The farmer's life, they say, is the most independent life of all-but it certainly is not independent of the weather for if it was would not be putting pen to paper now, but rather, would I be engaged upon far more important work

It is nice to think however that

'Man who made Time made plenty of it" and that "after the Storm comes the Calm, for in such thoughts lie the hopes of a bountiful harvest How foolish we farmers were to grumble some time ago about the heatwave why during that time some of us wanted it dry in the hay field, and wet in the very next field—the beet field Is it really any wonder when people Certified by the Department — and we know that if today be Rhode I Reds—£5 /0/0 per 100 Wet tomorrow may be fine for White Leghorns—£5/0/0 per 100 All things worketh together,

CHRISTMAS POST OFFICE TRAFFIC

The Christmas postal traffic in this year exceeded the record 1948 season The number of letters and packets handled in the Dublin Sorting Office during the period 1917 to 24th December amounted to 19205 000 over 1,500,000 greater than during the corresponding period last year The number of terms delivered in January 1950 and suburbs was 9,908,000, over 630,000 more than last. The volume of letter traffic in the Provinces was correspondingly heavy

The Irish Sugar Company is now able to quote a price which is even lower Up to now the Company's charge varied with each 5 miles travelled from its works and farmers more than 30 miles from Buttevant there-fore, be able to get supplies at a plant farmers are being asked to pay from one shilling to a few M O'S would like to equip her boy friend with new deltoids and Ceili, Modern and Old shillings more It is estimated, however, that as a result of the introduction of the flat rate charge of 30/- per ton up to 50 miles about 20 farmers will benefit substantially for each one farmer who will have to pay a little more It is thought that farmers as a whole will welcome the establishment of the flat The Minister for Agriculture has appointed the Sugar Com-pany as sole contractor for the distribution of the Lime and Phosphates to be spread under the Land Project in Counties

Cork, Kerry Limerick, Tipperary and Waterford. It is expected in Buttevant that this appointment will lead to a great increase in the scale of operations at the Company's

A large plant for mixing Ground Limestone with various fertilisers is at present nearing completion and a second quarry face is being developed
