The Minister for Agriculture's elaborate plan for the produc-tion and marketing of apples which was offered to the Fruitgrowers of Co Waterford South Kilkenny and South Tipperary in March last, and welcomed by all as a sound project will begin to take shape early in January next when building operations will commence on the central marketing and packing station in Dungarvan.

This was anounced in Dungarvan on Wednesday by Mr E Maher Secretary of the Waterford Fruitgrowers Co-Operative Society, when he told me that the Minister had put up £100 000 to back the scheme Mr Maher and other members of a deputation met the Minister in Dublin on Tuesday when they completed all arrangements for the immediate development of the plan. It is expected that they will be in a position to deal with the 1951
