Call On Government To Advertise In Provincial Press

At the All-Ireland Conference of the Typographical Association at which representatives from 32 counties attended the quesmum Prices Orders in provincial the following resolution was unanimously adopted 'That this conference views to have such advertisements in-scrted only in the daily news-papers in future We consider that this policy is detrimental to the interests of the citizens 5 What is Faience?

6 Why are butchers' aprons and Printing Industry in parisually blue?

1 The Constant State, and the New Parisually blue? precedent which may well have grave repercussions We would therefore request the Government to reconsider this matter and to continue to advertise in the provincial newspapers as

Referring to this question Aid Jas Sinnott Wexford intimated that the matter had been taken up with the responsible department and it would seem that advertisements were restricted on the grounds of econ-omy Discrimination of this kind was regrettable and he hoped the position would soon be rectified

Supporting the claim of the provincial press Mr J P For-ristal National Organiser spoke of the dangers of centralisation if applied to the printing indus-try Provincial newspapers had been experiencing exasperating difficulties in the matter of newsprint supply and high pro-duction roots over a leasthy duction costs over a lengthy period There was a danger that any addition to these difficulties might affect production in some cases, and thus lead to unemployment in the printing trade The provincial press had always given a special service both locally and nationally was appreciated and
