The defence which was contained that of defendant and on his dwarf of the solry with the sol tiffs a decree for the full amount

The first witness for plaintiffs was Mr C Coleman Dungaryan Area Supervisor who stated that he knew the defendant On May 29th he was at Tivoli Avenue, Cappoquin where he saw a tree being felled The tree fell on the network of wires at Mass Lane Kate Power and smashed them. A temporary repair job had to be done that evening and on the following day wires had to be repaired and fuses replaced The cost of the work had been £13 5s. 5d.

Witness stated that when he arrived at the spot the tree was nearly cut and he asked defendant which wires he wanted re-moved before the tree was knocked Defendant told him that he wanted the wires leading to the Boathouse removed and that the wires in Mass Lane

Surveyor The Borough Surveyor submit-ted a list of 28 houses in Dungarvan and Abbeyside which can be rendered fit at a reasonable cost and stated that notices had been served on the landlords to have the necessary repairs carried out
be demolished?

A further list letailed the houses which could not be rendered fit

Mr Clancy—I hope there's no official stealing a march on the Council about demolitions All these cases should be examined carefully and there should be no indiscriminate knocking houses

The report was deferred with the order that no demolitions should be ordered with out the knowledge of the Council.

A further letter was received from CIE concerning the excursions to the All Ireland final Mr Kyne said that there was only one point he would like CIE to explain and that was why there were no lights in Waterford station the night the people were coming home from the match

Mr Clancy—It's terrible if that is true—it is the result of It was agreed that CIE be asked further to explain the point raised by Mr Kyne
