 3 which were not the all-Ireland is hoped to meet Dublin in the 17th inst at Croke BRENDAN CONNOLLY (Glendary Conn operating and the remainder for were not able to cope with the
