SPOTLIGHT ON THE UNKNOWN

By THOMAS TOBIN

REQUEST TIME
My thanks to Miss B. Guinevan of Toor Mocollo Ballyduff who kindly obliged with the words of the following song requested by a reader in Chesterfield England
THE ROAD BY THE RIVER
Sure I've walked along Broadway I've been down the Strand
And I've seen the great highways in every land
But in all the big cities the like I've not seen
As the road by the river that flows by Raheen

Sure I'm hallowed by memories of days that are gone
Though there's been many changes as time marches on Since I walked hand in hand with my darling Kathleen
On the road to the river that flows by Raheen
I can see myself now as a gorse on the hill
Looking over at mid-day the creaky half-door
For to see the sun shine on the valley so green
On the road by the river that flows through Raheen

I had only on brother a gay lad and droll—
He was killed in an ambush 'ah God rest his soul
On the spot where he fell a white cross can be seen
On the road by the river that flows by Raheen
I recall when I started in strange lands to roam
Sure his little I thought I'd miss my old home
Miss the old folks the village the valley so green
And the road by the river that flows by Raheen

After that the return expecting to find
The old familiar scenes as they used to be
All forgotten the years that had passed since I'd seen
The old road by the river that flowed through Raheen

Rows and rows of new houses are built
And a Cinema stands where me cottage had been
Oh the river was there but no trace could be seen
Of the road by the river that flowed through Raheen
TEXAS CALLING
Once again my Texan Cowboy friend has dropped into the office through an Air Mail letter and this time he says—
Fort Worth Texas
August 15, 1951
Dear Sir—Well once again that rugged old stage coach has arrived at this lonely outpost and all hands have declared a general holiday. The 120 deg temperature is steadily rattling. Malaria is rampant. Snakes and prowling Redskins are forgotten as the gang settles down to read the latest news—a bundle of Leaders I have just received. All eyes are on Spotlight.

Yes sir that "Leader" reaches out far and wide. Better be careful what you say—it might be used as evidence against you. Don't know who that that note was written in Cowtown (FTWorth) last March. None of our gang had a pencil. Cannot say what caused rout in delivery but that rout tootin two-gun cowboy from Cappagh suggests that a future note be marked "NEAR CAPPAH".
Too bad you are a Pioneer or you would know why that guy did not sign his name. After one drink of that Monaghan whiskey you don't know your name.
No rattlesnake skins available at this time. Could you use a billion mosquitoes? They won't bite an Irishman and are too proud to bite an Englishman.
Suggest you put an add in our Smalls to locate that press table. Don't worry about that AIR CONDITIONED waiting room at station—this gang is making plans to move it some Saturday night on our way home from Nan Casveys in Abbeyside—COWBOY SLIM
IN TEXAS THEY SAY—
Cowboy Slim sent along the following newspaper cutting for our close study—and for my money—it is really one for the book.

The Texas Listening Post—REPORTERS NEVER DIE
(By Fort Worth) (M)
Alexander F. Jones, newly elected president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, is responsible for the fact that he is not in the office just fast asleep in the editors' room. I am inclined to resent that I was an editor once myself.
* * *
EVERY REPORTER on every newspaper tends to feel that the boys in the slot or handling the city desk are overrated. They think that there but for the grace of God they themselves might be located making the big decisions.

JUST AS Speaker Tom Reed had a low opinion of United States senators so the average twosome feels about editors especially city editors. They forget that the city editor was once a little bright-faced lad like them innocent and kindly and capable of doing his good deed once a day.

CITY EDITORS and others of that ilk sometimes bring on themselves some of the dislike which they disdainfully shrug off. I knew one once. He barked constantly at his reporters. You would have thought his staff of his own selection was made up exclusively of congenial idiots.

HIS REPORTERS called him Mr Wolf-Wolf when they weren't calling him other names. He gripped them plenty before I went into the newspaper business. I thought that virtue was its own reward that only the good got the promotions. I was wrong. Mr Wolf-Wolf went on up and up. Today he decorates a very big chair in a very plush office. Some of his reporters are dead.

THE BOYS on the street always think that the city desk is too cautious. What they think of the copy desk is not fit to print in this family newspaper. To the reporter the green shade is a thoroughly despicable character.

IT IS THE COPY desk which butchers the matchless prose of the master. The piece he wrote is ripped into shreds. Not space enough for all his punch verbs and glowing adjectives. His verbiage is attacked with a meat cleaver. It doesn't seem fair.

THE REPORTER has this dubious consolation if he is on his toes and if his brain grows instead of merely swelling. He too will be an editor some day. The reporter who develops leaving out this story or that. He will edit the copy and use the shears mercilessly.

HE WILL BANK the fires of youth. He will grow old before his time. He will develop stomach ulcers. Finally he will reach for his bottle of Hadacol and take a nip wearily wondering if the effort he has put forth is really worthwhile. "Old reporters never die but some of them wish they could."

LOOKING BACK
Remember that lively report on Dungarvan Petty Sessions July 1878 published in this column last week. Well there's more to come and here it is—chapter two—which although may seem funny today certainly was no joke way back in 1878. Assaulted Patrick Harton prosecuted James Copway did not assault himself and it was alleged by the police that since the service of the summons he had gone to England. A warrant was ordered to issue for his arrest.

A fortune-teller in Trouble—Margaret Hayes was prosecuted by Constable Roache for professing to unravel the mysteries of the future. Patk Ryan a farm servant in the employment of Mr James Beresford Doohy upon being sworn, deposed that on the morning of the 25th May there was some clothes stolen from him. Mr Redmond—That was a good guess. Head count what you name about any body in town? No Chairman—What else did she tell you? She told me the clothes were hid in a field near the house Mr O'Connell (for defendant)—And did you search all the fields near the house? No Chairman—Most of them Mr O'Connell—Well go home and you'll find your clothes in some of the fields. You didn't search Chairman—What did you do then? I gave her 6d. Defendant was sentenced to one week's imprisonment.
Drunk—Sub-constable Kirby has Thomas Ronayne before the court charged with drunkenness. Defendant excused himself stating that he was in the house of one Foley, a publican where his change was kept from him, and he was only pushing his way in the door to get satisfaction when the policemen arrested him. Fined 5/- and cost.

This concluded the business of the court.
THANKS
My sincere thanks to Mrs H Patterson 24, Burns St Cappagh (Continued on Page Four)

Rates To Go On Mitchell Street Houses

Town Hall Again Discussed

The usual meeting of the Dungarvan Urban District Council was held in the Council Chamber Town Hall on Friday night last. Mr T Lannen, Chairman, presided. Present were—Messrs T A Kyne T D T McCarthy T Lee N Kelly P O'Dwyer, P. A. Casey.

The Manager Mr S J Moynihan and the Acting Town Clerk Mr M O'Meara were in attendance.

Public Lavatory
There was a long discussion on the question of providing public lavatory on the Square during which it was reported by the Engineer that when the matter was being dealt with in 1928 it was found that a site off the Square would not be made available to the Council by the owner. The Council's Solicitor held that the site could be acquired by compulsory order if needed.

Mr Kyne said that there was little need for him to say how greatly this public convenience was needed in the town. He was saying that it should be placed on the Square but he would much prefer having it there than in any other part of the town, as while it was there it would not be subject to the vandalism that it would be if erected in some remote spot. He said that as matters are at present visitors to the town have every reason for complaint. Mr Casey suggested that CIE should be asked to take a hand in this matter.

Mr Kyne said that if they should make this request CIE will more than likely respond by diverting all their buses to the bus station as they had done elsewhere and then there would be another serious complaint on their hands.

Mr Casey asked what became of the second lavatory that was on the Square. Mr Kelly replied that he was responsible for having it removed.

Mr Kyne said that if they had a proper lavatory on the Square with all proper facilities for ladies and gentlemen with the penny slot arrangement they could have the keeper of the weigh-bridge appointed to look after it and in this way help him to make his job pay. He said that the lavatory could be semi-underground.

A number of members pointed out that this would not be possible. Mr Kyne maintained that it would be possible referring them to the basements of a number of houses on the Square.

It was agreed after further discussion that steps should be taken to see to it that a public lavatory is provided.

Remission of Rates On New Houses
Mr Casey asked if it was correct to say that a person building a house and who was in receipt of a Council grant would not get a remission of rates and he was informed that this was correct.

He said that he had been informed that such a person was in fact entitled to the remission of rates and he felt that if there was any truth in this matter then it would be a very serious legal question. He added that he had written to the Minister of Public Works and was entitled to a remission of rates. Deputy Kyne pointed out that this was not at all correct and added that he was prepared to give his opinion to this effect against that any solicitor and that he would prove which opinion was right he suggested that the matter be referred to the Department of Local Government and they would not be long in letting the Council know that there was no remission of rates to a person who had received a grant.

It was agreed to write to the Department for this information.

Rates To Go On Mitchell Street Houses

During a long and interesting discussion on a proposal to increase the rents of a number of Council houses in Mitchell Street there was an unexpected development when Mr P Casey left the meeting as a protest against an allegation made by Mr Kyne.

Mr Casey moved that the rents of the houses in question be allowed remain as they were. A report which was dated 1906 was submitted by the Town Clerk, stating that in that year a sum of £18 extra in rates had to be paid by the tenants of the Mitchell Street houses to make them self supporting (and at that time rates were only 10/- in the £1. Today they are 30/- in the £1). Deputy Kyne held that if these houses were 3/3 a week in 1896 as stated by the Town Clerk, they were at an abnormal rent at the time. In 1935, he said, they let houses in the Loughmore area for 3/4 a week.

Mr Kyne suggested that if the Town Clerk would check up on the records he would find that the erection of each of the houses in question was only £80.

When Mr Casey and another member questioned Mr O'Meara which requested the Council to furnish particulars of the various points the deputation would raise on meeting the Minister for Local Government. Mr O'Meara said that he had a number of points prepared which he intended placing before the Minister. They were (1) that the supper room as planned by themselves was actually a great moral fire risk could be dealt with by making an arrangement whereby a key to the jowlstore under-charge could be at all times available to the Town Clerk. (2) that the parents of local boys and girls were raising strong objections to their children having to travel outside the town for their dancing and that there was a great moral danger in this forced practice. (3) that the loss of the Town Hall was a loss Dungarvan Council could not afford and one of the people of the town could not be expected to make a loss of £1,000 per year in revenue and should they be deprived of the use of the hall for dancing they would be deprived of the means of raising that £1,000 revenue.

Mr Casey then rose from his seat and left the Council Chamber for a period of exactly seven minutes dead silence reigned.

This was broken when Mr McCarthy said that he was moving his resolution that the rents be allowed remain as they are.

The Manager pointed out that the position of houses concerned in this matter was not for the small sum of 1/2 a week rent plus 2/4 rates and the Urban Council had a lot to level up on as far as rents were concerned. He pointed out that it was not at all fair that these people should have their rents so low when they could well afford an increase while the people in Abbeyside some of them were not afforded a high rent were faced with such a rent problem.

In reply to Mr O'Dwyer the Manager stated that the rents were not at all paying for the repairs being done to them. "How could they?" he added. "What do you think a 1/- a week will do nowadays?"

Mr Kyne said that there were two ways to look at this matter. One was to let the rents increase and keep them low for the person who could not afford such an increase.

The Manager replied that it was absolutely ridiculous to let a house at rent of 1/- a week in present times when people who cannot afford to do so were paying very high rents. He considered it a fair policy to lift up the low rents and bring down the high ones generally in the town.

Mr Kyne said that such a scheme would be a graded rents scheme and asked if there was such in preparation to which he would be glad to see that it was their wish when he would have one prepared.

Mr Kyne said that he would like to see a scheme of graded rents provided they did not go to the Minister for Local Government. Mr O'Dwyer said that there were not enough able to pay higher rents than they were at present paying to make any inference as far as the poor were concerned.

Finally after further discussion Mr McCarthy's proposal was moved seconded by Mr Lee and the Chairman proposed an amendment that the rates be put on the Mitchell Street houses.

On a vote the amendment was carried. Those for the amendment were Messrs Kelly, O'Dwyer and the Chairman (3).

For the proposal Messrs McCarthy, Kyne and Lee (3). The Chairman gave his casting vote in favour of the amendment.

Death Of Mr. Maurice Fraher, Dungarvan

Passing Of Noted Athlete And Great Gael

People from all over Munster and representing all branches of life joined together last weekend in Dungarvan to pay their last respects to one of Ireland's greatest sporting personalities—the late Maurice Fraher. Grattan Square Dungarvan who died suddenly on Friday night last while making preparations for a senior football championship game which was to have been played on Sunday at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan which had been his property.

The late Maurice Fraher was in his younger days one of the country's leading athletes and won great fame for some of his remarkable feats. In jumping he won all-Ireland honours and hundreds of trophies while in weight-lifting he amazed the nation.

A certificate which had been a very proud possession of the deceased was one given by Mr William R MacPherson Physical Culture Expert of Dublin who was at the time official representative in Ireland of the British Professional Weight Lifters Association and which stated that on the 6th March 1918 Maurice Fraher of Dungarvan Co Waterford lifted in barbells (known on the stage as the 'Strongest Irishman in the World') weighing 250 lbs with one hand in semi-bent press and spoken of as comfortably with two hands and Mr Fraher is the only man in Ireland besides John Moriarty himself who has performed the great one handed lift overhead.

Mr Fraher was a great sportsman and his information is available in Dungarvan up to the present day. Maurice Fraher was son of the late Dan Fraher who was one of the leading pioneers of both Gaelic and the N.A.A. and ran a business in Dungarvan which was well known throughout the four corners of Ireland as the Gaelic Outfitting Store.

The late Monnie Fraher was a man of great promise and an incident which in 1911 brought him great honour was one which took place in Fermoy Co Cork, at a sports meeting which brought him his first major victory and in the same year he ran a business in Dungarvan which was well known throughout the four corners of Ireland as the Gaelic Outfitting Store.

News Of The Town And Round About

FEAST OF ST AUGUSTINE—The Feast of St Augustine was celebrated at Abbeyside Parish Church on Sunday last when the Forty Hours' Adoration commenced the ceremonies. High Mass was celebrated and a Procession of the Blessed Sacrament took place around the Church. After the Procession Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament followed and all throughout the day large numbers visited the Church. There was Holy Hour that night. On Monday night the sacred ceremonies concluded with High Mass at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning followed by a Procession of the Blessed Sacrament around the Church. The High Altar was beautifully decorated for the solemn ceremonies.

AT ST AUGUSTINE'S—The Feast of St Augustine was duly observed at the Friary Church, Dungarvan, with High Mass on Sunday, 27th, 11.30 a.m. and a Panegyric of the Saint by Very Rev. Fr. Ambrose Doyle O.S.A. (Assistant General). On Sunday evening the ceremonies consisted of a Solemn Procession and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The altar was beautifully decorated for the solemn ceremonies and very large numbers attended the Church during the day.

VISIT OF THE 'VOICE OF AGRICULTURE'—Mr. Everett Mitchell Master of Ceremonies on the NBC National Farm and Home Hour arrived in Dublin on Monday for a short visit to Ireland. He is known all over America as the 'Voice of Agriculture'. He was received by the Ministers for External Affairs and Agriculture during his visit. Mr. Mitchell will be visiting the three young American girls, members of the 4 H Club who are living on Irish farms as well as three Irish girls members of the Young Farmers Club who have just returned from their stay on American farms. Mr. Mitchell has visited 19 countries in Europe his trip being sponsored by the All-Chalmers Manufacturing Co., Milwaukee, whose Irish agents are Messrs. McGee's Stores Ltd. Ardee.

CORRECTION—In our report in last week's issue of part of the meeting of the County Committee of Agriculture relating to the milk attacks we stated that the CAO in reply to Mr. Norman Walsh said "that based on reports he had to hand it would seem more likely that where a farmer got 10 barrels to the acre last year he will only get 7 1/2 this year. This should have read 8 barrels per statute acre as a normal yield and not 10 barrels as was stated in our report (Ed. D.L.)"

GOLF NOTES—The weather, to say the least of it was not good on Sunday last. Nevertheless some good scores were returned in the 'Vice-President's' (Dr. M. K. Cusack's) Prize at Ballinacuck. Three very familiar names turn up in the results. P. J. McCarthy (13) 35 points (on the second nine) P. Daly (7) 35 points. Best Gross M. J. Egan (9) 32 points.

Here is a rule which covers the rare but recorded event of the ball lodging say in the wood of a hole. Rule 25 (1)—"If the ball lodge in anything moving, or in a mobile object which is at rest the player shall through the green or in a hazard drop a ball or on the putting green place the ball as near as possible to the spot where the object was when the ball lodged in it without penalty."

Mr. Mackey won a scholarship at CBS Dungarvan and then went to Roscrea where he continued his studies. As a result of the brilliant Leaving Certificate papers which this year and his record high marks it was decided by those in charge that he should enter Maynooth College. We congratulate this brilliant young student on his successes and wish him every success when he leaves for Maynooth College on 18th September.

DUNGARVAN'S FEIS WEEK.—The time is drawing rapidly nearer to Dungarvan's Feis Week and the committee are making an all-out effort to cope with the large amount of enquiries, entries stewarding and the many details which such a large undertaking entails.

The Entertainment Committee will be among the best ever held in Dungarvan and the appearance of such famous celebrities as Delia Murphy, Leo Rowsome, Albert Healy, Kevin Hilton, etc. will be a great attraction. It is infinitely unprecedented in the Decies. The booking indicates a record attendance and since the amount of space at the new Friary Hall is limited to six hundred persons, the opening of the Friary Hall is an early closing.

The match between Cork and Waterford on Sunday the 9th will be the first senior inter-county hurling match in Dungarvan for the last two or three years and it will be interesting to watch this young Waterford team in action. After a great display against Tipperary in the Championship match at Dungarvan on the 2nd September (which Waterford could have won) this match may indicate whether Waterford could have done better against Cork than did Tipperary.

Other highlights of the Feis will include the coming of the Austin Stack Cell Band to Dungarvan for the opening of the 2nd September. Dancing will be from 8 p.m. until 1 a.m. and if enquiries are any indication a record attendance is to be expected. The Austin Stack Band is rated among the top of the bands in the country and the full broadcasting combination will be in attendance. Even for non-dancers the music will be a treat for all who wish to come and listen for an hour or two and are given the opportunity of a seat. Accommodation is being provided for the big occasion.

The Industrial and Art Exhibitions are being opened on the 2nd also at the Technical School at 8 p.m. and will be open to the public each evening from 8 p.m. until 11 p.m. Among the industrial exhibitions will be stalls from Mr. P. Forster Messrs. M. Keane & Co., Dairy Merchants, M. J. Dungarvan, Glue & Gelatine Ltd., Miss H. Boyle Portlaw Tannery Messrs. Coward & Sons and Dungarvan Co-operative Creamery. In addition to a display of the Book of the Year will be on view and an exhibition of local art which will include paintings and embroidery and a special exhibition of needlework from Carriglea Convent.

Drama Singing Gaelic Speaking and dancing competitions will be held on the 3rd 4th 5th 6th, and 7th respectively from 8 p.m. until 11 p.m. A Cell will be held each evening in conjunction with the competitions. In time will allow. Due to the friendly rivalry between the local Branch of the Gaelic League and the Cumann Raicreacha a special dancing competition, The Troy School of Dancing are favourites since their great victory in Clonmel, but there are intense practices in progress in Dungarvan at present. A prize of three guineas and a handsome trophy is being given for senior solo singing (any voice) and the M. Roche Cup—A really magnificent trophy is being presented to the best Mixed Choir. The prizes which are now on display in Dungarvan include over twenty medium to large cups and there are over 150 medals to be awarded. Certificates will be issued with

Death Of Mr. John Donovan, Friary Street Dungarvan

It was with profound regret that the people of Dungarvan and district heard the sad news of the death of Mr. John Donovan, which occurred at his home, Friary Street Dungarvan early on Tuesday morning after an illness of some months. The late Jack Donovan as he was affectionately called was one of nature's gentlemen and was a family man in the true sense of the word. He was a devoted husband and good and kind father and always found the comforts and pleasures of this life in the bosom of his own family. A great sportsman he loved coursing and hunting and was instrumental in organising the Dungarvan foot races and enjoyed many happy days with the Club. He was also the force in re-organising the Dungarvan Point-to-Point Races and put in a lot of hard work to revive the annual event which has since proved a wonderful success. He was happy at all kinds of sport and was always ready and willing to help in any Committee formed to forward sports in the country. He was a great follower of coursing and many the pleasant day he had in the country enjoying a good course in the open. Since he came to Dungarvan from Fermoyle where he served his apprenticeship in the offices of Messrs. A. Carroll & Sons Solicitors many years ago he entered the offices of Messrs. E. A. Ryan & Co., Solicitors as a manager and it can be said of him that he was one of the ablest Law Clerks in the country and was the last word in giving advice on all matters concerning legal affairs. He was an exemplary Catholic and was highly esteemed and respected by a wide circle of friends who now mourn his passing. His death has robbed the town of one of its most popular and beloved citizens and it is the sincere prayer of all that God will comfort his widow, sons, daughters, mother and other relatives in their sorrow and loss.

On Tuesday at 8.30 p.m. the remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church and were followed by a huge cortege representing all classes of the people of Dungarvan and district. Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.D., Dungarvan Very Rev. P. D. Condon, P.P., O.S.A. Dungarvan and Rev. V. Lyons O.S.A. Dungarvan received the coffin at the Church gates. There was a Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul on Wednesday morning and interment took place at 1 p.m. on Thursday in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of another large and representative gathering of mourners and the general public.

Chief mourners—Mrs. Kitty Donovan (widow) Mrs. Mary Donovan (mother) John Donovan (son) Mrs. Moloney (daughters-in-law) Mrs. Westwood Macrom (sister) Wm. Donovan (brother) Mrs. P. ARDMORE GOSSIP

The Late Mrs. Flynn, Ardmore, Co. Wick. The late Mrs. Flynn, who died at her residence during the week removed from this and surrounding areas one of our oldest inhabitants Mrs. Flynn was a devoted wife and mother and a womanhood and was an ardent lover of everything Irish. She was a fluent speaker of the Gaelic tongue and during the fight for Irish independence her household was always open to the late Mrs. Flynn and John took active parts in the movement in those dark and stormy days. Mrs. Flynn was also mother of Patrick and Lawrence Flynn and the late Maurice Flynn who died some years ago. Her daughters are Mrs. O'Reilly, Mrs. Misses Hannora and Mary Flynn. She was grand-mother of Mr. Henry O'Reilly, Merchant, Main Street, Ardmore.

The funeral from her residence to her lasting place at Grange cemetery was largely attended.

To her sons, daughters, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, we tender, the sincerest sympathy of our readers.

The Late Mr. John Daly, South Main Street, Youghal. Mr. John Daly, who passed to his eternal reward quite recently was a popular figure in the area some years ago before his retirement from his business as a cattle-dealer. In the fight for Irish freedom he helped the cause in every way he could. His house and property were raided. His sons, John and Lawrence took active parts in the fight, with the result that John who held an important and responsible position in the F.R.A. was severely wounded by the Crown forces. The popularity and esteem in which Mr. Daly was held was amply shown by the large and representative public gathering which attended the obsequies on both occasions.

To the members of the Daily family we offer the deepest sympathy of our readers.

Catholic Scout Notes OUR WATERFORD LETTER

4th WATERFORD TROOP C.B.S.I. (St. Joseph's Abbeyside)

Troop Meeting.—The first Troop Meeting since Camp was held on Wednesday night and there was a good attendance. It was short and sweet and following Roll-Call the SM had some remarks to make on Camp. He dealt with the preparations for Camp which the Troop reached the Camp-site and with the way the Camp was run for the fortnight. He then summed up on the washing of gear after Camp and the Troop members were handed out without bandages or flags.

The Patrol Leaders and the Scoutmaster and Assistants returned to the room for a discussion on various items among them being the painting of the Den and the other team picked for the Farrell Cup Competition, which we have won for the past two competitions. We had hopes of a hat-trick.

Band.—The Band members were waiting for the meeting to end as they had a practice arranged. They learned a few important things about the first rolls of the side drums and the Pipers contrived to begin when the second roll started.

Tuesday was Pattern Day of Abbeyside so the Band marked the occasion with a parade. It took a long time to get everything in order but about 8 o'clock 9 pipers and 6 drummers lined up outside the Den. The Band had one flag bearer. It went around the Cross down by the Den to the Den. The rain ended the parade to the disappointment of the crowd and the Band members.

A search for Tom Power proved fruitless so most of the lads retired home.

General.—It looks like the Non-smokers Association formed by Pat Brown in Camp has fallen through. The Chairman (name secret) is very cut up about it.

Order of the Drawpipe of which Liam Whelan was President has been retired till next Camp and the Seniors Gas-pipe Fusers is also disbanded until 1952. For those names may look funny but they were real organisations in Camp. Don't ask me their functions though!

Jer is kinda scarce lately. We heard he was stage dancing on Sunday.

The Chief had some records up at the Den for the lads to hear but he might not know that at the same time one of his listeners also broke some records!

I heard that the Chief is going to the hall to hear the Austin Stack Cell Band on Sunday, so look out you wise guys. Eddy had an opportunity to look sorrowful Sunday night because a few of the lads were there to keep an eye on him so he decided it wasn't worth the sorrow.

Faddy Feeney is the right fellow to have around with Mick Burke and a few others start playing records. He'll never be much out of pocket and I mean pocket!

We welcome Tony Beatty home and hope he'll enjoy his holiday in the Village.
