We need more WHEAT

from our own farms

Last year we spent over £9,000,000 on foreign wheat Our farmers can keep this money at home by:

(1) Growing 2½ acres of wheat this year for every acre grown in 1951

(2) Sowing good seed of the right variety and manuring properly so as to get the most from every acre

There is a guaranteed price and a secure market for every barrel of millable wheat grown in 1952.

Consult your Agricultural Instructor as to variety and manuring

Aged 80 years he devoted fifty years in the postal service

He was in its place mother Mrs Donnellan

This to claim the public view sad news is made more polgnant

Until a host of thinking men suffered another bereavement a short time ago by the sad and the fair town of Lismore no man could tell the time decided 'twas a crime

To the bereaved family and interesting informative talk Let the Doughnut do the talk elatives we wish to extend our Mr G Heskin of the Beet But spare a thought for Sadie,

It's another lovely girl

Cheer up old scout cheer up

Cheer up-you'll soon be dead And reach the volden shore

That you came straight from Our Town Clock -As our Then hell open wide the golden welcome home Pray tell me hows the fishing

Likewise the New Town Clock Yanks Eye View Of Sadie So bo I hear your New Town Clock is busted up again. folks is feeling sore once ow way back home in Oskasi Springs our Clock is dead on time And boy oh boy Ill tell the world yu oughta hear her chime each minute means dollar With Sadie in the old Town Hall gee how the boys would holler

From six foot seven Jed Peters. to little Tommy Brow They d congregate and ruminate and decimate the town Pot-Pourn—It was quite a co-incidence that our "Prince Charming" found the missing shoe on Sunday night!!!
