GREETINGS FROM AMERICA in the Town Hall by a man who This week I received a letter from a very good friend in America who has been for many years in fact since the first issue of our paper appeared a regular reader It is a letter deserving of every prominence in this column because in many ways it expresses the feelings of the many Gaels across the broad Atlantic Their greates, happiness is news from the folks.

In the Town Hall by a man who must have the patience of Job Jim Whitn(3) Boys and girls were out on the floor when I arrived and they were being put through the movements of the dance without music This went on step by step until Mr Whitnest was satisfied that his pupils had a good idea of the dance the many Gaels across the broad Atlantic Their greates, happiness is news from the folks.

This letter came from Mass ing to ram some Irish grammar of a television service in the second-half Waterford that stated that down your throat or anything it is for them a grand thing to like that but just the same if know that the folks at home you should stick around long live a little thought to those so enough you will find yourself cal limitations the distance of the play in which they scored 1—8 to Clares 0—3. The goal having been scored direct from a fifty by McGrath in a curtain-raiser Cappoquin
