SPOTLIGHT ON THE UNKNOWN

By THOMAS TOBIN

SONG WANTED
Some weeks ago a reader in Chesterfield England requested the words of the road by the river that flows through Raheen. At the time I did have them but now when I go to publish the song I find that somewhere along the way the words have disappeared and so once again will some reader please oblige.

OUT FOR THE DAY
Recently the workers of Messrs Thomas Power and St. Brigid's Well Brewery Dungarvan had their first annual outing for many years and from all reports to hand despite the unfavourable weather of the day a most enjoyable outing was had by one and all and I'm told that among the party was an English visitor here on his first visit to Ireland. He was Mr. Jim Brinson London who was accompanied by his wife who is a native of the Old Boro John Franklin was in control of operations and he did a very good job as did his many supporters and who would think it was possible to dance a hop on a bus traveling at about 40 miles an hour or thereabouts and at 4 o'clock in the morning—well I know two people who did it—Now that they are both back at work making the big and little bottles of the Good Stuff I wonder would they fancy giving a repeat performance at four o'clock to-morrow morning.

ONE FOR THE BOOK
During the past week we received a letter from the office with three 2½d stamps enclosed. It read as follows: "Main Street, Tinnahilly, Co. Wick. Enclosed find stamps. Please send Leader and oblige. Yours faithfully No name supplied."

ABROAD
Many of my Dungarvan readers will remember well known Dungarvan man who has recently hit the headlines as a Guard at the United Nations Building in New York. He is John Stack undoubtedly better known as 'Sonnie' who all knew him long ago—the biggest boy in the school. Even then 'Sonnie' was a bit of a policeman as many of us will recall only too well but at all times he was a grand personality. He is today a grand old man and big-hearted. I will remember some time ago seeing 'Sonnie' as a Bobby in the Metropolitan Police Force in Kensington London—at that time he was still the 'Sonnie' Stack of school going days and all the important fact that on this occasion he had the entire London Police Force at his back. Standing 6ft 4 in this fine specimen of Dungarvan manhood is today standing guard outside the United Nations Building in New York—a big change from the days when he stood guard outside the posts of that all-important gablemouth on the grounds of the Dungarvan C.B.S. But wherever he goes he will take with him the best wishes of all his many Dungarvan friends who join me now in wishing him further success in his world ramblings.

AS I SEE IT—
While things may seem a bit rough at meetings of the Urban Council lately, it is pleasing to note that at long last the exact position of local administration is being realised and now it remains to be seen just what action will be taken to see to it that the ratepayers of Dungarvan get the value of their money. The Chairman and members struck the nail right on the head at the last meeting when it was stated that we are getting here at present in dictation but if we do not get the co-operation to which we are entitled then we will take the matter with the Minister for Local Government. As I said Mr. McCarthy is necessary resign in a body. There is surely fight in words. It might be of special interest to more than just a few if the Council would investigate the case of a man who was transferred from a condemned area into a new house at T. J. Murphy Place, and who is since then paying 12/2 a week rent instead of 10/-, as all other transferred from the same area, are paying. I fully realise the consciousness of my statement and just the same I am making it for the purpose of seeing to it that justice is brought about even if certain public representatives and others deem it a better policy to keep their eyes closed.

It might also be of benefit to many others if the Council would investigate the letting of the Town Hall for dances. My information tells me that it has been let to clubs that are in fact non-existent.

THE FEONS OF OUR LAND
Fill up once more we'll drink a toast
To comrades far away
No nation upon earth can boast
Of braver hearts than they
And though they sleep in dungeons
Or free outlawed and banned
We love them yet we can't forget
The felons of our land
In boyhood's bloom and manhood's pride
Foredoomed by alien laws
Some on the scaffold proudly died
For holy Ireland's cause
And brothers say shall we
To-day
Unmoved like cowards stand
While traitors shame and foes
Defame
The felons of our land
Some in the convict's dreary cell
Have found a living tomb
And some unseen unfriended fell
What can the dungeon's gloom
Yet what care we although it be
Trod by a ruffian band—
God bless the clay where rest
to-day
The felons of our land
Let cowards mock and tyrants
frown
Ah, little do we care
A felon's cap the noblest crown
A Irish head an war
And every Gael in Innisfall
Who scorns the serf's vile brand
From Lee to Boyne would
I gladly join
The felons of our land

EAST CORK COMMENTS
Entertainments—A concert which will be organised by the Russell Rovers Hurling Club will take place in Cliff Palace Hall, Ballycotton in the course of a few weeks. The following will contribute items to the programme—Messrs D. J. O'Brien, Ballymaloe, Donal O'Briscoll, Sean Foley, Ballydavall, (Gaelic songs), Maurice Lynch, (Yellowford), (John Thomas Hennessy recitation), John O'Brien, Ballybane, P. V. O'Brien, Ballymaloe, (Jacket) and Sean Mullane and Gue Egan (Solo).

Popular Plays—We are pleased to learn that the popular plays which were staged by the Castlemartyr Dramatic Society will again be staged very soon in many East Cork halls. Though the Dramatic Society did not conduct any dramatic entertainments for some years its former members are again re-organising the Society under its former leader Mr. Charles Grant who will be assisted by Mr. D. Burke Mogeely, both are well-known and popular entertainments and have contributed many items including Gaelic songs and recitations at many successful entertainments held in the district.

Obituary—The death occurred recently of Mr. John Barnidge of New York. The late Mr. Barnidge went to New York about 50 years ago and for forty years was associated in various Irish-American Organisations and supported the various societies which had connections with the Sinn Fein Movement. He was brother of Mr. Ed Barnidge, The Pike House, Tallow and an uncle of Mrs. P. Cooney, North Main Street, Youghal. May he rest in peace.

Reference To Letters From Engineer And Clerk Of Works On Water Shortage
Department Engineers Turn Down Town Hall Plans

Mr. T. Lannen, Chairman, presided at the usual meeting of the Dungarvan Urban District Council held on last Friday night. Messrs M. J. Keane, T. A. Kyne, T. D. McCarthy, T. Lee, P. O'Dwyer, and N. Kelly were also present.

Mr. E. Deery, Town Clerk, was in attendance. Mr. E. Deery was not entitled to criticise members of the Council. The Chairman stated that the Council had no right to criticise members of the Council. The Chairman stated that the Council had no right to criticise members of the Council.

Mr. Lee—Well I have been wronged. The Chairman then directed the Clerk to read the letters from the Borough Surveyor and the Clerk of Works which were handed in at our second last meeting and which formed the basis of the resolution passed at that meeting. Mr. Lee stated that there was a shortage of water at the Town Hall.

Town Hall—Department Rejects Plans
Arising from the following order of the Manager and the letters from the Department as follows:
Letter of the 29th July 1951 received from the Department of Local Government that Town Hall premises had been inspected by the Chief Inspector of the Department whose report indicated that in its present condition the building constituted a grave fire risk and that its lack of amenities rendered it unfit for use by the public for dances etc. that the proposed reconstruction included provision of new premises for the tenant who at present holds portion of the ground floor and such an arrangement was not satisfactory to various tenants occupying them being inadequate accommodation and fire risk, that the Minister was not prepared to approve of any scheme of reconstruction which would not make the premises available for the use of the public and that the matter should be further considered by the Council.

Grants Being Held Up
Arising out of the Manager's orders concerning grants to persons who had erected houses over the job again we have been opposed at every turn and every suggestion we made turned down. If it wasn't the Medical Officer of Health it was the Superintendent and now at this stage it is the Department's Engineers. It is an extraordinary state of affairs that the Department's engineers have come into this question now at the eleventh hour to tell us that our proposed improvements scheme will not be sanctioned unless we give Mr. Foley the money which has been held up. We have spent over £2,000 of the ratepayers' money on the building. The place has been used for dancing in its present condition for over 50 years and the new improvements we approved of have provided extra facilities including adequate protection against fire, sanitary arrangebeing dunned by a contractor for money and he hasn't got it. I think as the matter is urgent a resolution should be passed here now asking the Minister to expand the sanction for the loan and I propose that the Chairman agreed and said that sanction for all such housing grants should be expedited.

Mr. Keane said that under the present system a terrible injustice is being done to the applicants. Mr. McCarthy then seconded Mr. Kyne's proposition which was passed unanimously. Purchase of Houses
With reference to an order by the Manager that five houses at Lower King Street, Abbeyside offered to the Council for the sum of £50 each be not accepted. Mr. Keane stated that he thought the Council should purchase the houses as they stood that was the Council's aim. He then proposed a resolution recommending to the Manager that he should purchase and Mr. McCarthy seconded.

Mr. O'Dwyer—Has not the Co. Medical Officer stated that five houses are enough to have reconstructed. Mr. Kyne—I'm in complete disagreement with the Co. Medical Officer on that and I am as much an authority if not more than he is on the matter. I asked him later about it, he made no comment. Then I asked him why he belied me and he said that he didn't and Mr. Dwyer can bear me out because he went to the man who was drawing the water and found that he was not telling a lie about this.

MARSHALL DEPENDANTS CLONMEL APPEAL
Seldom if ever has a sadder tragedy struck Clonmel than that which involved the deaths of the Marshall brothers in the drowning accident at Clonea recently. Swift and hard was the blow to the relatives of the two young men but at the same time there must be a glow of consolation in the knowledge that they lost their lives through solicitude for the safety of a child.

Sympathy, deep and widespread has been evoked and those left to mourn the loss of two loved ones cannot but have found further solace in the fact that on the lips of all was nothing but the highest praise for the character and conduct of the gallant pair.

The public are now given an opportunity of helping to relieve the material distress which follows the tragedy and we are sure they will await the chance to endorse in a practical way the genuine sympathy which has been expressed.

Friends and colleagues of late Frank and Christy Marshall have organised a TESTIMONIAL for the purpose of raising funds to help their dependants. Frank's widow has been left with the responsibility of maintaining the house and rearing their little boy whilst his mother has suffered the loss of two devoted sons.

(To The Editor)
BALLINACOURTY POTATO CROP

Dear Sir—Under the above heading in a recent issue a letter signed by Liam O'Siothain claimed that I failed to attend a meeting to which I was invited to discuss the position of the early potato sales from the Ballinacourty area. That statement is untrue. On the Sunday morning in question T. Parsons asked me to meet some of the Ballinacourty growers at the Devonshire Arms at 5.30 p.m. (after the match which was being held in Gaelic Field that day) to discuss the position. He stated Deputy Ormond would attend. I informed him that I had already been in touch with the Department re matter and had got a written reply. I would endeavour to be present. I could not attend my own matter but as I had a Co. Convention of Labour Party already called for the Town Hall at 6.45 p.m. that same evening I could not attend my own meeting at the Devonshire Arms from 5.00 p.m. and remained until 5.55 p.m., but no meeting took place up to that time. This was probably due to the match being late to finish. I left at 5.55 p.m. and attended my own meeting at 7.20 p.m. I met P. Sheridan and a number of the Ballinacourty growers at the Square, Dungarvan and gave them all the information I had and agreed to attend my own meeting during the week with whatever additional information I had. This I did per Mr. Sheridan, Dungarvan on the Wednesday following. My only reason in writing this letter is to brand as untrue a statement that was false. I have no interest in the controversy between the letter writer and 'Spotlight On The Unknown' as to the way news was presented but I am interested in seeing that I am not misrepresented as refusing to attend to the wants of my constituents. Proof of all I have stated can very easily be had by anyone who will claim that these facts are untrue. I will be interested to see if Liam O'Siothain will either withdraw his statement or prove I am wrong—Yours sincerely,
T. A. KYNE, T.D.

NOTICE TO PARENTS AND GUARDIANS

SMALL-POX is a highly dangerous infectious and contagious disease. Unless vaccinated nobody is immune. Infants are particularly liable to contract the disease. In those days of rapid aerial transport the danger of an outbreak of small-pox is not the remote possibility it was some years ago.

VACCINATION is the only method available by which complete protection against small-pox can be obtained.

Since infants are especially liable to the disease they should be vaccinated on reaching the age of three months.

Vaccination is available FREE OF COST from each Dispensary Medical Officer in this county. Parents are strongly advised to consult their Doctors and have all children vaccinated.

"PREVENTION IS BETTER THAN CURE"

COMPLETE FUNERAL FURNISHERS

Late Michael Malloran, Clastmore—By the recent death of Mr Michael Malloran (Senior) of Laurentun Clashmore the surrounding areas of Ardmore, Grange and Old Parish have lost a great and highly esteemed gentleman and a loved by all classes. He was to the poor of the area a friend in need and his passing is especially regretted by these people.

At the removal of his remains and again at the interment one of the largest corteges ever seen in the area were present.

The late Mr Malloran was uncle of Messrs Michael and William Ryan of this area and also of Mrs Edmond and Mr James Mooney. To the bereaved relatives we extend the sincerest sympathy of all our readers.

Lack of Civic Spirit—For some weeks past the morning papers have been full of reports of this year, many of our visitors who come to this area every Sunday during the summer months leave the entrance to the strand and also the beach littered with rubbish of all kinds—beaps of old newspapers, cardboard boxes etc., which blow all over the place, and worst of all broken bottles and tins.

This is to be regretted as we are aware that such a thing is not allowed in any other seaside place and we here in Ardmore do not welcome this business as it makes the place look ugly and unkept.

The other Sunday some places on the strand presented horrible sight with all kinds of litter flying all over the place. It is to be hoped that a little more civic spirit and co-operation by the visitors will be the order in future and thus keep the strand and its entrance clean and tidy.

Another serious matter which visiting parents brought to our notice is the velocity and tenacity of motor cars and vans crossing the strand from both ends carrying nothing for the children who are trying to enjoy their brief holiday making sand castles, etc. Surely the Ardmore strand is not a speed-way track and especially motorists want to test their racing abilities there are plenty other places they can go to, but they should exercise a little more care and have consideration for other people who want to enjoy their holiday with their families on the beach.

ARDMORE GOSSIP

Late Michael Malloran, Clastmore—By the recent death of Mr Michael Malloran (Senior) of Laurentun Clashmore the surrounding areas of Ardmore, Grange and Old Parish have lost a great and highly esteemed gentleman and a loved by all classes. He was to the poor of the area a friend in need and his passing is especially regretted by these people.

At the removal of his remains and again at the interment one of the largest corteges ever seen in the area were present.

The late Mr Malloran was uncle of Messrs Michael and William Ryan of this area and also of Mrs Edmond and Mr James Mooney. To the bereaved relatives we extend the sincerest sympathy of all our readers.

Lack of Civic Spirit—For some weeks past the morning papers have been full of reports of this year, many of our visitors who come to this area every Sunday during the summer months leave the entrance to the strand and also the beach littered with rubbish of all kinds—beaps of old newspapers, cardboard boxes etc., which blow all over the place, and worst of all broken bottles and tins.

This is to be regretted as we are aware that such a thing is not allowed in any other seaside place and we here in Ardmore do not welcome this business as it makes the place look ugly and unkept.

The other Sunday some places on the strand presented horrible sight with all kinds of litter flying all over the place. It is to be hoped that a little more civic spirit and co-operation by the visitors will be the order in future and thus keep the strand and its entrance clean and tidy.

Another serious matter which visiting parents brought to our notice is the velocity and tenacity of motor cars and vans crossing the strand from both ends carrying nothing for the children who are trying to enjoy their brief holiday making sand castles, etc. Surely the Ardmore strand is not a speed-way track and especially motorists want to test their racing abilities there are plenty other places they can go to, but they should exercise a little more care and have consideration for other people who want to enjoy their holiday with their families on the beach.

 4th WATERFORD TROOP C.B.S.I. (St Joseph's Abbey)

Home On Monday last at about 7.30 p.m. the skirl of the pipes brought the Villagers out to watch the band and Troop arrive back home from their week-end camp at the County Courthouse at Wexford.

The parade after a great show around the Village finished up at the Den with a slow march 'Mallorca'. Then we went into the Den and were greeted by the warden, Mr. M. J. Clancy. Jimmy seemed to be very pleased with the new tunes he heard especially 'Wi' A Hundred Pipers An A Paddy Arrigan and Harry Shinn were there to lead the dance and our own band wound up the event with a few bright remarks and directions about cleaning gear, etc and then we broke up and went home.

Now for a brief day-to-day summary of the last nine days or so—

Friday 3rd—The weather was fair today and the whole time was spent in taking the sun and the sea and a few trips to town. The football and hurling night Mick Farrell arrived from the Curragh. A few of the big boys were in town tonight.

Saturday—Mick Farrell and Jerry Fraher were cycling to the Curragh with a few Scottish Scouts and get them out to Courthouse. Their tent etc did not arrive until Tuesday so they had to borrow one of our Ridge Tents. That meant the seniors had to vacate their 'tent'.

The most interesting point about today was the fact that four seniors were on cook-tent that night and they had to prepare the bacon for the morning's football game and they were Liam Organ and Baldy were in no hurry to bed that night.

Sunday—There was no Band Parade to Mass on account of bad weather. The Scottish lads were later on and our own organizers were kept going. When we got back to the site the dinner wasn't far off Paddy Shanahan who also arrived on Saturday evening bringing some letters etc brought in football and hurling ball and from this on spare time was spent playing these games. Sunday night saw a few of the seniors—sorry I meant all of the seniors hit for a football game and they were Liam Organ and Baldy were in no hurry to bed that night.

WOMEN SPIES

M. S. W. Allen of London, have recently published an outstanding volume of adventure and melodrama named 'The World's Greatest Women Spies' at 10/6 and written by Kurt Singer who is in fact a master craftsman in this particular category of non-fiction. Without doubt this book that presents a series of the most interesting spy stories all of them far stranger than fiction and certainly more thrilling. Even as recent Fuchs case is covered by this brilliant author who throws a new light on the case by telling the story of the woman who worked with him. The book deals exclusively with a galaxy of female operators in that is perhaps the most dangerous and exciting of all professions. Some of them are heroines but mostly they are betrayers and saboteurs who paid dearly for their deeds. Much that appears in Dr Singer's new book has never been disclosed. Particularly topical and revealing are the chapters that deal with the activities of Soviet Agents. Dr Singer presents a startling picture of the ramifications and magnitude of the Kremlin's Secret Service. Women spies are in the pay of most Governments but very rarely are they the glamorous creatures of popular imagination. You will meet some of the greatest in the pages of this book.

"BARE BODKIN"

You can always be sure of a good story if it is written by Francis Gerard and now on the market is his latest 'Bare Bodkin' published by M. J. McDonald and Co at 9/6 which like his previous successes, is a story that gets you and holds you from beginning to end. This story is however a little different to the everyday murder mystery—this will give you some idea of just what I mean.

"In this room at the present moment" said Dr Elizabeth Marlowe to Sir John Meredith across the table at a famous West End restaurant there are seven people who were intimately concerned in the death of a man. Of those seven two are murderers I know the identity of one but not of the other. It was typical of Sir John that he should appear to take this astounding statement in his stride first making sure Dr Marlowe really meant what she
