alternative lighting for ?
Clerk—It was the Department who suggested that Mr Butler-There are other places in the county like operating theaties that have no alter-board for the hall and the stage Mr Clancy-That's right as the present system is very mis previous meeting a very able releading What was the estimate solution of protest against the for these installations?

Mr Clancy—We should ask the ried out Manager to interview the clubs to forgo these bookings to get the Mr Kelly—I would make the suggestion that the present bookings to get the bookings to get the — bookings stand and that no Mr Bi other further ones be taken and tonight the job done then Clerk-The hall will be free

It was finally decided that if the urgent repairs needed by the clubs who had already bookthe Urban roads and referred to the new scale of grants for further bookings be accepted until the repairs are done until the repairs are done until the repairs are done at some length, pointing out that more agitation should be accepted.

Mr Clancy raised the matter in the Abbey Guest House by the generous-hearted Brothers of the Community and after the festivities the newly married set out for Dublin for the week-end with the good wishes of their many friends

Nuisance Messrs Farrell & Morrissey Mr Clancy referring to the point Solicitors wrote on behalf of raised by him at the last meet. Miss M Attridge 13 Cathal Attridge 13 Cathal ing concerning skilled work Brugha Place complaining of being done by labourers at the nuisance by a neighbour Abbeyside housing scheme said. The matter was referred to the The matter was referred to the

it only involved a few hours prenticeship to skilled trades painting. This he said was not correct as he said that a lot of dearth of brick-layers plasterpainting was being done while ers carpenters and plumbers painters were idle in the town for house building as only sons This was unfair and was never of such tradesmen can be ap done in any previous scheme as tradesmen were always employ-This rule the resolution stated d " was apt to create a monopoly Chairman—Are you sure of and imposed a boycott on young men anxious to take up these trades

Mr Clancy said that such a cil would want more definite rule did not exist and that this proof before doing anything charge had been made some Mr Clancy—Well it can be left place before and had been conover until the next meeting tradicated by the Secretary of This was agreed to Bepairs To Town Hall
The Clerk read a reply from the Architects to the suggested amendments for the repair of the Town Hall made by the Signature that what might be behind the rule was that a lot of young men were going to technical schools and then joining unions the Town Hall made by the Secretary of the Carpenters' Union He said received complaints that young-sters up around Loughmore were interfering with gates, railings doors gardens and breaking electric bulbs and said that the going into the trades
