August Week-end — The last seriously retarded and large bank holiday week-end of the current year proved an ideal one glorious sunshine being the order, hence a record crowd was the order and traffic on the roads especially to the seaside was one unending stream of cars all taking advantage of the ideal weather Saturday dawn-modern ones are doing grand ideal weather Saturday dawn-modern ones are doing grand ed bright and fair—giving work as could be seen in the promise of a fine week-end—but the pessimistic one said "It's low, thresh well and bind the only a pet day" Of course realising how often Mr stooking the whole programme Weatherman has let us down together (no more stooking, this year (a floribuse) this year (a glorious day of sunstacking drawing in threshing, shine being followed by torrenetc.) and can be aptly described tial rain) one was inclined to as a blessing in disguise First tial rain) one was inclined to believe and give in to the gloomy ones However Sunday belied their outlook while Monday followed suit and could only be described as perfect.

After last Mass on Sunday and by mid-day on Monday the Brideside town presented a deserted appearance—all were gone to the seaside and country while many racing enthusiasts headed for Mallow and Youghal for the annual races And so
