is this allowed in modern IRELAND ?-On Friday evening last around 30 p.m., while I was crossing the Causeway I was suddenly stunned with a horrible stench Coming along the road against me was a local man with a horse and cart on which was being carried the body of a dead cow Several people also on the street were disgusted at the sight as well as the effects and will bear me out when I state it is disgraceful that such a thing permitted, or is it? (I wonder) in this country of modernism in health and efficiency The dead beast was not even covered and strange as it may seem the driver seemed unconcerned as he drove into town

A Bicycle For 6d Monster Raffle

The Dungarvan Bar-Bell Club are at present running a raffle for a bicycle (lady's or gent's) or its value and four prizes of £1 each The object of the raffle is to raise funds to purchase a Nissen Hut for a Gym as they had to vacate the barracks due to overcrowding Tickets are only 6d and the raffle is arranged so that share-holders have at the yery most one chance out of 200 of winning a prize This is a great chance and I appeal to all readers and the general public o support the raffle I'm informed that more support has been received from the people over the bridge than the townspeople Remember it is a great cause as a gymnasium has been badly needed in Dungarvan for a long time
