Council last week announced a new list of charges for use of the Town Hall for danger the Town Hall for dances

The new charges are—Hops 830 to 1130 pm £4 830 pm to 1 am £9 Long dances £18 including light etc showing increases of 26 - and £6 155 0d When the announcement was made at a meeting of the Council a number of the members pointed out that the above charges would wipe out dances completely in Dungarvan but despite all protets it was maintenance that they have they compared favourably with pices charged in other centres. How ever if that is the case which I find very hard to believe be cause of the fact that in most other centres there are a number of halls available and all competing for the good of trade then I will certainly state that I would like very much to know just how the dance organisers concerned make their efforts pay The many clubs of the Old Boro are I am told at present strong protest to the Urban Council and County Manager They point out that with the present entertainment tax the running of darices today is nine times out of ten a long shot The profit made is often nil and always small and with the new charges inforced they will have no hope whatever of making them pay They also state that they will boycott the hall unless And the King was so charmed the authorities revert to the old charges or else suffer the loss of He said if Lar Foley that day

The shopkeepers are today grumbling about the brisk trade eing carried on by the travelling salesmen and at the same time they are afraid to join to gether in fighting the menace They together with the pubs state they need the fairs kept on the streets if they must live but the question is—are the shop keepers (excluding the pubs really benefitting by the holding of the fairs on the streets They themselves state that they do no great business that day because of the travelling shops or in plain words the hawkers yet the only way to remove them is to remove the fairs off the streets but at the same time hey say they need them to keep the business going I personally think the whole matter is just—a case of running around wonder just what the general public thinks of holding the fairs on the streets Their views on this matter would certainly be enlightening

WARNING TO PURCHASERS OF CHICKS

Poultry-keepers are warned that Day-Old Chicks offered for sale at fairs and markets or by hawkers are usually diseased, most of them die a few days after you buy them, and they often bring disease into your own flock of poultry

These Day-Old Chicks bought at fairs and markets or from hawkers are usually all Cockerel Chicks

The only safe way to buy healthy Day-Old Chicks is to buy them direct from a respectable hatchery, and you can easily ask the Poultry instructor or the Chief Agricultural Officer of your County Committee of Agriculture for the names and addresses of the most convenient reputable hatcheries in your supply area
