Wexford, 2—2, Waterrora, U—1

It was skating in new style at Waterford Gaelic field on Sunday last when Wexford short only two of their championship transferred to the provincial side, defeated Waterford by 2-2 to 0-1 in a National League tie football game that was literally soaked by heavy rain which had fallen continuously since early morning. The pitch became a quagmire, and players falling all over the place, wiped the many of whom rose to distinguished positions in later mud off their hands in pools of water.

Sisters While still very young she entered the Novitiate at Christchurch and in 1916 was transferred to the provincial house in Perth She taught most successfully for many years in one or other of the sisters schools in Western Australia and was greatly loved and respected by her pupils many of whom rose to distinguished positions in later life and were always glad to attribute their success to the inspiration and help they re-

Five minutes had elapsed when P Flynn had Waterford's ceived from their former only score J Roche equalised after ten minutes and shortly before the interval Lacey punched to the net A sideline free was seized by M Byrne, who shot low to the net soon after the resumption, and midway through this period T Roche scored from 40 yards out when the ball hopped on the way and over the bar linspiration and help they reduced from their former Rev Mother Mary St Hilaria was superior of the Provincial House in Perth when in 1951 she returned to Christchurch as Provincial superior there Unfortunately her health soon gave cause for anxiety, but she bore her sufferings with heroic tranquillity Throughout her long life as a devoted Religious
