SPOTLIGHT ON THE UNKNOWN

(By Thomas Tobin)

most of our readers wil the New Look, making it more attractive than ever I should therefore like to express my thanks for their work or art cipline such as is applied to all thanks for their work or art
I have often in the past considered writing up the story of the production of the DUNGARVAN LEADER and now I have finally decided to do so because I believe it would be of great interest to our many readers Within the next few weeks I will therefore turn the Spotlight on those who actually print the column and believe me most of a newspaper is really fasof a newspaper is really fas-cinating Of course I known the men behind the scenes are not going to like this intrusion til Irishmen sufficiently efficient but for a change this time they are going to be the news a grand tribute to this column ied by forces of the British and one which is deeply apprecated. Empire In view of this great lated Ardmore has always been injustice to our nation I should
