Strong Protest Made By Local Labour Party

(By Our Special Representative)

On Friday night last, February 18th, Mr T J Murphy Minister for Local Government addressed a meeting of the Dungaryan Labour Party in the Courthouse Mr T McCarthy Chairman
Dungarvan U.D C presided Mr Murphy's address referred chiefly to work carried out by the Inter-Party Government during the first twelve months of office He said that this great democratic experiment in which he and his Labour Colleagues were proud to share would yet form one of the most constructive and illuminating chapters in the history of Ireland

The Minister pointed out that there were now 7 300 houses in the course of construction by Local Authorities and progress in the areation of houses would very glad to see that Waterford Other proposals of far-reach-
