LATE MRS. KATHLEEN | Temporary of the Land of temporary continuous and SHALLOE

The Annual Eucharistic procession was held through the streets of Dungarvan on Sunday last Unlike last year, when rain marred the occasion, this year's procession was held in blazing sunshine and the large body of processionists marched over the usual route under the sweltering rays of a bright June sun

Under capable supervision of Rev Fr P Farrell CC, and the chief marshall Mr M OFlynn, the procession moved off at 3 great ready day or night, to answer the capable supervision of the sight and accomplished nurse, the late Mrs Shalloe was chief marshall Mr M OFlynn, the procession moved off at 3 great ready day or night, to

But you hat know sometic have an outdoor item—a game or a competition. Well the and pep Even one look would weather is warm enough for suffice to recognise the really anything at the present time and the other relatives.

There was far too much close tackling and all efforts to play good football proved impossible Kilrossanty proved the better team and deserved their eight low these exercises point win but were far from the standard of the Kilrossanty teams of some years past

teams of some years past
A juvenile game played prior to the senior championship match held the attention of the crowd during the whole hour's play The final whistle of this game left. Currabaha winners over Kilrossanty by two points. We are all glad to learn that Kevin Phelan, well-known Stradbally footballer who recently went to the USA is now making a name for himself there on the football field. Two days following his arrival he played full forward and scored the opening goal for Galway in a league game in New York.
