Dungarvan was summoned by Guard Riordan for using a motor cycle on the public highway at Ballyneety Dungarvan on Dec 7th without having it taxed or insured without having front or rear identification marks and with having no driver's licence Mr Morrissey solr who defended stated that his client only took this motor cycle to repair it and if he succeeded in making a job of it he intendin making a job of it he intended buying it and complying with all the regulations governing same He had no intention of breaking the law and only took the bicycle for a trial spin.
