CHRISTMAS GREETINGS To my many readers far and young children of the parish in wide, I extend Seasonal Greet-the schoolhouse Here againings with the wish that for the event was an outstanding ings with the wish that for each one of you this Christmas will bring every happiness that it will bring unity and above all, the realisation of the great Cocasion's significance. To my many friends in hospital or ill at home I would like to send a special greeting May contentment be among their possessions on Christmas Day and all days, and may they soon step forward into the cheerful rays of the noonday's sunshine better than it is at the present own mobile unit now take part time I might add that this is in the association's scheme not just a singular case I found it in the Cappoquin area and in ANOTHER VERSION OF THE Ballinamult also

I will agree on a point made by the producers—that they are entitled to an economic price column has drawn my attention but I will state here without to the story of Ben Hail the fear of contradiction that 6 famous Australian Bushranger and 7 shillings a dozen is a of the 1860 s in which reference great deal more than economic is made to the singing of the —it is a fabulous price and far song now well-known and from Christian-like Sure, I popularly sung "The Wild here." it is a fabulous price and far song now well-known and from Christian-like Sure, I popularly sung "The Wild know the farming community Colonial Boy" will jump down my throat but This Australian version is may I point out to them in all somewhat different to the one honesty that we twonspeople which we have come to comhave to live too Our kids and monly accept and was sung alour sick folk have to depend on most 100 years ago around the large extent and if it fire in a bisbrangers camp and eggs to a large extent and if it fire in a bushrangers camp and is a thing that there is a goes as follows —
"fabricated scarcity" as I here and now allege then it is a shocking state of affairs would some of our ICA Guilds or YF Clubs care to make a statement? We towns folk would welcome it That Wild Colonial Boy"

THE ANGELS WHISPER
A baby was sleeping,
Its mother was weeping for her husband was far on the wild raging sea,
And the tempest was swelling,
Round the fisherman's dwelling,
And she cried, "Demot, darling, oh! come back to me"

Her beads while she numbered the baby still slumbered,
And smiled in her face as she bended her knee ment and Directors were wait-

The children were treated to tea and cakes a film show and stage entertainment and each received a gift parcel from Oh, pray to them softly my Santa, as well as a plentiful supply of minerals. Every fun associated with the Happy Season was provided and for the many kiddies it was certainly a whisnering with thee many kiddies it was certainly a memorable occasion

Among those present were members of the Community of St. Augustine's Priory, An Fear Mor, Mr and Mrs P A Casey Dr Ann Casey. (Directors) the Management and Staff

Macra in Feirme is obviously in a transitional stage. There is little doubt that within the next few years it will emerge as an organisation comparable with the National Farmers. Union of Great Britain. It will become the organ—I might almost say parliament—of working farmers of Ireland who will not merely be defending their says be defending their says be defending their not insert be defending their class inferest but will endeavour to advise the Government concerning the best method of carriing out their great responsibilities at the primary and most important producers in most important producers in the country. It is time indeed that the farmers broke away from irrelevant political shibboleths and concentrated semi-ously on their social and economic status in the community However to do this it would be I think, a mistake to move pre-Eighteen Students Receive maturely and to establish on Diplomas In Rural And paper an organisation without competent local leaders Hence the importance of these courses in Rural and Social Science which I hope to extend next October But as we cannot in this way reach to all parts of the countryside it is also imporfinancial stringency I think that
