AGRICULTURAL IRELAND BEING IGNORED "—I.C.M.S.A.

Successful Meeting In Dungaryan.

"The Minister for Industry and Commerce stated recently in Wexford that industrial production in Ireland was all right but emphasised that agricultural production would have to action to improve conditions, then within a very short time be stepped up but the question then within a very short time that stands out in the minds of the land of Ireland would go every farmer is "If industrial for a premium production is all right then where is the need for the proproduction is all right then where is the need for the proposed Restrictive Trade Practices Bill?" Does the Minister viewed the achievements of the tices Bill?" Does the Minister viewed the achievements of the think we know nothing about Association He said that it was protective tariffs and their con-sequences on industrial life? Dairy Industry was a dying in-dustry If they wanted it to surenough to believe he is sincere in putting forward such a bill? as a united body He felt that during the coming year they in his proposals what a same would seem to surrate for the coming year, Mr, D in his proposals what about the rate for the coming year, Mr, D J.
