Sunday last Avonmore hurling team redeemed their laurels by defeating Dungarvan in a dour game at Lismore From the throw in the game was fast and furious and provided a thrilling hour of first-class hurling The game was marred to a great extent by a continuous number of uncalled for incidents and in the second half there appeared to be a complete lack of control amongst the players and hurleys

The above ballad which originally contained three verses was written after the famous battle of Kilmichael in November, 1920, by John F Hourihane late of Grillagh Ballinacarriga Bal-lineen a member of C Company 3rd Bat 3rd Cork Brigade, and now residing at 540 Newvury St., Back Bay Boston, Massachussettes U.S.A. In order to perpetuate and preserve the above glorious event, Mr Hourihane has lately completed the full version as it appears in this paper In doing so he has made it that generations yet unborn will have a more vivid under-standing and better knowledge of the famous episode and its participants
